

touch the future

From the Board Chairman and President

Dear Shareholders of the IMSA Fund for Advancement of Education,

It is our privilege to share with you, our shareholders, the 1995-96 report to our investors in the IMSA Fund for Advancement of Education.

In more ways than one, this was yet another exceptional year for the IMSA Fund. Once again, we secured more than one million dollars in gifts and pledges to support "margin of excellence" initiatives at the Academy. We have averaged more than one million dollars in gifts during the past four years .... allowing us to touch the future of mathematics and science education in Illinois, and the nation.

This year, a $350,000 grant from The Harris Family Foundation made it the first private sector million dollar donor ($1.1 million to be exact) to the Academy. This latest gift will allow IMSA's Center for Problem-Based Learning to continue its work with educators throughout the state, nation and world. Other leadership gifts came from donors such as the Lloyd A. Fry Foundation to create a summer enrichment program for minority students; the Smithsonian Institution to advance IMSA's Integrated Science program and partnerships; and Abbott Laboratories to support IMSA's IMPACT II program.

With the Fund's support, the Academy also brought two American heroes to campus to share their stories with thousands of guests from throughout Illinois. Rosa Parks, the "mother of the modern civil rights movement" engaged in a keynote dialogue/interview with Pulitzer Prize-winning author Studs Terkel and award-winning journalist Vernon Jarrett in November. A month earlier, former NASA astronaut Captain Jim Lovell recounted his dangerous voyage aboard Apollo 13 to an audience of 2,000 teachers and students from throughout Illinois.

Once-in-a-lifetime learning experiences such as these, of course, would not be possible without the generous support and leadership gifts from corporations, foundations, organizations and individual donors.

As we know, the strength of any organization is measured largely by the support of those closest to it. That is why it is especially gratifying to report a significant increase in giving during 1995-96 by current parents and parents of IMSA graduates. In fact, gifts from parents of IMSA graduates nearly doubled this year. Building and maintaining strong relationships with this rapidly growing group of IMSA alumni and parents will be crucial as IMSA moves into its next decade. We are extremely proud of our graduates and look forward to their continued leadership and service to our state, nation and world.

On behalf of the entire IMSA Fund board of directors, thank you for your outstanding commitment and generous sponsorship. We look forward to celebrating IMSA's 10th Anniversary throughout the coming year and to further refining our mission to touch the future.

Sincerely,

James R. Thompson

Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy

A Pioneering Educational Community

Office of Institutional Advancement

To: IMSA Faculty and Staff
From: Ted Parge, director of institutional advancement
Subject: 1995-96 IMSA Fund Report to Our Investors
Date: September 5, 1996

It is with sincere thanks and great pride that I attach a copy of the 1995-96 IMSA Fund Report to Our Investors. We are pleased that the IMSA Fund was able to increase its support of Academy programs last year to more than $1.1 million. These "margin of excellence" funds help enhance both our academic and partnership programs.

The IMSA Fund is but one of the ways in which external constituents can play an active role in shaping IMSA's future.

It is the support of each of us as faculty and staff and the investment of others listed in this report that are fundamental to increasing our capacity to deliver quality programs for our students and partners throughout Illinois.

As we look to the future, private support and external alliances will play an increasing role in helping us realize our mission. If you have any questions regarding the IMSA Fund, do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank You.

From the Executive Director

Dear Partners,

It is my privilege, as executive director of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy, to thank you for your generous investment in our educational research and development laboratory.

The 1995-96 academic year was one of reinvention for IMSA ... that is, reinventing ourselves, our programs and our structures to better serve student learners so that they, in turn, will be better prepared to serve others in the future. We believe the changes we have planned for the 1996-97 academic year will provide greater program personalization, flexibility, rigor and coherence, the goals of reinvention.

Although there will be changes in the coming year, reinvention does not end there; rather, it is an ongoing process that will take us far into IMSA's next decade and beyond.

Externally, we continue to collaborate with elementary and secondary schools from throughout Illinois and the nation on issues critical to the transformation of mathematics and science education. For example, IMSA's Center for Problem-Based Learning launched a nationwide electronic and human network to connect K-12 educators who are interested in learning more about problem-based learning. The Problem-Based Learning Network, or PBL Net, is supported by the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the largest international professional membership organization in education.

IMSA also is collaborating with the Illinois State Board of Education in a statewide initiative to enhance science education. The Illinois Scientific Literacy Network, administered by IMSA, provides educators with a forum to share their award-winning grant projects, and in turn, enhance learning for students from the rural south to the urban north.

