Back up A WINNING TEAM

Sure, you want to back a winner—in football or in war. And you've been doing it with war work, with salvage, with War Bonds. In fact, you've been doing a magnificent job of helping to win the war—up to now.

But now that victory seems assured—now what? Now, more than ever, we must back up those who are fighting to make that victory sure and doubly sure.

There can be no relaxing—no letting up in our War Bond buying.

Don't stop until you've invested to the very limit. Our fighting men won't stop, you can depend on that!

Back up the winning team—until the final shot.

Greetings

Bowling Green is indeed again proud and happy to appear on the gridiron with the worthy men from Miami University. Our football relationship, though brief, has been a most pleasant one and we hope that the foundation of a long and traditional relationship has been laid.

We realize that this year's plane of college football may not come up to peacetime par but hope that this evening's battle will provide the fans of Toledo, viewing their only college football game of 1944 played in their city, many happy memories.

Bowling Green State University is greatly indebted to the officials of Morrison R. Waite High School for the use of their fine stadium on this occasion.

In conclusion, permit us to extend to each of you a cordial invitation to come to Bowling Green to visit our campus whenever possible.

Frank J. Prout,
President

In sending his Falcons against Miami tonight, Coach Bob Whittaker, is striving to beat his Alma Mater again. His teams hold a 2 to 1 edge in three games to date. Last year Miami won 45 to 6. In the two previous meetings Bowling Green won 9 to 0 and 7 to 6.

Athletic Director Merlin A. Dimer of Miami, was once the coach of Harold Anderson, Bowling Green's Athletic Director, when the latter was an All-Ohio athlete at Otterbein college.

The game tonight will be Sid Gillman's first as head coach of the Redskins. He took over when Coach Stu Holcomb entered the armed service. Sid's own feats on the gridiron at Ohio State are well remembered by many Toledo fans.

Among the many coaches in the high schools of the country, Bowling Green State University is proud to claim Jack Mollenkopf, coach of Toledo Waite, as one of her products.

Since the appointment as head coach in 1941 Bob Whittaker has directed the Falcons to 19 victories while losing 6 games and deadlocking in three.

In anticipation of a very good basketball squad this coming winter, Athletic Director Harold Anderson is booking the toughest cage schedule that any Bowling Green State University team has ever faced.

Many hundreds of Naval Aviation Cadets gained their first flying experience at the Bowling Green University airport before the V-5 program was closed this summer. B.G.S.U. is now offering a civilian course in flying and expects to expand the course at the close of the war.

Attention of the alumni and friends of Bowling Green is called to the annual Homecoming game on October 7 against Ohio Wesleyan at Bowling Green. A gala time is being planned by the committees in charge.

Bowling Green is operating on a trimester basis similar to the V-12 program. The next regular semester will start on October 30.

Started in 1910, Bowling Green State University has grown from a "one-building normal school" to become one of the ranking Universities of this section of the United States. The present facilities include twelve instructional buildings valued at $3,500,000; eight dormitories; a 120 acre airport complete with three hangars and an air control tower, and 95 acres of landscaped campus.

Present enrollment includes 858 civilians and 400 V-12 Naval students. Pre-war enrollment (1940-41) included 1543 students (779 men, 764 women) plus 57 graduate students. The students' homes are located in twenty states and four foreign countries.

The University offers courses of study in:

- (1) The College of Education—leading to the Bachelor of Science in Education degree for Kindergarten, Primary, Elementary, Junior High School, Senior High School, and Adult Education teachers;
- (2) The College of Liberal Arts—leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science Degree in professional or pre-professional curricula; and

- (3) The College of Business Administration—leading to the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Degree in Accounting, Finance, General Business, Industrial Management, Marketing, and Secretarial Administration.

The opportunity for graduate study is available in the fields of Biology, Education, English, French, History, Latin, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Sociology.

