Botanigas, Luzon
31 January, 1946

Dear Dr. Tate,

I have seen many of the fellows here on Luzon in the last nine months. Most have gone home now but there is still Sylvester and Addison who are next door to my outfit, we, it seems, are doomed permanent residents.

I believe Wallace and Dorsey are still up in Manila, also sweating out this broiling temperature.

I am sure many of the fellows have returned. Please give them my regards.

I am enclosing a money order for $40.⁰⁰ which I hope helps to take me from the dog house.

I am hoping to be in D.C.
before too much longer.

Most Sincerely

Edward J. Beffard
