GGU4YOU

All students should ensure they are able to login to GGU4YOU, the university's Web-based student information system at www.ggu.edu. GGU4YOU is used for online registration, to obtain exam numbers and to view class schedules, grades and program evaluations. Students who do not know their user names or passwords should go to www.ggu.edu/law/ggu4you for assistance. Students who still are unable to login should send a message to help@ggu.edu requesting assistance.

Students are encouraged to utilize GGU4YOU for web registration, but the following transactions cannot be done online and will require submission of a paper form:

- First-year JD students will be assigned to course sections and their registration will be processed by the Registrar's Office for their first fall and spring terms. No form is required. Part-time JD students will also be enrolled in Constitutional Law I, Criminal Law & Property by the Registrar's Office for their second fall semester.
- Students will generally not be able to use Web registration for courses that require the approval of the associate dean, program director, or instructor for enrollment.
- Students enrolling in courses for which they have not completed the prerequisites at GGU will require the approval of the instructor or program director and will not be able to use Web registration for that course.
- JD students who need an approved waiver of rules to exceed the maximum units for their program type (16 units for students in full-time programs or 12 units for students in part-time programs) will not be able to enroll online for any units above the limit. For the summer term the maximum enrollment is 8 units regardless of academic program, except for HLP, and the Summer Trial & Evidence Program (1st STEP).

"Express Registration" is a faster way for students to register online than using the "Search and Register" page. Students can use this method to quickly add course sections to their "Preferred Sections List" if they already know exactly which ones they want. All course sections available for online registration include an "Xpress ID" number. The numbers are published in the Course Schedule and on the GGU Web site.

Once their registration has been processed, either online or manually, students may view the courses in which they are registered by selecting "My Course Schedule" from the "Student" menu in GGU4YOU.

PRIORITY REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Priority registration is available to all continuing students. Priority registration for JD students is made available, as indicated in the table below, based on the anticipated graduation date on record with the Registrar's Office when the priorities are assigned. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration via GGU4YOU at www.ggu.edu during the priority registration periods listed. Web registration will become available to eligible students in each group at 12:01 AM on the date listed. Students who encounter problems with online registration should contact the Law Registrar's Office at lawreg@ggu.edu with specific information on what message they received when they submitted their registration. Students who experience problems with online registration can always submit a paper Registration Request form, which can be downloaded from the law school website forms page.

Group Number	Priority Group Members	Priority registration start date
1	December 2011 JD graduation candidates, all LLM & SJD students	Wednesday, June 22
2	May 2012 and July 2012 JD graduation candidates	Wednesday, June 29
3	All other continuing Evening JD students	Wednesday, July 6
4	All other continuing JD students	Friday, July 8

The Law School Registrar's Office staff will process paper registration forms that have been received during the same priority registration periods that Web registration is made available to each group of students.

Forms are processed in random order, not in the order received, and forms submitted in person will not be processed before those that are mailed or before online registration. Students using paper registration forms should obtain any necessary approvals before submitting the form; not doing so may delay the student's registration.

Statements of Charges will be mailed to all students who register via paper form. Statements are not automatically mailed to students who use Web registration, but are available upon request from the Registrar's and Financial Aid Offices.

GENERAL REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Processing during General Registration July 13 – August 12, 2011 is on a first-come, first-served basis. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration via GGU4YOU at www.ggu.edu if they are not precluded from doing so. Students who experience any problems with online registration may always submit a paper registration form, which can be downloaded from the law school website forms page. After registering for a course, if a student decides not to take it, the student is responsible for dropping the course, with prior approval if approval is required, either by using GGU4YOU or by submitting a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office. Students may view their current course schedule under "My Course Schedule" from the "Student" menu in GGU4YOU to verify that any schedule changes have been made.

DEADLINES FOR SCHEDULE CHANGES	August 19, 2011:	to add without the instructor's written approval
	August 26, 2011:	to drop without tuition charge, or "W" grade

Fees are non-refundable on or after the first day of the term, Monday, August 15, 2011.

OFFICE HOURS	Law School Registrar's Office (Room 3310)
	Monday – Thursday, 10:00 AM – 6:30 PM
	Friday, 9:00 AM – 5:30 PM

ALL STUDENTS MUST REGISTER BY 6:30 PM ON FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 2011. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT REGISTER BY THIS DEADLINE MAY BE CHARGED A $100 LATE REGISTRATION FEE.