The campus was opened to national sororities and fraternities in 1943. National sororities now at Bowling Green include: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Gamma, and Gamma Phi Beta. Among the fraternities, Alpha Tau Omega, and Pi Kappa Alpha have established chapters. Of the locals, Beta Gamma Upsilon is petitioning Sigma Nu and Five Brothers is petitioning Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Post-war plans include the construction of eight new dormitories, a new science hall, and the renovation of present buildings.

The University Library is a depository for the publications of the United States Government and, as such, receives approximately 5000 pieces of printed matter from all government departments. Use of the library's facilities and 70,000 volumes is open to the public.

A WORLD TITLE AT STAKE

The Falcons may carry on in battles against their friendly foes in the good old American way today, a privilege that few other countries may now enjoy, but to protect our right to continue to live our lives as we wish, we as Americans must fight a bigger and more serious foe.

We, who sit on the sidelines must buy our tickets and buy them again and again in the form of War Bonds and Stamps.

Make sure that your Army and Navy wins the biggest Victory in the world. Buy Bonds. This Bank can provide you with them at any time.

The Home Of The Redskins

By GILSON WRIGHT
Director News Bureau
Miami University

Five days after Abraham Lincoln was born in neighboring Kentucky, Miami university at Oxford was established by act of the Ohio legislature on Feb. 17, 1809.

Actual instruction did not begin until the fall of 1824, and the first class was graduated in 1826. Among those early professors was a young man named William Holmes McGuffey who, while in Oxford, wrote his famous Eclectic readers.

One of the oldest colleges in the middle west, Miami is the second oldest state university west of the Alleghenies.

Miami has been the mother of so many fraternities that the Miami Triad has become a common name on American college campuses. The Triad is named for Beta Theta Pi, established at Miami in 1839; Phi Delta Theta, in 1848, and Sigma Chi, in 1855. Still another college men's fraternity, Phi Kappa Tau, was born at Miami, in 1906.

Among Miami's most famous alumni was President Benjamin Harrison. Still another was Whitelaw Reid, vice-presidential candidate with Harrison in his campaign for a second term. Reid later became ambassador to England.

The university includes a college of liberal arts, the school of education, the school of business administration and the school of fine arts.

Situated on one of the highest spots in Ohio, the campus has an old colonial flavor because of the architecture of its buildings. The campus covers 300 acres, not including a new 300-acre airport two miles west of the village.

Oxford is five miles east of the Ohio-Indiana line and 25 miles northwest of Cincinnati. Hamilton is 14 miles southeast and Dayton is 40 miles northeast. Richmond, Ind., is 25 miles distant.

Miami is particularly proud of its war round. Since Pearl Harbor the university has trained more than 5,000 men and 1,000 Waves for navy service, the men as radio operators with the fleet and the women as replacements for men operators at land stations.

Many hundreds of navy aviation cadets were trained at Miami in both ground courses and actual flight before the V-5 program was discontinued on many American college campuses.

Miami also was the training center of hundreds of navy cooks and bakers who received their schooling in the numerous kitchens which provide food for both civilian students and service men and women.

Both the men in the radio school and the cooks and bakers will be discontinued at Miami in December, although the Waves will continue to be trained there for some time.

Miami also has had a V-12 unit since the inception of this navy officer training program on July 1, 1943. There are 550 apprentice seamen and 100 marines now in the unit, and the football team tonight is made up mostly of youths in the program. Some were assigned to V-12 from active service.

War makes a lot of changes in our daily lives but the one thing that all can unite on in thought and deed is "Victory".

Your country expects every one of you to do your duty. If you cannot serve Uncle Sam in the armed forces, you can do your part by conservation of materials and by buying War Stamps and Bonds.

The saving habit now will provide you with a welcome reserve to be used someday when it will come in most handy. Join us in investing in Victory.

If you wish us to assist you in your banking service, we will be glad to have you call on us and hear about our "Banking by Mail" system. Convenient and inexpensive.
