A year in the life of a student at Assumption . . .

... What do you remember? ... Look back to Guys and Gals, Hits and Misses, Cliques, Trinity members ...

... Bud-Buds, Heart Throbs, Associates,
Jocks, Preppies, Hoseheads, Roommates
Messes of the Week, Spikers, Scoopers, Partyers ...

... Remember all the times you wished you could have handed in your desk at exam time, Agreeing and disagreeing with professors ...

... a semester of "Can you see that?" and "Ya . . . O.K. . . . Right!" . . . Snow Bans, Moving cars at midnight, being locked out of your room without a key

... Blue Jeans and Chris's pizza delivering to you in a blizzard or rainstorm, the night before Gov. Ed
King changed the drinking age ...

... the "Leit's" disease, spur-of-the-moment trips to the packy, your last beer and the party is just beginning .

... Final exams and ninety percent relative humidity, getting that A . . .

... Joe Hagan's smile,
Assumptionists, the campus radio station before it went history ...

... Campus movies, the Texas Chainsaw Massacre and Ordinary People, Midge ...

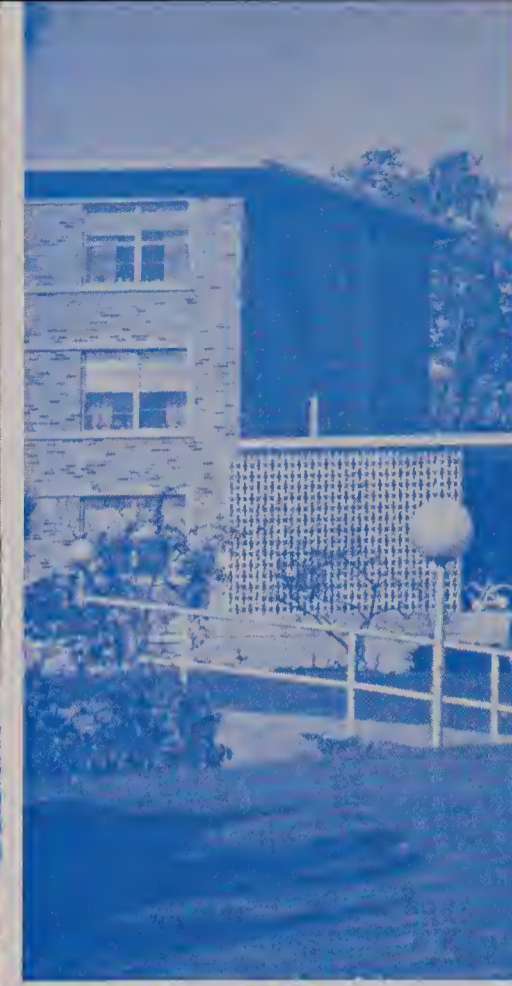

... Getting a tan at the duck pond, the infamous A-Dorm .
and Progressive parties ...

