President's Message

John Cox

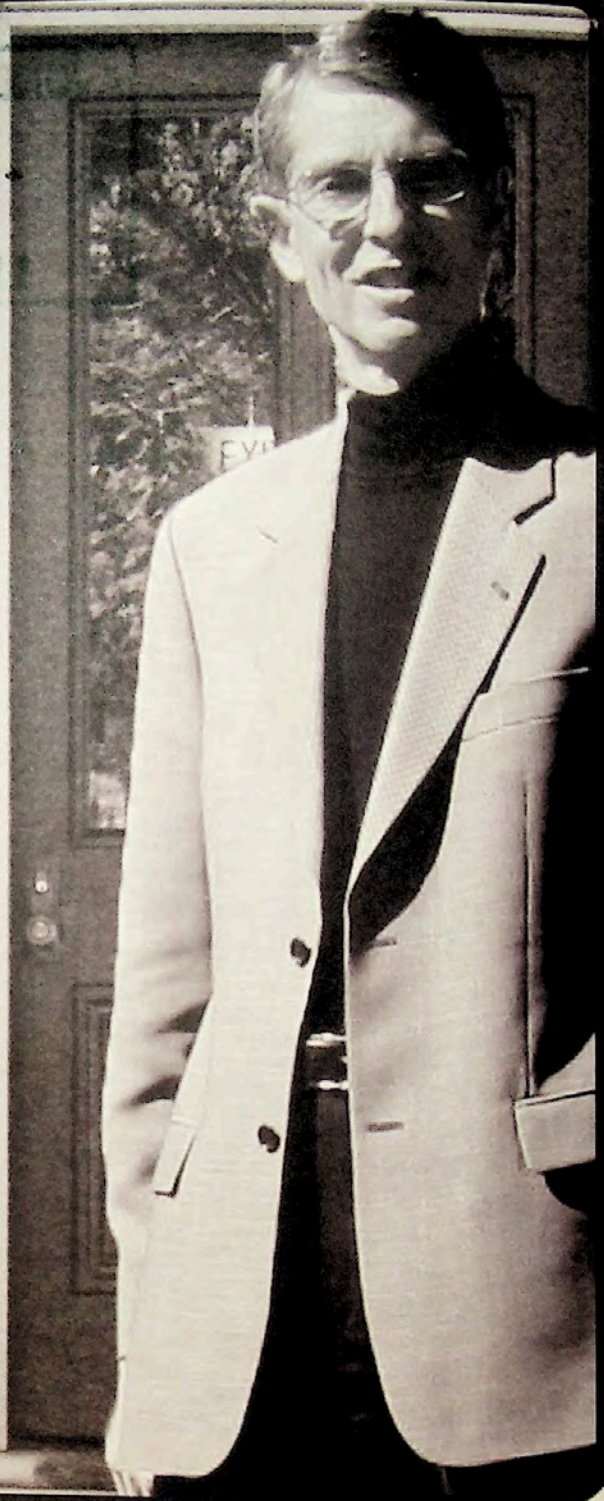

We grow with time. And our years of tertiary education are among the most enriching. From the beginning student to the graduate equipped for a career there is remarkable development. At Avondale the growth is not only in knowledge, understanding and professional expertise. Lives are transformed by interaction with those who live and share the grace of God and a vision of service for others.

Avondale too has grown with time – from uncertain beginnings to an organisation of recognised excellence, with over forty courses from certificate to PhD level, a highly qualified staff, and a growing research profile.

Students choose Avondale for its Christian focus, quality teaching, caring environment, and the opportunities it provides for lifelong friendships and the development of the whole person. Enrolment has grown forty per cent in the last four years.

My own student years at Avondale were some of the most fulfilling of my life. Avondale transformed me, as it has done for so many students before and since.

My greatest wish for students of 2008 is that time will deepen your relationship with the Lord Jesus, and enlarge your vision to make the world a better place.

Editor's Message

Sara Tui Miles

As my time at Avondale draws to an end, I can't help but think retrospectively about my years spent here, and more specifically, the times that stand out the most from this year. There's the Festivals of Faith, the sporting events, the excuses to dress up, the basketball antics, the weddings, but 2008 has been the year that has housed events that will shape our history: College Drive is finally resurfaced, John Cox announces his retirement, FitLife is officially opened, Avondale College unveils its new corporate brand, Beijing hosts the Olympics and an era ends with Bi-Lo closing its doors forever!

Although it is with happiness that I will graduate and leave this place, it is also with sadness, as I probably haven't experienced Avondale in all its glory. I have never lived indoors, had the caf cook for me everyday, chaffed the boys dorm at 3am, or had the chance to create those life long friendships everyone is always talking about. However, I have been involved with the Jacaranda for two years now, played basketball every semester possible, loved the creativity of my course and had the privilege of meeting that someone special. So even though I have been somewhat anonymous at Avondale over the past few years, I have grown, learnt so much, and been constantly reminded of how God is looking after me and guiding my future with His perfect timing.

