Our Voices

We reach out to our readers in this second issue of Dissenting Voices and invite you to engage with us in the production of new knowledge and resistance. Our voices continue the commitment to inclusive community building and feminist activism boldly envisioned and initiated by the founders of Dissenting Voices.

The multiple subjectivities enacting our dissent constitute both the charged atmosphere of creativity and interdisciplinary within our topics of abortion, body image, motherhood, interrogation of community in Women and Gender Studies, and media objectification and sexual assault.

This broad array of work represents the continuity of our overlapping commitments to social justice. Our collaboration on this journal is marked by solidarity and negotiation uniting feminist research, praxis, theory and our lived experiences across difference and multiple intersecting forces of oppression.
