Foreword

The Max Kade Center for Contemporary German Literature was founded in 1984 at Washington University in St. Louis by Paul Michael Lützeler, Rosa May Distinguished University Professor in the Humanities. The Center promotes teaching and research of modern German literature through the University Libraries' Contemporary German Literature Collection. The largest of its kind in North America, this distinctive collection of monographs and literary journals is housed in the John M. Olin Library.

As the Collection outgrew its original location on level A, it has been relocated to level B in the call number range PT2660-PT2728. Materials are made available to scholars at other universities via interlibrary loan. In addition, faculty, students, and the general public can utilize collection materials in person.

New Collection Sign on Level B

Each year, Washington University's Germanic Languages and Literatures Department, in cooperation with the University Libraries, compiles a bibliography of items added the previous year. Organized by author or editor, entries include local call numbers as well as subject and genre descriptors. Additional information, including links to summaries and reviews, can be found in the Libraries' Catalog (<http://catalog.wustl.edu>). Current and past issues of the bibliography are available at <http://german.wustl.edu/kade/bibliography>.

This 29th issue of the Bibliography includes entries for over 585 volumes published in 2015. These acquisitions include novels, poetry, short story collections, essays, autobiographical works, and literary and cultural periodicals from publishers in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland.

I hope you find this bibliography helpful. Additional information about the Collection can be found at <http://libguides.wustl.edu/contemporarygermanliteraturecollection> and at the web page for the Max Kade Center for Contemporary German Literature (<http://german.wustl.edu/kade>). Please don't hesitate to contact me with questions or suggestions about the Bibliography or the Collection.
