April 18, 1975

Dear Mrs. Dodd:

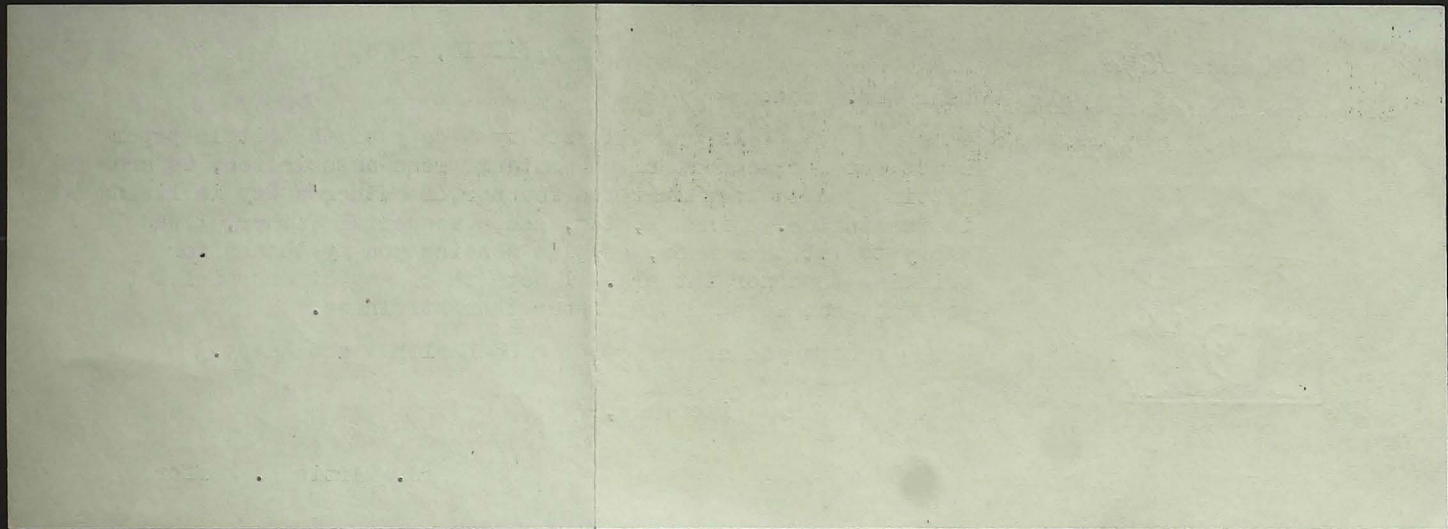

As you will see by a copy of the little paper I get out for members of an amateur press association, we are letting people know that the founder of Father's Day is living in Washington. Since I, too, had a wonderful father, I was happy to let them know, and I'm sending you my thanks for thinking to honor fathers. I hope that many others will let you know how we appreciate your thoughtfulness.

I hope you are enjoying good health & are happy.

Sincerely,

Willametta Keffer

(Mrs. Martin B. Keffer)