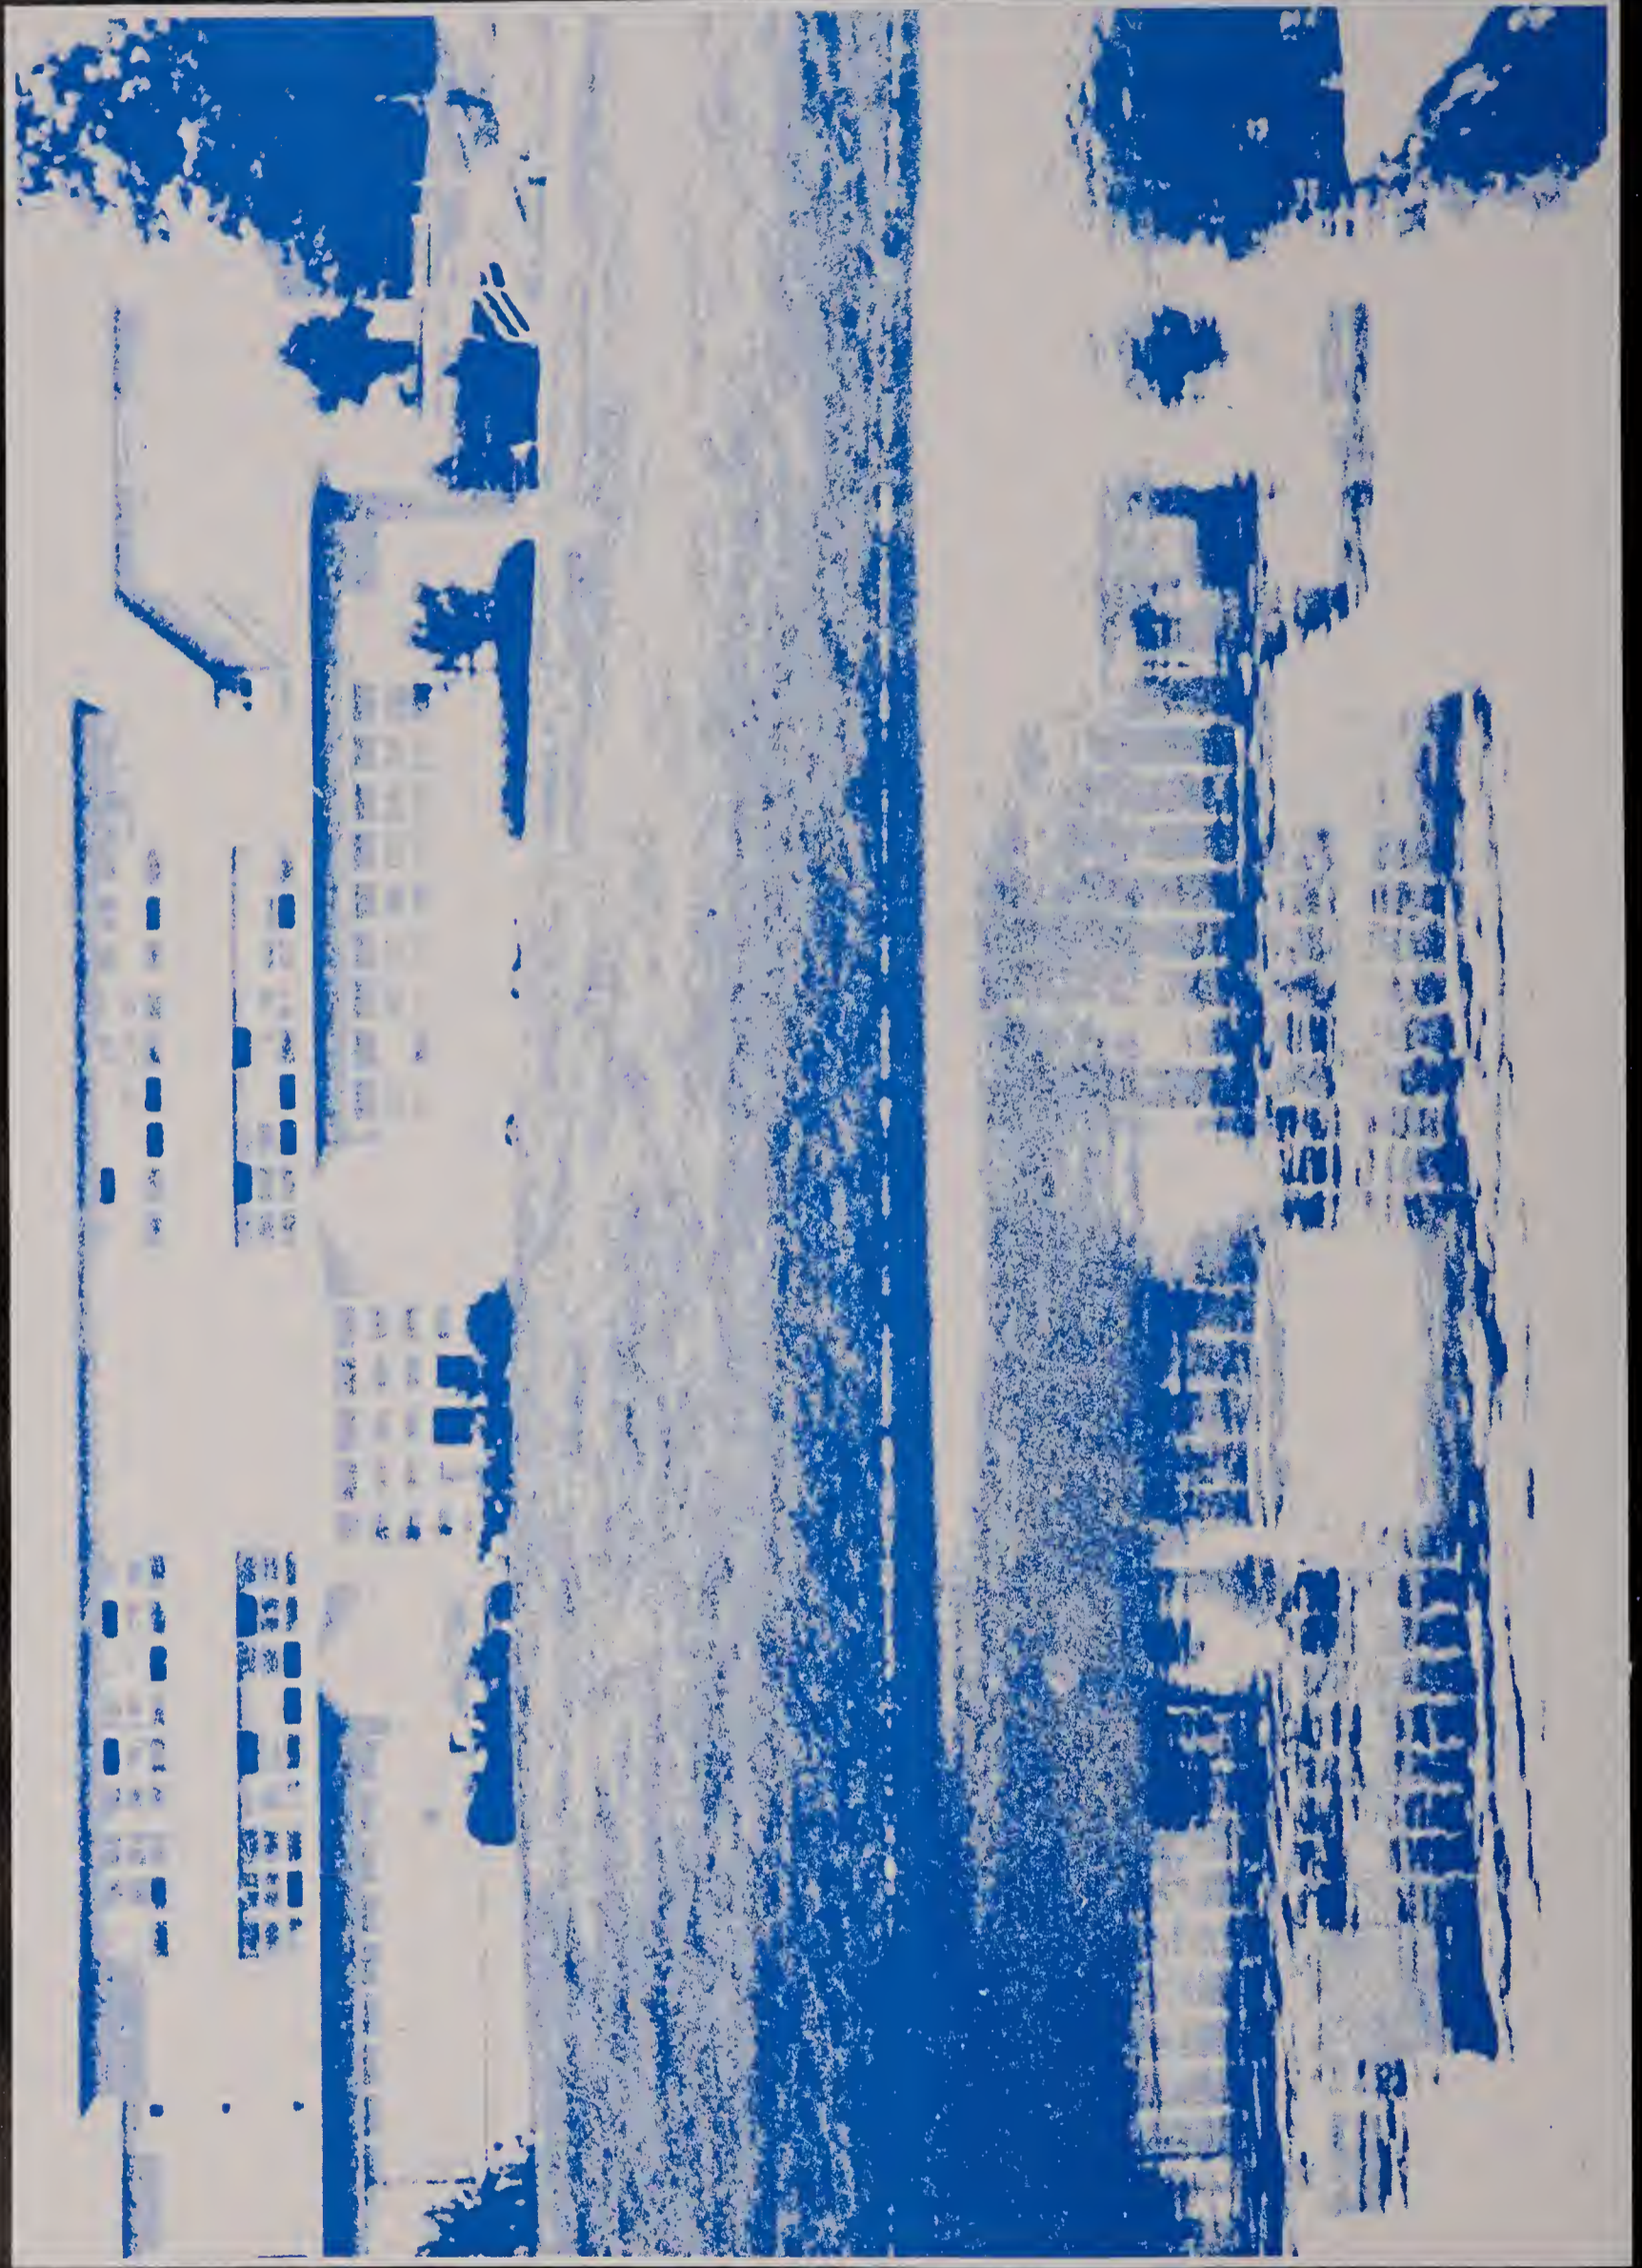

... But, the most important remembrences are always knowing that you've got a friend, a helper, a listener, a brother or sister, an Assumption College Community!

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

The Assumption College community united to open the year with a Mass and academic convocation held in the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. Welcomes were exchanged among the faculty, students and Assumptionists. Fr. Fortin discussed the role of Assumption as a Catholic college which encourages reason and faith.

President Hagan spoke optimistically about the challenges facing Assumption in providing its high quality of education in the years ahead.

It was a time for joining together in prayer and celebration . . .

as we reflected on the beginning of a new year.

AUGUST 30, 1978—Never before had we felt so many butterflies in our stomachs as we did on this day. It was the beginning. A journey. It was something special, and something of which we were just a little afraid. "Will I make any friends?" we asked. "Will my roommate think I'm a real drip?" "Oh no, I just said, 'hello' the wrong way!"

