June 5, 1945

My dear Dr. Tate,

I feel rather like a first class heel because I haven't paid that which I promised to pay for the benefit of the Prometheus. The only excuse that I have is that I have been separated from the others until recent weeks. My organization was far from others and things such as your address etc. ~~were~~ unknown to me. Now that I have all the necessary information my dues will be promptly paid in full.

I am sure that I voice the sentiment of all concerned when I say that we appreciate all that you are doing and have done. I am greatly sorry that I didn't have the pleasure of knowing you personally during my sojourn at Howard.

Until times are better I remain yours,

Sincerely

Norman L. Evans
