

Metropol Parasol

case study
By Alison Andrew

Location: Seville, Spain

Architect: J. Mayer H. Architects

Owner: City of Seville

Year of completion: 2011

Climate: Mediterranean

Material of interest: Wood

Application: Exterior Cladding and Structure

Properties of material: Wood planning panels with a polyurethane coating are intersected together to form parasols and canopies on the site.

Sources:

Architect Website: <http://www.jmayerh.de/>

<http://famousbuildingsoftheworld.blogspot.com/2011/05/worlds-largest-wooden-structure.html>

<http://www.designboom.com/architecture/j-mayer-h-architects-metropol-parasol-now-complete/>