ALPHA CHI RHO 1987

VALENTINE'S DAY DANCE

The King, John Gilfedder and his Queen, Katrina Liendecker

The second annual Alpha Chi Rho Valentine's Dance was a chance for many students to get dressed up, eat a good meal and party down — all at the same time. Dressing up is something students rarely get to do in a small town such as Brockport. Approximately 40 couples and several single people attended the dinner dance which was relatively calm until the music started and one guest began to lip sync to Lionel Richie's "Truly". The King and Queen of the dance were announced at about 11pm; although many were disappointed that they were not chosen, the festivities continued.

HART HITS BROCKPORT

Former presidential candidate Gary Hart mapped out what the nation must do to restructure its sagging economy, at a lecture in the Gymnasium in Tuttle North on October 6.

At the lecture, attended by mostly political science students, Hart suggested many solutions including limiting the amount of money the U.S. borrows and increasing non-income tax revenues.

On a personal note, Hart claims that he is fed up with politics and feels that candidates should be judged on their views, not their personalities or who has the best media consultant.