As it's not Avondale that's memorable, but the people who make your experience, we hope to have captured the ingredients and memories that remind you of your Avondale experience. As you turn through these pages, now and in years to come, we hope these memories come flooding back, with smiles and laughter, as you remember your time at Avondale College in 2008.

Our generous sponsors: Avondale College, Signs Publishing, Ministry of Teaching, AUC Resource Centre, That Design Studio, Adventist Employment, ACA Health, and the Edge Magazine. The students and staff who submitted their literary and photographic elements, the Jacaranda would not be the same without your contributions. I would also like to thank my Mum and Dad, Tamara, Kendall, Grace and Jaith for your love, support and endless prayers...and God for easing my stress levels!

Dedication

It is apt that a Jacaranda theme like time and seasons should be dedicated to Dr John Cox. This dedication is both a celebration of achievement and a signature of gratitude to a man whose career spans several seasons at Avondale College. In attempting to write this dedication, I feel inadequately placed and so I turn most appropriately to poetry.

Accordingly, I borrow inspiration from the poet Gibran to speak of John's loving and giving to this institution. Gibran writes that true "labour" is in "truth loving life" and to "love life through labour is to be intimate with life's inmost secret". This dedication is a tribute to John's labour and his engagement with the "intimate secrets" of life and truth and love which he so energetically and passionately shared with his students.

John was a prophet, a visionary, an idealist, a humanitarian, a lover of God. He was a teacher "who walked in the shadow of the temple ... and gave not" only of his wisdom but "of his faith and lovingness" (Gibran, The Prophet).

An eastern saying goes: "a man who boasts of no wisdom and seeks not pride or status" knows that all seasons belong to him: love, honour, truth, courage, faith. Dr John Cox is such a man whose mark on this institution will be felt for time to come.

John, on behalf of Avondale College, we honour you in the best tradition of scholarship, leadership and teaching. We leave you with this song in parting:

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

*If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to [us] a deeper song (Gibran, The Prophet).*

Thank you, John.

Dr Jane Fernandez

In Memory

You may think that because Tyson passed away only 10 days before his 20th birthday, that he didn't have enough time to really experience life or make a major difference. However, if you really knew Tyson, then you know that he packed a lot in those 20 years of his life. To me there are three words that summarize Tyson's extraordinary life. These are: friendship, music and service.

Friendship: right from the start Tyson was a boy you couldn't help but love. He loved people, even strangers, and they loved him in return. He was the life of the party. His smile and bubbly personality echoed his love for everyone. He had so many friends young and old. He stood up for his friends and, whether you knew him for a moment or for years, he treated you like his best friend.

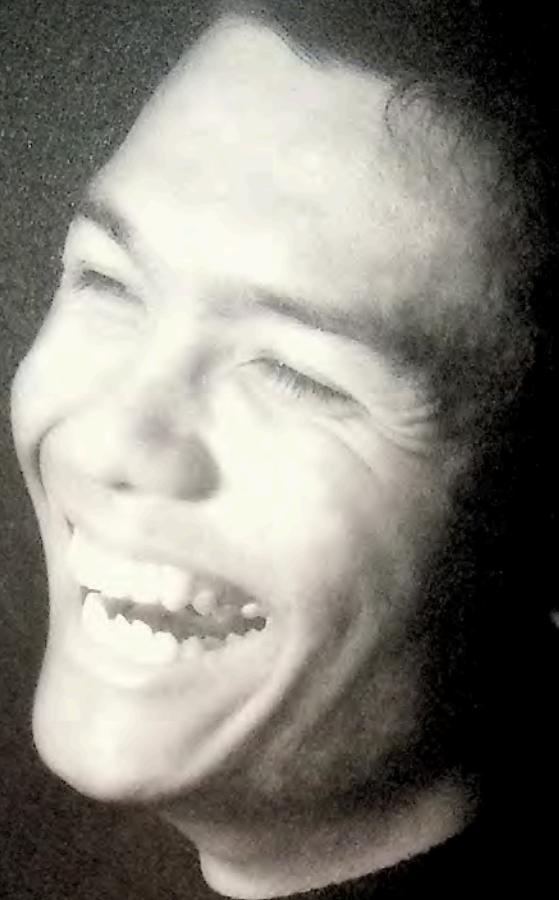

Music: he loved making noise, he always tested the limits and he simply couldn't sit still - just like his mother says: "he didn't have a still bone in his body." Most of us on campus will remember him for his gift of music. My favourite memory of Tyson is when he played at the piano with one hand on one keyboard and one hand on the piano - playing both at the same time - he was talent PLUS when it came to music. He made it all look so easy.

Service: he devoted his life to community service. At age 16 he joined the rural fire brigade at Seahampton. He loved helping at "clean-up Australia" day. He served in the Morisset fire brigade for only a little time before his untimely death. He visited a refugee school in Konglow, Thailand - an event that became a homecoming for him.

