Lady luck

Purchased for thousands at an upstate flea market, it sold in 1989 for over $4 million, today it would fetch more than $20 million

Ferrarese Italian master Dosso Dossi, circa 1530 Dosso's message seems to be that prosperity in life is transitory and dependent on luck. The nude woman represents Fortune, or Lady Luck. She holds a cornucopia, flaunting the bounty that she could bring, but sits on a bubble because her favors are often fleeting.
