Rise Up Against Abuse Rally at Andrews

March 7-10 on the campus of Andrews University

Campus News | Posted on February 21, 2019

By: Dominique Gummelt, director, University Wellness

From March 7–10, 2019, the Rise Up Against Abuse initiative will launch with a three-day RISE UP RALLY on the campus of Andrews University.

This new initiative is focused on taking action against all forms of abuse through awareness, education, intervention and prevention, and its main sponsors are the Offices of University Wellness and Diversity & Inclusion at Andrews University. Among other partners are enditnowNAD and Bucket Brigade Against Abuse.

The one-of-a-kind, three-day RALLY will feature many courageous abuse survivors, advocates and inspirational presenters, including two-time Grammy nominee Sarah Kelly and Emmy winning writer and filmmaker Chris Silber. RISE UP RALLY is honored to present The Solidarity Wall project, the Violence Against Women photo exhibition, workshops, trainings, presentations, expert panels and a special concert with Sarah Kelly and Jonas Ekman.

Register today for a chance to connect, share, learn, support each other and Rise Up Together!

For more information, please check out the website and connect with Rise Up Against Abuse via social media!