Tyson had a contagious personality. It didn't matter whether he was having fun with a few or hundreds - to him life was a party. That he touched many people was evident by the large crowd that attended his funeral.

Tyson we miss you but we look forward to seeing you again one day.

In this place there is an intense energy
People, sounds and smells around every corner
The sun is out and all the doors and windows open.
Giggles and bursts of laughter fill the air
Those familiar faces shining with delight
See their long lost friends again.

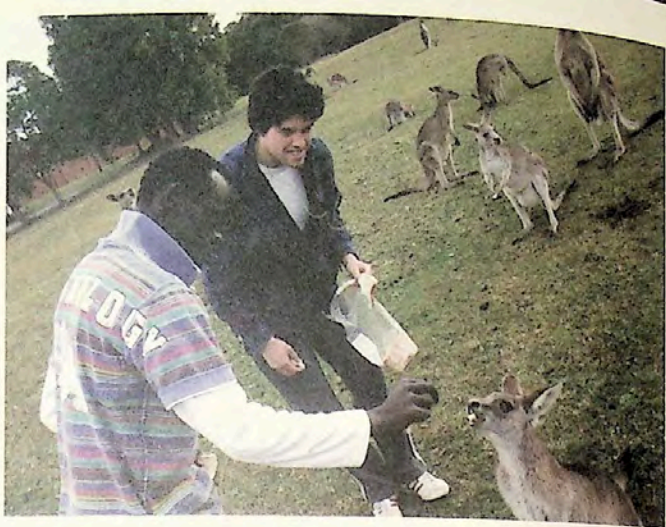

Standing in the corner not knowing what to expect
Not feeling the same delight
But having nerves consume every inch of my person
This is my first time in this unfamiliar place.
Where do I go? What will they think?

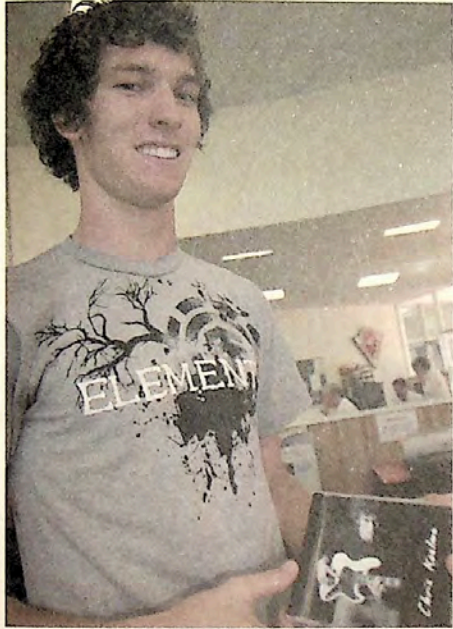

The initial thoughts of a first year
Drowned in the comforting atmosphere
Confident that there is now
A sense of belonging.
Barn dances and theme nights
Being involved in everything and anything
Looking for new things to do
Long walks to Bi-Lo
Not knowing our way around

Enjoying the continuous nights and Mi-Goreng.
Late night swims in lightning storms
And bonfires at girl's walk.

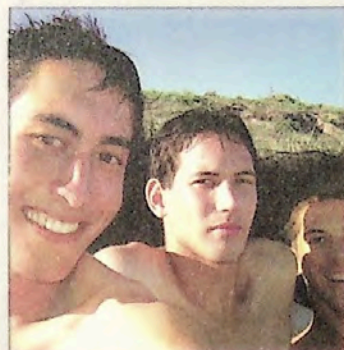

The life of a first year always endeavours
To have a full college experience
But that college experience is what is made of it.
Feel freedom to get stuck in and live life.

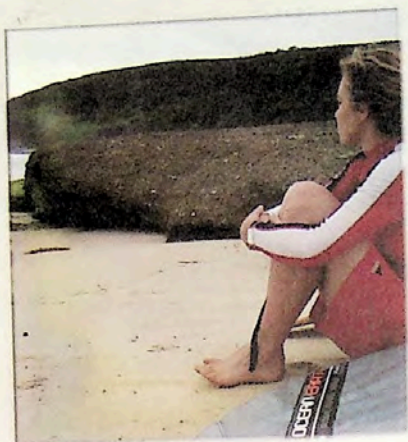

What's been your best time at Avondale in 2008?

Jody Eckert
Being an R.A.!

James Topp
Making a movie with the magnificent Calvin Chuang!

Melissa Otto
I enjoyed the jelly wrestling.

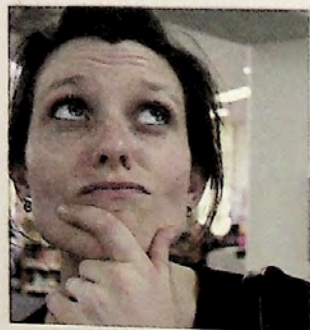

Kirsten Bolinger
Beach camping with friends; waking up and jumping in the surf.

