Faculty members will give "pep talks" at several of the dormitories and fraternity and sorority houses Tuesday evening. Betty Gorsuch is arranging for the speakers.

The Ugly Man and Ugly Woman contest, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, will be held Thursday. Votes may be bought for a penny in the Well from 9 to 4.

About 38 groups will take part in the all-campus variety show Friday night in the Main Aud. This year the fraternities and sororities have been paired to present

General admission tickets may be purchased by students for their fathers, who may sit anywhere in the stands.

Activities at the half will begin with the University Band entertaining with marching formations appropriate for the occasion. This will be followed by the presentation of the Dad of the Day trophy by Dr. McDonald.

ATOs will honor their own fathers at a banquet at the Midway in the evening. Special guests will be John W. Vann, national president of ATO, Dr. McDonald and Dr. Ralph G. Harshman.

Co-chairmen of Dad's Day are Dave Schaeffer and Bill Ensign.

Dr. Shuck Writes Pamphlet Article

Dr. Emerson C. Shuck, dean of Graduate School, is the author of an article titled, "Cold War In The Graduate Schools," which was published in the Sept. 29 issue of "School and Society."

The pamphlet, which is published weekly by The Society for The Advancement of Education, Inc., deals with current educational problems.

Dr. Shuck's article tells the advantages and disadvantages of future teachers attending Graduate School.

Believe It Or Not, Girls, Manpower Isn't Lacking

Mileti Gains Senate 'Veep' Job; Prom Date Is Set For May 10

Bob Taylor, Student Senate president, announced May 10, 1952 as the date for the University Anniversary Prom. A band has not been selected because musicians' agencies do not schedule band appearances this far in advance.

Nick Mileti, a junior, was elected by the Senators to fill the post of Senate vice president. His duties will entail caring for Senate committees and their actions.

Student Senate has delegated a committee to investigate the complete social organization on campus and to submit a report concerning social schedule conflicts and unnecessary functions to the Council on Student Affairs.

Recently added at Bowling Green, the Council on Student Affairs is composed of administration, faculty and student members who review any decision concerning the student body.

Through Senate action, another committee has been appointed to study the possibility of introducing graduate student representation in the Senate. One reason cited for the study deals with the raise in the Student Union fee. Graduate students had no vote on the raise, but are required to pay the fee increase.

A revision in the Student Senate constitution has been passed concerning absences at Senate meetings. Each representative is now required to select an alternate from the organization he represents.

The alternate must attend all scheduled Senate meetings, thus expediting Senate business in the event of an absence.

The committee on the new Student Union has appointed sub-committees to deal with problems relating to the proposed building. The sub-committees include: 1. Study of Finances; 2. Type of Staff; 3. Study of Present Union; 4. Study of New Union Room Allocations; and 5. Study of House Rules for New Union.

Anne Barnes was appointed student representatives to serve with the Civil Defense Board of the city of Bowling Green.

A Senate representative is on duty in the new Student Senate office to answer questions about student government. The office is in the northeast corner of the Rec Hall and will be open from 9 to 12 and 1 to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday the remainder of the semester.

Women's Dorms Ready Floats

Every women's dorm on campus will be represented in the Key Parade when it winds its way around the circle Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Pat Boller, chairman of the parade, stated that all of the organizations have turned in their float plans, and no duplications were apparent.

Each dorm's candidate for Key Queen will ride on the float during the parade, which will begin at the Gate Theater, pass the Ad Bldg., turn left at the Nest and return to the Gate Theater.

The judges' stand will be on the steps of the Ad Bldg., where Master of Ceremonies Bob Taylor, Student Senate president, will announce the passing floats.

Judging the event will be Miss Doris Brockman, instructor in the school of design at the Toledo Museum of Art; Roy E. Digby, manager of LaJalle's; and Robert O. Bone, assistant professor in the art department.

Special guests will include Pres. and Mrs. Ralph W. McDonald and Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Prout.

According to Miss Boller, the parade will be postponed in case of rain.

