LINCOLN, O LINCOLN

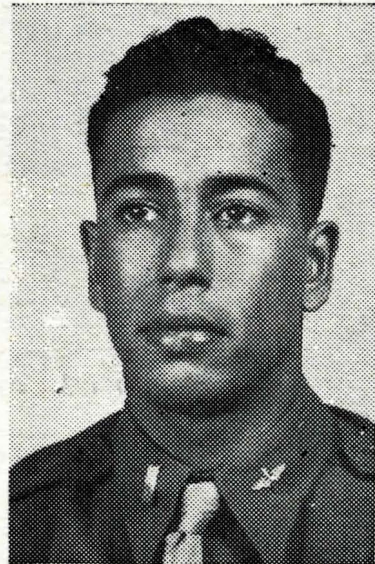

Lincoln, O Lincoln!
We thy proud children are;
Thou art our guiding star—
Lincoln believe.
Ours are hearts that yearn for thee
No matter where we be;
Morning, noon, and always, we
Are Lincolnites.

Thy name, O Lincoln;
Shall e'er to us be dear;
Thy mem'ries sacred, near
Hold us to thee.
Thy honors ours shall be,
Thy cause when just shall we
With loyalty defend—
For thee we'd die.

Lincoln, O Lincoln!
We thy proud children are;
Our hearts, both near and far,
Love thee with delight.
No matter where we are.
Whether present, absent far;
Morning, noon, we always are
TRUE LINCOLNITES.

To those we have loved and shall always cherish we proudly surrender this Homecoming. May the remembrance of your courageous lives ever shine bright as a beacon light to guide the younger sons and daughters of Lincoln University.

Greetings From Prexy

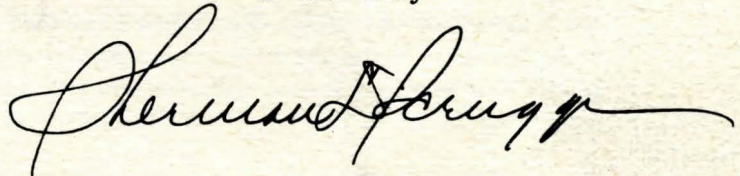

GREETINGS TO ALUMNI AND FRIENDS:

Another Homecoming, but one of the most glamorous in many years is ours to enjoy at your Alma Mater and school. All that we have in hospitality, good feelings and well wishes are yours. Enjoy it to the fullest.

Old friends will meet to talk of other days. Graduates, former students, and campus teachers will meet to greet and tell of the experiences and achievements which have come out of teaching and learning in class rooms, shops and campus ways. New friendships will be made and old ties will be made stronger. One of our best teams will carry the spirit of former years to the playing field. These younger sons of Lincoln will be striving to make you proud of them.

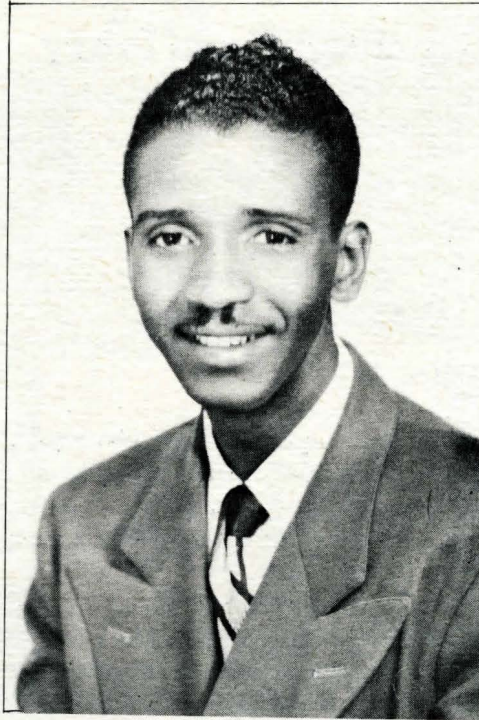

This is Homecoming. May love, fellowship and warmest welcome be felt by all of you as you enter the gates of your up and going Alma Mater and worthy Institution educating men and women for responsible living.

Sincerely

Your President

The Senior Class Welcomes You

This Homecoming Day, I am sincerely glad to have the opportunity of welcoming back old LINCOLNITES and fellow Lincolmites for a grand annual game. As you walk from building to building, I hope that fond memories of Lincoln will serve as a guide in aiding you to enjoy the day fully. I know that I speak for the Senior class when I say that we heartily welcome you to make the most of the day here at your school and mine. The same spirit that geared our team on to win yesterday is still full strong to make our team victorious today.