REGISTRATION – VISITING STUDENTS/AUDITORS

Registration for visiting students, non-degree candidates, and auditors for the fall term is available August 8-12, 2011. Students in these groups are not allowed to use Web registration. Students in these categories, once they are registered, will receive an e-mail providing access information for GGU4YOU, the University's interface to the administrative database, which they can use to view their schedule and grades, obtain their exam ID number or update contact information. For more information, see www.ggu.edu/law/schedules and click on "Registration Policies". Visiting students are subject to the same academic and administrative policies while here as GGU students and should familiarize themselves with the current Student Handbook which can be found online at www.ggu.edu/law under Law Student Services.

WAIVER OF JD PROGRAM RULES

All JD students are enrolled in either a "full-time" or "part-time" academic program. Full-time students may enroll in a maximum of 16 units per fall or spring semester, as long as they comply with the ABA employment limitations set forth in ABA Standard 304(f) as described on page 10. Part-time students may enroll in a maximum of 12 units per fall or spring semester. Students in both types of programs may enroll in a maximum of 8 units in the summer session, except for students studying abroad, students in the Summer Trial & Evidence Program (1st STEP), and those in the Honors Lawyering Program (HLP). Non-GGU summer programs are limited to 6 units. Students who want to enroll in overload units for their program types must first complete a Petition for Waiver of JD Program Rules form and submit it to the director for student services for approval. Registration for overload units will not be processed unless the approved petition form is on file with the Law School Registrar's Office. Students requiring a waiver of rules may not register for overload units online via GGU4YOU. Please note that these enrollment maximums do not relate to the requirements for eligibility for financial aid or VA benefits. Financial aid and VA benefit eligibility is based on students' term enrollment status classifications, not their program types (see page 10).

WAIT-LIST INFORMATION

When a course section is full, students who request enrollment may be wait-listed for that section. Students who are on a wait-list are not enrolled in the course and are not charged for it until or unless a seat becomes available and they add the course.

Wait-listed students will be notified by e-mail if a seat in the course section becomes available before the first day of instruction for the term. This message will be sent to the e-mail address on file with the Registrar's Office. Because there may be other students eager to enroll, a time limit will be set for the notified student to add the course. Students who are notified there is a seat available may add the course via GGU4YOU if they have no restrictions that would prevent them from doing so, or they may submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office, or email lawreg@ggu.edu and say that they want to accept the seat that has been offered. If a student does not add the course by the deadline given, their permission to enroll will expire and they will be removed from the wait-list.

Once instruction for the term has begun, the wait-list no longer applies and students may enroll in a wait-listed course only with the instructor's approval.

It is recommended that wait-listed students attend the first class meeting and bring a Schedule Change Request form. Some instructors will not accept students who have missed the first class meeting without an excused absence. Sometimes instructors will allow wait-listed students to enroll if there are additional seats available in the classroom, but the capacity of some sections may be limited by other considerations. If the instructor will sign a student's Schedule Change Request form, and there is space in the classroom, the student may be enrolled regardless of the student's wait-list status.

Students who are wait-listed for a course and have decided not to enroll in it should remove themselves from the wait-list online or by notifying the Law School Registrar's Office at lawreg@ggu.edu as soon as possible to allow other students a better opportunity.

STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE

All law students are required to have health insurance. Students who are already enrolled in a health insurance plan providing comparable benefits may waive participation in the Law School health insurance plan by submitting an online waiver application. The waiver is effective for one academic year, fall 2011-summer 2012. The opt-out period for fall is June 1-August 19, 2011. For students who have not opted out, the health insurance fee will be charged to your account at registration for fall and for spring. The fee charged with spring registration covers the spring and summer terms. Graduate legal studies students who are enrolled in 3 units or less per semester are exempt from the health insurance requirement, however, they will need to submit a waiver verifying their enrollment status. The student health insurance plan may be extended to students not enrolled in classes due to an approved leave of absence, visiting away at another school, or HLP students working at an approved apprenticeship. For more information see the law school website under Law Student Services or the Student Handbook.

SPECIAL MATERIALS & LITIGATION PROGRAM SUPPORT FEES

The School of Law assesses Special Materials fees in courses that require excessive amounts of duplicated materials.

