Dedication

Dr. Walter A. Zaugg

An exuberant personality and a ready smile make Dr. Walter A. Zaugg one of the most beloved persons on the Bowling Green campus. Never too busy to discuss any topic with anyone, Dr. Zaugg may well be called the historian of Bowling Green State University.

He retired in August, 1953 as chairman and professor of education after a half century of teaching in Ohio schools, which included 30 years here at Bowling Green. In the spring before his retirement, Dr. Zaugg was named by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald as Director of Alumni Affairs effective September 1, 1953, and given the title of professor emeritus.

Among the list of his past activities are chairman of the University Committee on Alumni Affairs, and director of the Bureau of Alumni Relations during World War II. Dr. Zaugg has been president of the Northwestern Ohio Education Association and the district governor of Rotary International. He also served as district president and director of the national leadership school of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. As University orator, he has brought Bowling Green State University affectionately to the attention of thousands of Ohioans and audiences of other states.

Dr. Zaugg received B.A. degrees from Valparaiso University and Indiana University; he earned his M.A. from Columbia University and his Ph.D. from New York University. He joined the faculty of Bowling Green State University in 1923.

His earnest, understanding manner has helped many education students settle major problems concerning curricula and future jobs in the teaching field. His attitude and sincere interest in all students emphasizes his genuine desire to further in every way possible all phases of education in this country. As counselor to Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, he has furnished specialized training and information to another group of future educators.

His present position of keeping in contact with former Bowling Green students is one of chief delight to Dr. Zaugg, since he personally knows so many of them.

It is for these, and many other reasons, that the staff of the 1954 KEY takes great pride in dedicating this book to Bowling Green's outstanding educator, Dr. Walter A. Zaugg.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Frank J. Prout

On April 19, 1953 the University community learned with deep sadness of the death of Mrs. Frank J. Prout resulting from an automobile collision. The 1954 KEY staff dedicates this page in memory of Mrs. Prout, a friend to all who knew her at Bowling Green State University.

At the time of Mrs. Prout's death, the Alice Prout Scholarship Fund was set up so that all who wished to give tangible expression of their friendship and feelings could do so by giving to this fund. Four days later the fund had grown to $2186.50 from money and pledges of 226 contributors. Shortly afterward, Dr. Prout contributed $150 which enabled the scholarship fund to become available immediately.

President McDonald named a special committee to decide the amount and the qualifications for making the first award on Honor's Day of 1953. Outstanding character, scholarship, need, and the necessary capabilities to do good college work were considerations in the choice. On Honor's Day, Junior Patricia Pietras received the first $150 award.

This memorial to Mrs. Prout has been made in perpetuity, with $150 a year expected to be the annual interest yield. The total amount in the fund up to the spring of 1954 was $5300.

This expression of love and esteem for Mrs. Prout and her husband, President Emeritus Frank J. Prout, who was injured in the same accident, shows our affection only slightly in comparison to the very deep feeling we all experienced at the time of Mrs. Prout's death.

Preface

We have tried in this 1954 KEY to create a setting for you . . . as freshmen, you approached the door to your college career doubtful but eager to see what the next four years would bring . . . once inside the door, your academic and social life took on vast proportions which at times looked unconquerable . . . but your life inside the door was not so large that you could not look out into the nation and world and observe war, prejudice, hatred, starvation, death . . . now, as you pass through the door again, this time to leave college behind you, you look ahead to your future of playing a part in this world and its betterment . . .

Snapshots

After you pass through that final door, memories of your college days will fade dimmer and dimmer into the past. Here we try to supplement those pleasant memories with pictures and words about the outstanding highlights of your life at Bowling Green.

From your "beanie days" during the first few weeks of school to the solemn academic procession the day of graduation, each event was one more link to your chain of memories.

Football games every fall brought many thoughts to mind . . . win or lose, Freddie Falcon and the cheerleaders led the fans in an equal spirit . . . the colorful crowd gradually donned jackets, then coats, and even blankets as fall gave way to winter . . . bright convertibles glided onto the field revealing their proud passengers, the Homecoming Queen and her two attendants . . . the pre-dawn pep rally took precious hours of sleep from you, but replaced them with an excited feeling of loyalty for Bowling Green and victory for its team.

Beanies and sunshine greet freshmen in September.

Christmas choral concert thrills large audience.

Boosters plaque presented to Dr. McDonald at dawn pep rally.

The Christmas season featured the annual combined choral concert and the A.W.S. Christmas formal, one of the outstanding social events of the entire year.

You freshmen saw for the first time one of "Andy's" great basketball teams in action. As the season progressed, spirit and tension mounted as every shot was attempted.

Toward the end of January and the end of May a gloom settled down over the campus as final exams temporarily took all the joy out of life. They came and went quickly, however, and were soon forgotten because of more pleasant events.

Before you seniors realized what was happening, tennis and baseball were in season, afternoon swimming at Urschel pond and the quarries was the current recreation, the May Queen and her court were reigning over the campus. Senate elections for the following year were over, and all that remained was the formal act of receiving your degrees.

Boosters Club pep rally and Senate election rally featured Dr. McDonald.

Administration And Faculty

Guiding the over-all policies of the University was the Administration and Faculty. Headed by the Board of Trustees and Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, president of the University, various deans and committees shared the distribution of power in governing the student body. Under the president, all academic affairs were planned by the Dean of Faculties and his Academic Council. The Dean of Administration controlled all non-academic matters, one area of which was advised by the Council on Student Affairs. The faculty was represented by the Faculty Senate, which discussed and recommended matters to the administrative officials for action.

Frank J. Lausche

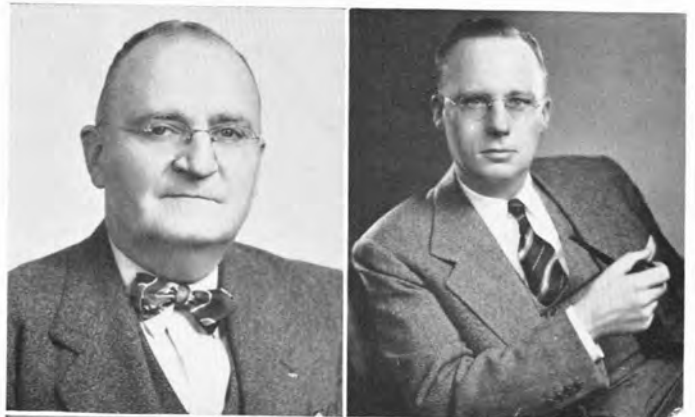

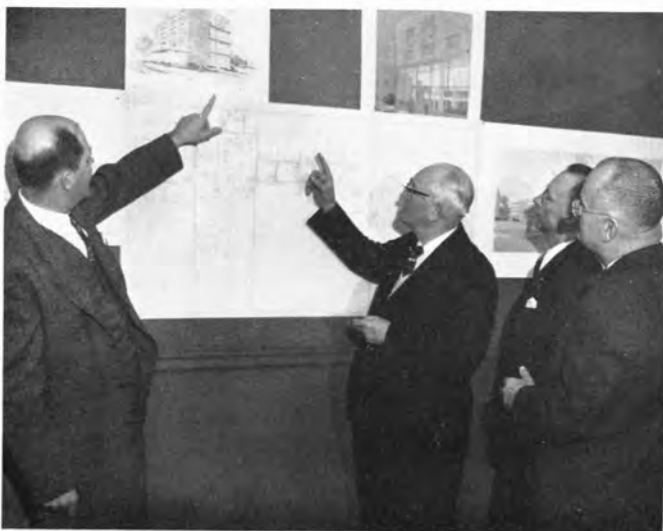

Governor

Serving his fourth term as Governor of Ohio, Frank J. Lausche is a prominent figure in the affairs of Bowling Green State University. Governor Lausche began his first term in the gubernatorial position in 1944, previously serving as mayor of Cleveland. A graduate of John Marshall School of Law, Governor Lausche was a lawyer and judge prior to his political career.

The Board of Trustees makes the final decisions for all policies of the University. This year they approved the loan plan by which the new women's dormitory and Student Union will be built during the next two years.

President

In his three years as president of Bowling Green State University, Dr. Ralph W. McDonald has worked hard to build the academic standards and to improve the physical appearance of the campus.

As head of the Administration, Dr. McDonald governs all policy concerning academic phases. Last spring, upon suggestion of the Council on Student Affairs, Dr. McDonald recommended to the Board of Trustees that the four-year-old car rules be modified, and then, if satisfactory, lifted for the 1953-54 school year. This cooperation between the student body and the Administration resulted in a successful step for all concerned.

Plans for the new Student Union and Women's dormitory were given final approval by the Board of Trustees and Dr. McDonald in the fall. A complete remodeling of the President's office and the Dean of Women and Dean of Students office as well as the remodeling of several other offices in the Administration Building were completed this year.

President Ralph W. McDonald

Pres. and Mrs. McDonald welcome freshmen.

Besides supervising the academic responsibilities of the University, President McDonald along with Mrs. McDonald carried on a very active social life during the year. In the fall Dr. and Mrs. McDonald welcomed the freshmen to Bowling Green at a tea in the Nest given in their honor. They also entertained Student Senate, the foreign students, and had a reception for Greeks in their home at 838 E. Wooster. Dr. and Mrs. McDonald did not always do the entertaining, as they accepted many invitations to teas and dinners given by campus organizations. It is through this social life of our president that we as students get to know Dr. McDonald not only as an administrator but as a person.

Dean of Administration

Dr. Ralph G. Harshman, Dean of Administration, works with the many non-academic phases of university life which are so important for well-organized campus living. He was Dean of the College of Business Administration for fourteen years previous to assuming his present position. Dean Harshman came to Bowling Green in 1936 as an assistant professor of business administration. He received his B.S. degree from Ohio Northern University, and his masters and doctorate degrees from Ohio State University.

Since the Art Department moved into its modern building five years ago, over 8,000 students have studied under the seven professors. Many things have changed since 1946 when only 125 students climbed to the third floor of the Men's Gym to the "Art Department." Traveling exhibits have been displayed in the gallery of the Fine Arts Building periodically during the year. Student work decorated the bulletin boards in the halls. Besides the B.A. degree, a new degree was offered, the

B.F.A. for specialized work in one particular field of art. The Biology Department was responsible for the museum on campus. The collection of plants and animals was located in Moseley Hall, which is named after Dr. E. L. Moseley, first professor of science at Bowling Green State Normal College. The biology greenhouse, located behind the building, supplied plants for class study. This year the Biology Department worked on an eye cataract cure. The National Science Foundation awarded graduate and postdoctorate fellowships to outstanding students in the field of science.

The Department of Business Education provided clerical ability tests for the University students. Certificates of their test ratings were given the students to use in applying for positions after graduation.

The Department of Business Administration offered a variety of courses in several fields, which included accounting, business, law, finance, insurance, industrial management, marketing, and statistics as well as general business administration. The addition of a journalism curriculum to the College of Business Administration was only two years old. Newswriting and editing, photo journalism, publication management, public relations, and radio journalism were offered.

The Chemistry Department boasts the newest class-room building on campus. The department is approved by the American Chemical Society for the training of professional chemists. The National Science Foundation awarded graduate and post-doctorate fellowships.

Inflation, deflation, price stabilization, and the shrinking dollar were discussed in classes offered by the Economics Department. The department offered a major to students in both the colleges of Liberal Arts and Business Administration.

Bowling Green began as a state normal college and has continued to have a large Education Department. The elementary level included the training of teachers for kindergarten and the primary grades from one to six. The secondary level trained students for teaching in junior and senior high school. Other fields such as speech and hearing therapy were offered. The graduate student in education was trained in counseling, guidance, and school administration. Approximately one-third of the students on campus were enrolled in these courses.

The eight-year-old Engineering Drawing Department met the needs of pre-engineering and industrial arts students, and a house planning course was offered for students studying home economics.

English curriculum expanded in the past year, and the freshmen took tests placing them in "slow" or more "advanced" English courses. Besides learning how to express himself better, the English student read the "Atlantic Monthly," learning about current events and new ideas. Advanced students in English came in contact with all of the great ideas of our civilization by reading poetry and prose of writers from other countries.

French, German, Spanish, Latin, and Portuguese were offered to the students by the Foreign Language Department. Not only did the student learn to read and speak the language which he studied, but he learned something about the places and people of the countries where the language is spoken. National and local recognition societies were open to students with scholastic achievement records in each of the languages.

The Geography Department was a separate department in the College of Business Administration. The laboratories were located on the top floor of the Library. The students participated in field trips in addition to their class-room study. A small station for observing weather conditions gave students an opportunity to become familiar with meteorological equipment.

The Geology Department was proud of the fact that all of the majors were placed in jobs. Besides the class-room study, the class made field trips to points of geological interest. The Geology Department was a clearing house of this region for anyone seeking information about rocks and minerals.

The Graphic Arts Department furnished experience for students in industrial arts by offering courses in lithographic printing, press operation, and various phases of photography. The students did some of the University printing.

Dates, battles, and the building and destroying of empires were studied in the classes offered by the History Department. Degrees were offered in the College of Education, and for the past two years, in the College of Liberal Arts. Students excelling in this field were eligible for membership in Phi Alpha Theta, workshop society for history students.

The Home Economics Department trained students for work in hospitals, schools, nurseries, department stores, newspaper offices, utility companies, or radio and television stations. The students of nutrition made a survey this year to discover the breakfast habits of a representative number of University women. Junior and senior students spent a six-week period living in and managing the apartment located in the Practical Arts Building. Williams Hall kitchen served as a lab for dietetics students and institutional management students.

Normal College. The building is located on Poe Road, north of the faculty apartments. Wood, leather, metals, and plastics were some of the courses offered. The department offered a B.A. and an M.A. degree and sponsored Sigma Pi Tau, honorary.

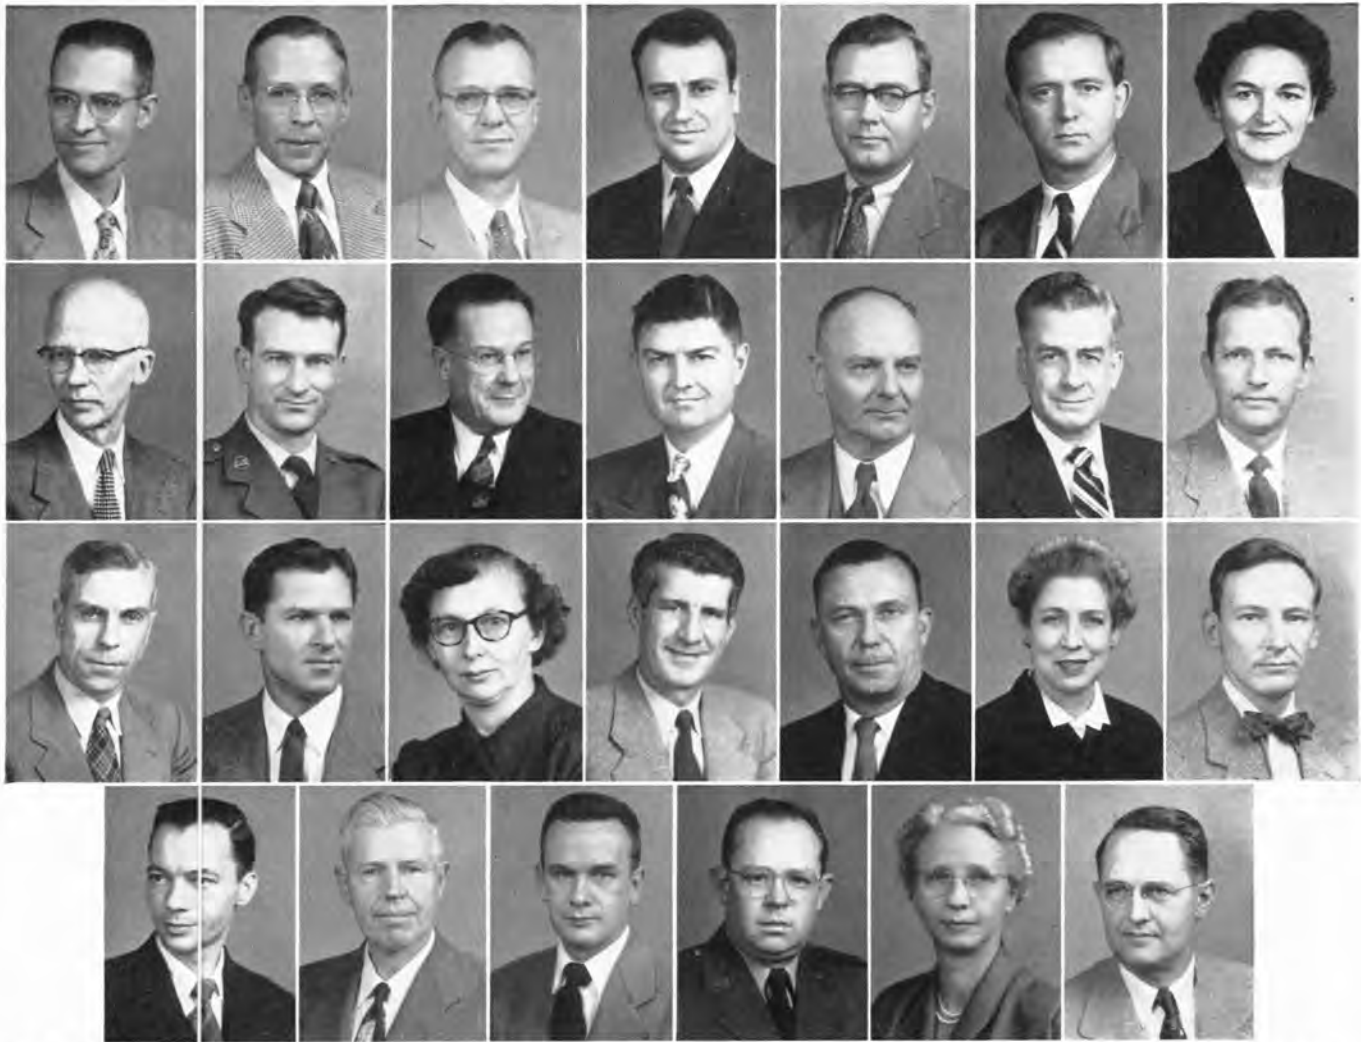

Students of the Journalism Department, with the constant clacking of teletypes and typewriters, were responsible for compiling the B G News, Student Directory, Freshman Handbook, and the Key. The department sponsored an annual High School Journalism Day, a competition for high school writers and papers.

The Library Science Department offered 20 hours of instruction in library work. The main reading room of the Library has a seating capacity of 300, and right after grades came out in February, there was standing room only there.

The Mathematics Department offered courses to students in the fields of education, business administration, liberal arts, science, engineering, and statistics. An M.A. degree was offered to students for work in the department as well as the award by the National Science Foundation for graduate and postdoctorate fellowships.

The Music Department had the largest staff of the University. The vocal and instrumental groups toured the country at various times giving performances. The A Cappella Choir went to Florida in February. "The Messiah" was performed by the combined A Cappella Choir, Men's Glee Club, Treble Clef, University Community Choral Society, and the Symphony Orchestra at Christmas time.

The Philosophy Department, located on the top floor of the Men's Gym, offered courses to teach the students the meaning of good and bad and right and wrong by studying the views of outstanding Greek, Christian, and modern thinkers.

The Physical Education Department offered courses as electives to other than physical education majors. All freshmen and sophomores were required to take physical education courses of nine-week periods.

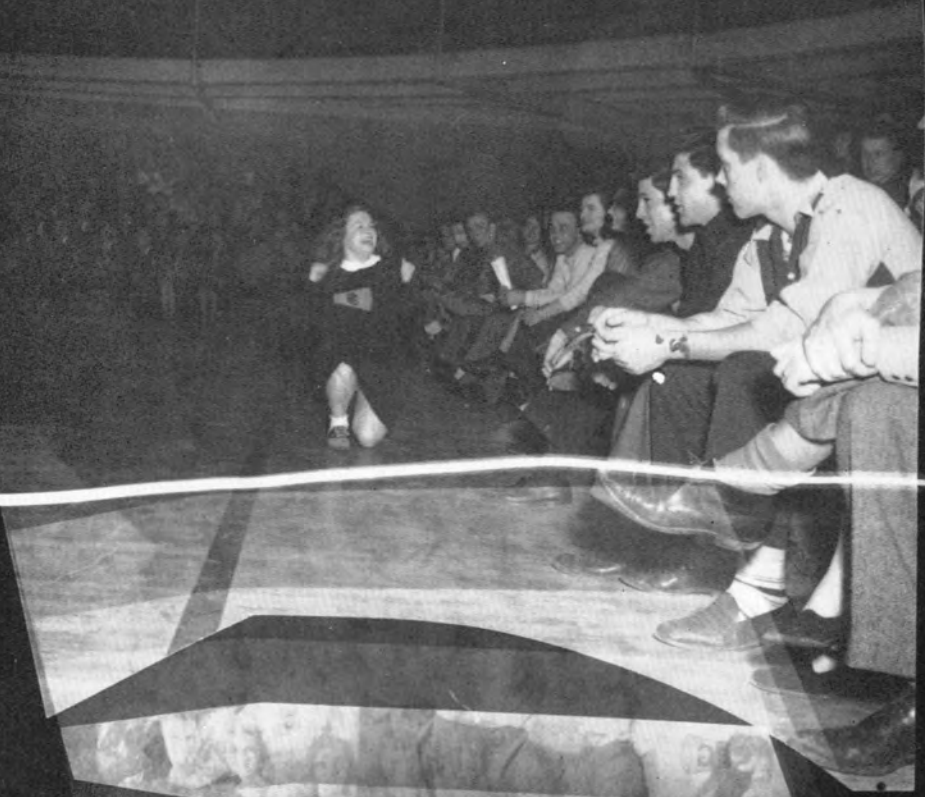

In classes offered by the Physics Department, the students learned about the world of the atom and the significance of survival. Courses studied were electronics, sound and super-sonics, optics and spectroscopy, magnetism, and the applications of physics in industry.

Students took courses offered by the Political Science Department in world governments and the international body set up to bring those governments under a common bond of peace. Roundtable discussions of current political affairs were common.

The Psychology Department used a theoretical and clinical approach. Tests in vocational guidance, general abilities, academic aptitudes, educational guidance, personality problems, and adjustment problems were given in the Psychology Clinic.

A popular elective course at B. G. was the marriage and family relations course taught in the Sociology Department. Pre-professional students in the fields of social work, law, and theology were among those enrolled in the department.

Speech and hearing tests during freshmen orientation came under the guidance of the Speech Department. Corrective courses were offered to anyone needing them. The speech student was given experience in speaking and acting before an audience. The department was divided into four main activities—dramatics, debate, radio, and speech courses, and sponsored the Huron Playhouse, WBGU radio station, and debate competition.

Activities

The door to extracurricular activities was wide open and the opportunities they offered were varied. Campus publications, one important branch of activities, gave journalism students as well as any other interested students the opportunity to gain valuable experience and a host of friends at the same time. Student government opened other doors for leadership experience as did Association of Women Students and Council on Student Affairs. One of the most pleasant of all college activities is choosing the campus beauties, including this year Key Queen, Homecoming Queen, May Queen and her court, and Miss B-G. Choosing the Key King gave co-eds of Smith College an idea of what the typical mid-western college man looks like in 8 x 10 form. A score of other activities gave every Bowling Green student the opportunity to widen his background for future responsibilities.

THE KEY

Putting a 304 page yearbook together was the huge job participated in by more than 60 people working on the various staffs. The three major divisions of art, coordination, and production, were divided further into such departments as copy writing, layout, proof reading, photo work, typing, indexing, circulation, ad selling, and accounting.

While the general student body made the "history" that went into the yearbook day after day, the staff of the 1954 KEY spent long, but enjoyable hours recording these events so that others might remember them in years to come. Unlike the typical smoky room usually associated with the journalism field, the KEY was assembled and produced in the spacious, well-lighted offices behind room 115 of the Administration Building. With the radio contributing atmosphere, different groups of these 60 people worked every day from November until well into April not only gaining valuable experience, but making a wide circle of good friends. Prominent members of this year's staff were: Lois Nelson and Betty Bellaire, copy; Jean Murphy, honoraries; Ruth McClellan, Sue Bonnet, and Carol Hill, classes; Hoddie Thal and Carol Fischer, Greeks; Jim Turner, sports; and Carol Middekar and Pat Smith, typing.

THE B-G NEWS

Carol Sutliff, Editor

Outstanding success came to The B-G News in April of 1953, when the paper won the Scripps-Howard Trophy for the best college newspaper in the daily division. Members of the staff received the award at the Ohio College Newspaper Association convention held at Ohio State. Competing against such colleges as Ohio State, Miami, and Ohio University, Bowling Green won the trophy for the first time, breaking Ohio State's winning streak.

Norman D. Christinson, director of publications at Miami University in Florida, judged the newspapers and wrote many complimentary statements as well as worthwhile suggestions on his final decision award.

At the award dinner, The B-G News Staff also won honorable mention for the best cartoons, third place in the best feature story contest, first place in best photographs, honorable mention in best advertising, and honorable mention in best public affairs campaign contest for its sponsorship of the election Watch Night. The staff and the entire campus were proud of these individual winners and of the paper. The 1953-54 staff continued to make The B-G News the best in Ohio and the 1954 OCNA convention will be held in Toledo after this book goes to press.

STUDENT SENATE

Chuck Jacobs, chaplain; Robert Troknya, treasurer; Carol Payne, secretary; Charles Green, president; Nancy Brown, vice president; and Dale Lee, parliamentarian were the leaders of the 1953-54 student governing body.

The Senators and the officers of this year's Student Senate, President Charles Green, Vice President Nancy Brown, Secretary Carol Payne, and Treasurer Robert Troknya, were chosen in the largest election ever held in University history. This support by the student body was evidenced by the 1400 turnout to the election rally prior to the voting, and by the backing which continued throughout the entire year.

Senate began the year by participating in the Freshmen Orientation Week. Next, they sponsored a pep rally before the football season where for the first time cheerleaders were elected by the student body.

With the help of the elections committee, Student Senate took an active part in Homecoming by sponsoring the Queen elections. Senate played an important role in the annual Campus Chest Drive which netted over $1800 in collections. Highlights of this week were the Ugly Man and Woman Contest, a carnival, and the Delta Gamma versus Alpha Xi Delta Powder Bowl Game.

Chaplain Chuck Jacobs opens the weekly meeting with the Senate prayer.

Senators William Bittner, Robert Troknya, Carol Payne, Charles Green, and Nancy Brown discuss plans for one of Senate's many projects.

