

Whitworth Digital Commons
Whitworth University

Correspondence and Documents

Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection

3-30-1955

Letter to Sonora Dodd from Lewis M. Davenport, Jr., March 30, 1955

Lewis M. Davenport, Jr.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-correspondence>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence and Documents by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

LEWIS M. DAVENPORT, JR.
ECHO HILL
LA HABRA, CALIFORNIA

March 30-55

Dear Mrs Dodd;

I was sorry to have missed seeing you when I was up in February but it was a business trip and time was short.

We appreciated your poems and thank you very much.

Here is my wording of the Four Freedoms.

- 1 Freedom of Speech
but not loose talk
- 2 Freedom from fear
but not lacking vigilance
- 3 Freedom from want
but not lazy parasites
- 4 Freedom of Religion
but not from Religion

Kathleen and Lewis III join me in love and a glorious Easter to you
Your sincere friend
Lewis

LEWIS M. DAVENPORT, JR.
EDMOND HILL
LA JOLLA, CALIFORNIA

Dear Mr. [Name];
I was sorry to have missed
seeing you when I was up in [Location]
but it was a business trip and time was short.

We appreciated your former and thank you very much.
Here is my number of the [Organization]

1. Treasurer of District
but not have talk
2. Treasurer from [Location]
but not having [Information]

3. Treasurer from [Location]
let not have [Information]
4. Treasurer of [Organization]
but not from [Location]

If there is any [Information] please we have and a pleasure [Information]
your [Information]
[Signature]

1955

Mrs. John B. Dodd
2208 E. Sprague
Spokane
Washington

LEWIS M. DAVENPORT, JR.
ECHO HILL
LA HABRA, CALIFORNIA