JOHN J. BRICE AS I KNEW HIM

Oceasionally my assistance was requested with problems in musical interpretation which I was happy to give. It was gratifying to sit on the sideline and observe John Brice's success in his musical career.

In 1942 he was promoted to Warrant Officer and sent to Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

I feel justified in believing and I hope records will prove that John J. Brice made one of the best R. O. T. C. bands in the history of Howard University.

A Devoted Comrade,