Following tradition, Senate decorated a huge Christmas tree in the Administration Building and another in the Nest.

At the beginning of the new semester, Senate devoted time to arousing pep and spirit on campus. A pep rally prior to basketball season was organized by the Public Relations Committee. Before the team left for New York and the N.I.T., Student Senate sponsored a rally and a team send-off.

The U-A Prom, featuring a name band, and May Day with the crowning of the May Queen and her court were the big events in the spring.

At meetings, Senate discussed plans for a bigger Homecoming, and a free day before exams. President McDonald gave Senate more responsibility by allowing them to choose students for University committees. With the promise of a charter from the President, Senate spent the remainder of the year making plans for the future.

Meeting in the Senate room of the Student Center, eight of the senators hold a special meeting to formulate the agenda for a future meeting.

Senate deliberates on an important issue before taking the final vote.

STUDENT COURT

Jerry Helwig, Chief Justice, talks over court proceedings with Dr. Russell Decker, Court Adviser.

With the relaxation of car regulations, Student Court was charged with even greater responsibilities in its capacity as the judicial branch of student government. The Court was officially chartered by the University Board of Trustees to "levy fines and penalties for student violations of University traffic regulations with the full support and backed by the full authority of the Board of Trustees of the University."

Any fines levied by the Student Court were deemed to be in the same category as any other penalty or fee levied by the Board of Trustees within its authority under the laws of the State of Ohio. Under the new traffic regulations, the Court was empowered to fine a student violator from $1 to $100, with $25 being the minimum penalty for any student who failed to properly register his vehicle. In addition, Student Court had the authority to revoke temporarily any student's automobile permit, or require that the student's automobile be returned to that student's home immediately.

The Court, which met each Thursday in the Student Center at 4 p.m., heard all cases referred to it by the President of the Student Government Association involving interpretations of the Student Government Constitution, and disputes on campus.

My job: Fine Him!

The Student Court was composed of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices who are appointed by the President of the Student Government Association, with the approval of the Student Senate. From each junior class, at least two Justices are appointed for two year terms, providing that at least two Justices must be women and at least two must be men.

Jerry Helwig was Chief Justice of the Court for the 1953-54 session, and Mona Middleton, Shirley Chance, Sam Martin and Sue Digby served as Associate Justices. The Student Court was assisted in its operations by Pat Montgomery, Clerk of Courts.

Dr. Russell Decker, Associate Professor of Business Administration, was Court Adviser, as appointed by the President of the University. William J. Rohrs, Director of Safety, worked closely with the Student Court to enforce traffic laws.

During the year, Court members paid a visit to the Toledo Courts to observe how cases were handled and obtain training and background for their trying of campus cases. Efforts were made to record as Court precedents those cases in which definite policies were set in regard to traffic violations.

Pat Montgomery, Clerk of Courts, checks the files for background information on the next case.

Students view their government in action as Chief Justice Helwig questions a defendant.

ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN STUDENTS

Legislative Board:

ROW ONE: Barbara Jisa, Linda Sue Johnson, Marion Long, Betty Ayers, Jackie Gribbons, Lois Radomsky, Carol Doren, Mrs. Currier, Marjorie Ewing.
ROW TWO: Mary Redman, Diane Prentice, Lois Otterbacher, Joan Dunlop, Lorna Middendorf, Sarah Jones, Anne Swigart, Jenne Baer, Darlene Schelling, Margaret Bratton, Kay Metz, Virginia Nell.

Executive Board:

Marion Long, corresponding secretary; Linda Sue Johnson, recording secretary; Betty Ayers, first vice president; Jackie Gribbons, president; Lois Radomsky, second vice president; Carol Doren, treasurer; Mrs. Jesse Currier, adviser.

Judicial Board:

Linda Sue Johnson, Joan Dunlop, Sarah Jones, Marion Long, Jackie Gribbons, Betty Ayers, Lois Radomsky, Carol Doren, Margaret Bratton, Darlene Schelling, Mary Redman.

The executive, legislative, and judicial boards of the Association of Women students worked together to introduce freshmen women to college at the annual mixer held early in September. This get-acquainted party and the AWS Handbook which each girl received when she registered at her dorm orientated the freshmen girls to college life, including the rules and regulations.

Continuing the big sister plan for the second year, AWS sponsored this program also for new students so that each freshmen or transfer women received an upper-class big sister who guided her through her first two weeks on campus. The two weeks were culminated by a huge picnic held for little and big sisters in City Park. The picnic was held all day and did much toward fostering lasting friendships among college coeds.

The leadership banquet sponsored by AWS in late October was for outstanding women on campus. Mrs. Clyde Hissong, from Ohio State University, was guest speaker at the dinner which honored the three boards of AWS, sorority presidents, women presidents of honoraries, justices and officers of Student Senate, editors of campus publications, members of the faculty, head residents, and dormitory and sorority counselors and house chairmen.

One of the winter season's activities was the annual Christmas formal, which followed a "Winter Wonderland" theme. The North and South gyms in the Women's Building were beautifully decorated with lighted Christmas trees, and a blue crepe paper ceiling. In the South gym, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus handed out candy canes during intermission to all the couples who enjoyed the first big all-campus formal of the year.

AWS also sponsored the Christmas caroling which concluded the holiday activities, and a job clinic in the spring which presented pamphlets and information on summer and permanent work opportunities. Later in the spring the AWS May Sing featured groups from every women's residence competing for a trophy, and second and third places. The Senior Breakfast for all graduating senior women concluded the year for AWS.

COUNCIL ON STUDENT AFFAIRS

ROW TWO: Jackie Gribbons, Marge Ewing, Stuart Givens, Dr. Lowry B. Karnes, Dr. Elden T. Smith, Jerry Helwig, Chuck Green.

In order to decide without bias University activities of interest to the student body, representatives from outstanding organizations on campus together with faculty and administrative members were appointed by President McDonald to serve on the Council on Student Affairs, being directly responsible to him for their actions. The presidents of Association of Women Students, Cap and Gown, Student Senate, Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, and Omicron Delta Kappa were the student members of the Council. This year, those presidents were, in the same order, Jackie Gribbons, Marge Ewing, Charles Green, David Freedheim (Herb Scogg assumed membership when he became president of IFC second semester), Joyce Crede, and Jerry Helwig. Elected by the faculty to serve were Dr. Elden T. Smith, Dr. Lowry B. Karnes, and Warren E. Steller. Arch B. Conklin, Dean of Men; Mrs. Florence K. Currier, Dean of Women; F. Eugene Beatty, Assistant to the President; and Stuart Givens, Coordinator of Student Activities were appointed by the President to be administrative members. Ralph G. Harshman, Dean of Administration, was an ex officio member.

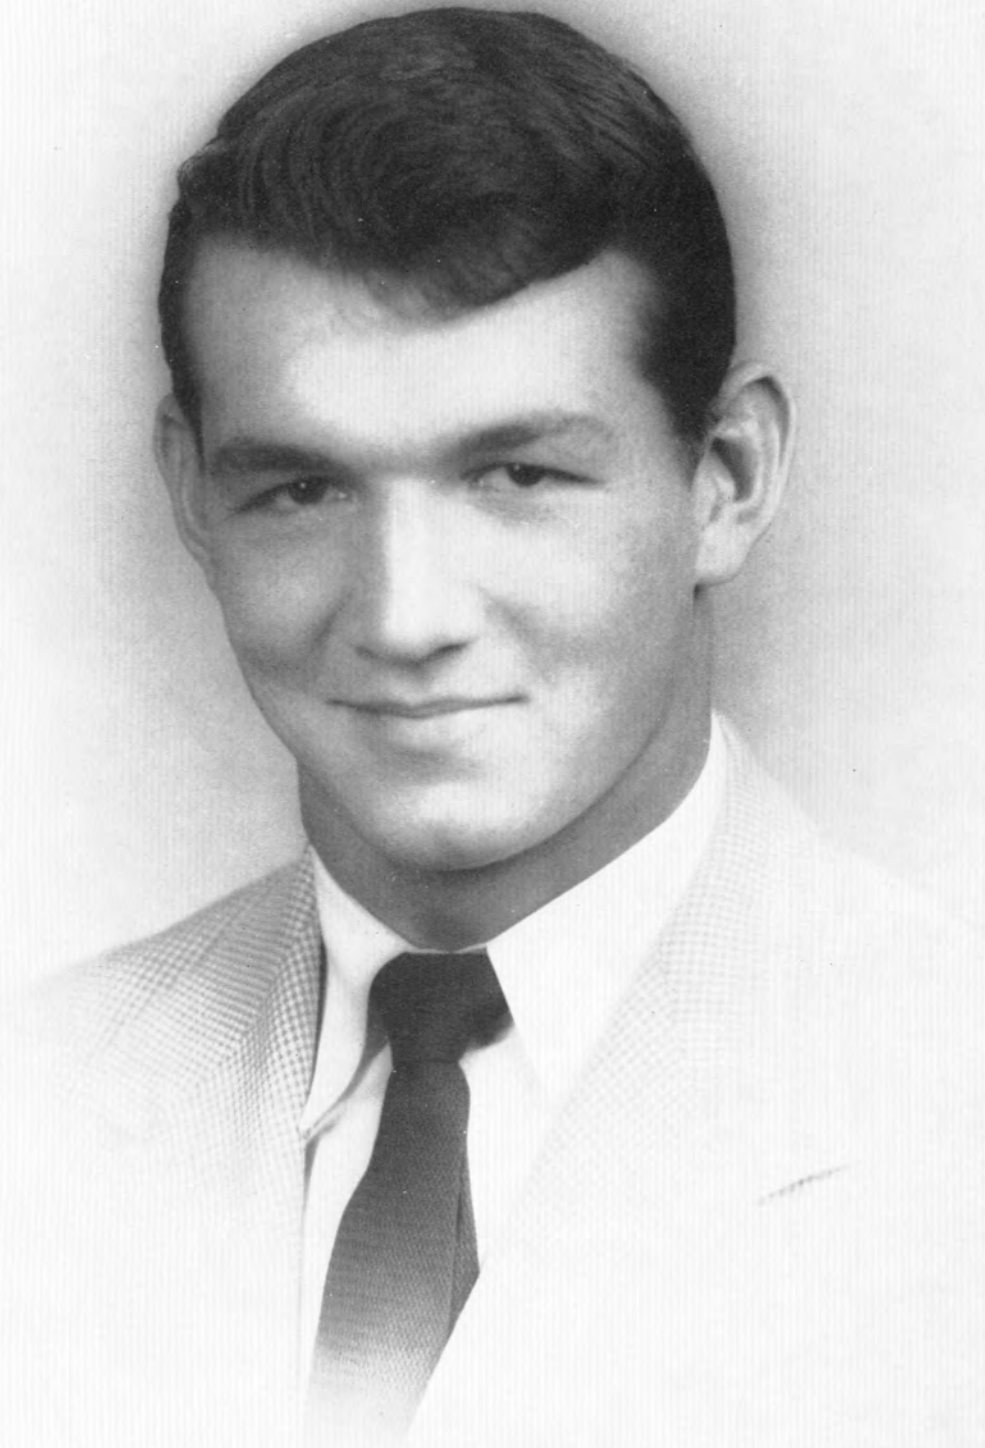

During its first year, the Council gained wide recognition for its initial suggestion for modified car regulations. This recommendation was accepted by the President and later presented by him to the Board of Trustees for their consideration. At the June 1953 meeting of the Board, the modifications were accepted and instituted the next September.

The Council has discussed several more problems during this, its second year. The most outstanding action was the suggestion of a committee to investigate cheating on campus. This committee worked hard using examples from other colleges making similar studies. The Council appointed Carol Doren, Jerry Helwig, and Lois Radomsky as the student members of this committee, and the faculty elected Dr. Ralph L. Beck, Dr. Maurice I. Mandell, and Dr. Joseph E. Weber as their representatives. Dr. McDonald appointed Dean James R. Overman to head the committee.

Two other topics which were discussed quite a bit were further car regulation modification and a more prominent position for Student Senate on campus. A recommendation that student automobile regulations be still further revised to permit sophomores and possibly freshmen to bring automobiles to the campus was considered by the Board of Trustees in early March and action was postponed until June. A more workable student government in the form of wider action and actual accomplishments was suggested for Student Senate.

KEY QUEEN

Miss Thora Tait

AND MISS BG

This year's Key Queen also had the unique honor of being last spring's Miss BG, and so we actually present her to you twice although all on one page. Miss Thora Tait, Alpha Chi Omega, reigned over the 1953 U-A Prom and this year was chosen by the members of the yearbook staff of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, as the most outstanding girl of the finalists submitted.

Each sorority house and women's dormitory submitted a candidate for both queens and all-campus elections were held. Finalists for Miss BG were submitted to Woody Herman, who played for the dance. The Key Queen candidates were presented at intermission of the Key and Social Sub dance, the finalists then selected at the election were sent to West Point.

The six finalists for Key Queen were Betty Bellaire, Kappa Delta; Beverly Curry, Kohl Hall; Pat Lash, Alpha Xi Delta; Nancy Manheim, Gamma Phi Beta; Marilyn Paulhus, Alpha Phi; and Thora Tait, Alpha Chi Omega.

Miss Marilyn Lindner
Editor, 1954 KEY

Dear Marilyn:

It was indeed a pleasure and an honor to choose your 1954 KEY Queen.

The decision was made by the 1954 HOWITZER Board at a special conference. Your name was placed in a set of cards which were numbered and through this, we allowed one of these numbers to have a chance of being selected to be the Key Queen. The number of all the cards in each picture were then totaled, and the girl with the lowest total was chosen Queen.

Your choice was Thora Tait, and we wish her and the 1954 KEY all possible success.

Sincerely yours,

Hal W. Howes

MAY QUEEN

Miss Pat Devoe

In a mood of May, Pat Devoe, Alpha Chi Omega, was crowned 1953 May Queen by Nedra Mason, 1952 Queen. The impressive crowning took place in the Main Auditorium, where the new Queen and her court of four attendants reigned proudly.

The theme for the evening was a rainbow of colors, and master of ceremonies, Carl Balson, introduced each girl by the title of a song representing a color. As the strains of "Deep Purple" filled the auditorium, a purple floodlight was focused on the senior attendant, Jane Turner, Alpha Phi. With Darrell Stuckey at the Hammond organ playing "Blue Moon," junior attendant Pat Lash, of Alpha Xi Delta, came down the aisle with her white gown picking up the blue reflection of the floodlights.

Carol Lenz sang "Green Cathedral" to introduce the sophomore attendant, Nancy Gebhardt, Gamma Phi Beta. "The Ruby and the Pearl" described the freshman attendant, Deborah Aunger, Alpha Xi Delta, as a hue of red enveloped her.

All four girls wore white formals and carried red roses. The Queen wore the traditional gown with a long train and high collar, and carried white roses. As the Queen and her court stood with their escorts on the stage, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" completed the ceremony.

The May Queen and her court were elected by an all-campus election.

The Queen is congratulated by her father after the crowning.

The queen and her attendants: Deborah Aunger, Pat Lash, Pat Devoe, Jane Turner, Nancy Gebhardt.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Miss Dorothy Farley

A crowd of 5,500 saw the Falcons lose their first Homecoming game since 1942 to Kent State 41-7. Pre-game ceremonies, however, were just as exciting as always. Driven around the field in shining open convertibles, the queen and her two attendants glowed with happiness. Joan Yohn, Shatzel Hall, and Jackie Gibbons, Chi Omega, were the attendants (shown below) and were introduced first. Miss Dorothy Farley, Delta Gamma, was then presented as the 1953 Homecoming Queen and was crowned by Herb Scogg of the Varsity Club. The queen and her attendants were chosen by the student body in an all-campus election.

Warren E. Steller, professor of Health and Physical Education and baseball coach, was honored at a breakfast on Homecoming morning commemorating his 30 years as a member of the University faculty. Members of his first football, basketball, and baseball teams were present to wish him many more years of success. After the breakfast, Mr. Steller was presented a television set, golf clubs, and an electric coffee maker.

Alpha Tau Omega won first prize in the men's division for Homecoming decorations (middle photo) with their "Harness the Flash," and Alpha Gamma Delta took top honors in the women's division (top photo) with "Put a curse on Kent." Phi Delta Theta and Alpha Phi received honorable mention. Decision was based on originality, appropriateness, workmanship, and aesthetic value.

Warren Steller, right, accepts gifts from President McDonald, as Mrs. Steller and Harold Anderson look on.

Attendants to the Homecoming queen and winning decorations added much color during the big week end.

CAMPUS CHEST DRIVE

ROW ONE: Janice Crouch, Lois Radomsky, Miss Eloise Whitwer, Betty Gorsuch.

ROW TWO: George Gisser, Mr. John F. Oglevee, Bill Bittner, Bob Lauer.

Co-chairmen of the Campus Chest Drive, Lois Radomsky and George Gisser, began the campaign this year by having students explain to each group on campus the purpose of the Chest Drive, how the money would be distributed and what the schedule for the week would be. During the week the Ugly Man and Woman contest was held in the Nest bringing in $208.31. On Friday afternoon Alpha Xi Delta played Delta Gamma in the Powder Bowl game. During the halftime $38.77 was collected. This year something new was added to the drive. On Saturday night a carnival was held in the Women's Gym with various housing units setting up booths. The carnival added $250.70 to the total contributions. In the general collection students and faculty contributed $1806.10. Closing the drive with a total of $2303.88 proves the 1954 Campus Chest Drive was a success.

The Charity Powder Bowl football game between Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Gamma combined football with humor.

M. J. Dayton and Ann Bartles crowned "King Puff", Bill Melvin, and presented powder puff bouquets to the attendants, Vince Tampio and Bill Bradley.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

ROW ONE: Sandra Levy, Dorothy Spooner, Maxine Brown.
ROW TWO: Erwin Falkenheim, John Luccio, Nancy Hartman, Don Davis, Dave Rowe.

Religious Emphasis Week is a tri-faith activity sponsored by Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish groups on campus. It is held each year to discuss the relation of the student's spiritual life with his academic and social life at college.

This year, REW featured three outstanding speakers in the religious field. Rabbi Norman Kahan, of Temple Beth Israel, Lima, represented the Jewish faith; Father Paul Reinert, president of St. Louis University, represented the Catholic faith; and Dr. Carl Wolf, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Toledo represented the combined Protestant faith. These men gave lectures in Main Auditorium and also held seminar groups around the campus to discuss topics of particular interest to the group attending. Personal conferences and bull sessions were held in sororities, fraternities, and dormitories where these men and several others from all three faiths were entertained at dinners. Two student-faculty coffee hours were also held in the Rec Hall. The week was concluded by a combined Jewish-Protestant service in the University chapel and a service in St. Aloysius church in Bowling Green.

These students are pictured participating in the activities sponsored by Catholic, Jewish, and Protestant groups during Religious Emphasis Week.

WBGU has been used as a laboratory for radio speech course work by approximately 40 students each semester. It has also served as an outlet for copy and projects prepared by students in radio-journalism.

Facilities to meet the needs of expanding recording and live performance were increased by the addition of a second studio and control room during the year.

The station's community service was enlarged by the use of 8 hours of tape recordings from the National Association of Educational Broadcasters.

Professor Sidney Stone was director of WBGU. The radio advisory committee included Dr. Raymond W. Derr, Dr. Giles R. Floyd, David Freedheim, Dale Harvin, Sydna Howard, Dolores Lehman, Virginia Myers, and Grover Platt.

CHEER LEADERS

For the first time in the history of Bowling Green the cheerleaders were chosen by the student body. Bill Smith, Charles Williams, Steve Ray, Alice McCloud, Marilyn Kline, Shirley Kee, and Jan Kaiser were selected by the student body after tryouts in the early fall. Four of the cheer leaders traveled to New York for the NIT. Bev Hocking was the head cheer leader for the year of 53-54.

ROW TWO: John Cold, Bill Smith, Charles Williams, Steve Ray, Carol Laing, Mary Berg.

MAJORETTES

Roy Weger was Bowling Green's new band director last year. He chose the majorettes that performed during the school year. The majorettes twirled and strutted at the football games and at two of the basketball games. At Homecoming the majorettes participated in the half-time show by twirling fire batons. Ronny Swearinger was the drum major.

In the spring of '53 the door of student government opened wider and the new proportional representation plan was ushered in by a huge parade followed by a rally in the stadium. Pat Vietmeier and Vince Tampio played Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus at the AWS Christmas Formal, and handed out candy canes at intermission.

At the first sign of spring, the golf course was filled with all the potential Ben Hogan's and Babe Zaharias'!

Activities before graduation were many and varied. Hundreds of students worked on the many publications of the student body. One of these, the semi-weekly B-G News won top honors in the state in the Spring of 1953. Staff members were very proud to bring home the Scripps-Howard trophy for the most outstanding college paper in Ohio. During the winter, although Bowling Green is not suited for skiing, students enjoyed skating on the campus pond. The AWS Christmas Formal was the highlight of the holiday season. In the Spring, the outdoor sports came into the spotlight and the golf course, tennis courts, and outdoor track became the most crowded places on campus.

Organizations

All of the varied organizations on campus opened a new door to students. It gave them the opportunity to broaden their experience in their own field and to learn much about other fields which particularly interested them. These organizations included those of service which helped campus and community alike; those for athletics which provided relaxation and enjoyment in leisure hours; those of religious interest which lifted the student spiritually and made him a better person, one more able to take his place on the campus with an understanding attitude toward his fellow man; those of a professional interest in art, law, and music; and honoraries of every department which recognized those students who had attained high scholarship ability in a specific field. All of these organizations provided part of the extra-curricular activities which will benefit the student in forming a broader background and scope.

OMEGA PHI ALPHA

Omega Phi Alpha, women's service fraternity, was founded this year. The purpose of the organization is to provide service to the campus and community, and offer companionship and fellowship to its own members. This year, sixty women worked together on several projects. Any girl who was a former girl scout or campfire girl was eligible for membership.

During their first year, the group assisted with the Blood Bank, they made favors for the Thanksgiving dinner trays at Wood County Hospital, and they decorated trees in front of the Nest at Christmas. In cooperation with Mr. Bunn's office, they worked on the furnishing of the women's lounge in the library. Plans for baby sitting and typing were initiated. The group also stuffed 14,000 envelopes for the Wood County Crippled Children Easter seal campaign. A bi-weekly swim for the girl scouts of Bowling Green was started, and assistants were provided for scout troops.

Officers were Kay Metz, president; Nancy Campbell, 1st vice president; Nancy Weaver, 2nd vice president; Betty Ayers, secretary; Pat Vietmeier, treasurer; Mrs. Irene Meserve and Mrs. Ruth Jay were advisers for scouting; and Eloise Whitwer and Dr. Jacqueline Timm were faculty advisers.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity, was made up of former boy scouts who were interested in rendering service to others. The Bowling Green chapter was established in May of 1948 and since then has grown to rank among the top three of the nation's 266 chapters.

Members of APhiO have established many services on campus which the students have come to expect and appreciate. The used bookstore is one of the most widely known and frequented by students in September and February. Thousands of books are bought and sold every year. A city-wide clothing drive was also held, the clothes being sent to aid needy people in Korea. Coat checks at campus dances were also handled by APhiO members. In the Spring, the well-known "Keep-off-the-grass" signs are seen all over campus in an effort to keep Bowling Green green.

Helping with the Blood Bank is another major project. The organization also offers a loan with no interest to any student who needs aid.

Officers were Ray Bertelsen, president; Ed Thal, vice president; Harry Thal, secretary; and Bill Sibbersen, treasurer.

ROW THREE: Margaret Meumann, Pat McDonel, Sue Pirner, Beverly Hackbarth, Pat Limbird, Ann Dible, Marilyn DeChant, Jane Fox, Peggy Merritt.

Orchesis meets weekly and has an executive meeting once a month. During a meeting half of the time is spent on warm-ups and techniques. The remainder of the time is spent on choreographing and practicing dances for the annual Orchesis production which is given every Spring.

Several other shows are put on for organizations and schools in the surrounding areas. For the last two years a show was presented for the Jewish Women's Society in Toledo.

At least once during the year some well known person in the field of dance visits and gives a master lesson or demonstration in dance. The organization sends one of its members to a summer school of dance.

Officers for the school year 1953-54 were: president, Dorothy Farley; vice-president, Nance Gebhardt; treasurer, Jo Limbird; and secretary, Jeanny Barany. Miss Mary Whitney, Assoc. Prof. of Health & Physical Education, was the adviser for Orchesis.

SWAN CLUB

The members of Swan Club were chosen for their swimming ability and, upon acceptance, worked to perfect their synchronized swimming skills. This year the Swan Club presented a show with an Americana theme called "Portraits of the Past." In this, the 10th annual pageant, the Swan Club girls selected their music, created their swimming routines, designed their costumes and did the staging of the show. Connie Wood and Pat Pietras were featured soloists in this year's show. Costumes portrayed the gay '90's era—long knit suits; red, white and blue suits for a Yankee Doodle number; blue jeans for a square dance routine; guns and ten gallon hats for a Cowgirl number—and were changed quickly between every number. The finale was done to "Sound Off" and the girls wore sailor suits and hats. Two members of the men's swimming team, Herb Scogg and Ron Dall were also in the show.

Shows of the past that we have all remembered were "Loves of Appolo," "Wizard of Oz," "Aqua Carosel," "Scherzade," "Sands of Time," and "Scentimental Journey."

During the course of the year, members of Swan Club entered inter-collegiate synchronized competition, swam for the District YMCA in Toledo, the state Physical Education Convention, Business Men's Club, and the annual High School Play Day. Connie Wood won the Intercollegiate solo Championship at Michigan State, and Eve Williams and Connie's Duet of "Anchors Away" took second place at a show in Detroit.

Officers of Swan Club are Patricia Pietras, president; Barbara Rau, vice president; Ann Dunipace, secretary; Dianne Prentice, manager; Miss Iris Andrews, faculty adviser; and Miss Dorothy Luedtke, assistant faculty adviser.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Students Association is one of several organizations on campus that fosters the continued study of a religious background. Its meetings include speakers from surrounding churches, who discuss the questions and problems of youth today in coordinating education and religion in their lives.

In January, the group sponsored an all-campus square dance. In the spring, they helped sponsor Religious Emphasis Week with United Christian Fellowship.

Officers of the association this year were James Aten, president; Don Davis, vice president; Mary Williams, treasurer; and Carolyn Pruitt, secretary.

SEATED: Shirley Lehr.
STANDING: James Aten, Bill Barnard, Mary Williams, Doris Schultz, Gertrude Reitz, Ted Prueter, Nancy Miller, The Rev. Richard Smith, Margarete Weber, Kathryn Ruehrmund, Mary Jo Freshley, Samuel M. Cooper.