Dr. Cooke Awarded Leadership Medal

"For distinguished service to boyhood in Wood District," Dr. Gilbert Cooke, professor of business administration here at the University, was awarded the Silver Beaver Medal by the Toledo Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The award, highest given by area councils, was presented to Dr. Cooke at the annual Wood District meeting, held at Otsego Park, Sept. 25. LeRoy Newmyer, advertising director of the Toledo Blade, presented the medal to Dr. Cooke.

Dr. Cooke has been in Scout work for 10 years.

In Our Opinion

Greeks Cooperate

Inter-Fraternity Council began plans for a larger and more representative spring function last week when it started plans for "Greek Week"—and this time sororities may be on board.

This year's version of the seven day event will be labeled "All-Greek Week," if IFC and Panhellenic Council committees find that including sororities will cause few time or monetary conflicts. The week's festivities will include church services, banquets, inter-group song contests, exchange dinners, dances, and picnics.

Last year, female Greeks entered the Week's activities by co-sponsoring the actives' and pledges' dances through their Panhel Council. Full-scale sorority representation was unknown two years ago.

Thus, in the evolution of "Greek Week," the fraternities realize that toga-toting women should be a part of a well-known campus custom. And harassed students may find that this will cause spread-out social events to be concentrated into a week of Greek festivity, allowing for more end-of-year study time.

Something For Nothing

Social Committee, and especially the sub-committee on campus movies headed by Jim Limbacher, deserves some expression of gratitude from the crowds of University students who have been filling the Main Aud. each Friday and Saturday night to enjoy the free campus shows.

Despite obstacles which make the scheduling of first-rate movies a difficult proposition, Mr. Limbacher and his committee continue to come up with better than average entertainment. For nothing more than the presentation of an Ac card, you can enjoy a movie—not the latest one perhaps, but shows that were top-rank when they appeared.

We know of few other places where one can come so close to getting something for nothing.

'Swing It' Has Gray Sets, Original Presentation Plans

Simplicity will keynote the sets, costumes, and properties for "Swing It, Shakespeare," the student-produced musical comedy.

The setting, consisting mainly of levels and columns, will be gray, with a white backdrop.

Color will come from special lighting and hand-dyed costumes. Each scene has two basic colors.

The costumes originally were to be black and white, but the student faculty committee felt it was too radical. Some of the costumes are reversible so that they may be worn in two or more scenes.

Jim Limbacher, author of the production, promises that those who come early won't be bored. The cleaning woman will be in the aisles with her vacuum cleaner and the cast of 86 will "make-up" on stage while others have their costumes fitted and crewmen move the scenery in place.

Official Announcement

All students and faculty members who want to reserve any buildings or rooms should make their reservations in the Registrar's Office.

The Nest will be closed Saturday morning, Oct. 6, because of Dad's Day. The Dads will be served lunch there.

Student Typists Strike Keys To Classics, Pop, Or Jazz

BY ERWIN FALKENHEIM

"I DON'T THINK IVAN UNDERSTANDS THE PURPOSE OF A PEP RALLY."

Have you heard "The Stars and Stripes Forever" or "The King Cotton March" played on a typewriter? Well, neither did we until we heard of this phenomena going on right here at Bowling Green in the P A Bldg.

Music is being used in teaching typing.

As a phonograph in the classroom begins playing a composition, usually a march, the student starts typing to the beat and rhythm of the music. The slower the music, the slower the typing. The faster the music, the faster the typing.

Typing to music creates rhythm in typing. It also helps to increase speed and prevents jamming the keys.

Finally the lowly typewriter has come into its own as a musical instrument. What an idea for a talent show! Can you imagine "Come On A My House" being played on a Remington?

Secretaries can turn on a victrola and keep time to "Castle Rock" or "Beethoven's Fifth" while typing the boss's letters. For a peppy letter they can play the latest jazz record and switch the ribbon to a daring red.

A mournful melody and the blackest of ribbons would be the style for the bill collector.

We won't be surprised when typewriters will be sold in music stores. Small record players may be installed in typewriters which can be controlled by a dial or push button. Orchestras, made up of typewriters, will tour the country from coast to coast.

You also can be the life of any party. Instead of the hostess saying "Please play something on the Steinway" she will say, "Sit down and play something on the Remington."