These fees are also charged in courses that involve regular use of extra audio-visual equipment, rental of off-campus facilities or use of the Moot Court Room. With respect to courses in the Litigation Program, the following fee schedule has been designed to distribute the costs among program participants:

Litigation Course	Fee
Trial Advocacy	$52.50
Basic Skills/Substantive Courses	$21.00
Advanced Trial Advocacy	$52.50
Advanced Skills/Practicum Courses	$10.50

The Trial Advocacy fee will defray the extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist with the course.

The Advanced Trial Advocacy fee will defray extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist in evaluating student work.

Notes on fees

1. In the event that a litigation course may also require duplication of special materials, the cost of the special materials will be added to the litigation program support fee.
2. All fees will appear on the students' Statement of Charges.
3. Fees are non-refundable effective on the first day of instruction for the term. When a student drops a course that has a Special Materials Fee after that date, the student may receive a credit for the Special Materials Fee only if the course is dropped on or before Friday, August 26, 2011. The special materials must be returned by the same date in an unused condition to Associate Dean Greg Egertson. If these conditions are met, Dean Egertson will approve the request for a credit for the Special Materials Fee and will instruct Student Accounting Services to make an account adjustment.

A list of courses that have a special materials fee is posted on the law school website Registrar's Office Bulletin Board.

OBLIGATION FOR PAYMENT

Registration constitutes a financial contract between students and the university. Students' rights to university services and benefits are contingent upon making payments as agreed. Students who fail to make payments when they become due may have their registration canceled, services withheld, and may be refused admittance to exams. Also, failure to fulfill payment obligations is reportable to relevant bar admission agencies.

In order to complete registration, law school students must either pay all of tuition and fees within five (5) business days of the start of the term (or at the time of registration if registering after the first week of the term), or select one of the other approved payment options. Information on payment methods can be found online through the law school website or on the back of the Statement of Charges. The payment deadline for the fall 2011 term is Friday, August 19, 2011.

Student Accounting Services (SAS) may place a hold on the records of students whose accounts are not current, and they will not be allowed to register without the authorization of SAS. Holds also may be placed on students' records by other offices such as the Law School Registrar's Office or International Student Services, if there are issues that must be resolved before registration. If there is a hold on a student's account, that student will not be allowed to register until the office that instituted the hold has removed or waived it.

JD STUDENTS WITH ADVISING REQUIREMENTS

Students who have been informed that they must have their schedules approved prior to registration must follow these steps:

1. Review the semester course schedule and scheduling notes, list of required and recommended courses, and any additional requirements as imposed by the Academic Standards Committee or Law Student Services. Students may confirm their requirements by viewing their program evaluation report. See Academic Program Evaluation Report section on page 9, for instructions for viewing your report.
2. Make an appointment with the associate dean or director for student services by visiting Law Student Services or calling 442-6615. Please schedule an appointment for at least three school days prior to the start of your priority registration period.
3. Bring a completed Advising Agreement form to your appointment for approval. Once the form has been approved, the Registrar's Office will be instructed to grant you access to Web registration. Any changes to your schedule must be consistent with the parameters discussed with Law Student Services.
4. Register for courses online. See the Law School Web Registration Instructions for step-by-step instructions.

Students who complete these steps in a timely fashion will maximize their course selection and scheduling options.

JD STUDENT ACADEMIC ADVISING NOTES

Fall 2010 full-time admits (with the exception of students in the HLP program) are required to take Constitutional Law I in the fall 2011 semester. Constitutional Law II is to be taken in the spring 2012 semester. Students are advised to take at least 3 required courses in their fall 2011 semester including: Constitutional Law I, Evidence or another 4-unit class, Criminal Procedure I, and/or Appellate Advocacy to the extent that there is room in the fall sections (see note #4 on page 22). Note that all Fall 2010 admits MUST take Appellate Advocacy in the fall or spring of their second year.

Fall 2010 HLP admits are encouraged, but not required, to enroll in 3-5 units during their fall apprenticeships. HLP students may add a sixth unit only with the written approval of the HLP administrative director, so long as they are not enrolled in more than two classroom courses. Students engaged in a full-time apprenticeship may never enroll in more than six (6) units.