Verity Pasione
Making more friends and hanging out with people I wouldn't usually hang out with.

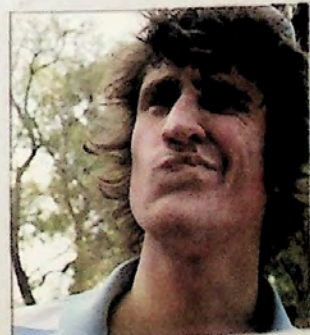

Brittany Robinson
Definitely the India trip.

Chantal Heise
Getting to know the girls in the dorms.

Renee Ellison
Stealing the old assistant dean's car and taking it to Brisbane.

James Crabtree
Going to the beach and having fun with everyone.

Michael Chapman aka Chappo
Being bedridden with a fever, no study, extensions, girlfriend brings you food.

Kimberley Ellison
Being with friends - loving sunny days at the pool.

Cherie Timmermans
History classes are the best.

Neil Bustos
Festival of Faith with Buall.

Mary-Jean Tolitule
Involvement in student activities especially at the beginning of the year.

Billy Otto
Going to the gym and getting buff with my buff friends.

Jasmine Thompson
Enjoying lavish picnic lunches with my friends.

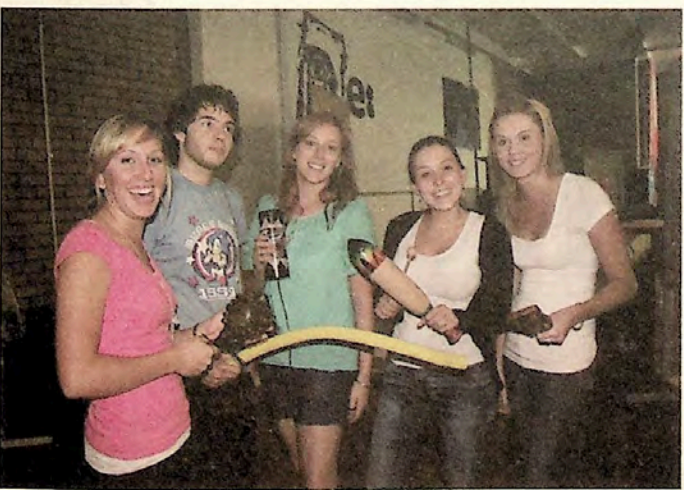

Brett Carlsen & Bertram Wolpin
All star game first semester. Bert got MVP and it was his birthday.

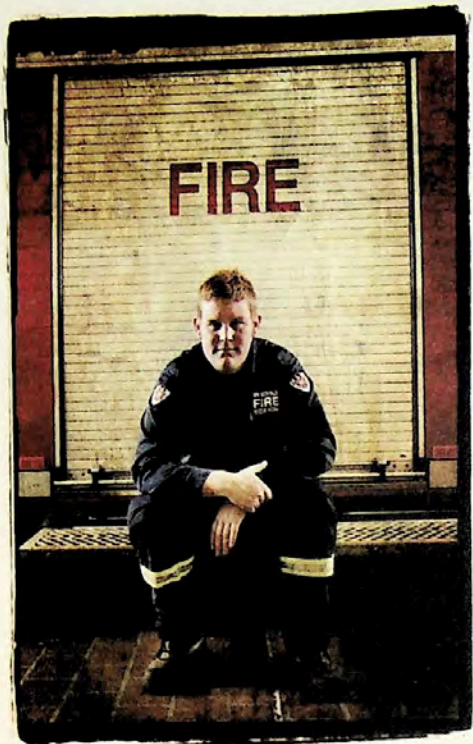

Krystle Praestii

Sometimes we have to take a step back and appreciate what we have at college. I remember waking up one morning thinking I had the most hectic day ahead. Looking back, all I really had to do was hang out with some Morisset school kids for breakfast, tell some people about comparative literature for 15 minutes, write this article for the Jac, play basketball and then talk about it! If you've ever watched the movie "Click", you'll know what it means to get caught cruising in 'auto-pilot'. It's so easy to fall into a routine of mediocrity and to lose perspective of how good life is and what's really important.