A class of Business Administration students practice typing to music, under the direction of George Hankey, assistant professor. Music, played on a phonograph, aids the student in creating a typing rhythm.

Sponsors Chosen By Biology Club For Coming Year

Dr. Everett C. Myers and Dr. R. Lynn Hutchison were chosen as sponsors of the Biology Club at a recent meeting.

The club will maintain a bulletin board on the third floor of Moseley Hall and will take several field trips during the coming year.

New officers include John Youngpeter, president; Ed Palarea, vice-president; Carol Winkle, secretary; and Dan Guthrie, treasurer.

Workshop Players Elect Tom Treon President

Tom Treon was elected president of the Workshop Players at a meeting held Tuesday night in the Gate Theater. Other officers elected were Jan Nowack, vice-president; Mary Yeasting, secretary-treasurer; and Jennie Shelly, program chairman.

Two directors will be named for the two one-act plays to be presented by the group in the near future, according to Charles Fasnough, group adviser.

SCF Meets Sunday In Lab School Gym

Student Christian Fellowship will continue its theme, "Who Am I," with Prof. James C. Wright, psychology dept., specifically discussing "Who Am I—On a Coed Campus" in the Lab School gym Sunday at 6 p. m.

The meeting is the second in a series.

Mt. Union Here For Dad's Day Game

Falcons To Face All-Ohio Halfback Bill Erlitz

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 the B-G Falcons take the field against the Purple Raiders of Mt. Union College in the traditional Dad's Day contest. Bob Whittaker's boys came through the Miami fracas bruised, but escaped injury. With the exception of John Ladd, who is still out, the team will be going for its second win of the year.

The Raider's coach, Nelson "Bully" Jones, is well-known around this area, having been at Findlay for many years before going to the Alliance school. Mt. Union will be out for its initial win of the campaign, having lost its opener Saturday to Kent State, 28-7.

Kent State tromped Western Michigan, who in turn beat Toledo.

Last season the Purple Raiders had a good year, winning six out of eight games. Jones has a good supply of lettermen backs, headed by Bill Erlitz, 190-lb. halfback who was named to the All-Ohio squad last year. He has been mentioned as a possibility for the Little All-American squad this year.

The Falcons have played Mt. Union five times in the past. Of these contests, Bowling Green has won three, dropping two. The last time the two teams met was in 1949 when the Falcons whipped them 35-7.

Tickets are still on sale at the Men's Gym for this game and a few are left for the remainder of the season. Pick up a ticket between 1 and 4 this afternoon and support the Falcons in their Dad's Day bout with Mt. Union.

LITTLE ALL-AMERICAN PROSPECT

BILL ERLITZ, MT. UNION halfback is shown above. He is one of the outstanding Purple Raiders whom the Falcons play tomorrow.

Junior Varsity Grid Squad Schedules Four Contests

The junior varsity football team, under Coach Forrest Creason and his assistant, Dale Herbert, will meet four teams during the 1951 season.

Junior varsity squads from Heidelberg, Kent State, Toledo U., and Ohio University will furnish the opposition, with the possibility of two games with Heidelberg. However, the official dates for these games are at present undecided.

Practice started Wednesday, Sept. 26, and although not too much can be said this early, Coach Creason feels he "should field a pretty good ball club."

At present 60 junior varsity candidates are working out, and about 10 more are expected to be sent down from the varsity. The squad will be cut later in the season to form a more workable unit.

Coach Creason prefers to call his charges a "junior varsity" team rather than a "freshman" team, since freshmen are eligible for varsity competition this year, and the squad includes several transfer students who are upperclassmen.

VARSITY HIGHLIGHTS

BY BILL GREENHILL

TONIGHT THERE IS TO BE a pep rally in front of the Ad Bldg at 6:30. Highlighting the affair will be short talks by Dr. Ralph McDonald, Bob Whittaker, and the co-captains of the football squad. It is expected that most of the football team will be present and they will be introduced to the fans by Mr. Whittaker.

WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE about 1500 students at this rally. It is your chance to show the team and yourselves that you appreciate their efforts and are backing them 100 per cent.