Fall 2010 part-time admits must enroll in 8-12 units which must include Constitutional Law I, Property, and Criminal Law in the fall 2011 semester. Students will be required to take Constitutional Law II and are recommended to take Evidence in the spring 2012 semester. Part-time students seeking to take 11 units in the fall term are advised to take Appellate Advocacy (see note #4 on page 22). Note that all fall 2010 admits MUST take Appellate Advocacy in the fall or spring of their second year. Fall 2010 part-time evening students will be enrolled in the night sections of Constitutional Law, Criminal Law and Property by the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to seek academic advising from the Director or Associate Dean for Student Services.

Students who decide not to enroll in the fall 2011 term must complete a Withdrawal from Law School form, or Request for Leave of Absence form. In addition, if they have already registered, they must drop their courses via GGU4YOU or submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office by Friday, August 26, 2011, to withdraw from courses and receive a full refund of tuition charges. Term fees are non-refundable once the term has started on Monday, August 15.

Upon completion of their first year, students are expected to select their own schedules, and they are encouraged to sign up for an academic advising appointment in Law Student Services to plan their academic careers. Students must complete 88 units to graduate. Students are advised to consult the Schedules & Course Descriptions section of the Student Handbook for additional information and assistance at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM EVALUATION REPORT

The Registrar's Office maintains the Law School's academic program requirements in the student information system. Academic program requirements include required GPAs, required total units, required courses, conditions imposed by the Academic Standards Committee, and the number of elective units needed. Students can view their academic program evaluation report on the Web using GGU4YOU. It is a useful tool for schedule planning prior to registration. To view their reports, students should login to GGU4YOU, click on the "Student" tab and from the menu select "Evaluate Degree Programs". When students have registered for their last term, their report status should say "Pending (Anticipated complete)". Students with questions may visit the Registrar's Office, room 3310, or call us at 415-442-6620.

INCOMPLETE COURSES

Where exigent circumstances arise that prevent a student from fulfilling the requirements of a course by the end of the term, the student may submit a Petition for Incomplete Course. To receive approval for an incomplete, JD students must obtain the approval of the director for student services, and LLM and SJD students must obtain the approval of their program director. The instructor's approval also is required for courses NOT graded by a final exam. JD students should immediately consult with the associate dean or director for student services should they feel the need to petition for an incomplete. For more information on petitioning for an incomplete course, please refer to the Student Handbook which can be found on the law school website at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook.

If a student's petition for an incomplete course is successful, the student should not drop the course.

Students who are completing a course by re-enrolling should not register for the course again. Instead, they should submit a Notice of Intent to Complete Course form to the Law School Registrar's Office. Upon receipt of that form, students will be enrolled in their preferred course section, provided there is room, at no tuition charge. Units for courses students are completing under this policy at no tuition charge are not included in calculating their cost of attendance for financial aid purposes. Students who are enrolling only in courses they are attempting to complete, and who are not enrolling in any new courses, will be charged the fees for the term, but no tuition.

EFFECT OF INCOMPLETE COURSES ON GRADUATION

If a student has an outstanding incomplete course at the end of the term after which they intend to graduate, he or she must resolve it by the deadline indicated below or the student's graduation will be postponed until the term in which the course is completed. The deadline for resolving an incomplete grade before it is changed to a "W" for "Withdrawn" is not altered by these deadlines.

ENROLLMENT STATUS CLASSIFICATIONS FOR FINANCIAL AID PURPOSES

The Law School classifies students' enrollment status based on academic level and the number of units in which they are enrolled in a given term. These enrollment status classifications are used for verification of enrollment for loan deferment purposes and for financial aid eligibility. It is possible for part-time evening students to be enrolled in 12 units and therefore be classified as full-time for financial aid purposes.

Fall & Spring terms	Overload	Full-time	Three-quarter Time*	Half-time	Less than half time
JD Students	17 units or more	12-16 units	9-11 units	6-11 units	5 units or less

JD STUDENT EMPLOYMENT LIMITATIONS

ABA Standard 304(f) prohibits JD students from being employed in excess of 20 hours per week during any week in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 semester units. (Hours worked for clinic credit are not counted towards the 20 hours.) The School of Law prohibits first year full-time students from being employed at all. Failure to comply with these requirements may be considered a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct. Full-time upper division students who anticipate that they will be employed more than 20 hours per week during the semester must request a change to the part-time academic program.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act affords students certain rights with respect to the privacy of their education records. One of the rights under FERPA is the right to request non-disclosure of "directory information" without written authorization. For more detailed information about what the university classifies as "Directory Information" or about students' rights under FERPA, and to obtain a privacy request form, see the university's website at www.ggu.edu/about/UniversityPolicies/PrivacyPolicy, or go to the Department of Education website at www.ed.gov, or refer to 34 CFR 99.

TEXTBOOK INFORMATION

Textbook/course material information for fall courses, including title, author, and ISBN number will be available at the "View Materials" link in the online course schedule on the section detail page for each course section.

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Every term, changes are made to the course schedule after it is published. Courses may be added or canceled, class meeting days or times may be changed and instructors' names may be entered. Changes made after the course schedule is published will be posted in a running list as a PDF document on the course schedule page for the term on the law school website http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_records_registration/class_schedules.

After the course schedule is posted on the website, the online schedule will be updated as changes are made. Consequently, the online schedule will be the most current.

CLASSROOM ASSIGNMENTS

Classroom assignments are not included in the published schedule because classrooms may change. While room assignments may be printed on a students' Statement of Charges, students should be aware that classrooms are subject to change. Students should check the lists posted on the 2nd and 3rd floors at the start of the term to verify classroom assignments. After the start of the term, classroom changes will be posted outside the room from which the course section is being moved and on the Registrar's bulletin board in the 3rd floor West corridor. Students enrolled in the class will be notified of changes by email on the day before, whenever possible.

FALL 2011 COURSE PLANNING GUIDE

Below is a course-planning guide for the fall 2011 term that specifies dates when classes are in session as well as holidays, make-up days, recesses and examination periods.

For purposes of planning fall 2011 classes, please be aware of the following:

1. The fall 2011 term contains 14 complete weeks of instruction.
2. Regularly scheduled classes DO NOT MEET on the following holidays:
Labor Day Holiday Monday, September 5
3. In order to make-up the missed class periods due to holidays, the following make-up days have been scheduled within the fall 2011 term.

Monday, November 21 Make-up for the Labor Day Holiday, September 5 (Monday classes meet)

Note: Make-up days listed above do not apply to courses offered in the LLM in Taxation Program.

5. Final examination period: Tuesday, November 29, through Saturday, December 10, 2011.

See the LLM in Taxation fall 2011 Schedule of Courses on page 20 for dates of final exams for courses in that program.

FALL 2011 NEW COURSES COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LAW 897C Civil Litigation: Depositions (3 units)

This course focuses on the practical and theoretical aspects of preparing for and taking depositions in civil cases. Over the course of the semester, students learn deposition strategies and questioning techniques using a variety of simulations to provide students with a wide array of contexts. Special emphasis is given to deposing hostile witnesses. The course is designed to give students continual practice and feedback in order to maximize skill-development. Co-requisite: Evidence.

LAW 715C Real Estate Transactions (2 units)

The purchase of a home represents the most important financial transaction in their lives for most Americans. (It is also one of the topics most frequently covered on the bar exam.) This course goes through the steps of a real estate "deal" from beginning to end, covering the roles of brokers and attorneys, drafting of contracts, dealing with physical and title defects, closing of escrow, priorities (i.e., ranking of claims against the property), title insurance, mortgage financing, and income tax consequences. The course is a prerequisite for Real Estate Finance, and a co-requisite for the Externship: Real Estate clinic and for the Advanced Real Estate Transactions and Real Estate Litigation Seminars. Prerequisite: Property (4 units)

LAW 810A Spanish for Lawyers (2 units)

The class is conducted entirely in Spanish. The goal is to assist students who already speak the language with some facility (either because they are native-speakers, or were raised in bilingual families, or lived in a Spanish-speaking country, or studied Spanish in high school and/or college) to develop a repertoire of legal vocabulary and phrases that will benefit them in their professional lives during and after law school. A secondary, but very significant, goal is to expose students to historical/social/cultural/class issues that might arise in their interactions with or representation of Spanish-speaking clients.

The course is built around readings, exercises, and presentations in some or all of the following doctrinal areas: Constitutional Law, Family Law, Immigration Law, Criminal Law, Anti-Discrimination Law, Housing Law, International Human Rights Law, Environmental Law, Employment Law, and Civil Rights Law.

Each week students are responsible for completing readings in Spanish of court opinions, journal articles, newspaper stories, and other materials on the subject of the week. These readings serve as the basis of the guided discussions that take place in each class session.

In addition, each student is responsible for planning at least one oral presentation. All students are also involved in doing weekly mini-presentations, role-playing exercises (lawyer-client, for example), and/or oral exercises.