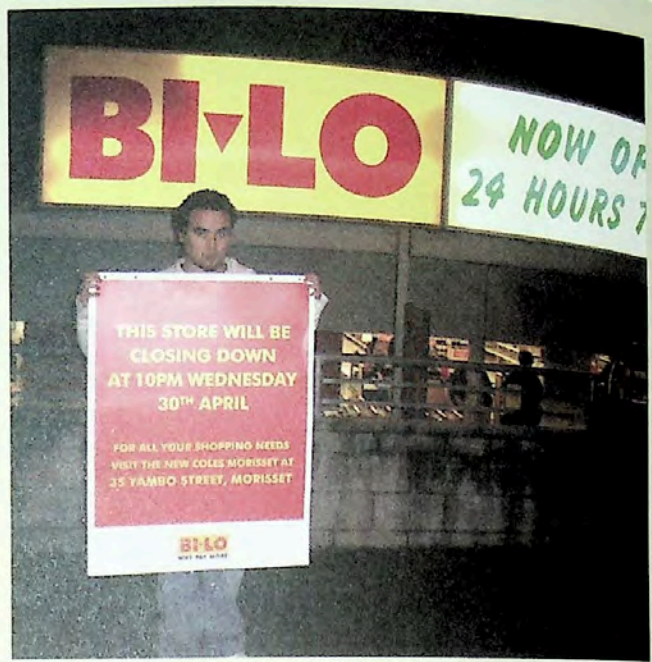

There are so many awesome opportunities at college; social events, sports competitions, spiritual groups and programs, waiting for us everyday.

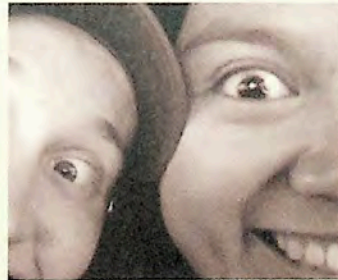

This year it's been inspiring to see people taking these opportunities by the horns and stepping up! The spiritual energy coming from the groups in the dorms has been amazing; sharing questions, ideas, testimonies and a passion for Jesus. The entertaining sporting rivalries; game winning shots in the last seconds of grand finals and still no one can beat Darren Morton in the Hall to Gate run!

Surfing and skateboarding with mates and even just the good times hanging out enjoying the 'Big Camp weather' at the cafe, instead of going to class.

These are the things that make college what it is! Sitting at a memorial service this year and listening to an awesome life sketch of a past college student really made me appreciate the 'Avondale experience'. The college years were highlighted as some of the best years in what was an incredible lifetime, and the memories of the good times sounded so familiar.

Time & Time Again...

In 2008, as Avondale students:

We were made up of 663
girls and 425 boys.

We have consumed approximately 15,520 kg of potatoes and 19,200 gluten
steaks in our 32 weeks of classes.
Yummmm.

Besides that Watson Hall will have managed to consume between 10,000 and 15,000 packets of Mi Goreng. That being said, it's taken them an absolute collective minimum of 584 hours

We've lost more than 32 (that's 35,040 minutes!) cooking microwave noodles.
USB thumb drives.

We've held 237 library books overdue.

We've received and wear 780 of the 1,000 new Avondale logo T-Shirts ordered by the marketing team.

And speaking of the new logo, the college is also using 3,000 stickers, 1,000 temporary tattoos,
1,000 wristbands, 500 stress balls, 500 lanyards and 1 giant puzzle, all printed with the new logo, to market Avondale college.

We've been drenched by 1124.5 mm of rain.

On average, we've each walked an approximate 108.068 km just going to and from class. That's something like 208,864 steps.

Dorm students only had 11 fire alarms

(for which the fire brigade came out) compared to last years 35.

We've played 448 basketball games and 146 soccer games collectively.

The library printer has gone through 315,000 pages of paper.

During the mad months of May and November alone, the student printer in the Library went through 40 boxes of paper: that's 200 reams, which is equivalent to 200,000 pieces of white A4 paper. It's good to know people are getting their work done!

We've helped COSMOS raise

$9,314.

We've been part of or attended at least 15 weddings, and a minimum of 8 couples are now engaged.

With our comings and goings the student boom-gate (Boom-gate #1) has been card swiped approximately 45,277 times.

And ladies, you have swiped in and out of Ella Boyd about 167,019 times.

Congratulations. That's quite impressive.

In my time spent at Avondale I have met some of the most amazing people; students, lecturers and staff who have challenged, motivated and inspired me, not only in life's journey, but more importantly in my spiritual journey.

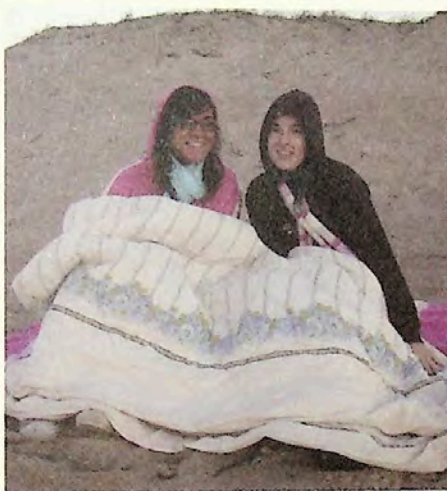

Living in a residence full of women has brought its own set of challenges, but the beauty of a place like Avondale is that the good always outweighs the bad. Living with my friends has enabled me to learn things about myself and serves as a constant reminder that there is so much more I need to learn. I've learned to sleep through the noise of screaming girls, the never-ending announcements and constant interruptions of friends walking through your door at any time of the day or night.

