

Raymond Baird

Whose Bones are These Abstract

The topic of this presentation will be on the preliminary findings of my independent study which is focusing on skeletal and archaeological remains obtained by my family a hundred years ago in Geneseo, New York. The presentation will look at the history of the region they were found and what was discovered by analyzing the remains and stone tools.