The instructor will also make available materials on grammar and syntax and, where needed, will spend some class time on relevant language exercises.

Course descriptions for active courses are available on the GGU Law School website at www.ggu.edu/law/courses

FALL 2011 SCHEDULING NOTES

Classes starting at or after 4:00 p.m. and ending before 6:30 p.m. are considered both DAY and NIGHT division classes and are listed in both sections of the line schedule.

- 1. INDEPENDENT STUDY/DIRECTED STUDY/THESIS - These are all independent study courses: Independent Study in the JD program (1-2 units), and Directed Study (1-3 units) or Thesis (4-6 units) in the LLM programs. Please see the course descriptions online for more information; JD Independent Study Guidelines are included in the downloadable course syllabus and are available from Law Student Services. Interested students must complete a Petition for Independent Study form which requires approvals by the faculty member supervising the project and the Director for Law Student Services or the Director of their LLM program. Petition for Independent Study forms are available online or at the Law Registrar's Office. The signed petition form should be submitted with a Schedule Change Request form to enroll in this course. JD students may enroll in only one Independent Study per semester and may earn a maximum of 4 units in Independent Study.
- 2. HLP INDEPENDENT STUDY - This 1-unit course is open only to students in the Honors Lawyering Program who are completing their apprenticeship outside the Bay Area and who need an extra unit for financial aid purposes. All rules and procedures regarding Independent Study apply to this course.
- 3. PRACTICAL LEGAL WRITING - Absent exigent circumstances, students are required to take this course during their final semester of law school. This course includes regular class meetings, as well as four required examinations over the course of the semester. Three of these exams are three hours in length. One three-hour exam is a take-home exam and the other two are administered on Saturdays, October 22 and November 19. The law school's policy regarding rescheduling exams will apply. Students who receive exam accommodations, or who cannot take the examination at the scheduled time for a reason permitted under the Student Handbook rules on rescheduling, should notify the Exam Coordinator at (415) 369-5201, or lawexam@ggu.edu, by the reschedule deadline to request that proper arrangements be made. The Registrar will assign students to sections within the day/time requested and students may not transfer between sections.
- 4. APPELLATE ADVOCACY - This second year course must be taken during the third or fourth semester of law school. Class sections are limited to 12 students each, so students are advised to register early. Students enrolling in this course should keep Neumann & Simon, Legal Writing (first year text) and the ALWD Citation Manual. Prior to the first class, students must sign on to the course TWEN site (through Westlaw). The password is AppAdFall2011. PLEASE NOTE that the Registrar will assign students to a particular class section on the day and time requested subject to space availability, and that once assigned students may not transfer between sections. Students should not take Appellate Advocacy with the instructor with whom they had first year Writing & Research. If that should be found to be the case the student will be moved to a different section scheduled at the same time. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT ATTEND THE FIRST CLASS MEETING WILL BE ADMINISTRATIVELY WITHDRAWN FROM THE COURSE. Students who need to petition for an incomplete must do so prior to the date that the final brief is due. Please contact Professor Rose (lrose@ggu.edu), Director of the Advanced Legal Writing Program, with any questions about the course content or schedule.
- 5. LEGAL METHODS is required for certain second year students as set forth in the Student Handbook. Students who are required to take Legal Methods in the fall term will be notified by the Academic Standards Committee. Students who would like to elect to take the class may do so on a space-available basis, as long as they have the permission of a Law Student Services advisor or the Director of the Academic Development Program.

6. For each unit earned, students must work 45 hours at an approved placement, in addition to attending the clinic seminar.

Mandatory attendance at clinic seminar:

The seminar for each clinic meets at least seven (7) times and more frequently at the discretion of the instructor and attendance is mandatory.

How and when to register:

Specific timing of the writing competition will be announced before the end of the spring semester. Students who will have completed 30 units of first-year required courses by the end of the spring semester (full-time first-year or part-time second-year students), are eligible to participate in the writing competition or to be invited to join by virtue of class ranking. Membership requires a two year commitment.

Members who are completing their first year on Law Review must sign up for LAW 861A Law Review Writer (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Members who are completing their second year on Law Review, but who are not on the Law Review Board, must sign up for LAW 861C Law Review Associate Editors (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Registration for this course must be done on paper and requires the signature of the Editor-in-Chief.

