Archives of the Daughters of Charity

Albany, New York Province

The following is an inventory of Vincentian and related materials preserved by the Northeast Province in the Provincial Archives located at DePaul Provincial House.

We have listed the letters, documents, and other unpublished materials in our repository. Many of these are photocopies of originals. Some of these are in French, Latin, or Spanish. We have translations of many of the French documents and letters.

The books and pamphlets listed here are ONLY those that we were unable to find in the previously published inventories.

6. APOSTOLIC WORKS OF THE PROVINCE

True to the philosophy of St. Vincent, the works of the Province opened to meet urgent needs of the time and continued, closed or were transferred to others as society and situation changed.

Between 1814 and 1960's the Sisters living in a mission were all involved in the work of the house. By 1970, the works of the older houses had begun to diversify and the new missions began with Sisters engaged in a variety of works.

A. EDUCATION

The collections of our schools vary greatly. All have an account of the opening, the names of the pioneers and a brief chronology. Those we have had for many years also have all or some of the following: constitutions, by-laws, certificates of accreditation, activities of the faculty and students, minutes of meetings, courses of instruction, a detailed chronology, history, programs, booklets, etc. of major events e.g. jubilees, new buildings etc. Correspondence, newspaper clippings, personnel lists (most 1968-1985 only), brochures, newspapers, yearbooks, and photographs. The records of children from the closed schools are located in the Diocesan School Office.

Dates indicate when the Daughters of Charity assumed the administration and withdrew:
