4:30pm

Special Screening of Cruz Reynoso: Sowing the Seeds of Justice

Abby Ginzberg’s compelling new film documents the remarkable life and struggles of Cruz Reynoso, child of farmworkers, leader in the fight to eradicate discrimination, victor in the battle to save California Rural Legal Assistance, and the first Latino to serve on the Supreme Court of California. Following the screening, a distinguished panel will focus on the accelerating challenges to the independence of today’s courts and the survival of our most vital civil rights organizations.

5:30pm

Panel Discussion with Special Guests
