LEGENDARY LADIES Of LINCOLN

*Ouida
Spyre
Tolbert*

Ouida Tolbert began her career at Lincoln University in 1950 as a Supervisory teacher of English, French, Speech, and Drama in the Laboratory High School and as an Associate Professor in the Department of Education. She retired from Lincoln as an Associate Professor of English in 1993.

Tolbert was a mentor, role model, and life-long educator. Her dedication to pedagogy and passionate attitude touched many of her students' and colleagues' lives. She still contributes to the educating community today.