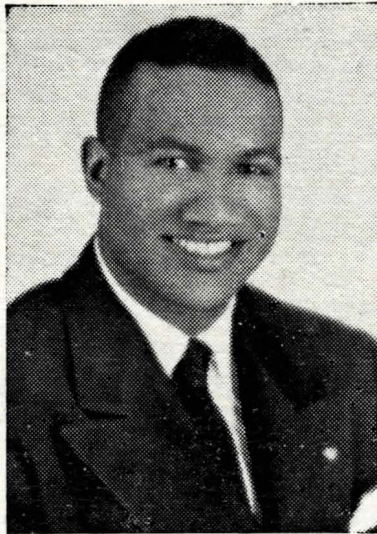

Our team which lines up today behind the spirit of Lincoln will strive to win over the challenge of our opponents.

Again, I extend to you, the heartiest welcome and invite you to share this day with us and make it a complete victorious day.

Joseph F. Ford

Preident of Senior Class

Greetings From The Dean of Men

May I extend a heartfelt welcome to you—the visitors, friends, sons and daughters of Lincoln University.

Today is a special event in the lives of all true Lincolnites. To you who have returned, the university family joins me in saying, "Welcome Back Home." We hope your lives have been profitable, your work enjoyable and that your outlook has broadened. It is our sincere wish that you may enter fully into the life of this occasion, accepting the responsibilities which are yours.

To our warriors of the gridiron, may I say,

"When you are wounded, you are not slain
Lie down and bleed awhile
Then, rise up and fight again."

Charles M. Hoard

Dean of Men

Greetings From The Governor

As the students and friends of Lincoln University meet you in your Homecoming, when the old graduates return to their alma mater to mingle to you.

There is something stimulating in the idea and in the practice of old Homecoming, when the old graduates return to thir alma mater to mingle with old classmates, and renew again the memories of college days. May your Homecoming be in this spirit of loyalty and fellowship and may your celebration this year be the best you ever had.

Phil M. Donnelly

Governor

Greetings From The Mayor

As Mayor of the city in which Lincoln University is located, it gives me great pleasure to see the great forward steps that Lncoln University is making both in the activities of the faculty and the students they instruct.

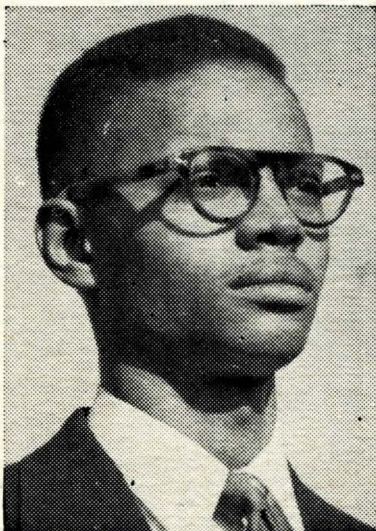

The city of Jefferson City wishes you every success in all of your activities and particularly in your Homecoming game October 30.

Sincerely yours,

James T. Blair, Jr.

Candidate for Lt. Governor

Greetings From The Student Council Prexy

On this joyous occasion, on behalf of the student body of Lincoln, I welcome and invite you—alumni and friends—to enjoy yourself to the fullest. We of Lincoln have done our utmost to make you feel at home and provide for you a well rounded program of activities.

We are a progressive and enlightened student body. Realizing the needs of Lincoln, we ask you to cast your eyes about and take cognizance also, especially, the lack of stadium facilities.

We do not make apologies but look forward toward the future, for we know that some day, Lincoln will take its rightful place in the hearts of all men. Be gay, be joyous, but remember us when you return to your homes.

A MESSAGE FROM COACH RAYMOND H. KEMP

On behalf of the Lincoln football team and coaching staff, I wish to welcome Lincoln Homecomers and friends on this occasion of another glorious Lincoln Homecoming. It is always an especially refreshing experience, on these occasions, to shake hands again with you Lincoln graduates who once wore the colors of Lincoln as members of one of the varsity athletic teams. My intimate acquaintance with the prevailing athletic policy and athletic program of Lincoln, reminds me of the fact that you played against teams representing institutions whose athletic policies, unlike Lincoln's placed considerable premium on wide-spread scouting for athletic talent, financial aid to athletes, extended practice sessions, and concentration of effort in one or two sports as compared to the projection of a varied sports program by your own Alma Mater.

However, the championship trophies that reside in the trophy case in Young Hall are real reminders of your achievements against odds.

MOTTO

Nobody knows what the future holds
13th game may be our lucky goal

The program committee of the Senior Class wishes to thank those whose untiring efforts and worthy contributions have helped to make this Homecoming a success.

To win is great, but to learn from winning is even greater. The road may be rugged, but all the arrows point, "Destination Victory." We have the determination. This is our luggage. With this, WE WILL WIN.