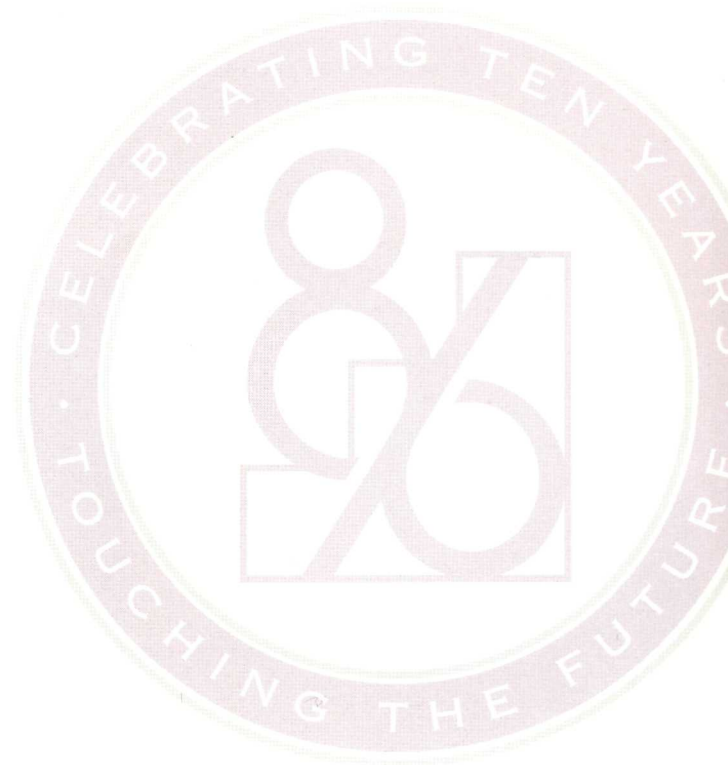

As we continue our work with learners of all ages from throughout our state and nation, the support of you, our donors, and the visionary leadership of our Fund Board members becomes even more critical. We look forward to working together, in partnership with you, as we navigate our way into IMSA's second decade and touch the future of mathematics and science education.

On behalf of the board of trustees, faculty, staff, students, alumni and educational partners of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy, thank you.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Pace Marshall, Ph.D.

The Year at a Glance

Highlights and Special Events

Program Partnerships

- with The Harris Family Foundation for continued support of IMSA's Center for Problem-Based Learning and creation of an International Partnership Fund to explore a collaboration with the Israel Arts and Science Academy to develop a curriculum focusing on ethics and values in the teaching of science and the humanities.
- with the Lloyd A. Fry Foundation to support the SEAMS (Summer Enrichment for Academics in Math and Science) Minority Recruitment Initiative.
- with the Smithsonian Institution to advance IMSA's Integrated Science program and partnerships.
- with Abbott Laboratories to support the IMPACT II award program for Illinois mathematics and science teachers.
- with Nortel to support Real Science, a CD-ROM interactive science magazine created by IMSA students to aid the science education of students in grades 3-5.
- with Varlen Corporation and Precision Scientific, Inc. for in-kind support of science equipment in the Integrated Science and Genetics/Biology Laboratories.

IMSA Alumni Open House – June 15th, 1996

Rosa Parks Event – November 15th, 1995

- with University Microfilms International and Bell and Howell Company for in-kind support of the new ProQuest direct online service. This system allows students immediate full image access to hundreds of magazines and journals.

Special Events

- Fifth Annual James R. Thompson Leadership Lecture - Sponsored by the IMSA Fund, former NASA astronaut Captain James Lovell presented Successful Failure to an audience of 2,000 including students and teachers from throughout Illinois. Lovell recounted his dangerous voyage while serving as commander of America's fifth moon launch, Apollo 13, and the numerous obstacles he and his crew overcame to survive.
- Rosa Parks Event - Co-sponsored by the IMSA Fund and City of Aurora, the "mother of the modern civil rights movement" Rosa Parks engaged in a keynote dialogue/interview with Pulitzer Prize-winning author Studs Terkel and award-winning journalist Vernon Jarrett before an audience of 2,000 including students and teachers from throughout Illinois.

- 1996 IMSA Fund Gala - Sponsored by the IMSA Fund, IMSA's 1996 Gala raised $20,000. The event included a pre-curtain champagne brunch in the Palmer House Hilton in Chicago, a special benefit performance of "SHOW BOAT" at Chicago's Auditorium Theatre with prime orchestra seating and a tax deductible contribution to the IMSA Fund.
- Alumni Association Meeting/Alumni Open House - Sponsored by the IMSA Fund, the Open House was attended by alumni and guests from the IMSA Classes of 1989-1996. In the morning, the Alumni Association meeting was held to elect at-large cabinet members and plan future projects.

- 1996 Senior Lecture - Sponsored by the IMSA Fund, Nobel Laureate and IMSA trustee Dr. Leon Lederman presented An Evening of Conversation and Reflection to IMSA seniors.

Fundraising Results

- Gifts of $1,100,851
- Gifts of $152,871 from the IMSA Fund Board of Directors
- Current parent contributions of $50,895
