ITALY

Dear Dr. Tate,

It was a pleasure to read the fourth Promethean News Letter, and to receive information concerning members of the Prometheans now scattered over the globe.

Duty has permitted me to attend only several of the organization's meetings thus far, but I do intend to turn over a new leaf and cooperate.

As a primary step to keeping my resolution, I am enclosing my dues for ten months.

The long-awaited peace seems very near now. News reports are very favorable. It is almost too good to be true. Perhaps the time will not be far off when the Prometheans can have a reunion and consolidate.

I am sure that my gratitude is only an addition to that of all the other Prometheans who are well aware of the aid which you and your co-workers are lending us, during the infancy of our club.

Respectfully yours,

Pfc. Andrew D. Richardson.