KAPPA PHI

Kappa Phi is a national organization for Methodist college women. It has a program of religious emphasis and provides training for church leadership. The program for the year was based on the overall theme, "This is My Father's World."

Activities included guest speakers, traditional banquets, such as the "Meal in the Upper Room," Christmas caroling, initiation, and visits to other chapters.

Officers for 1953-54 were Dottie Colley, president; Helen Taylor, vice president; Leora Obenour, secretary; and Norma Hazel, treasurer. Advisers were Mrs. Virgil Taylor and Mrs. David Krabill.

ROW ONE: Janice Wagner, Sylvia Zedlar, Alice Cook, Joan Allman, Jo Anna Steinberger, Eva Gaye Hilbert, Alice Snyder, Joyce Williman.

PI SIGMA ALPHA

Pi Sigma Alpha is the national political science honor society. It is composed of students of government and political science who have attained high standards of scholarship and academic distinction both in political science and their total academic work. The Bowling Green chapter was founded in 1947.

Each year's activities are highlighted by fall and spring initiation ceremonies. The group also confers honorary membership upon a noted political figure each year. This individual is the principal speaker at a program sponsored by the honorary in the spring. Last year, the honorary initiated William O'Neil, attorney-general of Ohio.

Officers were Jerry Helwig, president; Roger Uhl, vice president; Margarete Weber, secretary treasurer; and Dr. Charles Barrell, adviser.

SICSIC, men's anonymous booster organization, was formed in 1946 by six students, a faculty adviser and Dr. Prout, as a means to stimulate school spirit.

At Honors Day each year the two senior members of the group are revealed and presented the SICSIC trophy, and two men who have completed their freshmen year are then tapped to fill the gap. Thus a membership of six is always maintained.

To promote greater interest in athletic and other campus events, "SICSIC sez" signs were always very much in evidence. The night riders also invaded campus dorms this year for the first time, and worked during many early morning hours to preserve their anonymity.

Highlights of the year's activities included the Homecoming and Spring Sports displays in the Circle in front of the Ad Building, and preparation for the NIT games in New York, where SICSIC banners were prominently displayed in Madison Square Garden and the Paramount Hotel. "Grynych 1734" was also coined by the group in its efforts to boost spirit.

EIGHT INITIATES TAPPED AT MID-SEMESTERS

Mid-semester initiates were:

ROW ONE: Edgar Palarea, Donald Packard, Dr. Frederick L. Hipp, Alumnus of the Year, Ronald Penkoff, Thomas Dunford.

ROW TWO: Roger Kasten, William Bittner, Howard Beplat, Lester Green.

The national men's leadership honorary granted membership on the basis of character, leadership, service in campus life, and consecration to democratic ideals.

The Beta Tau Circle was established at Bowling Green in the spring of 1949. Only the junior and senior men in the upper third of their class in scholastic standing were eligible for consideration.

Members also were outstanding in at least two of the five major phases of campus life. Other than scholarship, these include: social and religious affairs; publications; speech, music and dramatic arts; and athletics.

This year ODK sponsored its Information Booth at Homecoming, and published its "Week in Preview" to announce group meetings. In the spring, the Circle held its Leadership Conference for the first time, when students, faculty and administration leaders gathered off-campus to discuss common problems. Choosing an alumnus and faculty man of the year is another project of ODK.

Jerry Helwig served as president of the society, assisted by Herb Collier as vice president, Dr. Lloyd A. Helms as faculty-secretary, and Ralph McKinney as treasurer.

Alumni and honorary members included Harold Anderson, Dean Arch B. Conklin, John Hepler, Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, Dean J. R. Overman, Dr. Frank J. Prout, Dr. Elden T. Smith, and Dr. Walter A. Zaugg.

TEN WOMEN TAPPED AT HONOR'S DAY

Cap and Gown is composed of ten senior women chosen for their leadership, scholarship, personality, character, and service to the campus. The officers for this year were Marjorie Ewing, president; Betty Ayers, vice president; Norma Vlasak, secretary; and Carol Sutliff, treasurer. Mrs. Florence Currier, Dean of Women, served as adviser to the group.

First semester, Cap and Gown members encouraged students to attend the Artist Series. Each girl visited a fraternity house and a dormitory and spoke to the group on the coming Artist Series' programs. Omicron Delta Kappa aided by visiting the eleven sorority houses. At Homecoming, Cap and Gown held its annual Homecoming breakfast for the alums. During this week end, they were in charge of the information booth in conjunction also with Omicron Delta Kappa. Also during first semester, the members sent out a newsletter to alumni members of the group. Later in the year, suggestions for making Student Senate more of an asset on the campus were compiled and submitted for consideration.

BOOK AND MOTOR

ROW THREE: Charles Repp, Emerson Shuck, E. J. Crowley, Evan J. Felty, Oda Wilkey.

Book and Motor, scholastic honor society, celebrated its fortieth anniversary this year thus becoming the oldest honor society on campus.

This year's activities were highlighted by the annual Spring banquet. Also, the Book and Motor senior with the highest cumulative point average received an award from the organization on Honors Day.

Juniors who had completed at least 56 hours and had an accumulative point average of 3.5 or better were initiated into the society.

First semester officers were: Jerry Helwig, president; Ann Dunipace, vice president and Vivien George, secretary. Officers for the second semester were: Virginia Pierce, president; John Peterson, vice president and Sue Hartman, secretary. Dr. Walter A. Zaugg served as treasurer both semesters.

TAU BETA SIGMA

ROW TWO: Roy Weger, adviser; Alice Williamson, Else Kalberer, Barbara Corwin, Marie Breidenbraugh, Mary Schumann, Nancy Jones, Nancy Abbott, Patricia Borchard.

Tau Beta Sigma, women's band honorary began the year by initiating Roy Weger, Bowling Green's new Director of Bands as adviser and honorary member. During the football season, the group was host to the Toledo University Band when they were here to perform at halftime of the BG-TU game. The Tau Beta's closed the football season with a dance which they co-sponsored with Kappa Kappa Psi, men's band honorary.

Following auditions, eight new members were pledged to the honorary. As an annual project, Tau Beta Sigma presented a recital consisting of solo and ensemble groups of various band instruments. To end the year, the group gave a picnic for all members of Concert Band. Officers for the group were Lou Meyers, president; Barbara Bunke, vice president; Laura Champion, secretary; and Freda Tschanz, treasurer.

PI KAPPA DELTA

ROW ONE: Delores Lehman, Noel Greenhill, Juanita Baugh, Shirley Sparr, Betty Idle, Dr. Donald C. Kleckner.

ROW TWO: James A. Ross, Donald Packard, Ray Muzilla, Roger Kasten, Sam Martin, Stan Kutler, Frank Gould, Dale Lee, Bud Weckesser.

Pi Kappa Delta, recognition society in forensics, sponsored a national Forensic Tournament for debate, oratory, discussion, extempore speaking, and declamation. Members of Pi Kap from Bowling Green participated in this tournament, winning awards of "Excellent" in debate, discussion, and extempore speaking. Members of Pi Kappa Delta also attended a tournament in Portland, Maine in April.

Sponsors of an all-campus intramural debate tourney in which members of sororities, fraternities, and independent organizations enter teams and compete for a first and a second place trophy. Debating is done on a campus selected debate topic of public interest. Dr. Donald C. Kleckner served as adviser to the group and Bud Weckesser was president.

SIGMA PHI

ROW TWO: Patricia Guthman, Jan Crouch, Jan Crane, Lois Diehl, Carol Sutliff, Carol Tanner.

The editing and publishing of the Student Directory was the project of Sigma Phi, local women's journalism honorary, for the second consecutive year. This year the format was changed to a wider book similar to the size of the Bowling Green telephone directory. Each name in the directory was carefully checked to make the book as complete as possible. Patricia Guthman was editor of the Directory for '53-'54, and Lois Nelson served as circulation manager.

Two members were initiated into Sigma Phi first semester. They were Gretchen Van Brunt and Elaine Haak. Requirements for Sigma Phi are a minimum 3.0 in journalism and a minimum 2.5 accumulative average.

Officers for the group were Carol Sutliff, president; Patricia Guthman, vice president; and Lois Diehl, secretary-treasurer. Prof. J. J. Currier, chairman of the journalism department, was adviser to the group.

PI OMEGA PI

ROW TWO: Marjorie Miars, Joanne Oestreich, Carol Payne, Elizabeth Blackburn, Galen Stutsman.

Pi Omega Pi, recognition society in business education, sponsored a picnic for freshmen in business education in cooperation with Quill Type the first week in October. Continuing through the year, they worked closely with Quill Type to share many programs of interest to both groups.

Officers for the year were Pat Smith, president; Marilyn Early, secretary-treasurer; Joanne Oestreich, historian. New ini-tiates were Carol Payne, Marjorie Miars and Jean Metz. The initiates project was bulletin board displays for the Pi Omega Pi board in the business education department.

The club visited various businesses and organizations in Toledo in an attempt to observe the different methods of conducting business. They were also interested in noting the different office techniques and skills used in businesses.

PHI SIGMA MU

ROW ONE: Marilyn Morris, Kay Hazeldine, Nancy Weatherston, Freda Tschanz, Emerson Thomas, Winifred Winters, Miss Myrtle Jensen, Marie Breidenbaugh.

ROW TWO: Luane Wisler, Loma Muir, Edyth Bolton, Grace Cran, Don Perrine, Robert Purtilo, Mary Schumann, Elizabeth Burrell, Anne Seaver, Martha Berndt, Janet Keyser, Barbara Bunke, Sue Shumaker, Lou Meyers.

Bowling Green has the Beta chapter of Phi Sigma Mu, national recognition society in Music Education. At the beginning of the year, Phi Sigma Mu sponsored a get-acquainted party for the entire music department. During Homecoming week end, the group gave a tea for all alumni of the music department.

In March, the group was honored to have Miss Catherine Smith, province president, from Eastern Illinois State College visit the chapter here. Also in March, the annual formal banquet for the department was sponsored by Phi Sigma Mu.

A Newsletter was published by the Beta chapter giving news of all chapters.

Officers for the groups this year were Freda Tschanz, president; Winifred Winters, vice president; Nancy Weatherston, secretary; Emerson Thomas, treasurer; Janet Keyser, corresponding secretary; Edyth Bolton, historian and publicity chairman; and Mary Schumann, alumni secretary. Adviser was Miss Myrtle Jensen.

BETA BETA BETA

ROW ONE: Eugene Stewart, Anne Edie, Bruce Nicklas, Dr. Everett C. Myers, Diane Forrer, Pat Nicholas, Grant Egley.

ROW TWO: Wavalee Lusher, Lois Webb, Nancy Richardson, Lee McCall, Phillip Halick, Ralph McKinney, Joan Norris, Joan Woodruff, Lois Bear.

Beta Beta Beta, national recognition society in Biology, met semi-monthly in Mosely Hall to discuss subjects of particular interest to the future biologist. Four programs that were outstanding during the year were the study of Hemerocallis by Dr. Otis; the life of the beaver with slides by Dr. Myers; a discussion of edible mushroom toadstools by Dr. Holt, a former Bowling Green professor; and an explanation of a non-surgical treatment of poacities of the eye by Edgar Palarea. A graduate student at Bowling Green, Mr. Palarea discovered a plant juice which removes cataracts from eyes without the use of surgery.

Two movies were also shown, "Principle of Penicillin Therapy," and "Curare," a deadly poison now being used to save lives during surgery.

During Homecoming, the entire membership of Tri-Beta presented the work being done in the classrooms of Botany, Embryology, Comparative Anatomy, Evolution, Parasitology, and Physiology to the student body and the alumni.

BETA PI THETA

Beta Pi Theta, recognition society for students of French, requires its members to have a 3.0 average in French and a 2.5 academic average. Prospective members must write a 300 word theme in French also. Meetings include films of France and games and singing in French. Officers were Chester Wasilowski, president; Carol Doren, vice president; Virginia Pierce, secretary; and Lia Noukas, treasurer. Dr. Cecil L. Rew, chairman of the foreign language department, serves as adviser to the group.

PHI EPSILON KAPPA

Phi Epsilon Kappa, national professional physical education fraternity, was installed at Bowling Green in May of 1953. The local chapter undertakes projects which supplement the physical education program such as sponsoring various departmental events. Requirements for membership are a major or minor in physical education with a 2.5 in this major and a 2.2 academic average.

Ray Bertelsen was president this year. Phil Seker was vice president and Howard Delk was secretary-treasurer.

ROW ONE: Lee Beneke, James Liedtke, Harold McGrady, Maxine Brown.
 ROW TWO: Betty Idle, Anne Potoky, Tina Lazoff, Bob Stager, Sue Bond, Janine Vescelius.

THETA ALPHA PHI

Theta Alpha Phi, recognition society in dramatics, is the highest attainment one can reach in the field of dramatics at Bowling Green. Admittance to the society is dependent on the previous maintainment of specific acting, technical and scholastic requirements.

In the fall, Theta Alpha Phi was in charge of the Homecoming open house for the speech department. Officers were James Liedtke, president; Harold McGrady, vice president; Lee Beneke, secretary; Carl Balson, historian, and John H. Hepler, adviser.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

 ROW TWO: Barbara Shiller, Winifred Winters, Virginia Pierce, Ronald Cohen, Betty Idle, Florence Ogg, Manley Anderson.
 ROW THREE: Dr. Giles Floyd, Oda Wilkey, Don Oestreich, Margaret Stevens, Bob Schwartz.

Members of Sigma Tau Delta, professional society in English, met monthly to discuss literary works of all kinds. They each brought in their own original works and the rest of the group critically analyzed each one. Various short stories and poems were also discussed.

Requirements of 12 hours in English with a 3.0 accumulative average must be met for membership.

A Christmas party was held, and a party in the spring was also held.

Officers of the society were Virginia Pierce, president; Carol Doren, secretary; Robert Schwartz, vice president; and Margaret Stevens, treasurer. Dr. Giles Floyd was adviser to the group.

DELTA SIGMA

 ROW TWO: Don Getter, Gerald Murray.

Delta Sigma, recognition society for outstanding men who are majoring in journalism, again this year held two copper salvaging days at Urschel Pond. The project serves as one of the chief service functions of the group. The metal engravings removed from wooden mounting blocks, have been used for printing pictures in The B-G News and Key.

The group also awarded the annual certificates and trophies to the winners of the campus fraternity and sorority newspaper competition. This year's officers were Don Hammerstrom, president; Stan Richmond, vice president; Gerald Murray, treasurer; and Pete Ray, secretary. Robert A. Steffes of the journalism staff served as faculty adviser.

Dallas Brim, Hal Miller, Pat Guthman, Bob Bone.

KAPPA ALPHA MU

For those having a B average in photography or an outstanding record in photographic work, Kappa Alpha Mu, recognition society in photo-journalism, provided many hours of extra-curricular activities.

This year the group had four outstanding projects. They went on several field trips to take pictures, photographed campus dances for fun and profit, viewed demonstrations about all types of techniques used in journalistic photography, and took pictures for campus publications.

Nationally, members of Kappa Alpha Mu attended a convention at Houston, Texas, during Easter vacation, and entered the national KAM college photographic contest in April.

A picnic for the chapter climaxed the year of regular meetings featuring speakers outstanding in the field of photography.

Officers for the group were Harold Miller, president; Robert Bone, vice president; Gretchen Van Brunt, secretary; Stanley Richmond, treasurer; and Patricia Guthman, publicity director. Prof. Jesse J. Currier, chairman of the department, and Miss Mary Jane Gustin, Editor of the Alumni Magazine, were advisers.

Dallas Brim, Bob Bone, Pat Guthman, Richard Mumma, Elaine Haak, Jim Miller, Stan Richmond.

EPSILON PI TAU

Epsilon Pi Tau, the industrial arts honorary fraternity, participated in meetings at Wayne University and Ohio State University. The meetings were concerned with the professional side of industrial arts. There were a number of guest speakers at the meetings throughout the year.

The fraternity celebrated its 25th anniversary at the annual initiation and banquet held in May.

Last year's officers of Epsilon Pi Tau were Andy Belokopitsky, president; Otto Beindorf, secretary; A. R. Runyan, vice president.

ROW ONE: Roland M. Torgerson, H. W. Johnston, Daniel J. Crowley.
ROW TWO: A. R. Runyan, Otto Beindorf, Robert T. Austin.

PSI CHI

Much of this year's activity of Psi Chi, recognition society in psychology, was concerned with plans for a three-state Psi Chi convention held at Bowling Green in April. The purpose of the convention was to stimulate more undergraduate interest in psychology by actually giving them a chance to participate in an interchange of ideas and presentation of papers. The honorary also heard guest speakers and held its annual picnic in the spring.

Officers of the honorary were Arnold Kaufman, president; Arnold Brown, vice president; Joyce Ludecker, secretary; and Arlene Mancuso, treasurer.

DELTA PHI DELTA

Delta Phi Delta, recognition society in art, organized the Art Guild for all students interested in art. Movies, lectures and discussion groups were held periodically. The group also took several field trips to Museum shows in neighboring cities. Eight pledges were initiated in the fall and their project was the formation of a circulating art library within the department along with a complete file on professional and graduate schools with scholarships and fellowships listed. Three professional shows were also held during the year.

Officers of the Alpha Xi chapter were Dorothy Baden, president; Don Schrom, vice president; Les Green, secretary; Ron Penkoff, treasurer; and Professor Otto G. Ocvirk, adviser.

ROW ONE: Jean Burger, Joyce Ludecker, Arnold Kaufman, Arlene Mancuso, Kathleen Burkley.

ROW TWO: Sandra Williams, Eleanor Fuerst, Kay Metz, Mary Jeanne Connelly, Richard Dunn.

 ROW TWO: Harry Mathias, David Krabill, F. C. Ogg, Mrs. F. C. Ogg, George Panoyiotou, Harold E. Tinnappel.

KAPPA MU EPSILON

Members of Kappa Mu Epsilon, recognition society in mathematics, heard many outstanding speakers this year such as Dr. David Dietz, science editor for the Scripps-Howard newspapers, Dr. John W. Carr III, University of Michigan, and Dr. Frank C. Ogg and Professor Harry R. Mathias, Bowling Green.

The group also sponsored the third annual mathematics scholarship test. Awards were given to the students ranking highest in each of two groups, those who had studied calculus, and those who had not yet had the course.

Officers for this year were Betty Bernhardt, president; Jerry Felty, vice president; David Slough, secretary; Charles Repp, treasurer, and Dr. Harold E. Tinnappel, faculty adviser.

RHO SIGMA MU

Rho Sigma Mu is the radio honorary fraternity whose members were chosen because of unusual interest and participation in improvement of radio communication and programming. In addition to program building and production over WBGU, the University Station, the group held open house for alumni during Homecoming week end.

Elected to membership this year were James Shepherd, Donald Oestreich, Donald Hinde, and Sydna Howard.

Officers this year were Fred Meeks, first semester president; David Foresman, second semester president; Dave Freedheim, secretary; and Don Friar, treasurer.

DELTA PSI KAPPA

Delta Psi Kappa, women's physical education honorary, is open to those junior and senior women majoring or minoring in physical education, who have an over-all scholastic average of 2.5 and a B average in their physical education classes.

Activities were highlighted by Major Day, when high school students from surrounding towns visit the department and see demonstrations presented by various major classes, and the annual parent-senior coffee hour held the morning of commencement.

A delegate representing the Bowling Green chapter attended the national convention in New York City.

Officers were Louise Kiss, president; Dawn Bodine, vice president; Ann Dunipace, secretary; and Pat Daugert, treasurer.

ROW ONE: Patti Rader, Carol Ruffer, Sue Carlisle.
 ROW TWO: Kathy Miley, Dawn Bodine, Diane Prentice, Marcia Coates, Virginia Nill, Miss Iris Andrews, Miss Gertrude Eppler.
 ROW THREE: Miss Dorothy Luedtke, Miss Lois Wellock, Miss Mary Spooner, Margaret Richards, Helen Sikora, Joanne Cleavenger, Ann Spieldenner, Barbara Jisa, Mrs. Amy Torgerson, Miss Elizabeth Whitney.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

ROW ONE: Lois Bear, Suzanne Souder, Barbara Bedette, Lyle R. Fletcher, Dick Geiger, Nina Younkin, Carol Cope.

ROW TWO: Robert Smith, Dave Nicholls, Ruth Hyland, Lowry B. Karnes, Samuel M. Mayfield, Lois Chestnut, Gene Levi, Edwin Blackford, David John, Dale Courtney, Armin Dreissiger, Jane Ralph.

Gamma Theta Upsilon, national professional fraternity in geography, studied man in relation to his geographic environment through films, slides, and speakers. The newly formed geography club gave students who had completed only a few hours in the field an opportunity to share many activities of Gamma Theta Upsilon.

Among the outstanding activities enjoyed by the group were a travelog on South America, a combined Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle R. Fletcher, a local field trip, a guest speaker, and a picnic. The members also sent several boxes of college text books to Japan to help alleviate the shortage of low-cost American text books in that country.

Officers this year were Richard Geiger, president; Nina Younkin, vice president; and Barbara Bedette, secretary-treasurer. Lyle R. Fletcher was the faculty adviser.

PHI ALPHA CHI

ROW ONE: Shirley Browne, Nancy Ross, Ralph Cook, Shirley Davis, Joe Skapin, William F. Schmeltz, Ronald Konkle, Danute Bajoraitis, Ruth McClellan.

ROW TWO: Jim Schreiber, Sumner Danielson, Richard Berk, Harry Buckingham, Ambrose Paridon, Fred Gerbing, Bob Wilber, Wilbur Smith, Maynard Neal.

ROW THREE: Ronald Dorman, John McNerney, Edward Haller, Darl Horn, John Peterson, William Sibbersen.

Phi Alpha Chi, Accounting Honorary, is an organization with the purpose of bringing professional men actively engaged in business in contact with the students studying in accounting. At each meeting, the group had men from varied fields of business give a talk concerning their particular field. The groups also took field trips to different companies to inspect their accounting systems in operation.

Officers for the group were Ronald Konkle, president; Ralph Cook, vice president; Shirley Davis, secretary; and Joseph Skapin, treasurer. Howard Kane and William Schmeltz, professors of Business Administration, were advisers.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

The Paul R. Ladd chapter of Arnold Air Society completed its third year on the Bowling Green campus. It was made up of 48 students with a B average or better in Air Force ROTC and a C plus in other subjects.

Two members attended the fifth national conclave at Omaha, Nebraska during Easter vacation. Here they participated in national organization policies.

In March, forty new members were initiated into the society.

At meetings throughout the year movies were shown, guest speakers were featured, and officers from near-by Air Bases demonstrated Air Science and Tactics.

Officers of the organization were John Domer, president; Sam McClellan, vice president; Robert Johnson, secretary; Nicholas DeGennaro, treasurer; Guy Reed, operations officer; Richard Daley, public information officer; and Capt. Kent Maynard, adviser.

PERSHING RIFLES

ROW TWO: Berton Keith, Ferrall Frazier, Al Shepp, Lawrence Link, Jerry Roe, Bernard McAlea, Robert Bowman, Emanuel Kallos.

ROW FOUR: Herbert Hampson, Harrison Chappell, Richard Lemons, Ralph Wells, Willis Woodruff, Robert Byers, John Cunningham.

Immediately after the fall semester opened, Company I-1 selected 21 cadets to become candidates for admission to Pershing Rifles. The pledges then began a rigid training period to make them proficient to close order drill and to familiarize them with other basic military subjects. Drawing on both Army and Air Force cadets for the first time, the company has provided a working example of service unity.

On February 24, these pledges successfully completed the training period and were formally initiated in time to wear their citation cords at the Annual Military Ball.

In December, I-1 had a field problem with Company L-1 of Toledo. The company collected lead from the University Rifle Range and will purify and sell it.

The Pershing Rifles presented a crack drill team at the Military Ball and furnished an honor guard for the ROTC Queens.

The company staff includes Captain Carl Henne Jr.; 1st Lt. James Bick, executive and finance officer; W. O. Richard Mumma, supply officer; W. O. James L. Miller, public information officer; W. O. William Smith, pledge officer; W. O. Gene France, plans and training officer; and 1st Sgt. Charles Griminger.

Much of the success of Co. I-1 is due to the efforts and able guidance of our faculty adviser, Captain John R. Frantz, Field Artillery, U. S. Army.

PHI ALPHA THETA

 ROW TWO: Dale Lee, Oda Wilkey, June Ronk, John Oglevee, Lia Naukas, Herb Collier.

At the beginning of the year Phi Alpha Theta, history honor society, had as a guest speaker Mr. Zaman, Pakistani journalist who is studying the United States papers. The interest in world affairs of today was brought forth when the society entertained the Toledo chapter of Phi Alpha Theta. The guests at the meeting were Rev. and Mrs. Paul Bock. Rev. Bock discussed the current situation in Czechoslovakia.

Phi Alpha Theta presented the John Schwartz Memorial Prize of $20 to the person writing the outstanding historical paper. The annual banquet was one of the high lights of the year. The regular meetings consisted of panel discussions, speakers, and movies.

This year's officers were Dan Guthrie, president; Paul Hirschy, vice president; June Ronk, secretary; Herb Collier, treasurer; George Catterlin, historian; and Dr. R. W. Twyman, adviser.

KAPPA KAPPA PSI

Kappa Kappa Psi, an honorary fraternity for college bandmen was founded at Oklahoma A & M College, in November 1919. The purpose of the fraternity is to promote the best interests of college bandmen and to encourage a better type of band music at colleges and universities.

The Beta Kappa chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi participated in all phases of music activities on the campus. Together with the sister sorority, Tau Beta Sigma, the fraternity gave assistance to the marching band. They also presented the Annual Band dance. All members participated in and ushered at the different musical events presented on the campus.

This year's officers were David Nizny, president; Donald Perrine, vice president; Marion Fessler, secretary; and James Jeffryes, treasurer.

SIGMA HONORARY

Sigma Honorary Society is open to members of instructional research or administrative staffs of the College of Business Administration. Its purpose is to encourage and reward scholarship and accomplishment in the field of business studies. The Society also promotes the advancement and spread of education in the science of business and fosters the principles of honesty and integrity in business practice.

Persons eligible for membership are nominated to the Society by a committee consisting of two faculty and two student members of the Society and one Business Administration faculty member who is not a member of the Society. The qualifications for membership are based on good moral character and high scholarship.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON

Phi Upsilon Omicron is a national professional organization for home economics majors with high academic standing. The Alpha Xi Chapter was installed at Bowling Green in 1952.

Among the year's projects was a showcase display in the Practical Arts Building. Several such displays, related to home economics but of interest to all students, are presented each year.