It's so easy to become negative or complacent about this place. We don't realise how easy we have it; the convenience of walking to class a minute away, having someone cook and wash up for us, someone to do our washing and more importantly an endless supply of spiritual food, such as small groups and worships. Let's be thankful for these blessings because the moment we walk away from this campus, we're on our own, looking after ourselves and struggling to find the time to fit God into our busy schedules.

I guess if I could give one piece of advice or recommendation to other students it would be to move outside of your comfort zone. Unfortunately Avondale can be a place that tends to encourage cliques. Don't get me wrong, there's nothing better than the safety and security of a tight group of friends, but this place is so full of diverse people waiting to share some profound and rich insight that will stay with you for life, if you will only make the effort to get to know them.

I have found that when I make the effort to talk to a new person, God blesses me immensely. He has enabled me to form friendships with people who have left a lasting impact on me and taught me so much.

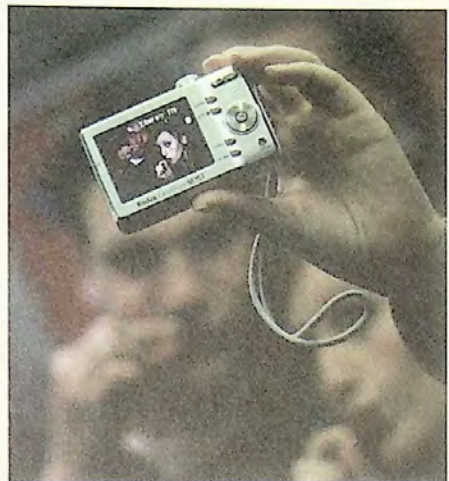

My prayer is that each and every student will see this place for the blessing that it is!

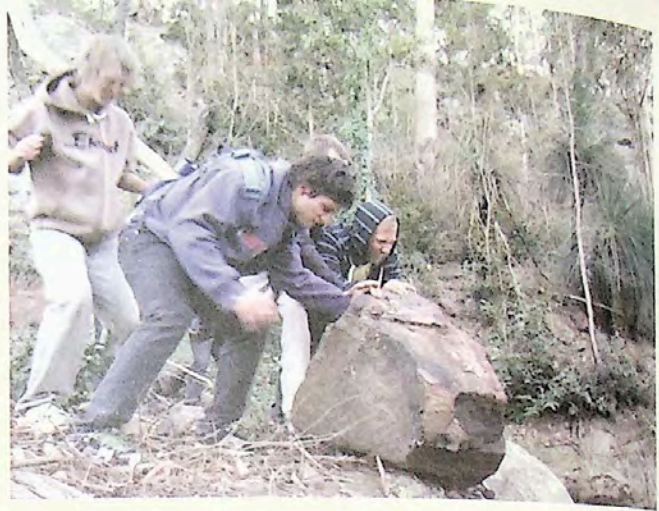

If you could have your time at Avondale over again, what would you change?

Ben Gibbs

What I studied. I went from studying one thing, then another. I wish I would've known from the beginning.

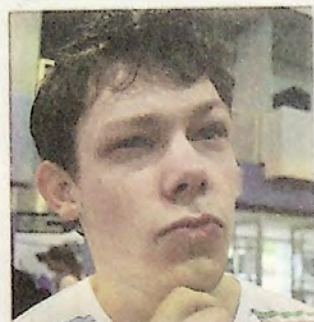

Ben Tavao

More involvement in Fig Tree (theology socials) ... actually, just more involvement in all the Avondale student body socials.

Bianca Collins

I'd go to more social events and make my experience lots and lots of fun. Not that it hasn't been.

Brenton Potts

If anything, I'd be more active earlier on ... in the things that really matter, not always just fun.

Emily Troup

I'd try to meet more people, especially in my first year.

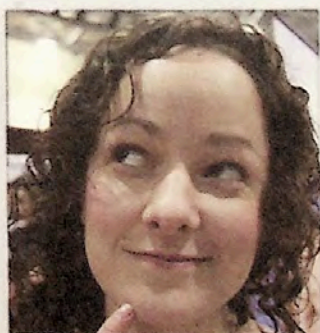

Josh Moses

I would have picked up a minor in graphic design or publication instead of just doing random electives.

Dene Weslake

Become more involved in the spiritual side of things, in church and bible studies and everything.

Jemma Mattner

Nothing. Well, maybe I would've started playing Basketball earlier.

Simone Colville

Have more fun with friends and study less.

Max Watson

I'd hang out with different friends.
Play more, work less.

Carmen Wemyss

I would do less English and more Art.

Steve Platt

I would've played more sport.

Knut Gille

I would've studied less, taken more time with God. And go outside of college to get connected with the community more.

Liliana Platt

I would've tried living indoors – even just for a bit.

Nick Boucher

More time socialising and less time studying.

Kai Ellmoos

Nothing.

Whitney Bolinger

I would've stayed in the dorms one more year.