TOMORROW IS DAD'S DAY. Sponsored by Alpha Tau Omega it is the day we honor our Dad's. The football squad will pick a Dad of the Year who will be presented to the crowd at halftime. If you live near enough, give your Pop a call tonight and get him down for the game.

FORTUNATE FOR TOLEDO UNIVERSITY foes for the remainder of the season, is the news that A. C. Jenkins, Rocket halfback, is reportedly leaving for the Army tomorrow. However we will be skeptical until we are positive that he is in. Every week this season it has been news that Jenkins may not be able to play-to be in service.

FOR THOSE CRITICS that assume that last Saturday's game was an example of what the team can do we would like to bring out the fact that Miami would like to have booked Ohio State this year and there are those people who think that Miami could have beaten them. It is said that the 1951 edition of the Redskins is the best team in the history of the school. BUREAU OF FINE PRINT—Is Brooklyn still in the National League?

Football Players To Be Introduced At Rally

Speakers to Include Dr. Ralph McDonald

A student pep rally, to build spirit for Dad's Day and the Mt. Union Game, will be held this evening from 6:30 to 7:00 p. m. in front of the Ad. Bldg.

To foster student interest, a band will lead a procession starting at 6 p. m. from Fraternity Row, up past the Women's dorms, then to Sorority Row, and finally to the Ad. Bldg.

The rally will be highlighted by the appearance of Pres. Ralph W. McDonald, coach Robert H. Whittaker, and the Falcon football team.

Groups that have scheduled hayrides for this evening are invited to board their wagons at the rally, giving their party and the football team a good send-off.

Organizations that have planned exchange parties for this evening have been requested to paint signs displaying their organization's name. The groups may then gather under the signs at the rally, and later move on to their houses.

Harriers Win First Meet

Bowling Green's cross country team took its first win of the campaign Tuesday afternoon as it outlasted the Albion Britons in a three-mile marathon.

Individual winner of the meet was Lee Pate, veteran runner who ran the course in 16:03. Pate took over the lead just before the two-mile mark and held on the rest of the way. His time at the two-mile mark was 10:42.

Finishing second was an Albion runner, Jim Holmes, with a time of 16:42.

Three Falcon runners took third, fourth, and fifth respectively. Marv Crostan was third with a 16:30 time; fourth went to Dean Marr, with a 16:31 time; and Hilliard Roane grabbed fifth with a time of 16:44.

A total of 14 runners took part in the marathon—seven men from each school.

The course ran from the stadium, through the cemetery twice, around the golf course, back through the stadium, and finishing by the Club House at the golf course.

The next meet will be with Baldwin Wallace and Wayne University, on Saturday, Oct. 13, here.

High Scores, Injuries Mark Frat Grid Play

Sigma Phi Epsilon rolled up the highest score of the week as it trounced Alpha Sigma Phi 47-0 in three quarters. Sigma Alpha Epsilon almost duplicated the SPE's feat as they rolled to a 42-7 victory over the Phi Kappa Taus.

Closest game of the week was the Alpha Tau Omega-Kappa Sigma contest with the ATOs clicking on two extra points to win 20-18. In other games Sigma Nu edged Delta Tau Delta 12-6 and Theta Chi defeated Phi Kappa Psi 13-8.

Results of other fraternity football games:

Phi Kappa Psi	8	Theta Chi	13
Sig Eps	47	Alpha Sigs	0

Wednesday, in one of the roughest games to be played thus far, which caused one player to be taken to the hospital and most of the others limping at the end of the game, the Sig Eps defeated Phi Kappa Psi 18-12.

Illinois-Wisconsin Game To Be First Game Televised Coast-Coast

Football and television history will be made Saturday with the coast-to-coast telecasting of the Illinois-Wisconsin game played at Urbana, Ill.

More than 30 million grid fans can watch this first full network offering on the NCAA schedule aired by 36 NBC-TV stations scattered from Boston to Los Angeles. To bring TV fans the entire game, if possible, Illinois athletic officials will delay the kickoff at least 30 minutes in an attempt to avoid conflict with the World Series telecast.

The event will enter the record book on two counts. It will be seen by the largest audience ever to see a football game and it is the first football telecast to span the continent.

Movies Feature Maugham Novel

"THE MOON AND SIXPENCE," film taken from a Somerset Maugham novel, will be shown on the campus Friday night in the Main Aud.