The group sponsored a high school Career Day in April, the purpose being to acquaint northwestern Ohio high school students with Bowling Green to further their interest in home economics careers.

Miss Laura Heston, chairman of the home economics department, is chapter adviser. The 1953-54 officers were: Eleanor Irvin, president; Marilyn Baker, vice president; Sue Hartman, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Pratt, recording secretary and Louise Webber, treasurer.

MEN'S INDEPENDENT SOCIETY

Dan Guthrie, Melvin Nakashige, Eugene Davis, George Theodosios, Ted Prueter, Bob Bailes, Jack Weigand, Chuck Hollander, Dean Monbarren.

On Homecoming week end, Men's Independent Society sponsored the annual Coronation Ball at which the Homecoming Queen was presented. The group serenaded Wood County Children's Home and gave them a basket of food and gifts.

In February, MIS celebrated their Founder's Day, and later in the spring, the senior banquet was given for the graduating members.

Primarily organized to create fellowship among independent male students on campus, Men's Independent Society is open to all men who desire to become affiliated. No racial or religious restrictions are placed on the qualifications for membership.

A "C" average is required and in place of a pledge period, the organization has an acquaintance period.

MIS was organized as the Delta Epsilon club in the fall of '48. Beginning with three members, the group expanded to over 60 students in 1949-50. The club was organized formerly as Men's Independent Society when it was recognized by Student Senate early in 1949.

Officers for the group this year were Dan Guthrie, president; Paul Hirschy, vice president; Erwin Falkenheim, secretary; and Melvin Nakashige, treasurer.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Students of education with a B average in all subjects and a personality for good teaching comprise the membership of Kappa Delta Pi. Working around this year's theme of "Education U.S.A." the group sponsored seven programs of special interest to students in education.

At the first Initiation Banquet, Dr. Clyde Hisson, a charter member of Bowling Green's Delta Phi chapter, was the speaker. In May, the group held their second initiation with Dr. Paul Scheid of Oberlin College, also a charter member, as the speaker. Dr. Scheid told of his experiences as an exchange professor in Pakistan.

The Honor Tea was also held which honored every student with a B average in Education.

Officers of the organization were: Herb Collier, president; Joy Traver, vice president; Norma Vlasak, recording secretary; Betty Gorsuch, corresponding secretary; Charles Young, treasurer. Dr. Walter A. Zaugg acted as counselor to the group while Dr. Florence J. Williamson was the adviser.

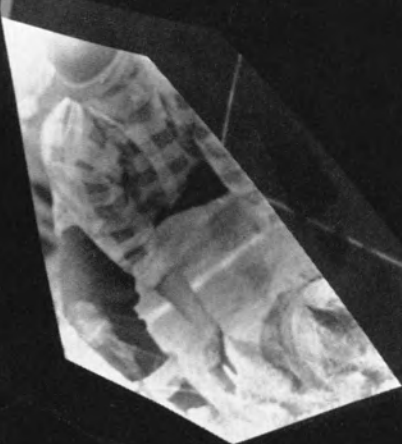

ROW ONE: Louise Webber; Mary Beck; Mary Jane Harold; June Ronk; Carolyn Ulsh; Loma Muir; Barbara Bunke; Luane Wisler; Barbara Shiller; Helen Harned; Winifred Winters.

Greeks

The sororities and fraternities on campus play a great part in our college life, as they sponsor activities to be enjoyed by everyone. There are the Saturday night dances, Derby Day, the Powder Bowl Game, the Chariot Race, Pi week, and the May Day activities.

Greek Week found the Greeks attending a number of combination dinners such as the Panhellenic Banquet and the Interfraternity Council Banquet. Topping off Greek Week was the second name-band dance of the year.

As visitors approach from U.S. 6, they view the fraternity houses, which add beauty to our campus. Turning down Thurstin and back on Ridge Street, visitors see the well-kept sorority houses.

PANHellenic COUNCIL

The governing body for the Greek women on this campus is composed of two representatives from each sorority. The Council meets every Monday in Dean Florence Currier's council room, where the program of discussing and settling inter-sorority business is carried on with the advice of Mrs. Currier.

Each year the Council's officers are rotated among the sororities. Joyce Crede, Delta Zeta, served as president this year. The rest of the executive committee was composed of Sandra Traver, Gamma Phi Beta, vice president; Nancy Weatherston, Alpha Xi Delta, secretary; and Virginia Frye, Alpha Phi, treasurer.

Panhellenic Council sponsored the annual Panhellenic Day to acquaint the freshmen with sorority life. New rules will be followed next year concerning Pan-Hel Day and it will be more informal.

All the sororities joined in with the Council's annual philanthropic project of collecting clothes for Piney Woods Country Life School for the underprivileged in Mississippi and ten boxes were sent there before Christmas.

A name band providing the music for the Greek Week Dance was the climax of another affair which was sponsored with Inter-Fraternity Council. Sandra Traver, Gamma Phi Beta, worked with Inter-fraternity Council's representative as co-chairman of the annual Greek Week in the spring.

Scholarship night was another event to which all the sororities looked with eagerness, for the three awards are always much coveted possessions.

Orientation meetings for freshmen were also given by Panhellenic Council to acquaint them with all the phases of rushing. These were handled by three or four sororities working together on the program.

This year's Panhellenic Council introduced many new ideas into the rushing system. The fall rush period and alterations in the freshman rush period helped to make rushing much simpler than before. Through Panhellenic Council and rushing many girls are introduced to and accepted into Greek life here at Bowling Green.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

One of the biggest projects that IFC tackled during the past year was the potential establishment of a new rushing system. It was a plan that had never before been tried on campus, and this plan has introduced new ideas which IFC has had the experience to work with. A new de-pledging system was also recently established by IFC, which is in effect at the present time.

IFC became foster parents last fall when they contributed to the adoption of a war-orphan.

A representative (the president of IFC) was sent to Cincinnati to the National Interfraternity Council meeting last November. This plan of having Bowling Green represented, is expected to be carried on in the future.

The Outstanding Greek was named at the Greek Week

Banquet and presented a small permanent trophy and a large rotating trophy. He was chosen on the basis of service to his fraternity and to IFC, grades, and activities. Selection was made from one representative of each fraternity by a committee appointed by President McDonald.

Officers of the Council were changed each semester. David Freedheim, Zeta Beta Tau, was first semester's president, with Howard Beplat, Sigma Chi, vice president; Charles Bonser, Delta Tau Delta, secretary; and Richard Berk, Pi Kappa Alpha, treasurer. Second semester, Herbert Scogg, Kappa Sigma, was elected president with Richard Humphrey, Sigma Phi Epsilon, vice president; Robert Schwartz, Zeta Beta Tau, secretary; and James Trombino, Sigma Chi, treasurer.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Beta Phi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega was founded on campus in May, 1944. Since then, the Alpha Chi's have actively participated in all campus activities.

This year, the Alpha Chi's won the Christmas decorations trophy for the third time entitling them to permanent possession of the trophy. Other honors included: May Queen, Pat Devoe; Miss B-G, Thora Tait; R.O.T.C. sponsors, Joyce Ridenour and Carol Fischer; PiKA Dreamgirl, Jean Barany and Cap and Gown members Lee Beneke and Marge Ewing.

The national altruistic project for Alpha Chi was cerebral palsy. Throughout the year the members worked for the betterment of this project. As another project of good will, March 1 is declared Hera Day for all chapters at which time each chapter devotes the day to doing good work.

The sorority gave trophies at Homecoming for the best house and dormitory decorations and a pledge scholarship award. In addition, as a Halloween prank, the group gave pumpkins to all fraternity and sorority houses and dormitories.

Officers for the group were: Margaret Richards, president; Marge Ewing, first vice president; Judy Dible, second vice president; Thora Tait, corresponding secretary; Robin Smith, recording secretary; and Judy Mossing, treasurer.

ALPHA DELTA PI

Winner of last spring's Chariot Race, Alpha Delta Pi returned to campus in the fall and soon had another victory, this time the Ugly Woman contest at the Charity Carnival. Inga Harmon retained her previous year's crown.

In February, "Nautical Night," an all-campus dance was sponsored by the ADPi's. Their closed dance, "Black Diamond Ball," was held in March in the Fine Arts auditorium.

A brunch for actives and alumni was held the morning of Homecoming, while the Toledo alumni honored the group at a Christmas party. The annual tree-trimming party was held with Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Two projects were carried on by the ADPi's. Aid to crippled children was the charity the group supported, and on campus they furnished magazines for the waiting room at the hospital.

Individual honors went to Juanita Richardson who was president of F.T.A.; Patti Smith, president of Pi Omega Pi; Sue Carlisle, president of W.R.A.; and Connie Ellis, treasurer of P.E.M. club.

Marilyn Baker was president of this year's group with Patti Smith, vice president; Carol Ruffer, corresponding secretary; Marcia Coates, recording secretary; and Marcia Griffin, treasurer.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

As its national altruistic project, Alpha Gamma Delta sorority supported the United Cerebral Palsy foundation. This project, as well as campus activities kept the members quite busy.

Among the various campus activities was the annual Book-worm Ball, an all-campus dance held during the first semester examination week. Alpha Gam also had an annual fall Apple-polishing party where each girl invited her favorite professor.

The Alpha Gams received many honors this year in various campus functions. Kay O'Farrell and Maurice Sandy were chosen the Sigma Nu's Moonlight Couple. Colette Williams reigned as queen of AFROTC at the Military Ball. They took first place in Derby Day, and were also presented with a first place trophy for their Homecoming decorations. Secretary of Psi Chi was Joyce Ludecker, vice president of Alpha Kappa Delta was Kathy Burkley and Betty Ayers was vice president of A.W.S. as well as a member of Cap and Gown.

Alpha Gamma Delta was founded at Syracuse University May 30, 1904, and was established on the Bowling Green campus November 17, 1945.

The officers of this group were president, Lois Jenks; first vice president, Jane Baehler; second vice president, Kathy Burkley; recording secretary, Barb Cawrse; corresponding secretary, Marge Papcke; and treasurer, Joan Falkner.

ALPHA PHI

The year's biggest project for Alpha Phi, oldest sorority on campus, was in connection with Cardiac Aid, its national philanthropy. Red plastic hearts were distributed throughout the town and University by members of this group. The funds collected in these containers were contributed to hospitals and research projects for curing heart ailments.

A baby-sitting-transportation service was run by the Alpha Phi's and members of Theta Chi fraternity on November 3 to help give Bowling Green townspeople an opportunity to vote.

At Christmas time, members of the faculty and administration were invited to Alpha Phi's 28th annual Christmas tea.

"Happy Hunting Days" was the theme of the chapter's all-campus dance. Upon entering, the girls were issued licenses to hunt for their men.

Alpha Phi's "Whale Kent" theme won second place in the Homecoming decoration contest.

Individual honors included four queens. They were: Lynn Paulhus, sweetheart of Delta Upsilon; Terry Kober, BG-relay queen; Marilyn Lindsey, attendant to sweetheart of Sigma Chi; and Jane Turner, senior attendant to the May Queen.

Ann Dunipace and Marilyn Lindsey were members of Cap and Gown. Ann was also a member of Book and Motor, and Marilyn was editor of the 1954 Key.

Alpha Phi officers were Marilyn Lindsey, president; Sally Halford, first vice president; Lois Radomsky, second vice president; Jane Rettig, recording secretary; Lois Chestnut, corresponding secretary; and Beverly Gorrill, treasurer.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Alpha Xi Delta sorority tried its hand at fashion modeling this year when the Lion Store sponsored a showing of new styles at the Clazel Theater.

In February, the Alpha Xi's sponsored their annual Valentine dance called "Sweetheart Swing". "Rose Dance" was the theme of their closed formal held in the spring.

Aid to needy children in Holland was the purpose of the contributions to the chapter's national philanthropic project.

The sorority as a whole and several individual members won numerous campus honors this year. Honorable mention in the Christmas decoration contest went to the Alpha Xi's and so did second place in the May Sing Contest.

Debbie Auger was elected sophomore class treasurer while treasurer of the junior class was Fran Miller. Carol Sutliff was a member of Cap and Gown.

Pat Lash was elected as a finalist for Key Queen; Debbie Auger and Pat Lash were May Queen attendants in the spring; Pat Voth was sweetheart of Phi Kappa Psi; Mary Ann Dalton was chosen as sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega; Mary Berg was the sweetheart of Sigma Chi; and Barbara Wheeler was R.O.T.C. sponsor and attendant to Miss Esquire.

Officers of the chapter were Shirley Chance, president; Sue Bond, vice president; Joan Dunlop, recording secretary; Carol Doren, corresponding secretary; Shirley Ziemann, treasurer; and Nancy Weatherston, membership chairman. Miss Melva Webb was Head Resident.

CHI OMEGA

Last Honor's Day, the Chi Omega Sorority gave its yearly award to the outstanding senior woman in social service. At this time also, the chapter president, Jackie Gribbons, was presented as a new member of Cap and Gown.

Traditional each spring, the Alpha Chi's and Chi Omegas had their annual Chi Bowl baseball game followed by a buffet supper. The hostesses were the Chi Omegas. The chapter received the Omega trophy for winning the game.

The Bowling Green chapter of Chi Omega, founded on campus in 1947, sponsored an annual all-campus dance. The theme, circus fantasy, found couples dancing in a circus dreamland complete with a crepe paper big top.

Homecoming brought forth another honor to Chi O with the selection of Jackie Gribbons as attendant to the Queen.

In addition to other campus activities the chapter gave a Christmas party for the County Children's Home.

Officers for this year were Jackie Gribbons, president; Barbara Chamberlain, vice president; Barbara Biechele, secretary; Sue Digby, treasurer; and Barbara Jisa, pledge mistress.

The Delta Gammas began another year practicing for and winning the fourth annual Powder Bowl game. This mock football game between Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Gamma is played in connection with the Campus Chest Drive.

This year at Homecoming the DG's were very happy to show their returning alums the lounge which at the beginning of the year had been newly decorated. To complete the Homecoming activities Dotti Farley was chosen as Homecoming Queen.

The active chapter made items for the Bowling Green alum Christmas bazaar, the funds being used for the national project, sight conservation and aid to the blind. They also made gifts and gave note-books to a Toledo sight-saving class.

Also at Christmas time the DG's and the Phi Psi's gave a party and sang carols at the Wood County Old Folks Home.

At the annual scholarship night Delta Gamma presented the Esther Russell scholarship cup to the sorority having the highest point average on campus. The sorority and the 1953 pledge class were recognized for having the second highest sorority and pledge class point averages on campus.

Black-faced DG's again presented a minstrel show at the annual Showboat Dance which was held in February.

Officers this year were Gretchen Van Brunt, president; Nan Kernohan, vice president; Nancy Hirschy, recording secretary; Janice McNary, corresponding secretary; and Kay Carter, treasurer.

Another busy year of activity and fun was opened by Gamma Phi Beta sorority when it sponsored its all-campus dance entitled "Crescent Mood." The Christmas spirit again inspired the Gamma Phi's and Sigma Alpha Epsilons to work together in giving the children at the Wood County Home an annual Christmas party.

This year, as in previous ones, the chapter along with A.W.S. sponsored the annual May Sing contest. The Gamma Phi's presented a trophy to the winning group.

Planning for the Gamma Phi Beta national convention also kept the chapter busy. The convention was held in July at Mackinac Island.

Campus honors for the Gamma Phi's included second place in the all-campus debate contest and first prize for the best booth in the Campus Chest Carnival.

Again the Gamma Phi's were honored to have several queens in their midst. Nancy Gebhardt was sweetheart of Delta Tau Delta, Janet Young was sweetheart of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Jo Reed was chosen Dream Girl of Phi Kappa Tau. Nancy Manheim was one of the Key Queen finalists and Marilyn Early and Mary Bowman were A.F.R.O.T.C. sponsors.

KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Delta Sorority was founded on October 23, 1897, at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia. The Bowling Green Chapter, Beta Mu, was initiated on campus in 1946.

Last summer the chapter received a merit award from their National for general all-round improvement and achievement.

Last spring the Kappa Deltas sponsored an all-campus dance.

Their altruistic project for the local chapter includes various aids for different charities. These aids include giving baskets of food to the needy families in Bowling Green.

Their honors this past year included the trophy for the Chest drive, the Bowling trophy given by the Women's Recreation Association, and the trophy for the best banner to boost our basketball team. The latter was a newly initiated project of the Student Senate Public Relations Committee.

The officers of this group were Diane Forrer, president; Janet Feile, vice president; Gail Richardson, secretary; and Nancy Schumaker, treasurer.

PHI MU

Last spring Phi Mu won two trophies at Derby Day and one at the Pie-Eating Contest. With a band, clowns, and cheer-leaders the sorority took both the pep and presentation trophies at Derby Day. Phi Mu won the trophy for the best presentation of a candidate at the Pie-Eating Contest. The skit featured a parody on Burma Shave signs with the contestant riding in on a toy car.

Phi Mu started this school year by sponsoring the "Beanie Brawl," an informal dance honoring the freshmen. At this dance, trophies were given to the most typical freshman boy and girl.

In December the sorority's closed formal, "Mistle Magic," took place in the auditorium of the Fine Arts building.

Betty Idle, a junior, had one of the leads in the major production of Pirandello's play Right You Are If You Think You Are.

Through the Foster Parent Plan for War Children, Phi Mu sponsored a young Korean girl, Kang Ei Rhung. The money the sorority sends will enable the girl to continue her education.

Officers for the year were as follows: Becky Brand, president; Nancy McIntyre, vice president; Louise Webber, secretary; Eleanor Irvin, treasurer; Julie Moffet and Diana Blackwell, Panhellenic representatives.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Alpha Tau Omega completed its eleventh year on the Bowling Green campus this year. The first chapter was founded at Yale in 1845.

Throughout the year the fraternity had twenty-two exchange dinners with all the sororities. They were active participants in such all campus events as the May Sing and the Campus Chest Drive.

During football season the ATO's sponsored the annual Dad's Day. All the football players' dads were honored and Mr. Nathan Ladd was selected as "Dad of the Year." During the Christmas holiday the fraternity gave a party for the second grade of the elementary school.

First place honors for homecoming decorations went to the ATO's. The theme was a large electric dynamo with the motto, "Harness the Flashes." One of the other activities which the Alpha Tau Omegas sponsored was the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance. Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner were presented at this annual girl-ask-boy-dance.

In the spring the pledge class gave a picnic at City Park for all the pledges of the different fraternities. The closed formal was also held during the spring as was the Sigma Chi-Alpha Tau Omega party. The annual Blackfoot-Whitefoot Week was co-sponsored by the Sigma Nus and the ATO's.

Don Currie was the fraternity president with Pete Gatsos, vice president; Stan Steed, secretary; and Jack Burke, treasurer.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Founded at Bethany College in 1858, the Bowling Green chapter of Delta Tau Delta was initiated in 1947.

This was the second year that the Delts captured the Wood County I.F.C. award for outstanding service to the community and to Wood County.

In December the fraternity held their closed formal and also sponsored a Christmas party for the children of the Lab school.

The annual Bud Gallier Easter Egg Roll for Bowling Green children was held in April, with the aid of the civic merchants.

The Delts wound up their activities with their closed formal in May.

Officers were: Dick Brown, president; Dan Springer, vice-president; Dean Charles, treasurer; Sam Martin, recording secretary; and Dick Jones, corresponding secretary.

DELTA UPSILON

The Bike Race of Delta Upsilon, an annual all-campus event, topped the social events of the chapter, founded at Bowling Green in 1949. Last year, the race was shortened to 12 hours. The fraternity presented four trophies to the race queen, fraternity winner of the race, individual winner of the time heat, and the group which showed the most spirit.

In the spring, the Rose formal allowed the actives to crown the fraternity sweetheart. During Homecoming, the Dude Ranch party was held in conjunction with the weekend's activities as a get-together for the members and the visiting alumni. Last year, Delta Upsilon placed second in the May Sing.

Officers for the year were Robert Johnson, president; Robert Reinbold, vice president; James Schreiber, treasurer; David Lehtoma, recording secretary; Robert Metrione, corresponding secretary.

KAPPA SIGMA

Kappa Sigma held its annual Chariot Race in May. At this time trophies were awarded to winners and "Venus for a Day" was presented.

The fraternity was also the co-sponsor of the second annual closed Street Dance. Its annual closed formal was held in May this year.

Roger Kasten, Kappa Sigma, proved to be an outstanding member when he was tapped for ODK.

Kappa Sigma fraternity was founded at the University of Virginia in 1869, and was initiated at Bowling Green in 1947.

Jim Pinkerton was this year's president, with Jack Greene as vice president; Ted Potts, secretary; and Ken Heilmann, treasurer.

PHI KAPPA PSI

This year Phi Kappa Psi celebrated its one-hundred and second birthday as a national fraternity and the fourth anniversary of the Ohio Zeta Chapter at Bowling Green.

The Phi Psi's returned to their chapter house at 130 South Prospect Street last September intent on making the 1953-54 school year one to be remembered.

The highlights of the first semester included closed parties, record dances, exchange parties and dinners, their annual Philanthropic Project, and a Christmas Party at the Wood County Old Folks Home.

One of its outstanding athletes was Ron Dall who was elected Co-Captain of the varsity swimming team at the beginning of the second semester.

Officers of the fraternity were Neil Hamill, president; Robert Connelly, vice president; Paul Woner, secretary and Walt Lundwall, treasurer.

The Phi Psi's also held their annual Dawn Dance in the wee hours of the morning plus the annual H.P.B. Day Spring Outing.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Delta Beta chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity was founded in 1942 as the first national fraternity on campus. It was proclaimed the best chapter in the nation in 1952-53 by the national office.

Chosen from 109 chapters, Delta Beta received the Robert Smythe award which is given for financial soundness, general leadership, administrative organization, and the number of pledges initiated. This was the second time in four years that the chapter received this award. PiKA also won the National Freedom Award for presenting as a public service the forum on the Ohio Constitution.

The chapter paper, "The Commoner," was rated the best on campus by Delta Sigma, men's journalism honorary.

Under the leadership of president, Don Percy; vice president, Harold Davis; secretary, John Ryckaert; treasurer, Richard Berk; and historian, Gerald Murray, the PiKA's again sponsored the annual "Pi Week". During this week the fraternity gave an all-campus serenade, honored the sorority presidents at a dinner, held the famous pie-eating contest and had a closed dance where they presented their dreamgirl.

Many of its members were active in campus organizations. Harry Bowers was president of Sigma Theta Epsilon, with Howard Delk as vice president. The president of the Lutheran Students' Association was Don Davis. John Luccio was president of Newman Club and Richard Rytel, vice president.

As an annual project the PiKA's gave a party in the Spring for the boys and girls at the Childrens' Home.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Founded at the University of Alabama ninety-eight years ago, Sigma Alpha Epsilon initiated the Bowling Green chapter in 1945.

In December, along with the members of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, they sponsored a Christmas party for Wood County orphans.

The basketball team was honored at its annual all-campus Tip-Off Dance, which was held in January.

This year the S.A.E.'s awarded a trophy to the most outstanding player in the annual Powder Bowl.

For the second year in a row, they were awarded the intramural volleyball trophy.

The S.A.E.'s picked their outstanding senior. The award went this year to Bob Schifko.

SIGMA NU

The first chapter of Sigma Nu was founded seventy-seven years ago on the campus of the Virginia Military Institute. It was in 1946 that the fraternity was nationalized on the Bowling Green campus.

Heading the activity list for the Sigma Nus was the annual Blackfoot-Whitefoot Week which they sponsored with the Alpha Tau Omegas in the spring. This is a national tradition between the fraternities. They also had the "Moonlight Dance" in which they selected a moonlight couple.

The Sigma Nus presented the Gaylord Groff scholarship award to the junior man most outstanding in scholarship and also selected the outstanding senior of the year.

They also won the swimming trophy this year. Tom Dunford served as president of the fraternity with Andy Tolas, vice president; John Prophet, secretary; Bob Troknya, treasurer.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Last Fall the Alumni Corporation made the initial steps toward the purchase of the Ohio Kappa Chapter's house with the red door.

In the annual Campus Chest Drive Sig Ep won the Ugly Man Contest. The penny vote proceeds were donated to the drive.

The members had a closed dinner dance for their dates in December. There were snow flakes and roses decorating the house to carry out the theme of "Roses In December". A Christmas gift exchange party was held and the gifts were sent by Santa Claus to some orphan children.

The Spring was ushered in by the members with their traditional "Sweetheart Ball".

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded in Richmond, Virginia, in 1901. The Bowling Green chapter was initiated in 1950.

Richard Humphrey was president this year with Dan Baker, vice president, Joseph McKinley, secretary; and Robert Pinney, treasurer.

THETA CHI

Theta Chi was founded at Norwich, Vermont, on April 10, 1856. The Bowling Green chapter, Gamma Mu, was installed on campus in April of 1948.

For the third straight year Theta Chi won the Interfraternity Sing trophy. The winning group, directed by Jim Cunningham, sang on the Variety Time program over WSPD-TV.

This was the second year that the Theta Chi's sponsored a project to encourage the people of Bowling Green to get out and vote in the city-wide elections by providing transportation for the voters.

The Theta Chi's awarded a trophy to the pledge class receiving the highest point average. Two active members, Bill Bittner and Jerry Helwig, were members of Omicron Delta Kappa. The mothers of the chapter members organized a Mothers' Club this year.

Theta Chi debate team succeeded in winning this year's all-campus debate tournament. The trophy for the best Christmas decorations in the fraternity division was also awarded to Theta Chi.

A banquet, a dance, and the presentation of a Dream Girl and Dream Mother were the highlights of Theta Chi's major social event, Parents' Week-end.

Chuck Jacobs served as first semester president; Vince Tampio, pledge marshal; Terry Schon, secretary; and Jack Hogberg, treasurer. During second semester Charles Greenway was president; Robert Sorgen, vice president; and Andrew Esposito, secretary.

ZETA BETA TAU

The Beta Eta chapter of Zeta Beta Tau was host to chapters from Ohio State, Miami, and Western Reserve for the fourth annual all-Ohio ZBT basketball tournament in November. Bowling Green's chapter won the tournament for the first time.

Featured on the year's social activity agenda was the all-campus "Esquire Ball", sponsored with Esquire magazine, which included one calendar girl from each sorority vying for the title of Miss Esquire. In February, the Valentine Sweetheart party was held at which the fraternity sweetheart was announced, serenaded by the men, and presented with the Sweetheart pin. In May, the closed spring formal brought many alumni back to visit the chapter.