Josh King

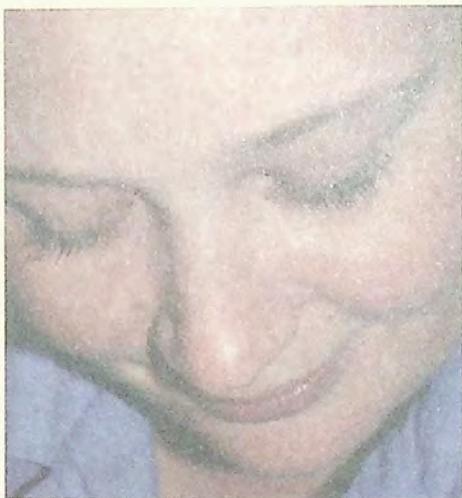

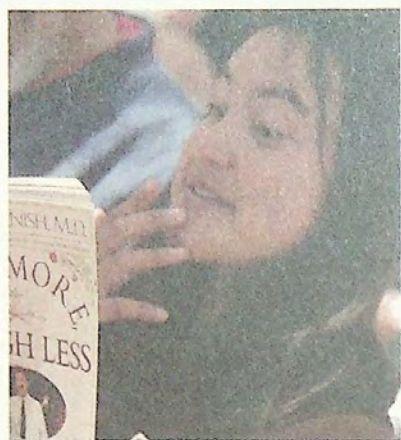

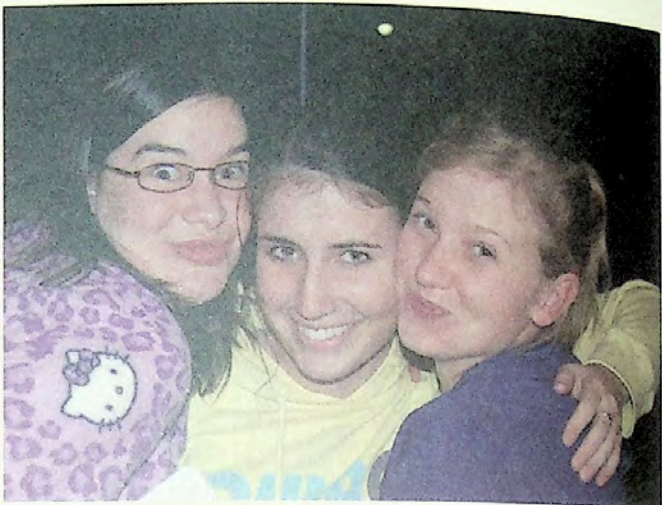

I'd be a little bit more open-minded, I'd take more advantage of what I'd had here.

Am I ready for this? I asked myself this question when I boarded a plane going from Calgary, Canada to Australia nearly two and half years ago. Am I ready to leave all of my friends, family, and familiarity to finish my degree in a country that is nearly 14,682 kilometers away? Truthfully at times that first semester back in 2006 I felt I had made a mistake picking up my life and coming to Avondale.

Adjusting to a new culture, battling home sickness, and stepping out of my comfort zone were some of the biggest changes of my life. My body didn't adjust well. I was constantly sick and questioned whether I would come back. However, there were bright spots that convinced me to stay here. I have made many great friendships that I will have for the rest of my life and a ton of memories that I will cherish forever.

By the time my second semester rolled around I felt like I had this Avondale lifestyle figured out. Everywhere I looked I found a familiar face that would undoubtedly smile or say hello along with a group of people I had lived in close quarters with for the past few years. Now that I am leaving Avondale I am the guy who will look back on his time here and make references to Bi-Lo runs, Mi-Goreng noodles, random inside jokes and underwear runs like many former students have in previous years.

Unlike most of you reading this yearbook, when I leave Avondale I leave the country and most of the amazing people I have met here. I really wish I could have gotten to know some of you better because I feel like I am missing out on meeting some great friends. I ask myself again today, am I ready for this? Am I ready to leave the comforts of Avondale where my food is cooked for me, clothes washed, and bathrooms cleaned? Am I ready to leave the spiritual atmosphere that has allowed me to grow in my relationship with God? Am I ready to become a responsible adult (!)? I don't know, but just as I did two and a half years ago, I'm going to close my eyes and step into the unknown of my future life with the reassurance that the friendships, memories, and brotherhood that I have found at Avondale will be with me for eternity. I hope everyone had an amazing year and I'll be back to visit someday. If I don't see you then I hope we can all be reunited in Heaven forever!!

When interviewed by Darren Morton, Charles Pointon on his 98th birthday revealed his 5 steps to a long life:

XXIX Olympiad

The Beijing Olympics commenced on the 8th day of the 8th month of the year
2008 at precisely 8:08pm and 8seconds.

This momentous event inspired 3,500 Chinese parents to name their babies "Aoyun" which translates as "Olympics."

The Games lasted 16 days, consisted of 28 sports, and awarded 302 gold medals.

They were attended by 184,589,342
people, 10,500 of which were athletes representing 204 countries.