It's the story of the life of unfriendly Charles Strickland, portrayed by George Saunders, who suddenly leaves his family and calm life as a London stockbroker, and goes to Paris to become a painter.

After an unsuccessful and unhappy period in Paris, the artist retires to Tahiti, where he marries a native girl, and begins turning out many masterpieces before he expires of a lingering death.

A sidelight is that Nelson Bennett, model for artist Strickland, was on the Bowling Green campus last week. Mr. Bennett is one of the world's most famous models, and posed for the statue of Prometheus in front of Rockefeller Center, New York.

Saturday's campus movies will prove to be quite different and entertaining. A collection of old movies will be shown at 7:00 and 9:00 in the Main Aud.

The pictures date back as far as 1900, and none are more recent than 1920. Of course the pictures were originally silent, but some dialogue has been added with the supplementary music and sound reels.

Intense drama is featured in "THE GANGSTERS AND THE GIRL," while "EARLY OKLAHOMA" is a pioneer and Indian thriller. Comedy titles are "DREAM OF A RAREBID FIEND" and "FUN IN A PULLMAN." Marie Dressler will star in a two-reel comedy, and early newsreels will also be included in the program.

Many Unusual Jobs Held By Students During Summer

"What did you do all summer?" A common question asked around campus, but the answers are many, because of the almost limitless variety of jobs held by Bowling Green students during the summer vacation months.

One student met "Lincoln's right-hand man" while working as an orderly at the Dayton State Mental Hospital, and found another patient claiming to be a federal judge of the United States who would not touch food on the fourth of July, fearing it would be poisoned.

Another student spent her time at the only hockey camp in the United States. The camp was founded and is still managed by Mrs. Constance M. K. Applebee, who introduced hockey to this country in 1901.

A student musician, in relating his experiences, tells of being shot at by an irate listener, and an auto-driving instructor tells of hair-raising occurrences teaching women to drive.

Working for the United States Forestry Service, doing conservation work, brought one student to one of the most remote parts of the United States. Working in a region 135 miles from the nearest town (pop. 500), he spent his time amidst virgin timber that no white men had seen for 82 years. Before this time, no one had entered the area, located in north central Idaho, since Lewis and Clark made their historic passage in the early 1800's.

Parisian Fashions Suggested For Neat Coed's New Look

A touch of Paris might be seen on the Bowling Green campus if the coed takes to heart the tips offered by Mademoiselle, fashion magazine.

Loose-back coats, fitted-fronts, and half belts across the back on suits and coats are all promised to be part of the new "new-look" for this year.

As for the outdoor story, college girls can go fur-coatless gracefully this year in one of the new-style cloth coats.

The fitted type with the big collar, big skirt and bright lining; the wrap coat with the huge shawl collar, and no buttons in sight (recommended for the very sophisticated); the little barrel coat, ending just at the hip, and the box coat, softer version of the box silhouette, are all in this year's vogue.

For the few coeds planning a wedding in the chapel, a champagne satin gown is suggested. There are the tips, girls—the rest is up to you and your pocket-book.

Any studying planned for the next couple days will have to be squeezed in between the many events scheduled for this weekend.

Phi Mu's Enchantress Ball, the first semi-formal of the year, will be held from 9-12 Saturday night in the Women's Gym. This fourth annual affair will have its traditional black and white decorations, sprinkled with paper stars. Playing beneath the glittering moon will be Duane Tovey and his orchestra.

General chairman of the dance is Alice Sutkaitos; decorations, Jean Kerr and June Malaby; program, Lee Ellison; publicity, Virginia Ogg.

The Key Parade at 2:30 on Sunday will conclude the all-campus activities for the weekend.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 23

This classy campus caper-cutter got his snootful of cute cigarette tests. It didn't take him long to dig out the fact that cigarette mildness can't be determined by a mere single puff or quick-sniff experiment! Millions of smokers, on and off the campus, have discovered there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

IT'S THE SENSIBLE TEST . . . the 30-day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a day-after-day basis. No snap judgments. Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

After all the Mildness Tests —

Camel leads all other brands by billions