This year, Zeta Beta Tau initiated its largest pledge class and named it "The Henry Rappaport Pledge Class" in honor of Mr. Rappaport who is a fraternity trustee and a Bowling Green merchant.

Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity was founded in 1898 at City College of New York. It now has forty-seven chapters in two countries. Beta Eta chapter was founded at Bowling Green State University on May 29, 1948, by 13 men of the local Phi Beta Mu. Originally located on South Prospect, the group moved into its present chapter home at 611 N. Main in September, 1948.

This year's officers were: David Freedheim, president; Harold Molotsky, vice president; Harry Thal, secretary; Gene Levi, treasurer; and David Nizny, historian.

GREEK ACTIVITIES

The third annual Delta Upsilon Bike race held on April 25, 1953 included many new ideas and also set new records. For the first time the DU's elected a queen to reign over the day's activities. Sue Hartman, Delta Gamma, was chosen from the eleven candidates. Jim Ladd, Phi Delta Theta, set a new record of 22 miles-per-hour and led his team to an easy win. Kappa Sigma placed second and Alpha Sigma Phi edged out Theta Chi for third. Because of rain the day of the race some of the planned activities had to be cancelled. The DU's had planned to begin the day with a breakfast with the queen and her sorority at 5:00 A. M. which would be followed by a pre-race parade through campus. Although there was bad weather, approximately 1,500 spectators viewed the race from the roadside or from the bleachers.

Kappa Sigma's Chariot Race, held on May 9, 1953 began with a parade of toga-clad men and women and chariots. The parade after passing through town ended at the football field where the presentation of the queen, the races and the chariot beauty award were held. Queen Phyllis Doench, Delta Gamma, was chosen by Ray Anthony, well-known band-leader. Her attendants were Janet Amsdell, Williams Hall, and Lee Beneke, Alpha Chi Omega. Delta Tau Delta took the trophy for the race in the men's division, posting the fastest time ever recorded. Alpha Delta Pi won the women's division race. Delta Gamma won the trophy awarded for "the most beautiful and authentic chariot."

At the annual Zeta Beta Tau Esquire Dance Pat Clark, Delta Gamma, was chosen as Esquire Queen. Marilyn Early, Gamma Phi Beta, and Barbara Wheeler, Alpha Xi Delta, were the queen's attendants. The queens were chosen by the art staff of Esquire magazine as is the tradition.

Herb Barr, Alpha Tau Omega, congratulated Mr. Nathan Ladd who was chosen as the outstanding dad of the year at the ATO annual Dad's Day. The morning of Dad's Day the football team and their dads were treated to a breakfast in the Nest by the ATO active chapter. In the evening the ATO's and their parents had a get-together.

At the fall Scholarship Night sponsored by Panhellenic Council Delta Zeta walked away with all three trophies. Marilyn Ray accepted the plaque for the pledge class with the highest point average and Joy Traver accepted the tray for the most improvement and the trophy for the highest point average. Gretchen Van Brunt, Delta Gamma, presented the Esther Russell Scholarship Cup. The pledge class plaque was presented by Alpha Chi Omega and the improvement tray by City Panhellenic. Mrs. Samuel Lowrie was the speaker and the groups sang their traditional songs.

Pi Week featured a dreamgirl and pie eater champion.

In the Spring, Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity sponsored their Pi Week. Members of the fraternity wore white shirts with maroon string bow ties in honor of the week. A series of teas were held by the fraternity to honor the girls who had been nominated for PiKA dreamgirl. Ten finalists were chosen and from these Marilyn Sawyer, Kohl freshman, was dreamgirl. Miss Sawyer reigned at the closed formal which concluded the week's activities. During the week, the annual Pie Eating contest was held. Christie Redrup, eating for Chi Omega, gobbled the pie in the shortest time, and Danny Kaiser came in first in the men's division for Theta Chi. The Theta Chi's also won the presentation contest along with Alpha Xi Delta in the women's division.

Dorothy Farley, '53 Sweetheart crowned Mary Berg as Sweetheart of Sigma Chi for 1954. Miss Berg was chosen by "Woody" Hayes, head football coach at Ohio State. Other finalists were Marjorie Ewing, Joyce Ludecker, Marilyn Lindsey, and Judy Dible.

United Christian Fellowship sponsored the annual Christmas door decorations contest in which Theta Chi placed first in the men's division, and Alpha Chi Omega in the women's.

Theta Chi's winning Christmas decorations.

The Arts

Learning and knowledge come from entertainment as well as from books as The Artist Series programs, art shows, and concerts have shown this year.

The Artist Series brought six evenings to remember to this campus when it presented: the opera, "Il Trovatore;" Lowell Thomas with his illustrated movie on "The Ice Men;" The Salsburg Marionettes; The Boston Pops, conducted by the dynamic Arthur Fiedler, who has popularized light classical music in America and Europe through recordings; Richard Tucker, who is considered by many critics to be the greatest tenor singing in the world today; and The Columbus Boy-choir, the outstanding singing ensemble of its type in America today.

MUSIC

The A CAPPELLA CHOIR under the direction of Dr. James Paul Kennedy had a very active year. All through the year the choir sang in nearby towns and presented their annual NBC Christmas program from Cleveland. Also at Christmas time the choir was a part of the Choral Concert and the Messiah. This year the choir toured the South, giving concerts in Ohio, Tennessee, Alabama and Florida. The tour lasted about two weeks beginning on January 27 and ending February 10. The Choir also held their annual Spring picnic for the senior members of the choir.

The officers for the year were Dick Davis, president; Ann Dunipace, secretary; Fred Stumpp, manager; and Verlin Eash, student conductor.

The TREBLE CLEF, also under the direction of Dr. James Paul Kennedy, began the year by holding its annual breakfast. After the breakfast, the group sang at the Methodist Church. The choir took part in the Christmas Choral Concert and then concentrated on preparing for the Spring tour. They presented a home concert on April 25, just before leaving on tour. This year the tour lasted from April 29-May 10. The group traveled through upstate New York, to the New England states and down the eastern seaboard to Philadelphia, thus ending a very successful year.

The officers for the year were Martha Berndt, president; Eleanor Irvin, vice president; Virginia Pierce, secretary; Anne Seaver, treasurer; and Julia Moffett, business manager.

The UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA under the direction of Assistant Professor Gerald McLaughlin was one of the most active musical organizations on the campus this season. The Orchestra presented two full orchestra concerts, joined with the University Choral Society in the annual Christmas presentation of the Messiah and on May 17 inaugurated the Concerto Concert, an innovation in music events at the University.

The Concerto Concert presents instrumental music majors as soloists with the orchestra. Those playing on this inaugural program were Nancy Abbott, French horn; Arthur Cotruvo, violin; William Lecklider, clarinet; Anthony Roberts, trumpet; Luane Wisler, violin; and Freida Tschanz, oboe.

In the first concert of the season the orchestra played Schubert's Second Symphony which had never been presented before at Bowling Green. On the same program were works of Beethoven, Vaughan-Williams, Griffes and Smetana. The Mendelssohn Italian Symphony was featured on the orchestra's Spring Concert and Mr. Thomas Curtis, organist and member of the music faculty, was presented as soloist with the orchestra in Handel's Concerto No. 3, Opus 7. Compositions of Copland and Wagner completed the program.

Officers for the year were: Arthur Cotruvo, president; Anthony Roberts, vice president; Luane Wisler, secretary; Leona Kronmann, treasurer; Nicholas Ezzone, publicity; David Nizny, manager; and Robert Berton, librarian.

The UNIVERSITY STRING ORCHESTRA, founded and conducted by Assistant Professor Gerald McLaughlin, presented its fourth annual concert in the Practical Arts auditorium on the evening of November 8. The ensemble also made its debut in Toledo this season with a concert at the Toledo Museum of Art in which the String Orchestra received high praise from the music critic of the Toledo Times. Compositions of classic and contemporary composers played in this season's programs included Handel, Vivaldi, Grieg, Holst, Persichetti and Arnell.

The UNIVERSITY CONCERT BAND presented its home concert in the Main Auditorium on January 17. Don Preston was selected as the soloist on the marimba for the concert. The Band also took a four-day tour of high schools in Ohio, visiting Swanton, Ridgeville Corners, West Jefferson and Perry schools. The seventy-three musicians began the trip on March 22 and returned home March 25. The purpose of the tour was to serve the local area and to give the band experience in concertising.

ART SHOWS

"The Great Mills"
by Robert E. Stinson

Many spectators viewed the art show.

The Seventh Annual Art Faculty Exhibition was presented during March. "Aesthetic Quality" was the keynote in many of the paintings, as there were quite a few modern-art interpretations.

The gallery of the Fine Arts Building was arranged to resemble an art studio, with potted palms decorating the room.

Charles J. Lakofsky, assistant professor of art, had 33 pieces of pottery on display in the three showcases.

Among the oil paintings of Robert E. Stinson, instructor in art, was the "Omen," a Spanish scene, done in duco and oil.

Willard F. Wankelman, associate professor of art, had several watercolors on exhibit, boat scenes predominating. "Rideau Canal" was one of his displayed paintings.

The various steps in print-making were displayed by Otto Ocvirk, instructor in art. He entitled his prints the "Annunciation."

Robert O. Bone, assistant professor of art, exhibited several watercolors of college campus scenes.

One of the oil paintings done by Karl Richards, assistant professor of art, is called "Beach Party."

Various forms of art were displayed by Phillip R. Wigg, assistant professor of art. He exhibited prints, drawings, and sculpture.

ART EXHIBIT

The Fourth Annual Ohio Drawing Show was brought to Bowling Green by the Canton Art Institute in November. The drawings were done mostly in pencil and ink.

Not only were exhibits brought to Bowling Green from other sources, but members of the art faculty entered many of their works of art in traveling shows, exhibitions, and museum displays. The art faculty were represented in The Annual Exhibition of Ohio Artists and Craftsmen at the Massillon Art Museum, the Ohio State Fair, the Fourth Annual Downtown Art Exhibition for Toledo Area Artists, the Sixth Ohio Ceramic Annual at the Butler Art Institute in Youngstown, and many others.

The students didn't take a back seat as far as prizes went. Four of the five winners in the Christmas Paper Design Competition, sponsored by the LaSalle and Koch Company, were Bowling Green University students.

"The King's Balcony"

THEATRE

A production was staged on January 14 especially for the annual children's show in the Gate Theatre. The name of this play was "The King's Balcony," a dramatized version of Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tale, "The Emperor's New Clothes."

Vince Tampo played the part of the famous King Aramath, and Jennie Shelley and Anne Potoky as his loyal subjects, Nimble and Thimble. Princess Jasmine was portrayed by Marilyn Nicholas, Larry Selka played Cactus the treasurer, and Terry Schon and Gene Rucker played the jester and cook roles.

This fantasy-comedy was directed by Professor John H. Hepler. It was written by a New York children's theater writer, Phillip Sheffield.

GOOD-BYE, MY FANCY

The 1953-54 season of drama opened on the campus with the play, "Good-Bye, My Fancy." Lee Beneke took the role of Congresswoman Agatha Reed, who returns to Good Hope College for women to receive an honorary degree and meet her old love, who was once an extraordinarily stimulating professor of history and is now president of the college. Larry Selka played the role of the college president.

This very amusing play was lauded by the audience for its excellent interpretation of characters. Other actors included Bob Smith as the "life" photographer, Joyce Atkinson as Miss Reed's secretary, Carolyn O'Connor as the alumnae secretary, Tina Lazoff as the wife of a member of the board of trustees, and Anne Potoky as the comic spinster teacher.

The play was under the direction of Professor Elden T. Smith, and played on November 6 and 7.

RIGHT YOU ARE, IF YOU THINK YOU ARE

A mysterious, psychological production staged in a modern, abstract setting briefly explains the play, "Right You Are, If You Think You Are."

The setting was done in various shades of one color, which was in direct contrast to formal balance and stressed the mood of the conflict within the plot of the play.

John Hepler, technical director of the three-act play, which ran from December 9 through 13, stated that in keeping with the theme, the interpretation would be left up to individual imagination. The plot centers around the actions of a government official, his wife, and his mother-in-law.

These three important parts were convincingly played by Carl Balsan, Jean Butler, and Betty Idle, respectively. James Liedtke, Sue Bond, and Carmie Amato also held their dramatic roles with ease.

RICHARD III

Another Shakespearean production, "Richard III" was presented in March to once more prove that Shakespeare plays a hit with Bowling Green audiences.

"Richard III," starring Carl Balson as Richard and Tina Lazoff as Queen Elizabeth, was outstanding not only in its acting, but because of the excellent effects created in the stage sets, costumes, and background music. One of the exciting high-points of the play was a dueling and fighting scene between several in the cast.

The stage was divided in two parts for many of the scenes, with the action switching from one side to the other by the use of the lighting. The sound of drums in the background created a further suspense.

The play was directed by Robert Richey. Dwight Rangel, Carol Liedtke, Carolyn O'Connor, and James Liedtke also shared acting honors.

HURON PLAYHOUSE

Each summer, the University Speech Department supervises a branch of the regular summer session at Huron, Ohio. Students enroll in the Huron Playhouse, which produces plays in the high school auditorium, for college credits in this field. A series of plays are given and all phases of production are done by the students. Bus loads from the University attend several of the plays.

THE ARTIST SERIES

IL TROVATORE

After an outstandingly successful "Carmen" of last season, the Charles L. Wagner Company returned to open the artist series on October 11, this time with the Verdi masterpiece, "Il Trovatore."

Colorful scenery, sparkling costuming, a twenty-six piece orchestra, and casts of outstanding young artists, have combined to give this company, now in its fourteenth season, a reputation for the finest touring operas of our times.

The cast included: Armando Aliberti, conductor; Desire Defrere, director; Calvin March, "Count Di Luna;" Militza Kosanchich, "Leonora;" Tomas Lo Monaco, "Manrico;" Jane Morrow, "Inez;" and Eleanor Tobin, "Azucena."

Scene from Il Trovatore.

SALZBURG MARIONETTE THEATRE

On January 15 The Salzburg Marionette Theatre featured "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" in the afternoon performance for children. The major numbers in the evening were, "The Nutcracker Suite" and the opera, "Don Giovanni."

The 3 1/2 foot marionettes performed on a 27 foot stage to the accompaniment of music recorded by the Salzburg Mozarteum Orchestra and chorus.

LOWELL THOMAS

Lowell Thomas, famed radio commentator, author, as well as world traveler, presented an illustrated lecture November 15 called "The Ice Men." The movie was taken during one of his less publicized expeditions into the snow fields of Alaska.

BOSTON POPS ORCHESTRA

A unique and refreshing form of entertainment for music lovers was enjoyed when the Fourth Artist Series brought Arthur Fiedler, shown above, and the Boston Pops to campus in March. The Pops presented light, classical music, polkas, galops, waltzes, marches, and popular tunes.

RICHARD TUCKER

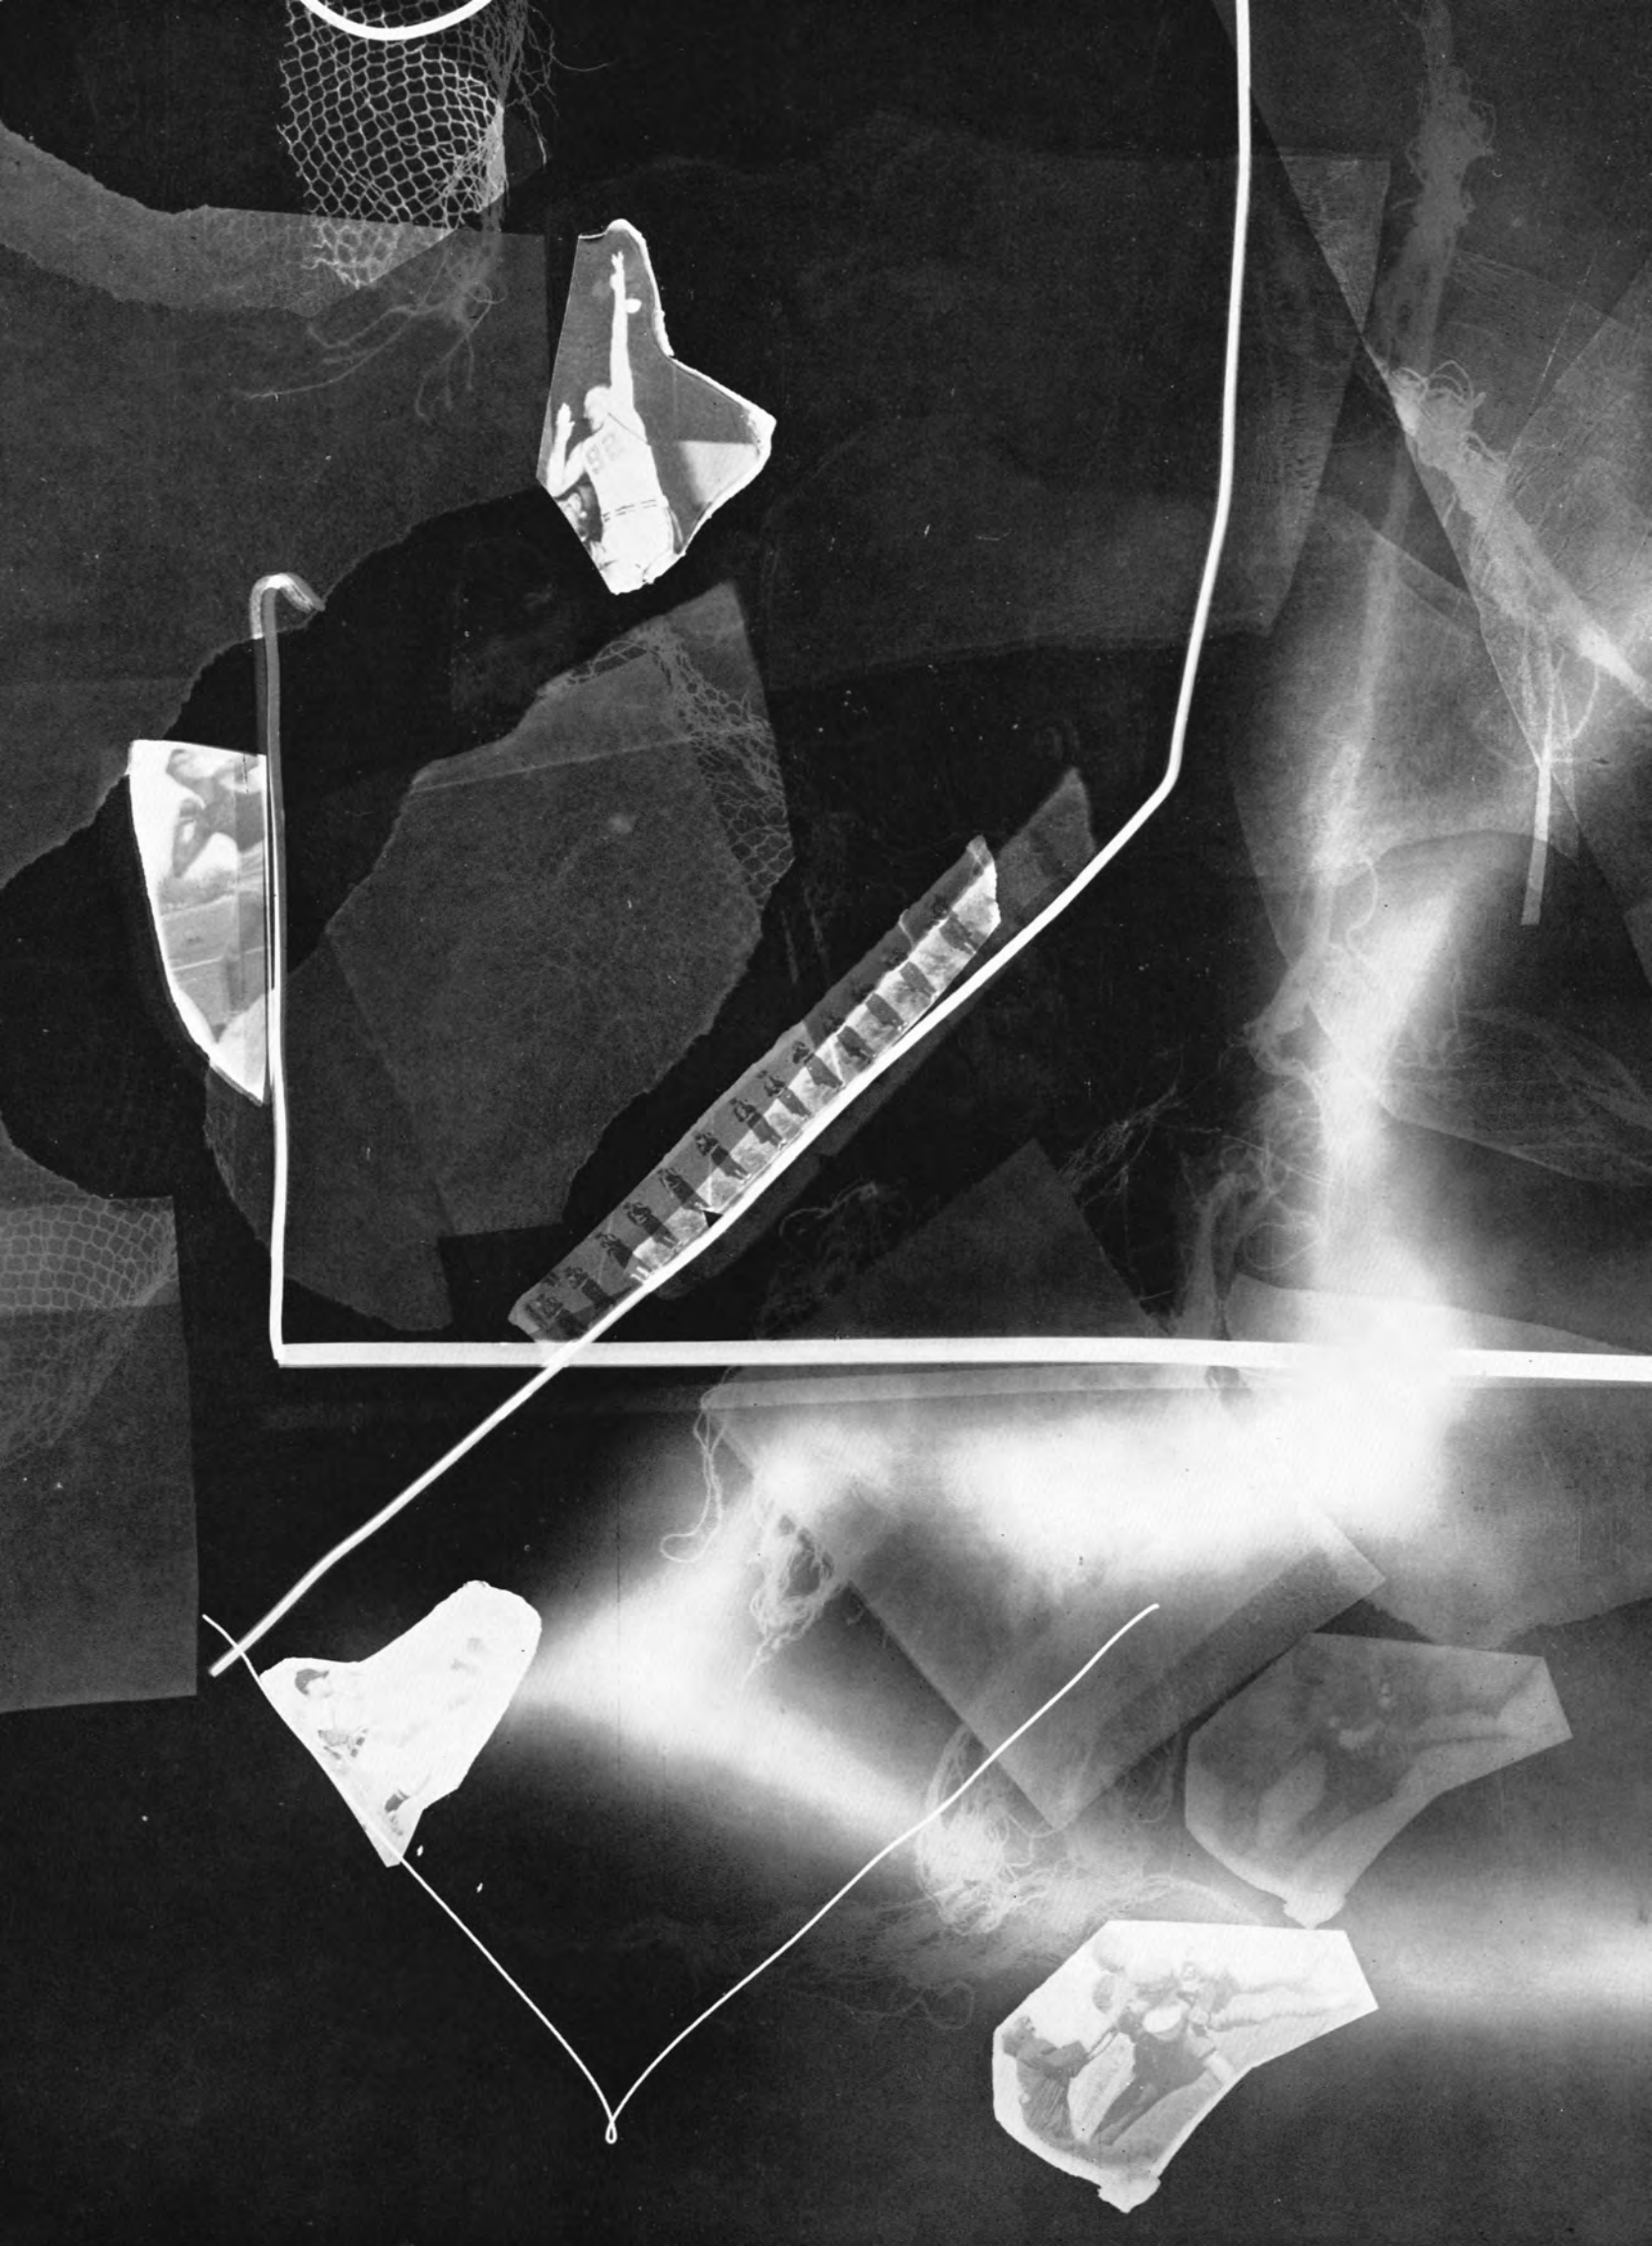

On March 30, the Fifth Artist Series featured Richard Tucker, shown above, one of the greatest tenors in the world today. He was born and educated in Brooklyn, and his great operatic success has come as an "Italian" tenor. He is sometimes called the Brooklyn Caruso.