As we got out of the car, we noticed that everyone else was in the same boat. We brushed aside someone in the hallway only to discover later that this person was to become our best friend ever.

We met our roommate(s). We shared likes and dislikes and posted our respective rules and regulations. What's that? We said something wrong and felt terrible? We waited for a response. Perhaps it was a hug, maybe a kind word. Perhaps it was simple . . . a smile.

Assumption appeared to be situated in fog. We seemed so apart from the community spirit that was so highly respected and talked about. The drinking age was 18, so we felt a little safer. Oh, another acquaintance; and, this person invited us to a party. Our FIRST party!

Our rooms were too small. A screen was missing. Our bedsprings were history. Everything was going wrong. The Resident Advisor, however, saved the day with a few kind gestures and an announcement of a floor meeting. Remember being elected Fire Marshall?

As we waited, we made even more friends, shared a few beers, joked, and related memories of High School. More responsibility and more time, we thought. Success was down the road and we just could not miss this bus for the world.

The first night's sleep was terrible. No matter how much we tossed and turned, there was no way we could fall asleep. Some of us wanted to go home . . .

FRESHMAN YEAR: Orientation is all we can remember!

SOPHOMORE YEAR: Freshman year was history, and now we were tops over one class . . . we reminisced over how quickly the first year went and laughed endlessly at how scared and frightened we all were . . . Leo Zabinski had gone to N.Y.U. . . . the college was overcrowded again . . . Fr. Alexis talked and talked, but there was no Student Center . . . Fr. Richard was named Assistant Dean . . . the Politics of Orgasm . . . Bryozoa what, in the duck pond? . . . Assumption's 75th Anniversary and Joe Hagan's goof . . . SENIOR YEAR: Bob and Doug MacKenzie . . . Trying to remember what has happened the past three years . . . more beer . . . parents weekend . . . Receiving notes in the mail . . . Getting tanned . . . Wake up, Paul . . . Applying to graduate school . . . GRE exams . . . Counting the days to graduation . . . Senioritis . . . the day you received commencement invitations . . . Semi-formal . . . Chateau De Ville . . . Moving On . . .

We stared for a long time at the invitations. Our entire four-year academic career flashed before us. Look back over the years to when we began as freshmen. We were at the bottom, but by working hard for four years, we became the most important as Assumption—Seniors. Now, we are at the top. We set the example. We are looked up to. We feel a certain importance. But what of tomorrow? Many of us will begin our tomorrow as graduate students or will embark on a career. For some, this will mean starting at the bottom and striving to reach the top once again. Others will marry and watch their children strive to attain their positions in life.

This cycle of achievement is a perpetual one. It begins with each new generation. The goals we set today are far different from our parents and grandparents. Our parents and grandparents faced two World Wars. We face nuclear uncertainties, assassinations, and unemployment. Our parents enjoyed "Summer of 1942." We enjoy "Rocky" and "Star Wars." Our parents did the Fox Trot. We do, oh, whatever, the dance of the day happens to be. Our lives are different, but only superficially. Life today is still the same as it was back in the 40's and the 50's: the need to earn a living, the desire to succeed, the need for friends, the struggle to survive . . .

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was a time of wisdom and a time of fools. And, as we pocketed the invitations, we thought of one very important thing . . . And, yes, we've only just begun . . .

Now we take our time . . . so nonchalant,
And spend our nights so bon vivant.
We dress our days in silken robes.

The money comes, the money goes
We know it's all a passing phase.
We light our lamps for atmosphere,

And hang our hopes on chandeliers.
We're growing wrong, we're gaining weight.
We're sleeping long and far too late.