If exigent circumstances prevent students from fulfilling their Law Review commitment, students may substitute the Independent Study course for Law Review units by notifying the Law Review Editor-in-Chief and submitting a Schedule Change Request form (dropping Law Review and adding Independent Study) and a Petition for Independent Study form to the Registrar's Office. The student must find a faculty adviser to supervise the Independent Study, and have the faculty adviser and the Director for Law Student Services sign the Petition for Independent Study form. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in Law Review. The student's transcript will note withdrawal from Law Review.

23. ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL (ELJ) - Membership on ELJ is determined in two ways: by first year grades for day students and second year grades for night students (top 15%) or through an application process held every April. Mandatory seminar sessions of not more than 12 hours will be scheduled during the first semester of membership. Registering for ELJ requires a one-year commitment. Grading for ELJ is on a credit/no credit basis.

ELJ Writers must register for LAW 862A ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS I (2 units) in their first semester and for LAW 862B ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS II (1 unit) in their second semester of membership.

ELJ Editorial Board Members must register for LAW 862D ELJ EDITORIAL BOARD (1-2 units/first semester, 1-2 units/second semester with the unit value depending on position). Registration for this course must be done on paper and requires the signature of the Editor-in-Chief.

If exigent circumstances prevent students from fulfilling their ELJ commitment, students may substitute the Independent Study course for ELJ units with permission of the ELJ Editor-in-Chief and must submit a Schedule Change Request form (dropping ELJ and adding Independent Study) and a Petition for Independent Study form to the Registrar's Office. The student must find a faculty adviser to supervise the Independent Study, and have the faculty adviser and the Director for Law Student Services sign the Petition for Independent Study form. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in the Environmental Law Journal. The student's transcript will note withdrawal from ELJ.

The mock trial competitions require weeks of preparation, but are typically completed by November 7th for the fall term or April 7th for the spring. After the first class, any student wishing to enroll will need the signature of the instructor. Attendance at the first class is mandatory. Students not present will be administratively dropped from the class. Students on the 'wait list' for this course are encouraged to attend the first class because there are occasional opportunities to obtain the seat of someone who is dropped from the course.

27. TRIAL ADVOCACY - Although Evidence is listed as a prerequisite for Trial Advocacy, and that is preferred, the two courses also may be taken concurrently.

Students enrolling or planning to enroll in Trial Advocacy should be aware that attendance at the first class meeting is mandatory. ADVANCE EXAM RESCHEDULING

Students requesting an advance rescheduling of examinations must submit an Exam Rescheduling Form to the exam coordinator in Room 3342 by 6:30 P.M. Friday, November 4, 2011, and then only under the following circumstances:

- i. A student has two School of Law examinations that are scheduled to start within a 23-hour period (not including take home exams and first-year midterms);

FALL 2011 SCHEDULE OF FINAL EXAMS

- ii. A student has three School of Law examinations on three consecutive days (not including take home exams);
- iii. A student's religious beliefs prohibit the taking of an examination at the scheduled time;
- iv. Student participation in a law school competition or course work for which the student is receiving academic credit.

The examination coordinator will determine which exam to move in the case of situation 1 or 2, above. If more than one exam is rescheduled, the exams normally are kept in the same order.

Exams will not be rescheduled for vacations, airplane tickets, family events, business conflicts, or conferences. In addition, School of Law exams will not be rescheduled due to conflicts with exams at other law schools or other programs in the university.

Exceptions to this policy might be granted (with timely and appropriate documentation) for the wedding of an immediate family member (parent, sibling, child) IF the student has a role in the ceremony AND the student has a direct time conflict.

Students are prohibited from discussing exam reschedule requests with their instructors. All exam reschedule requests or questions must be directed to the examination coordinator.

(See the on-line Student Handbook Examination Procedures for further information.)

Students may request a decision on an exam rescheduling question before registering or before the last day to drop for 100% tuition refund.

ExamSoft

All students are eligible to take their exams on their laptop. No additional registration or fee is necessary, but, the software must be installed prior to the student's first exam date. For minimum system requirements, go to www.examsoft.com/ggulaw. Installation and login instructions will be posted in Law School News and on the Law School website. All other communications will be sent through the email address on file with the Law Registrar. Please confirm that this address is working and correct. For any questions or technical assistance, please contact the Exam Coordinator at 415.369.5201 or lawexam@ggu.edu.