COLUMBUS BOYCHOIR

The Columbus Boychoir, the outstanding singing ensemble of its type in America today, came to Bowling Green on April 7. Started in Columbus, Ohio, by Herbert Huffman, founder-director, the choir is now located at Princeton where the Boychoir School is affiliated with the Westminster Choir College.

The boys have appeared in cities throughout the United States and Canada and have sung with some of the major symphony orchestras. The programs are varied from Palestrina to Gershwin, from Latin motets to boogie-woogie.

Athletics

Bowling Green State University's Falcons begin their sports' program in September, and continue throughout the year, ending only as the other school activities end, in June. A member of the Mid-American Conference, its teams, as shown on succeeding pages, participate in football, basketball, track, baseball, cross country, swimming, wrestling, golf, and tennis. In the school's intramural program, also depicted here, its activities literally attract the participation of every student on the BG campus.

Spring Sports

Playing their first season in the Mid-American Conference, the diamondmen of Bowling Green finished the season with a Conference record of four wins and four losses, and an over-all record of eight wins and six losses.

Leading the BG hitters for the second straight season was second baseman Jerry Omori with a torrid .469 batting average. This included three home runs and four doubles. In Conference play, Omori hit a sizzling .600.

Don Doran led in pitching with five wins and one loss, and struck out 42 men in 53 innings.

Other outstanding players were Phil Seker, Al Ikeda, Wally Server, Chuck Hunter, and Gene Bunger.

Warren E. Stellar, professor of health and physical education, is now in his thirtieth year as a member of the University faculty.

A surprise breakfast was held in his honor in which 125 students, athletes, and friends took part, including members of his first football, basketball, and baseball teams.

Coach Harold Anderson presented Mr. Stellar with a television set, a set of golf clubs, and an electric coffee maker.

Coach Ken Walker's tennis team compiled four victories and seven losses last spring and finished sixth in the Mid-American Conference. Lack of experience seemed to be the main factor for the mediocre record.

Al Bianchi, Dave Angus, Don Jones, Manny Koginos, Jerry Rottenbor, Jerry Sullivan, and Dick Schultz composed the squad. Koginos went to the semi-finals of the Mid-American Conference Meet before experiencing defeat.

Since Schultz is the only graduating member of the squad and the team has gained valuable experience, they are pointing to improve their 4-7 record of last year.

The track team, coached by Dave Matthews, posted a record of four wins and two losses last spring.

Ohio University, Kent State, Cincinnati, and Detroit were defeated by the Falcon cindersmen. Powerful Western Michigan, and Western Reserve were the two victors.

Highlighting the season was the third place standing won at the Mid-American Conference Meet at Kalamazoo, Michigan. The team also placed sixth in the Central Collegiate Conference, and seventh in the All-Ohio College Meet.

The nucleus of the team was composed of Marv Crosten, Maurice Sandy, William Bradshaw, and Ray Bertelsen.

Early season predictions put the Falcons flying high with the same runners, with the exception of Marv Crosten, of the team that compiled a 7-1 record the previous year.

Dean Marr, Walter Duricy, Hilliard Roane, Ray Bertelsen and Ray Palmer composed the five top men of the team.

The season opened with the team splitting a double-meet, with Central Michigan defeating the BG thinclads 44-18 and the Falcons bouncing back to defeat Albion College 37-19. They then traveled to Oberlin where they were defeated 30 to 27.

They won both ends of their second double-meet by defeating Loyola of Chicago 34-25 and Wayne 28-27. The team was defeated in its next two meets, first defeated by Ball State Teachers College 29-26, and by Miami University 42-15. They concluded their season of regular meets by defeating Ohio Wesleyan 32-24.

In the annual Mid-American Conference Meet held at Bowling Green the Falcons finished third with Dean Marr turning in the best BG performance of the day by finishing tenth.

THE 1953 SEASON

Bowling Green's Football Falcons failed to equal the 1952 record, winning only one game in nine starts. Thirteen lettermen reported for practice, along with approximately 35 other candidates for places on the 1953 squad. Weakness in the forward line accounted for much of the scoring by opposing teams, but the year's record was embellished by outstanding performances of several individual players.

John Ladd, a defensive specialist for the previous two years, came up as one of the best running backs, and played much of the season at fullback. Depth was lacking at most positions, and this, coupled with inexperience was the problem which faced Coach Bob Whittaker during the season. In spite of this, the Falcons held some of the more powerful opponents to surprisingly low scores, and in other cases the team held other teams to comparatively lower scores than some other members of the Mid-American Conference were able to accomplish.

The line averaged over 200 pounds, with fair defensive ability and speed. The backfield was comparatively light, with an approximate 170-pound average. The abolition of the two-platoon system, in the opinion of Coach Whittaker, was not a factor in the Falcons' unfavorable season record. The elimination of the two-platoon system, however, did serve to cut down a number of candidates for the squad, because of the stiff competition for positions under the new ruling.

In scoring, Glen Freimark, Martin Keipp, John Ladd and Jim Ladd, scored 18 points, respectively. Jack Hecker scored 15 points, Jim Bryan 14, Bill Bradshaw 12, and Mel Hoover 6. Jim Ladd led in pass-receiving with 31 catches for 473 yards and three TD's. Marty Keipp followed with 12 catches for 190 yards and two scores. Jack Hecker caught 11 passes for 241 yards and two scores.

In rushing, Bradshaw led the Falcons with 236 yards in 110 carries. John Ladd was next with 205 yards in 58 attempts. In the MAC, Bowling Green scored six touchdowns to 19 for opponents, and made four points after touchdowns to opponents' 14.

Bill Bradshaw missed the NCAA all-time kicking average by seven-tenths of a point. He kicked his way to a place as the No. 1 small college punter of the nation, with a 44-yard per kick average. He broke the all-time kicking record for Bowling Green, and copped the Mid-American Conference passing title.

Both Bradshaw and Jim Ladd made the second-team list in the MAC.

BAND BUILDS SPIRIT

Precision drill, long hours of hard practice, and a spark of ingenuity on the part of the band director, were the essential qualities which made this year's marching band outstanding in the 1953 football season.

A newcomer to the University faculty this year was Roy J. Weger, director of the band. Mr. Weger formerly conducted the championship high school band in Durant, Okla. He believes a clever script, a clever show, and music well-played gives audience-appeal. He stressed musicianship on the football field as well as perfection in marching.

Similar to a play production, Mr. Weger based each program on three things: first, the entrance, setting the stage; second, the theme or climax; and finally, the hat-and-bow routine as the band concluded its performance. What really made the shows outstanding were the novel ideas contributed by Professor Weger, and Richard Ecker, assistant director of the group.

More work went into the perfection of these performances than one would suppose.

It was not unusual for the 90-piece band to spend seven hours a week practicing for each seven-and-a-half-minute show. An average of eight formations were executed during the intermission of each game, and ten pieces of music were memorized for the routine.

The first performance of the marching band in last fall's football season was at Temple University in Philadelphia. It was also the first performance under its new director, Mr. Weger. High compliments were paid the University band by members of the Temple University administration.

The 90 members of the marching band traveled by busses to Philadelphia, and after the football game took an educational tour, visiting Independence Hall, and many other civic sights. The band members stayed at the Gertrum Hotel.

Another exceptional performance of the marching band was given at the Homecoming football game against Kent. The theme of the show was "A day at the county fair."

Several formations were executed, including a tomato; a catsup bottle which spilled its contents; and the world's largest corn stalk which grew in size to the tune of, "How Ya Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm." From there the band went into the formation of a chicken which walked down the field to strains of "Chicken Reel," and then into the formation of a three-ring circus. Outstanding in this last formation were the drum majorettes who twirled fire batons.

Drum majorettes who performed with this year's marching band included four freshmen: Julia Holstein, Grove City, Pa.; Marilyn Patton, Steubenville; Barbara DeGroff, Troy; and Marion Lee LeRoux, Sylvania. Bonnie Princehorn, sophomore from Oberlin, was the only upper-classman among the group.

Eight high school marching bands added flash and color at Bowling Green's final home football game.

THE SEASON

FALCONS LOSE FIRST START

The Falcons opened their 1953 gridiron campaign and Coach Bob Whittaker's twenty-fifth year of football coaching by taking a 20-7 licking from Youngstown College. A crowd of 6,500 watched the Falcons get off to a fast start in the first period and then wilt in the final two periods.

Early in the first period, John Ladd carried over guard for a touchdown. Bryan's dropkick for the point was good, and Bowling Green held down a 7-0 lead.

Youngstown scored early in the second period, but failed on the conversion, and the half-time score was 7-6. The final two periods proved to be the Falcons' downfall. Midway in the third period Dick Franko went 58 yards to score. BG once carried the ball down to the Penguins 13-yard line, but failed to pick up necessary yardage for a first down. Youngstown's final tally came after a 91-yard drive.

MIAMI ROUTS B-G 47-0

Miami's powerful Redskins, kept under wraps by Coach Ara Parseghian, handed the Bowling Green Falcons a decisive defeat. Led by sophomore Tom Troxell, who tallied three touchdowns, Miami scored twice in the first quarter, added three more tallies in the second, and wrapped up the win with a brace of scores in the third period.

Parseghian shifted his second team into play in the final frame. It proved to be a closer match for the Falcon eleven. The final fifteen minutes turned into an even battle with neither team scoring.

Bright spots in the Falcons' loss were the fine performances of Jim Ladd, Bill Bradshaw, and Les Green. Ladd drew high praise from the Miami coaching staff, while Bradshaw played perhaps the finest game of his collegiate career. Green's great defensive play stalled many Redskin scoring threats.

FALCONS DROP THIRD STRAIGHT

Temple University dealt the third straight loss of the season to the Falcons with a 27-0 spanking. Bowling Green could penetrate no deeper than the Temple 36-yard-line.

For the first three periods the game was a tightly fought battle with only seven points separating the two teams. The seven points were picked up in the opening plays of the second quarter as Temple concluded a 44-yard drive for the touchdown and added the extra point. Going into the final quarter the score still gave Temple a 7-0 edge. A pass and a blocked kick accounted for the next two TD's. With four minutes remaining in the game Temple capitalized on a BG fumble on the Falcon 18-yard-line. The Owls bucked the Falcon forward wall for five plays before striking pay-dirt. The placement was good and Temple won 27-0.

FALCONS SMASH BRADLEY U.

Bob Whittaker's Falcons marked up their only victory of the 1953 gridiron campaign by smashing Bradley U. 39-13 before 3,100 fans in the annual Dad's Day fray. Bradshaw pitched fourteen passes and completed 10 to give Bowling Green its fourth straight win over the Braves in the last four years. Bradshaw's accurate toe pounded out a 51.3 yard punt average, one of which soared 67 yards.

A pass from Bradshaw to Ladd marked the first counter for the Falcons. Then just 20 seconds later the score was tied. A pass from Bryan to Keipp scored the second touchdown for Bowling Green and gave them a 13-6 lead. Forty-five seconds later Bradley scored to tie at 13-13. Touchdown passes to Freimark in the second, and to Hecker early in the third period gave the Falcons a substantial lead.

In the opening play of the final quarter Bradshaw hit Hecker again for a score. The final tally came with less than six minutes remaining when Mel Hoover crashed over from the four-yard-line.

BW EDGES FALCONS IN SEASON DUEL

The Bowling Green-Baldwin-Wallace game turned into the wildest contest witnessed all season. A B-W homecoming crowd of 6,500 watched the Falcons blow a first half 20-0 lead, and saw the Yellow Jackets triumph 35-27 for their first win over the Falcons since 1949.

Bradshaw passed to Ladd, good for 16 yards and the first of the game's nine touchdowns. Glenn Freimark plunged over from the two, and Hecker converted to give the Falcons a 13-0 first-quarter lead. In the opening minutes of the second quarter, Jim Ladd intercepted a Yellow Jacket pass and ran 50 yards for another touchdown. Bryan kicked the extra point to give the Falcons a 20-0 lead.

Tyree took a pass from Miller midway in the second quarter and traveled 25 yards for the first B-W score. Baldwin-Wallace's big chance came when the Falcons fumbled on their own 48 early in the final frame. Two plays later, Miller hit Joseph again for 37 yards to give B-W the lead touchdown again by a single point 28-27. Tyree scored his second touchdown of the day, and the Yellow Jackets won their first game over Bowling Green since 1949.

TU EKES BY FALCONS 20-19

Clair Dunn, head coach of the Toledo Rockets said after the game, "We were lucky." Call it luck if you want to, but the score of the Toledo-Bowling Green football game was 20-19 in favor of the Rocket eleven.

With that lucky team, there was such outstanding performers as Mel Triplett, "Tarp" Taormina, Rick Kaser, and Bert Warrick. It might have been luck, but the TU backfield threw up the strongest running attack of the season with 352 yards gained by rushing.

The 2,500 drizzle-soaked fans probably thought that Bowling Green was on its way to the second victory of the season when the team marched 84 yards for a touchdown in the last quarter. The Falcons at the time were out in front 19-13. Toledo, however, had designs of retaliation. It took the Rockets about five minutes and thirteen plays to drive the football into the end zone and tie the score. Sonny Smith passed for the extra point, which gave the Rockets the game 20-19.

BRADSHAW PUNTS 47.4 YARDS

A crowd of 5,500 fans were on hand to see the Falcons lose their first Homecoming game since 1942 to Kent State, 41-7. Ironically enough, it was Kent who handed Bowling Green its last Homecoming defeat 11 years ago.

The Falcons' part in the contest was highlighted by the sparkling performance of quarterback Bill Bradshaw. Bradshaw kept his punting average soaring upward as he pounded out a 47.4 yard average.

In the first quarter fullback Jim Cullom sparked a 73-yard drive for the first Kent score. Mariano plunged over with a minute left in the first quarter and the conversion was good. Kent scored again midway in the second stanza. BG scored its only touchdown with less than 45 seconds left in the first half, the half ending with a score of 20-7.

The second half saw the Falcons crumble and Kent piled up three more TD's. The last came with a minute and five seconds remaining, Rittichier intercepting a pass from Jim Bryan on the 45 and carrying the pigskin to pay-dirt.

PRINCES STOP FALCONS 27-6

A crowd of 2,800 fans bucked the cold weather to watch the Student Princes from Heidelberg drop the Falcons, 27-6, in the final home game of the year. This was the first game with Heidelberg since 1941, when the Falcons trounced the Princes 39-6.

Heidelberg's freshman halfback, Walter Livingston, turned the final quarter into a nightmare for Coach Bob Whittaker's squad by romping for three touchdowns.

Early in the second quarter, Heidelberg capitalized on a BG fumble on the Falcons' 27. Three plays later Warren crashed through the middle for the touchdown. Lambert added the point for a 7-0 half-time lead.

Midway in the third quarter Bradshaw passed to Marty

Keipp in the end zone for the only BG touchdown. In the final stanza Livingston stole the show and romped for three touchdowns to give the Princes a 27-6 victory over the Falcons.

BOBCATS TAKE MAC CROWN

Coach Bob Whittaker sent an inspired Falcon eleven to meet the high-flying Ohio University Bobcats. An Athens crowd of 4,500 watched Bowling Green throw a scare into the Bobcats when the Falcons jumped off to a 7-0 first period lead, and then faded to take a 22-14 defeat. By defeating the Falcons, the Bobcats became the 1953 Mid-American Conference champions.

In the first period, Bradshaw climaxed an 11-play assault by dropping a touchdown pass into the arms of Jim Ladd from 11 yards out. Sophomore Jack Hecker kicked the extra point to give the Falcons a 7-0 edge. Midway in the second period Tom Ascani stepped over for the first Ohio U. score. The try for the extra point was wide, and the Falcons were still in front, 7-6.

Late in the second period, a pass from Frederick to Sawchick gave the Bobcats a 13-7 half-time lead.

John Ohman led a Bobcat 52-yard touchdown drive early in the fourth quarter for Ohio U.'s final tally. John Ladd made it a family affair for the Ladds by scoring the final touchdown from the one-yard line to bring the Bowling Green score to 13 points. Bryan drop-kicked the point after touchdown for BG's final tally of the day.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

 ROW TWO: Coach Doug Mooney, Kenneth Russell, Robert Wrzesinski, Robert Mirer, Dick Bruck, Druce Williams, Ron Grande, Bill Havens, Ted Knight, Bill Tasker, Coach Dan Hudak.

ROW THREE: Henry Butler, Tom Frail, Richard Lemons, Bill Wykle, Dan Hurst, Larry Kent, Bill Bittner, Don Erven, Bill Yerse, Bob Challice, Head Coach Forrest Creason.

ROW FOUR: Jack Giroux, Quentin Smith, Robert Lane, Tim Murnen, Harold Peek, Gene Dotson, Herb Weltman, Gene Burner.

Under the guidance of Coach Forrest Creason this year's freshman team compiled a three win, one loss record.

The victories came over the Heidelberg frosh twice by scores of 12-6 and 14-12. They split with the Toledo University frosh by losing the first game, 6-12, and coming across with a win in the second game, 13-6.

Individually, the freshman Falcons had many standouts. Havens, Murnen, Bruck, Wykle, and Frail sparkled on the line while Giroux, Monroe, Smith, Kent, and Galyas were the back-field standouts.

Although lacking experience and also being handicapped by the return of the one-platoon system to football, this year's frosh squad handled itself creditably, with many of the players definitely destined to aid Falcon varsity football squads in the future.

Basketball

Bowling Green's Harold (Andy) Anderson had one of the most enviable records among the nation's collegiate cage coaches.

As one of the foremost exponents of fast-breaking basketball, Anderson, in 19 years of college coaching, had the fifth best win-loss record among major college coaches with a minimum 10-year career. His teams have won 370 of 489 games, a 76 percent mark that only Adolph Rupp of Kentucky, Hank Iba of Oklahoma A&M, Phog Allen of Kansas and Ray Meyer of DePaul have surpassed. The record was even more amazing when one considers that the Falcons annually played many of the nation's best court squads.

Anderson's chief assistant and inseparable companion on the BG bench for the past 10 years has been George Muellich, who capably handled the head coaching duties in 1950-51 when Anderson was ordered away from the sport by his doctor.

After two years with the freshmen, Dale Herbert handled the junior varsity this season. Herbert graduated from Bowling Green in 1939 after a fine football career which brought him all-Ohio honors.

Vern Dunham, after two years of military service, took over at the helm of the freshman squad.

The general policies under which the inter-collegiate program operates are made by the university athletic committee, composed of six faculty members and three student members. Its chairman is Dr. Ralph G. Harshman, who also represents Bowling Green as faculty representative in the Mid-American Conference faculty representative's council. He was selected president of the council at its meeting last November.

As Bowling Green moved into its first Mid-American Conference schedule, Coach Harold Anderson looked forward to the return of 10 lettermen with a large amount of playing experience behind them. Heading the list of returnees from the 1952-53 season was Al Bianchi, 6.3 forward, who last year tied the record of Bowling Green's All-American Charlie Share. This record of 596 points for a single season had stood alone since 1947.

Also ready to resume his place at guard was set shot artist Lou Drago, who was a much improved ball player. Jim Gerber returned to pick up where he left off as a junior, when he tallied 555 points for all-Ohio and nationally elected all-star honors. Big Clarence Yackey, a rugged 6.5 forward and a top rebounder, came back after two years in service where he won all-Marine honors as the star at Paris Island.

Wally Server, who had been jinxed with two years of injuries, also returned to the role as one of the fast men on the squad. Another guard who broke into the starting line-up quite frequently was Bill Rogers, who had lettered for the two previous seasons. Rogers' sharp passing and ball hawking made him a menace to many an opponent. George Reis at 6.7 was second in scoring in the 1952-53 season and his height was a big factor when the Falcons ran up against some of the taller teams on the schedule. Bill Sherin, Phil Seker and Jim Ladd were other men who gave help from the bench. The bench got stronger as the season progressed with sophomores, Max Chapman, Jim Reid and Jack Hecker improving with play. Junior Dick Johoske was another comer with experience along with Dave Galapoo.

Ability and experience seemed to be the summation of this year's team.

WELCOME BACK

Two years ago coach Andy Anderson said this about Jim Gerber: "The best basketball player that I have ever coached." "Gerber" is still all of that statement. When it comes to record books, the name Gerber appears quite often. As a sophomore he picked up 467 points for the 27th spot in the national scoring column. Jim dunked in 555 points in his Junior year to become tenth high scorer in the nation. Both years he was mentioned for all-American honors. After a year of being inactive he returned to the same fast pace. This year he was named second team MAC and received honorable mention on the NIT team.

Two years ago Falcon star Clarence Yackey left school to report to the Marines. There he played for Parris Island and averaged 11.5 points a game in 1951-52. Yackey was named to the all-Marine team in 1953 along with nine other ex-college stars. The finest praises a player can receive are those given by his opponents. After Yackey's personal battle with Detroit's Guy Sparrow for rebound control, Sparrow came up to "Yac" to tell him, "You are one of the best rebounders I have ever played against." What more is there to say?

Action moved fast in the Kent game.

FALCONS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN

The Falcons opened their 38th basketball season with an impressive win over the Titans of Detroit, 78-53. Al Bianchi led the scoring with 25 points, followed by Lou Drago and Gerber with 16 and 15. Big Clarence Yackey scored seven points and was a master under the backboards. The game marked the return of Jim Gerber and Yackey to the Falcon uniforms after Gerber was out for a year with an injured knee and Yackey had served a stint in the Marine Corps. Guy Sparrow paced the losers with 16 points.

KENT STATE DEFEATED, 92-67

The next victory of the Falcon squad was over Kent State. This game marked the opening MAC tilt. With Bianchi hitting for 28 points, the boys from BG had no trouble with the shorter squad of blue and gold, and took complete control of the game after passing the Flashes in the second quarter. Gerber with 20 and Bill Rogers with 13 followed Bianchi in the scoring column.

BOWLING GREEN LOSES

The second MAC contest found Bowling Green traveling to Miami where the team met a tough Redskin quintet, and lost in a thrilling overtime decision 82-79. The score at half-time showed the Redskins ahead by one point, 34-33. The third quarter found BG surging to a seven point lead, but the Red and White bounded back to knot the score 64-64 with four minutes to go. The regular game ended in a 71-71 tie. In the overtime, the game continued at a hectic pace, and it was Kick Klitch and Bob Doll who finally clinched the victory for the Miami squad.

FALCONS WIN 91-60

The next home tilt was against the Western Reserve Red Cats, who entered the contest with a five-game win streak. With Bianchi, Gerber, and Drago shooting in the double figures, the five-game win streak went by the boards as BG trounced the Reservists. It was a rout all the way with Bowling Green leading at the half time 48-28. Dick Howard looked great in a losing cause making 23 points.

BG SPLITS OVER VACATION

Vacation time found the Falcons splitting a pair: winning over Loyola of Chicago and losing to Western Michigan. The loss to Western seemed due to over-confidence and because of the boys not having their shooting eyes with them. Bianchi led the scoring with 19 followed by Gerber's 17 in the Falcons' 78-85 loss. The Loyola game found an active alumni cheering section rooting the boys home to a 79-65 win, despite the banishment of Bianchi from the game.

BOWLING GREEN LOSES THIRD

A high spirited Lawrence Tech team from Detroit swooped down on the Falcons next and handed the BG men their third setback 67-60. It was a loosely played game and Bowling Green's worst showing to date. Gerber was high scorer for the losers with 19. Near the end of the game the Falcons pulled within 7 points, but time ran out and the happy Detroiters carried their coach off the floor.

FALCONS NEAR CENTURY MARK

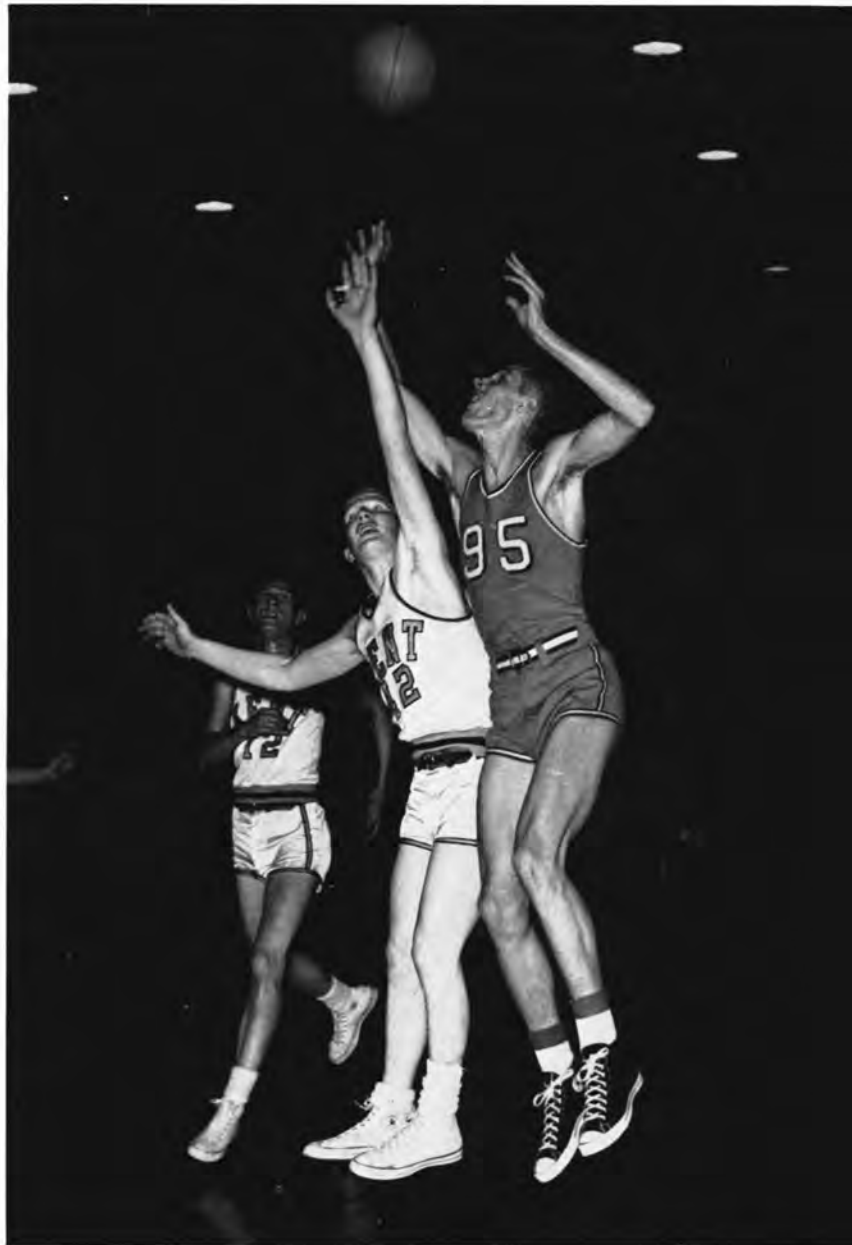

The game was BG's from the starting whistle and the halftime score showed Bowling Green with 53 and Western Ontario with 33. The small Canadian squad was just out-classed as they lost the game 98-55. Bianchi again led the scoring with 28 points. Drago with 17, Yackey with 16, and Gerber with 13 followed Able Al's scoring pace.