435 of those were representing Australia.

Together they won 46 medals:
14 Gold, 15 Silver, and 17 Bronze. This placed Australia at 6th place in the medal tally.

The ages of Team Australia's athletes ranged from 16 to 60, their average age being 26.

Of the 435 athletes, 43 were born in a country other than Australia. This includes Brazil, Iran, India, Kazakhstan, Macedonia, Russia, New Zealand and Canada.

In preparation for the games, 7 shipping containers were sent to Beijing from Australia. 1 for sailing and 1 for rowing. The other 5 carried various useful items such as 1,000 boxing kangaroo toys and 55 boxes of vegemite. 12 horses were flown over, as well as 1.2 tonnes of biking equipment.

Adidas outfitted the team with 130,000 uniform items, 5,000 bags and a handy 11,000 socks.

It's also been estimated that the Olympic village (28,000 athletes, coaches and staff) consumed 17,000 kg of pasta, 61,000 kg of rice, 20,000 heads of lettuce, and 684,000 carrots. By the way, that's enough carrots to circle the outer perimeter of the 91,000 seat National Stadium 150 times.

Believe in Christ, live the life

resource CONNECT inspire

Adventist Media Network has been established to serve and coordinate the communication and media needs of the church in the South Pacific.

Theodora Amuimuia

Marketing Intern

"...Being involved in real-life business activities is an awesome experience. I've learnt important skills that can't be taught in the classroom or out of a textbook. Everyone should consider doing an internship!"

Web Ministry is coordinating the development of a strong web presence in the South Pacific.

Resources for Spiritual Growth such as books, pamphlets, CDs and DVDs are available to churches for outreach.

Adventist Discovery Centre offers people the opportunity to learn through health, lifestyle and bible courses.

News and Media connects the church through the Record and InFocus Adventist News.

Internships are offered through Avondale College to provide students with opportunities for professional experience.

Ministry Of Teaching

Teaching is more than a job or a career. It's a calling.

Teachers see the profession of teaching as a ministry as it changes the lives of their students, shapes their worldview, and develops their intellectual energy.

To share the experiences of teachers and hear why they feel called to teaching, go to www.ministryofteaching.edu.au.

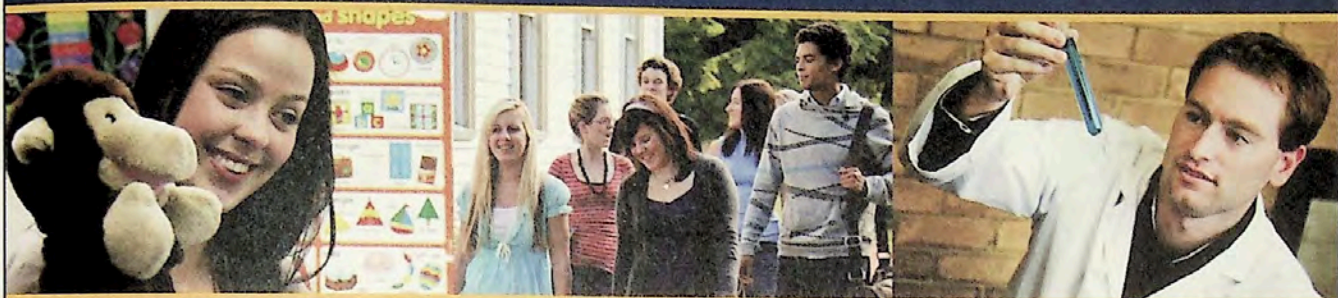

The website contains reflections on the ministry of teaching and pathways to enter it.

It also features the current issue of TEACH JOURNAL.

It's the foundation of an amazing career.

For 111 years, Avondale has served as a Christian tertiary educational institution, located in the Hunter/Central Coast region of New South Wales. Nestled between the Watagan Mountains and Lake Macquarie, its rural setting and diverse lifestyle have drawn many from across Australia and overseas. Avondale is one of the most exciting tertiary education campuses in Australia. From the moment you arrive on campus as a new student, until you leave, you will sense an amazing spirit of friendship that will continue through your study and live on into the future.

Avondale offers a range of qualifications, from vocational education to undergraduate degrees, from masters to PhD.

We offer a variety of degrees in:

- Teaching (Early Childhood, Primary, Secondary, PDHPE, Home Economics)
- Nursing
- Science and Maths (Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Biology, Food and Nutrition, Information Technology, Mathematics, Physics, Psychology)
- Arts (Communication, English, Geography, History, International Development Studies, Mathematics, Music, Psychology, Religious Studies, Visual Arts, Visual Communication)
- Business and Information Technology (Accounting, Information Technology, Marketing, Management)
- Ministry and Theology

as well as vocational programs in:

- Outdoor Recreation (Certificate III, Diploma)
- Business Services (Certificates, Diplomas)

Create amazing memories while receiving your career qualification. That's what you can do with an Avondale education.
