Dear Miss Tate:

This is my first opportunity since arrived back here to write you. I'm getting along as well as a ~~soldier~~ soldier could. I'm soldering hard everyday now. We are training hard for a big show in the near future. We must rehearse every day and put everything we have into it. The eyes of the world will be on us. We must be good.

I enjoyed my stay in D.C. very much. I could I could have stayed longer. I come on the campus the following day but I didn't see you. I suppose you were busy.

I must thank you for your efforts in trying to secure a yearbook for me. I'm sorry we couldn't get one for this year. I really wanted one for 1943-44. I wasn't interested much, in the one for 1942-43. I'm making a large "book of memoirs" "my life in the service". I have kept newspaper clippings, photos and all events since I've been in the service. It will be interesting to read in the future. I also keep a ~~daily~~ diary.

I see most of the boys once or twice a week. I told them you said hello.

I know you are busy now. Write when you have time. I enjoy your letters very much. My best wishes for your health.
Yours truly,
Robert Turner