BG MEETS RIVAL TU

In a rough and tumble game, which at times resembled football, the BG Falcons buried the Toledo Rockets 78-66. The sharp shooting of BG's Bianchi and the accuracy of Toledo's Phil Martin made it an exciting ball game. The personal duel between these two ended with both sharing scoring honors with 29 points. It was a typical BG-TU game and a large following of Falcon fans cheered the boys on to victory.

JOHN CARROLL NEARLY PULLS UPSET

After playing its best game of the season against Toledo, BG was nearly upset by a fired-up John Carroll team, but managed to post an 84-79 win. This was Gerber's night as he sank 12 buckets and added six free throws for a total of 30 points. It was a see-saw battle and BG's backboard strength was what finally determined the winner.

CAGERS SPLIT OVER SEMESTERS

The Falcons led off the road trip with a 78-72 win over the Bobcats of Ohio University. The half time saw the Falcons holding a seven point lead, but the third stanza turned into a riot as BG pulled away by the score of 61-38. With a short time to play OU sparked by Zusum and Weinbrecht almost closed the gap, but the Falcons managed to stave off the rally and went on to win by six points.

The following night the cage squad of Coach Anderson took on the high-scoring Marshall Men at Huntington Memorial Fieldhouse. What a heartbreaker this was for Bowling Green, as the team bowed out in the final minutes 91-87. Jim Gerber led the scoring with 28 points and Bianchi with 26 was close behind him. The top scorer for the winners was Robinson with 24 points.

MARQUETTE DEFEATED 86-79

Marquette led the Falcons until early in the second quarter. BG, trailing by 11 points, was sparked by the sharp shooting of Al Bianchi and made up the deficit to move into the lead. Yackey's great rebounding strength was instrumental in the BG halftime lead of 47-42. In the third quarter the cagers turned on the heat and pulled away to an 11-point lead. In the fourth quarter, the pace slowed down, but it was never close and BG won handily.

BG MEETS WESTERN KENTUCKY

The sharp shooting of Tom Marshall and the over-all height of the Kentucky squad were the factors in the 82-94 road loss for BG. The game was closer than the score indicated as Gerber hit for 24, Yackey for 20, and Bianchi for 19. Marshall collected 31 points for the winners.

Bianchi makes two to contribute to the 100 which whipped Marshall.

FALCONS REACH THE CENTURY MARK

Bowling Green hit the century mark for the first time against Marshall, 100-70. In revenge for their earlier defeat by Marshall, Bianchi, Gerber, and Drago poured in the points.

BG COPS PEACE PIPE

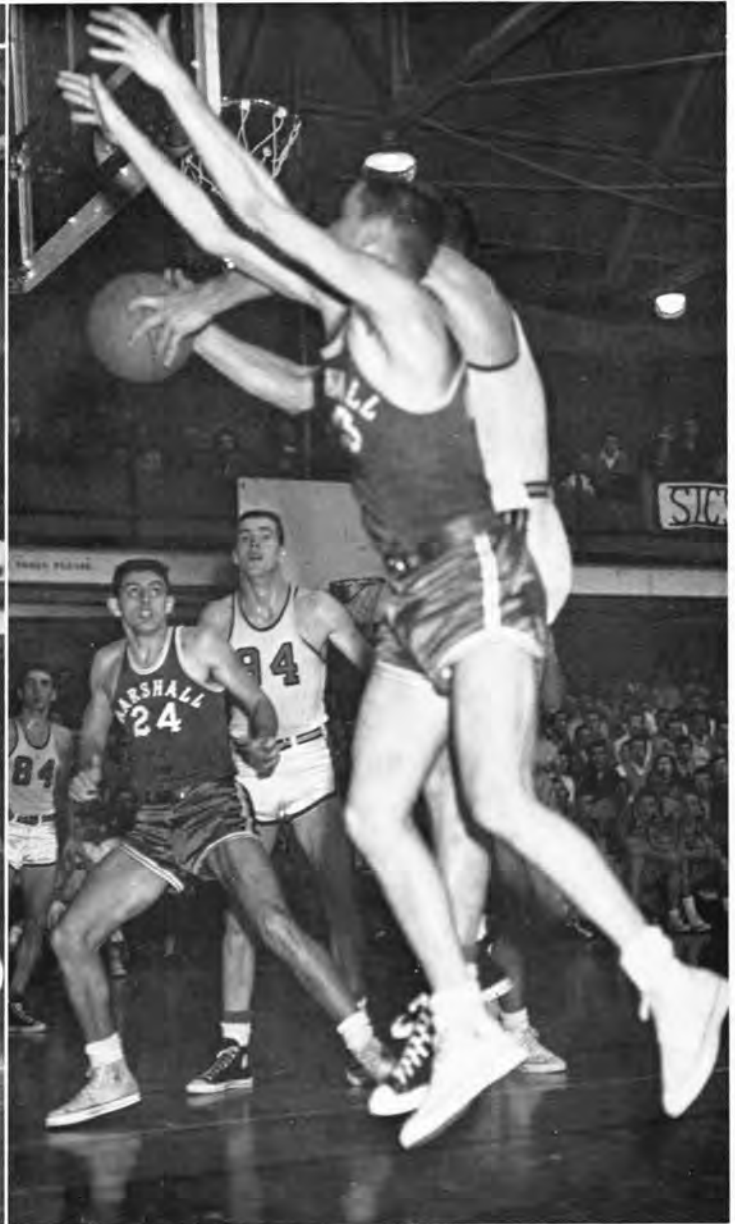

In the thriller of the year, and a must win for the Falcons, the BG men came from seven points behind to cop the peace pipe tilt 75-71. A large BG crowd was on hand in the Toledo Sports Arena. Wally Server made five points with less than three minutes to go, tying the game. Max Chapman then got a rebound of a foul shot and sank it to give BG a two-point lead with less than a minute to go. Free throws by Rogers and Drago iced the game.

BG BEATS OU

Bowling Green beat the Bobcats for the second time by 78-74. High scorers over Ohio University were Bianchi with 30, Gerber with 19, and Drago with 10.

defense, which proved nearly fatal to the Falcons. Drago was high man for the winners with 23 points.

MIAMI DEFEATED 96-72

Twin scoring by Bianchi and Gerber, who netted 27 points each, and Yackey's 20 spelled victory over the Miami five. It was sweet revenge for the Falcons, who dropped an earlier tilt on Miami's home floor.

DUKES RATED TOPS

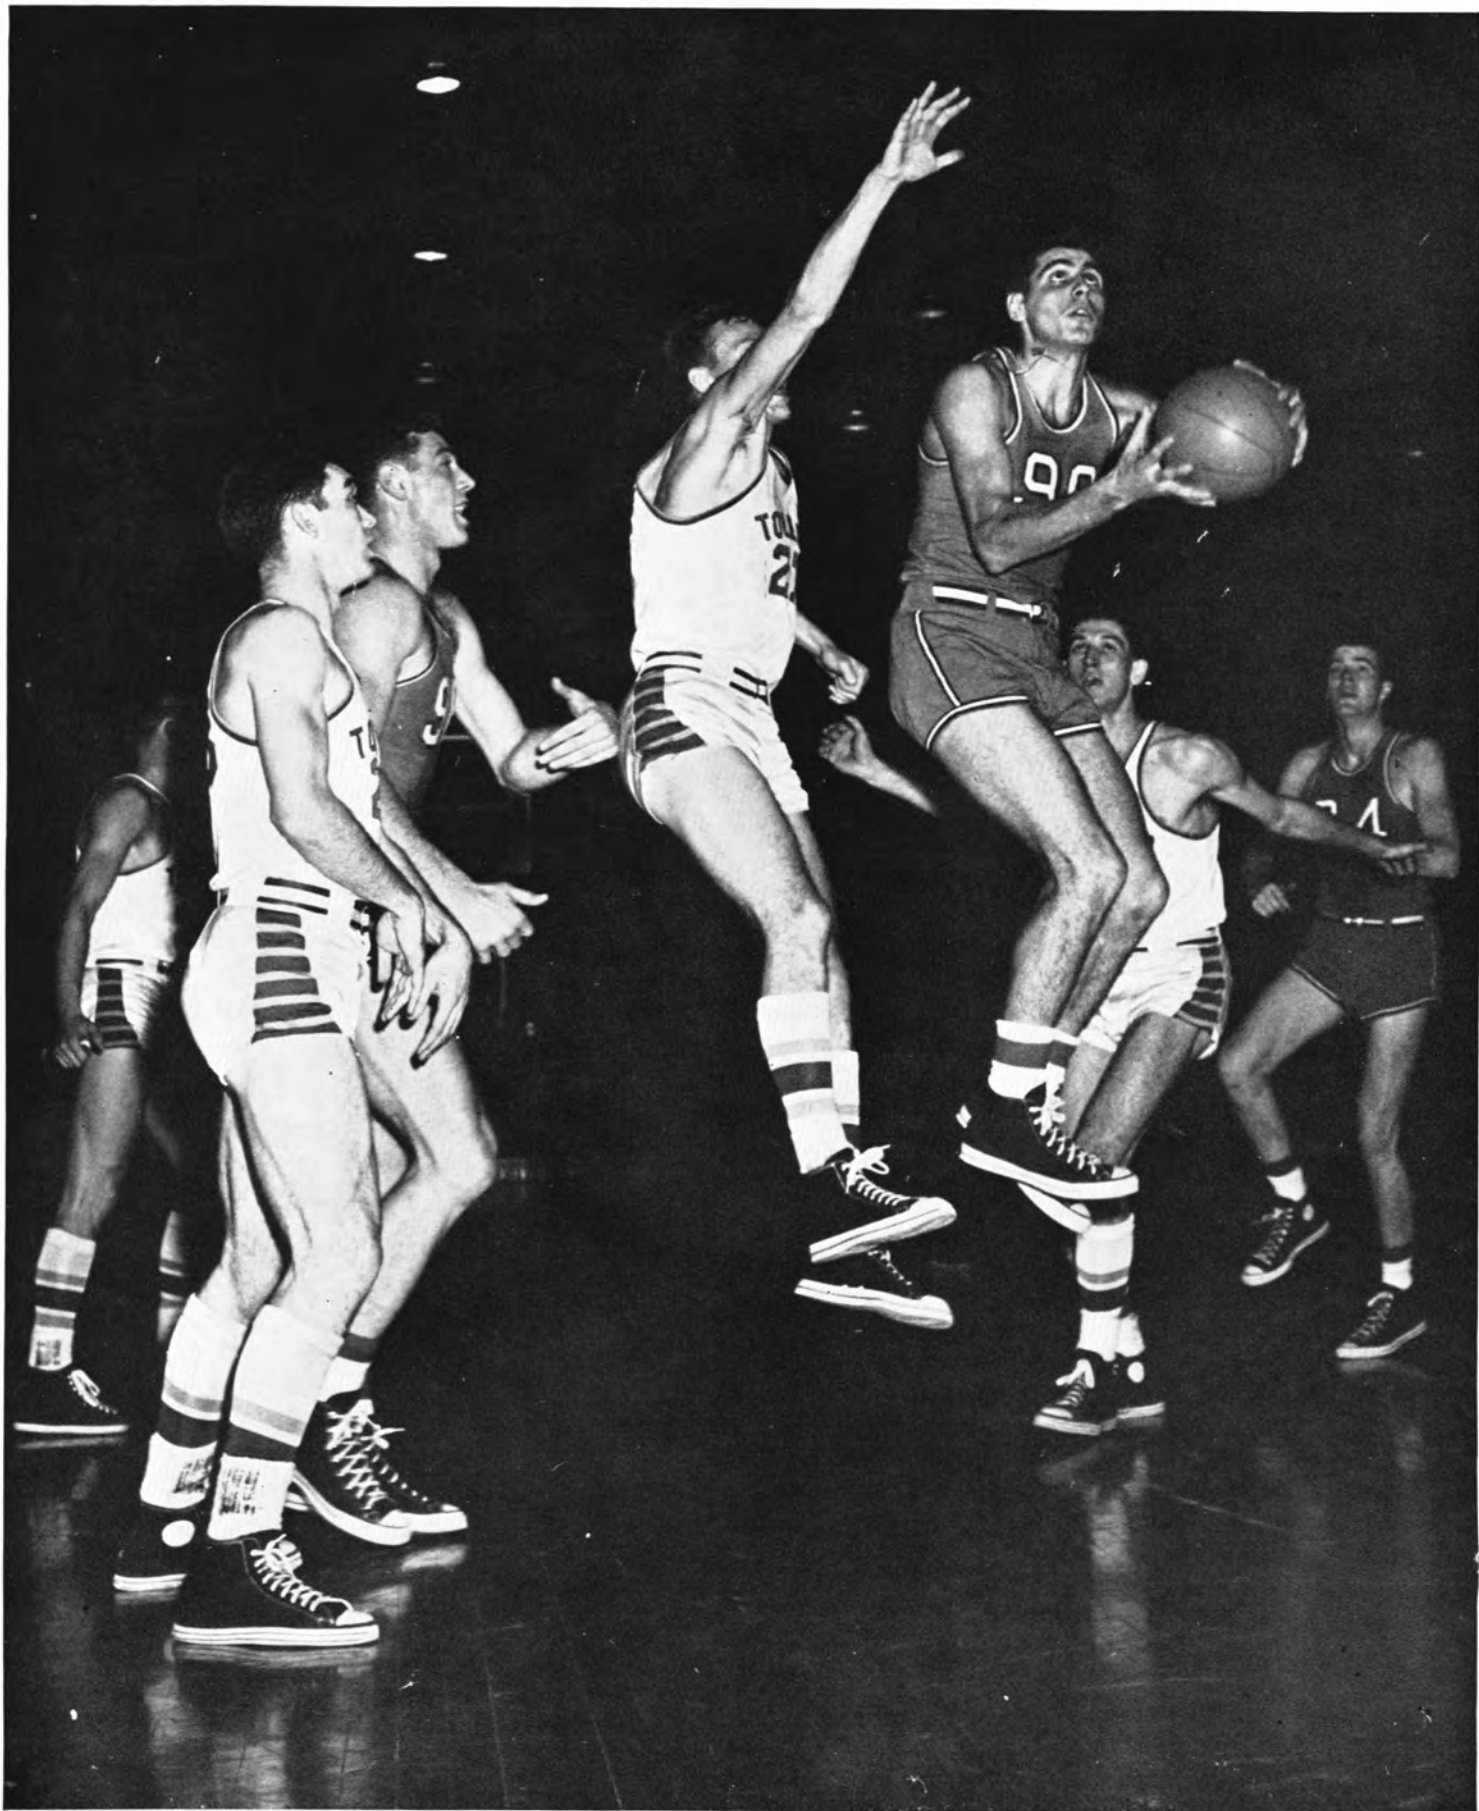

Out-classed by the flashy NIT bound squad from Duquesne, BG had an off night and lost 79-52. Gerber made 20 against the unbeaten Dukes, but it wasn't enough.

NIT BOUND FLYERS RIDDLED

The University of Dayton lost its No. 1 spot in Ohio by losing to the Falcons, 107-73. Bianchi led the scoring with 35 points, while Gerber made 22, Drago 22, and Yackey 15.

FALCONS AND BIANCHI SMASH RECORDS

Three records fell as the Falcons swamped Western Michigan 95-62 to avenge an earlier loss. It was Bianchi's night, as Able Al set a new individual scoring record, netting 42 points. He also broke the points per game record, with a 25.2 average. The team broke the total season scoring of MAC with 1086, downing Miami's former record.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

This year's freshman squad was led by Jim Tucker, Fred Zimerly, Jim Sparling, Ted Hacquard, and Larry Miles all of whom scored over 100 points. Tucker made 183 and Miles 163 to lead the scoring for the "Baby Falcons."

The team lost in their first outing against Toledo's freshmen, but played perhaps their best game of the season as they defeated them in the second game. In the latter game it was the sharp shooting of Tucker and the rebounding of Sparling that gave the Falcons an edge.

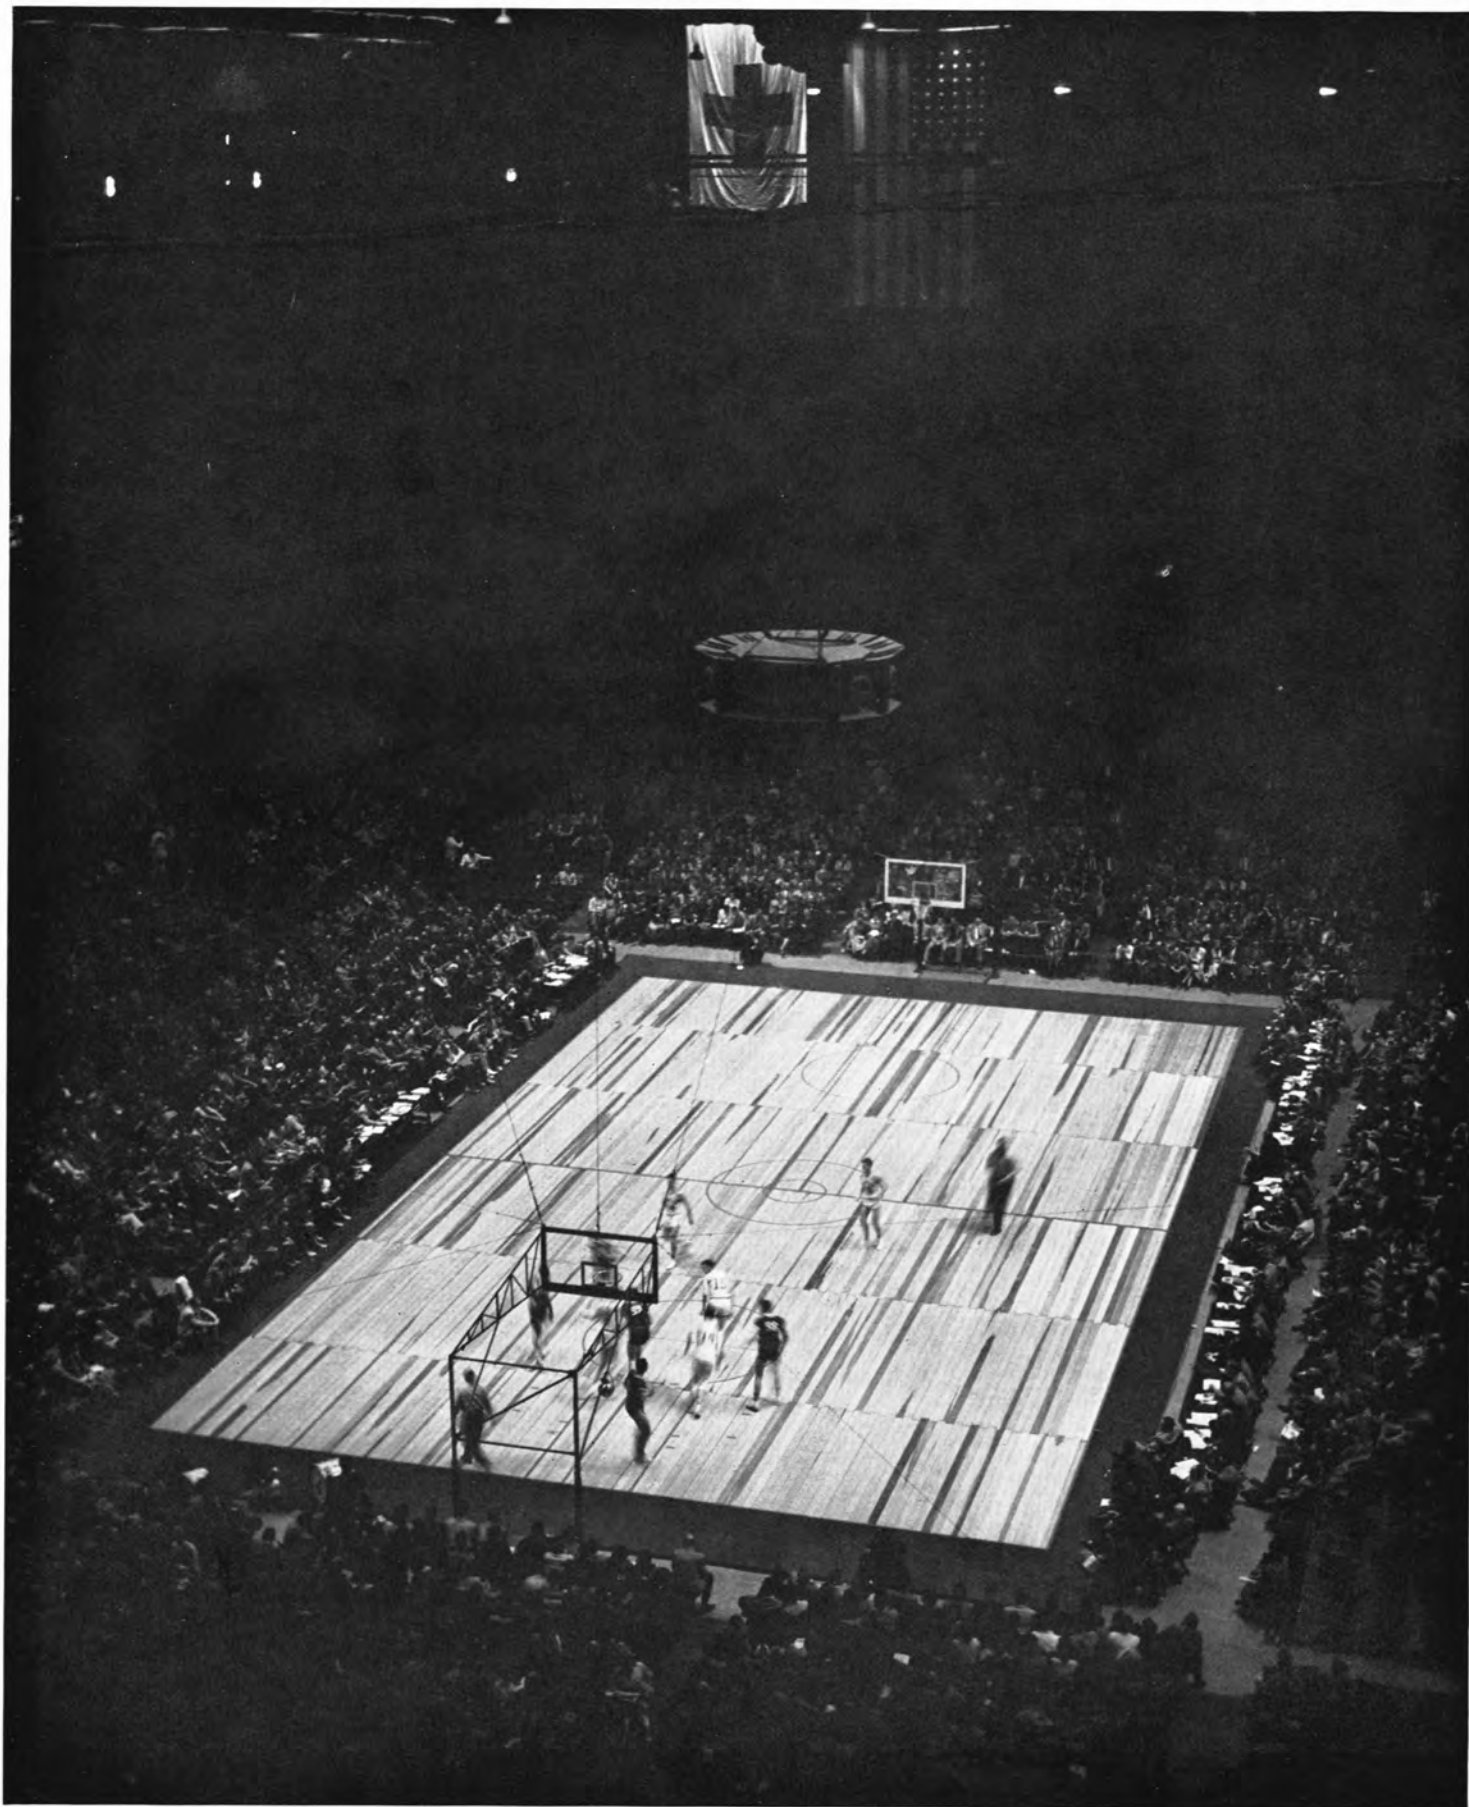

The freshmen seemed to improve as the season progressed, and as they learned to work as a unit. They had a six and four record against other college teams, but seemed to lose out when independent teams came in to play them. Many times these teams were taller than the Falcons and with more years experience. The opponent that took the worst beating of the season was the Gibsonburg American Legion.

Coach Anderson is looking forward to having some of the freshmen team members on his squad. Many of these boys have great potential and should see action on the varsity squad next year.

NATIONAL INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Between 500 and 600 fans migrated to New York City March 5 to watch the Falcons take part in the National Invitational Tournament in Madison Square Gardens.

They traveled by bus, train, plane, and car to lend support to the first big show of spirit against Wichita. One hundred seventy-five fans traveled by chartered Greyhound buses leaving a trail of newspaper notices across three states. The five buses left campus amidst the strains of "Forward Falcons" and various cheers.

After an impromptu pep rally in the Pittsburgh bus station and a total of nineteen hours en route, the migration arrived at the Plymouth Hotel.

Spirit by the BG cheerleaders, won the heart of Madison Square Garden and soon the record crowd of 16,000 was calling on the Falcons to win. Once again, as in 1949 where it originated, the chant "Let's Go Bowling Green" echoed through the huge arena.

Al Bianchi and Lou Drago, both from New York City, realized a dream come true as they trotted onto the floor to play before a crowd of hometown people. The Falcon win over Wichita put a perfect ending to the trip for the hundreds of students, many of whom had seen New York and the NIT for the first time.

Students bought their tickets at the Business Office and were ready to go.

NOW FOR THE GAMES

It was a Basketball Player's dream come true for the seven Bowling Green cagers, who played in the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Garden. The Falcons pointed all season for the opportunity to participate in the NIT and now all their work and spirit had paid off. In the opening game they were matched against Wichita, whom the New York papers favored by a four point margin. Both teams played loose ball the first half, but the Falcons settled down in the third quarter, and grabbed an eight point lead. This lead was narrowed to four points in the closing seconds of the game, but the Falcons dropped Wichita from the tournament, 88-84.

