Our Voices

In declaration, we come together, calling for all who experience the intersection of oppressions to have the opportunity to claim and use their own Voices. We dissent! Our work looks to empower others through education and awareness across a range of topics including sexuality, race, education, ability, class, and nationality. We include all people in our quest to build a community based on equality and diversity as we continue the mission of Dissenting Voices through our own feminist research and activism.
