Dear Dr. Tate,

At last I am sending part of my dues. I don't have any excuse for not sending it sooner. I used to set it aside with the intentions being good, but each time I would do something else.

I am sending $10.00 now and later I will send the balance. I am afraid that if I keep this until I get the other post history may repeat itself.

Since being here at UTC I have met a number of the fellows and at one time I was reminded of the glorious days at Howard. Most of us were unfortunate enough not to have enough points to come home with the division, but fortunate enough to be left together.

I am very grateful to you for sending me the news letter even though I hadn't paid any of the assessment.

I remain

Yours sincerely
Norman L. Evans