Bowling Green's claim to glory was cut short in the second game of the tournament for the Falcons when the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers pulled away in the latter stages of the torrid ball game to win 95-81. The game opened fast and it looked for a short time as though the Falcons were on their way once more. Bowling Green led 16-10 after four minutes of play. Western took a commanding 30-28 first quarter lead. Big Jim Gerber had 20 of the 28 Falcon points. The Falcons managed to stay in the ball-game on the strength of Gerber's fine hook shots, as they were behind 59-53 at the half. Going into the final quarter, Western Kentucky led 80-66 and maintained their 14 point lead to win 95-81. Unanimous standout for the entire night was Jim Gerber. He hit 11 of 15 shots in the first half along with 9 free throws for 31 points at the half. Gerber had a total of 39 points for the game second only to George Mickan's 53 points in a MAC garden game.

WRESTLING TEAM

ROW TWO: Otto Beindorf, Tony Mencini, Kermie Knowles, Hal Bruck, John Ladd, Jerry Velick, Bruce Bellard.

This year's wrestling team, led by Tom Hoskinson, Dean Russell, John Ladd, and Jerry Velick, ended the season with a record of three wins and six losses.

Coach Bruce Bellard was faced with the task of rebuilding a team which didn't win a meet last year.

Bowling Green had five pins during the season. Hoskinson got one against Toledo, Kaiser against Oberlin, Mencini against Earlham and John Ladd made the other two.

The Falcons had tough luck this season as they dropped many close meets. It seemed when the chips were down the matmen couldn't score those few points they needed to win the meet. This might be attributed to the inexperience of the members of the squad.

ROW THREE: Jim Repp, Al DallaTorre, Tom Glennon, Bob Iles, Ron Dall, Jim O'Connor, Rich Rose, Karl Seidl, Bruce Horsfall.

This year's swimming team under the helm of Coach Sam Cooper and Co-Captains James Longnecker and Ronald Dall finished the season with an eight win and three loss dual meet record.

Coach Cooper was worried at the start of the season about finding replacements for John Bruce, last year's co-captain, but freshmen Dave Hamilton, Paul Atkinson, Ralph Carbonero and diver Jim Elliott did a commendable job of taking up the slack.

In the big event of the season, the Mid-American Conference Championship, held at Ohio University the Falcon swimmers placed second only to Ohio University. In this particular meet Herb Scogg took three firsts to spearhead the team. Fred Gerbing took two thirds and a second, losing out in each of his races by tough-outs.

High point man for the season was Herb Scogg with 209 points followed by Paul Atkinson and Jim Gerbing with 133 each. Prospects look good for next year according to Coach Cooper.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

In softball, the Fighting Farmers dominated the independents league with Phi Delta Theta eventually winning the fraternity fray. The two met late in May to decide who should be crowned campus winner. The Farmers were led by Palsha, Andrews, and Stanziale with the Phi Deltas relying on such men as Smalley, Shutt, and Keipp. The Farmers took a 4-3 third inning lead only to falter in the last four stanzas and lose 9-4.

After the smoke cleared from the twin fraternity football leagues, SAE and Sigma Chi's had won their respective loops. These two met in the championship game, with it ending in a tie. At the same time the R-9 Ramblers were defeating the NW All-Stars to clinch the independent championship.

The SAE's with a team composed of Yackey, Horn, Reed, and Heinemeyer won the campus open horse-shoe tournament. West, Rogers, Bunger and Spangenberg paced Sigma Chi to a championship on the tennis courts.

The fraternity golf league was faced with tough luck this year in the form of bad weather, as the contestants had trouble getting in the required rounds. Delta Tau Delta paced by Eaton, Cobb, Thomas, and Cleary eventually won the tournament, as they edged out Sigma Chi.

Phi Delta Theta combined the efforts of Dick Moss, Phil Seker and Herb Meeker to take first place in the fraternity track meet. John Cold representing MIS carried away the individual champ honors.

This year the intramural department began a new type of contest known as archery golf. There were seven contestants entered in this event with Dick Kenny carrying away top honors with a score of 19. Don Britton was a close second with 20.

In volleyball, SAE and Sigma Chi emerged victorious in their respective leagues and thus each earned the right to play in the championship game. The SAE's team composed of Reid, Bianchi, Drago, Gerber, Yackey, and Van Wyck, had little trouble winning 15-3, 15-8.

Don Ibbotson placed first with 536 points in the annual football festival. Contestants participated in a series of events such as place kick, drop kick, passing and punting. Contestants are given points on distance and precision, with each participant entering each event and the points being totaled. Klein was second with 521 and Kenny third with 500.

Six teams were entered in the annual fraternity swimming meet with Sigma Nu carrying off top honors with 33 points. In the first event, a 50-yard crawl, Carbonero representing Sigma Nu set a new intramural record with the score of 25.6. Carbonero also took first in the 50-yard breast stroke event. Bill Bradshaw, Phi Delta Theta, took first in diving. Sigma Chi and Delta Tau Delta tied for second with 31, and Phi Delta Theta took fourth with 12 points.

Women's Intramurals

In the 26th year of intramural activity here at Bowling Green, once again equipment and facilities were made available to all those interested in participation. Sponsored by the women's Health and Physical Education department, intramurals afforded opportunities for leadership, maintained good health by limiting activities and requiring medical check-ups, and provided organized teams in all the various sports.

Teams were organized from sororities, dormitories and independent groups with a total of 50% of the women on campus participating in one or more sports. Miss Dorothy Luedtke, instructor in the department, served as director of intramurals.

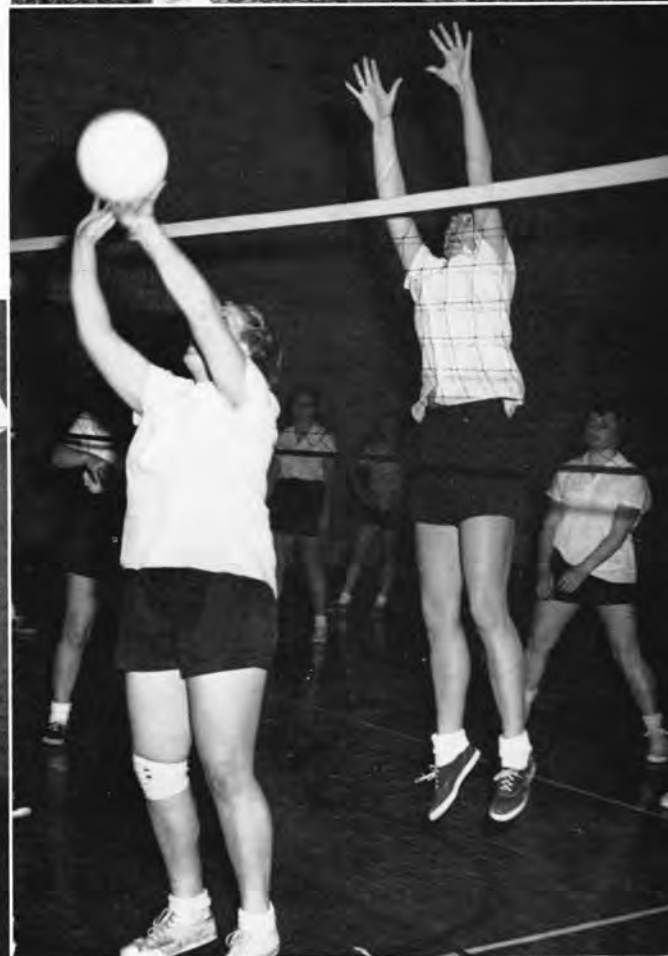

In basketball, 308 girls making up 28 teams comprised the house and dorm independent league. Alpha Delta Pi finished first, with the Jumping Jills from the third floor of the Delta Gamma house placing second; Shatzel came in third, and Delta Zeta was in the number four spot. In the major and minor league, the juniors were first and the freshmen second.

The '53 volleyball season saw Delta Gamma win first place and Chi Omega take the runner-up spot. This year as the season opened, 22 teams had entered in the dorm and independent league plus six in the major and minor league.

An extramural program was also carried on this year. In hockey, girls were picked for their skill in the game and the teams played against the University of Michigan, Wittenberg, Ohio Wesleyan, and Ohio State. Anyone interested in basketball could play on an extramural team in that sport. They played against Miami, Heidelberg, Toledo, Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio State, and Wittenberg.

Spring sports, such as this softball game attracted many participants from the intramural program.

Two of the 28 teams joining in on the fun during basketball season show they scored the points to win the game. A total of 308 girls participated during the whole season.

One of the in-between winter and spring sports, volleyball was second in popularity to basketball, with as many as 24 teams from dorms and houses taking part.

Popular as a service course and as a game which offers easy relaxation, table tennis requires skill and precision of movement.

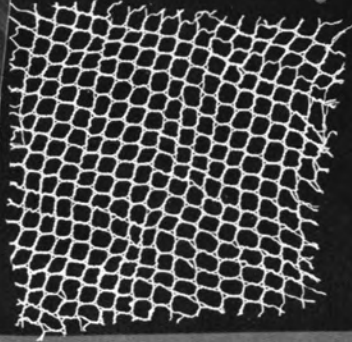

Playing in both an intramural and extramural program, these girls gained the experience that will help them in their teaching field later.

The indoor hockey teams enjoyed the warmen version of their favorite sport during the cold months.

Classes

The undergraduate classes of Bowling Green have passed through many doors during their life here at the University. The seniors have now passed through the final door on their way out, anxious to see what their life will be in the following years. The freshmen have not been inside the door very long yet, but long enough to appreciate what Bowling Green stands for and to have that pride which comes with accomplishment. The sophomores and juniors are well into their college life, able to look back to their freshmen days but mostly looking forward to the future when they, too, will pass through the final door. College has been a widening experience to every one of the classes and perhaps nothing in later life will ever quite equal many of its phases.

STANDING: Peggy McCutcheon, Dick Taylor.
SEATED: Don Buckles, Ruth Walcott.

One of the largest freshmen classes since post war days entered Bowling Green in the fall of 1953. They were eager to get established in their new life and started off successfully by winning the Freshmen-Sophomore tug-of-war. Taking off their distinguishing feature—the orange and brown beanie—the freshmen entered right into all phases of campus activities.

Electing officers was first on the agenda and rigorous campaigning was held throughout the campus. Outstanding leaders were elected to the four major posts (see cut) together with their Student Senate representative, George Howick.

Once elected, the officers were in charge of general planning for the class. Among the social events of the year was a skating party at Powell's Pond and a general mixer in the Spring.

Kohl Hall girls celebrate Christmas.

Freshmen women have a typical college room.

Beginning their second year both as independents and Greeks, the sophomores had that new feeling of being at least smarter than the freshmen. With a quarter of their college education over, they felt content in familiar surroundings and began to further their general knowledge, athletic prowess, musical talent, art ability, and dramatic skills.

Considering their first year's successes as luck, the sophomores went into their second year to gain experience in all fields. Their officers developed good leadership qualities, while other members of the class furthered good student government by serving on student senate committees, and by joining campus service organizations.

STANDING: Deborah Auger, treasurer; Daniel Wawrzyniak, vice president; Janet Morris, secretary; Thomas Conway, president.

SEATED: Fran Miller, Treasurer; Pat Vietmeier, Vice President.
STANDING: Bill Melvin, President; Florence Herman, Secretary.

This junior class, the enrollment of which is 618, is the smallest since 1946 when the juniors numbered 479.

The class has been one of the most active since those first days at frosh camp. The spirit, which they captured while at frosh camp, has carried through into everything that they do.

The class had outstanding members participating in various campus organizations such as Alpha Phi Omega, Omega Phi Alpha, Association of Women Students, Women's Recreation Association, United Christian Fellowship, departmental clubs, and social groups.

The ambitions of this class did not stop with extra curricular activities. It went on to win titles and honors by being initiated into recognition societies in their fields of interest: English, foreign languages, music, journalism, mathematics, education, and the sciences.

These juniors had the opportunity to express their choices as to what they would like to see in the student union although they will not see it completed.

Some of them were instrumental to beautify Urschel Pond, adding to the University.

Keep at it, juniors, and you will see new worlds. Your seniors have been harboring hopes...

THE SENIOR CLASS PASSED THROUGH FOUR EVENTFUL YEARS

If you seniors would look back on your college years, your experiences would resemble a passing parade of events. You attended sports events, dances, meetings, plays, artist series; you took part in social organizations, pep rallies, Christmas carolling; you received and watched your friends receiving offices, trophies, and titles.

Nestology, a subject unheard of to you as new freshmen, soon became part of your curricula-every semester.

You seniors saw a new University president inaugurated, and you observed plans for new dormitories and a student union get under way.

You lived to see the day that car rules were ushered out. You noted new rushing systems, campus chest drives, bloodmobiles, a remodeled Administration Building, a new Student Senate representation plan, and your B-G News was awarded the Scripps-Howard trophy.

Your University joined the Mid American Conference. Drum majorettes became part of the band for the first time. You watched Eisenhower become President of the United States over TV.

A Bermuda influence hit the campus in the form of shorts and knee socks for both men and women students.

Finals end it all for the moment, but, seniors, now you are REALLY beginning!

Campus Glances

The WIS House has become a women's dormitory called Campus Cottage. This is an upperclass dormitory located on East Wooster.

Plans for two new dormitories, the student union, and a classroom building are progressing rapidly.

The men's dormitory, to house 586, will be built south of Dorms R-8 and R-9. The women's dormitory will be built east of the Alpha Delta Pi house, across from the PA Bldg.

There is to be major reconstruction done in the PA Bldg. to provide additional space for the music department and classrooms.

All construction should be completed next year except the construction of the student union, which is to be built in 1956.

KOHL HALL

Playing a large part of what typical college life is, Kohl Residence Hall provided the place and facilities for 293 freshmen women to begin their college careers at Bowling Green.

Here, under the guidance of Miss Harriet Daniels, Head Resident, and six upperclass counselors, these women learned to live, study, and socialize together.

It wasn't all work, however, as the social calendar provided many diversions from studying. Eight dinners were held throughout the year with themes including Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, and Scholarship. Members of the Administration and Faculty were guests at these dinners.

During Homecoming week end, Kohl Hall held an open house Cider Sip for the girls and their dates. In February "Cupid's Capers" formal dance was held in a beautifully decorated lower lounge.

With a successful year such as this behind them, these women looked forward to the remainder of their college years.

WILLIAMS HALL

SEATED: Judy Allman, Louise Kiss, Shirley Nelson, Ellie Carlson.
STANDING: Janice Kelly, Nancy Love.
AT PIANO: Jeanie Sprankle, Louise Parker, Beverly Brown.

Williams Hall houses sophomore, junior, and senior women. Located diagonally across from the Administration building, the dormitory also has a large dining hall in the basement. Once a month party dinners are held with some member of the administration or faculty as guest.

At 1953 Honor's Day, Williams was awarded the Urschel scholastic cup for the highest grades in independent dorms during that year.

Before Christmas, baskets of food were sent to needy families in Bowling Green.

At graduation, an annual open house is held for seniors, parents, and friends.

Officers of the dorm this year were Margaret Bratton, house chairman; Betsy Sandlin, vice chairman; Janice McCoy, secretary; and Shirley Lehr, treasurer. Mrs. Clara N. Hambright was Head Resident.

SHATZEL HALL

Shatzel Hall was used for freshmen women this year for the first time. This was done because of the increased freshmen enrollment and because Kohl was unable to accommodate all the women. The 170 girls shared the new experience of college together, with two or three girls living in each room.

Because Shatzel is not equipped with a dining hall, these girls ate their meals at the Commons, a temporary dining hall available to all students.

The social events enjoyed by the girls included a Falcon-Shatzel dance, and Open House after the AWS Christmas formal. At Christmas time, baskets were sent to needy families in Bowling Green.

Officers for the year were Mary Redman, president; Barbara DeGroff, vice president; Margarita Keller, secretary; and Nancy Meeks, treasurer. Miss Mary E. Howey was Head Resident.

Everly Eden, Carol Jones, and Charlotte Thielhorn sign out for the evening's activity.

IVY HALL

Ivy Hall, at the West end of the campus, houses 70 women of sophomore, junior and senior rank. Formerly housing two fraternities, this building was completely renovated for women in 1952. The dorm has a main lounge on the first floor and a smoker on second floor. These women ate in Williams Hall or in the sorority houses.

Each year, before Christmas the girls hold a white elephant sale within the dorm which is both a social and profit-making affair. The money from this sale was used for the Christmas party. Late in the spring, an all-dorm picnic was held in City Park.

Officers of Ivy Hall were Jenne Baer, house chairman; Carol Fry, acting vice chairman; Kay Snyder, secretary; and Joanne Oestreich, treasurer. Mrs. Bill Simpson was Head Resident.

Located on Route #6, opposite the President's house, Campus Cottage had its first year as an independent dormitory this year. It formerly housed the Women's Independent Society. This year 22 girls lived in Campus Cottage, with Joyce Blanc serving as house chairman and Evelyn Revay as secretary-treasurer. The girls had a Thanksgiving, Christmas party and a picnic in the spring. Mrs. Faye Wallen was Head Resident.

JOHNSTON HALL

Located on the third floor of the University Health Center, Johnston Hall houses about 15 upperclass women. Margaret Endsley served as treasurer, the only officer the hall has, and Lorna Middendorf was Head Resident. The girls have monthly parties usually fitting the holiday of the particular month.

Lorna Middendorf, Pauline Grafton, Jean Scheiferstein, Margaret Endsley, Bernadine Gedjos, Norma Scroggy, Sylvia Sherman, Pat Brown, Pat Fink, Martha Sager, Gloria Stieberling.

FALCON HALL

Falcon Hall is a rambling, two-story white frame dormitory located north of the main campus. It is a 153 room temporary structure housing freshmen. In 1951-1952, Falcon Hall, then known as North Dorm, served as a home for Air Force men studying clerical work at the University.

The dormitory maintains its own dining hall for breakfast meals, a lounge for studying, and a recreation hall with TV and card tables. The television set was purchased by donations from the residents last year.

Mail from campus and home is received directly at Falcon in its own post office. The head resident lives in an attached bungalow. Seven student counselors live among the freshmen to aid in acclimating them to college life.

RESIDENCE 9

One of the newest dorms for men on campus, R-9 is located on Fraternity Row. Housing freshmen men, this building was formerly the Phi Kappa Psi house. These men ate their meals in the near-by Commons. They had several combined social activities with Kohl Hall, one being an impromptu snowball fight.

STADIUM CLUB

Located under the seating section of the Stadium, this men's residence houses upperclass and freshmen men. It was begun during the war when enrollment rose sharply and was continued because of lack of other facilities. These men also ate at the Commons. In the fall and spring they are rudely awakened by early morning tennis players, since the courts are right behind the building.

EAST AND WEST

East and West Halls are twin units situated north of the Chemistry building, housing freshmen and upperclass men students. They are wooden structures which will be replaced by the construction of the new men's dormitory.

Lounges provide a place for bull sessions, checkers, card playing and studying. Counselors in the units provide assistance to the students. Both single and two-man rooms are available for the men.

Laundromats are a unique feature in these buildings. Students can wash their own clothes for a minimum fee without having it done at outside expense. A student parking lot behind both East and West Halls provides nearby parking.

EAST HALL: Jim Sparling, John Berardinelli, Jerry McCann, Bob Capen, Herbert Kuehue, Jim Niese, Carl Massing.

WEST HALL: Robert Baltz, George Catterlin.

NEW MEN'S DORMITORY

Ground-breaking for two new dormitories, estimated to cost $2,350,000 began in the spring. Solicitation for funds for this construction began in 1952 with the U.S. Housing and Home Finance Agency and final approval was received by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald late in the winter.

The women's dormitory, to house 277, will be built north of the Nest and across from the Practical Arts Building. It is expected to cost $773,000 when completed.

The men's unit will house 593 and will be located south of Dorms R-8 and R-9 at an estimated cost of $1,561,000.

Architects for the men's dormitory are Sims, Cornelius, and Shooley, of Columbus. Britsch and Munger of Toledo, are architects for the women's dormitory.

NEW WOMEN'S DORMITORY

FINE ARTS BUILDING

The Fine Arts building is one of the two newest and most modern buildings on campus. The building, located at the eastern end of the campus, gives students and faculty the opportunity to develop many forms of art. Throughout the year classes such as water colors, oils, life-drawing, ceramics, jewelry design, prints, arts and crafts, art history and art appreciation are offered. Various shows presented in the building during the course of the year give the public the opportunity to see the works of both students and faculty.

The library here at Bowling Green gives students the opportunity to pursue their purpose in being here—education. Located across from Williams Hall and right near the circle, the library is in a central location for all students. Although the reference room is the largest study room in the building, many students prefer to study in the smaller study hall downstairs, the periodicals room or the reserve book room. The library provides the students with an excellent place for quiet and concentration.

LIBRARY

CHEMISTRY BUILDING

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

The Chemistry Building is one of Bowling Green's newest and finest buildings. This modern structure is located at the northern end of the campus, and offers complete laboratory and research facilities. Air Force ROTC classes are also held in this building.

The Administration Building is the main building on campus. The offices of the president and other administrative officials are located here. The offices for the Departments of Business Administration, Economics, Engineering Drawing, Foreign Language, History, and Journalism are also located in this building.

GATE THEATER

Gate Theater is an experimental theater with a seating capacity of 350. There is a large workshop behind the main stage for the construction and painting of sets. The Gate is the home for the dramatics majors. The building also has offices and classrooms for the Departments of Speech, Political Science, and the Speech and Hearing Clinic. Many defective speech cases of people from the town of Bowling Green and from nearby communities are handled by students in Speech and Hearing Therapy in this building.

CHAPEL

The Chapel, centrally located on Bowling Green's campus, is a white frame replica of a typical New England church. The building was named the Frank J. Prout Chapel after Bowling Green's former president. It was used by students of all faiths for religious activity. During Religious Emphasis Week the Chapel was the headquarters for all activities. Many of the religious organizations sponsor speakers at the Chapel and every Sunday morning regular services are held. To most Bowling Green students the Chapel is important because it is a place where anyone can go to meditate and think out his problems.

The Falcons Nest, BG's temporary student union, was a very popular spot on campus. Centrally located, it was accessible to anyone with a spare minute. Many hours of Nestology, one of the most popular courses at Bowling Green, were spent in this log-constructed building. In the main room of the Nest a snack bar, juke box and many tables and chairs were provided for the use of the students. The Faculty Room gave the administration and faculty a chance to socialize together and enjoy the meals of the Nest. A television set in the Student Room provided many relaxing hours for the students. The second floor of the Nest was occupied by the offices and lounge of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service organization.

PRACTICAL ARTS

The Practical Arts Building was one of the busiest on campus. The classrooms and offices for the Departments of Business Education, Home Economics and Music, located in this building, kept many students busily working at office machines, and in food laboratories, sewing rooms and studios for music practice. Many recitals and concerts were given in the PA Auditorium by students, faculty and visiting choirs. The Home Economics Department maintained a practice apartment in the PA Building for the use of Home Economics majors in the College of Education. These students spent six weeks at the apartment keeping house and cooking their own meals. This was truly a "practical arts" building.

STUDENT CENTER

Bowling Green's Student Center is located on Ridge Street on the North side of the campus. The building is the headquarters for the university governing bodies such as Student Court, Student Senate, and the Interfraternity Council. Stuart Givens, the Coordinator of Student Affairs, had his office in the Student Center. Also located in the building was the office of the president of Student Senate and the student employment office.

MOSELEY HALL

Moseley Hall is located in the center of the University campus. It was dedicated to Edwin Lincoln Moseley the first science professor at Bowling Green. Located in the building is the University Museum, and offices and classrooms for the Departments of Biology, Physics and Sociology.

men's BUILDING

The Men's Physical Education Building is located on the North East side of the campus next to the Natatorium. The building is equipped with facilities for men's health, physical education, and intramural programs. Classrooms and offices for the Departments of Health and Physical Education and Philosophy are all located in the building.

WOMEN'S BUILDING

Located next to the Natatorium on the North East side of the campus is the Women's Physical Education Building. In the building there are facilities for games and sports in women's health and physical education and intramural activities. The student laundry is also located in the Women's Building.

NATATORIUM

The Natatorium is located on the North East side of the campus. Available to both men and women are auxiliary facilities for instructional and recreational swimming.

Bowling Green was host to such schools as Kent State, Miami, and Hiram at swimming meets held in the Natatorium.

ENGLISH AND PSYCHOLOGY BUILDING

The English and Psychology Buildings are temporary frame structures which were brought to the campus soon after World War II because of the increased enrollment. Offices and classrooms for the Department of English and Psychology are located in the buildings.

Advertising

The final portion of our yearbook is devoted to our advertisers. As we save the frosting on a cake for last, so we annually save our ads as topping to the book. The income received from ads is minor in comparison to the friendliness and cooperation which our solicitors receive from the merchants of Bowling Green.

They provide year-round aid to the University and to the students. They are called on time and again for donations to drives, programs, and benefits. Willingly, they give their most not for any potential business they may earn but for the betterment and progression of the University. They foster and promote public relations with the students and the entire campus.

We are proud to conclude our book with these few pages of messages from the local business folk.

CLASSROOM...

4 miles underground?

It looks like an oil well. It is.

But as the picture was taken, the diamond-tipped bit had just broken the world's record. It was entering a brand new "classroom"—nearly 4 miles underground.

The Ohio Oil Company had sent it there, at a cost of $1,500,000, to find out if there are new sources of oil waiting at depths never before explored.

As these words are written, it is not yet known whether or not this well will ever produce any oil.

But it's sure to produce something even more important: knowledge. New knowledge.

And so long as we live in a country where individuals and companies have the incentive to search for new knowledge . . . to find the new way, the better way . . . this nation will continue to move forward.

For progress comes from pioneering . . . from a constant search with minds and dollars . . . to find what is waiting to be found.

It comes from attending "classrooms" that are as vast as our own minds . . . as big as our lifetimes.

GRAY

... enjoys being of service to YOU

... OVER 64 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE ... giving us a background to better produce your printing needs. Progressively expanding over this period of years, our facilities are complete to produce any job from beginning to end. An Art Department to develop your ideas—a Composing Room with a large assortment of type to portray your message—the most modern presses, both Letterpress and Offset—and finally a complete Bindery for quick and economical delivery of the finished product. Whether it be broadsides—catalogs—letterheads—folders—annuals—nothing is too large or too small. We point with great pride to these advantages we offer our customers in assuring them of unexcelled craftsmanship and constant superior service.