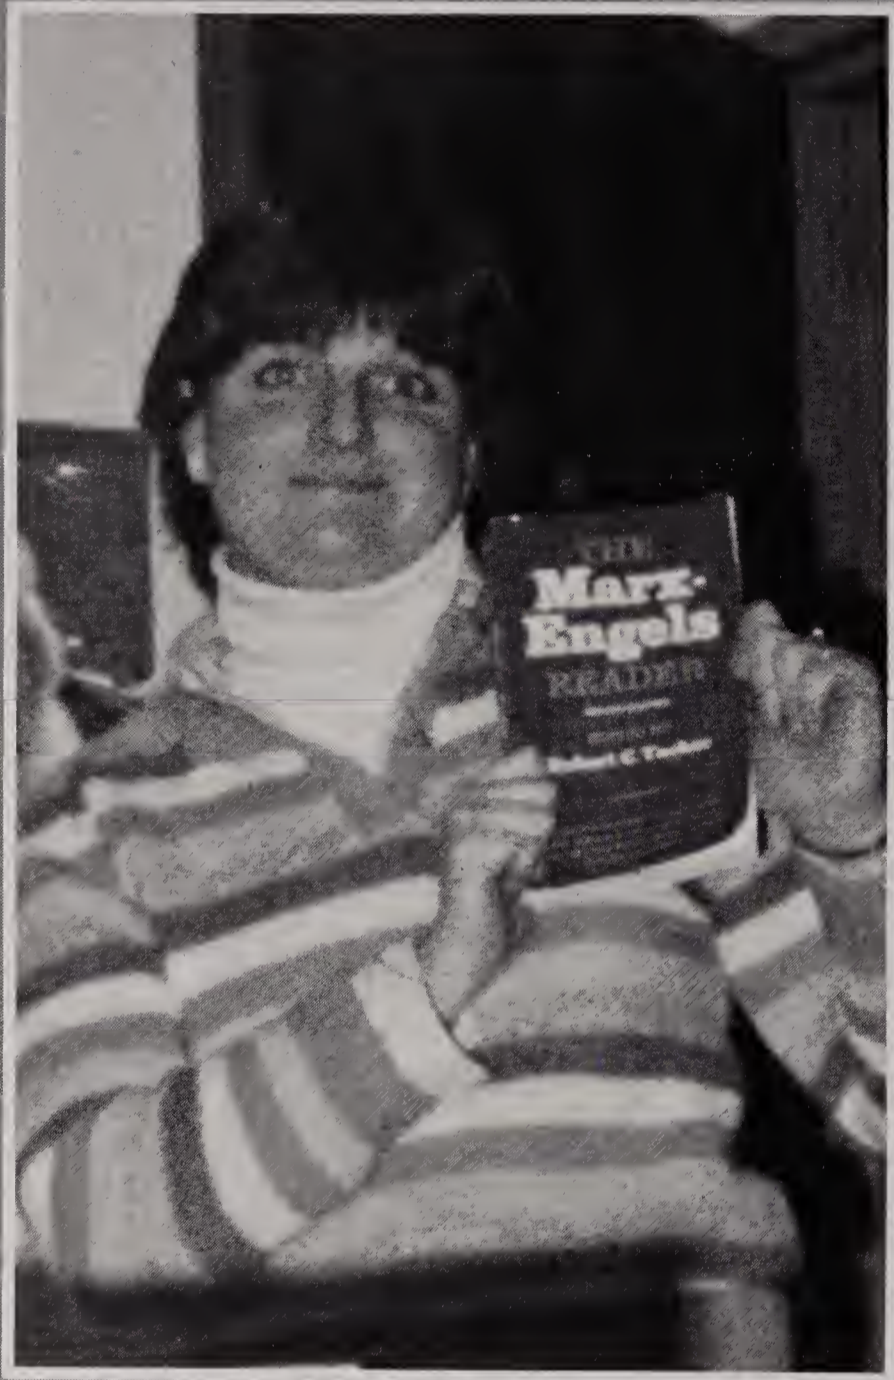

And so it's time to change our ways . . .
But I've loved these days.
Now as we indulge in things refined.

We hide our hearts from harder times.
We'll have to change our faded ways
But I've loved these days.

So, before we end (and then begin) - We'll drink a toast to how its been
