

5-15-2009

2009 Manifest Program

Columbia College Chicago

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.colum.edu/manifest>

 Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons, Arts Management Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Columbia College Chicago, "Manifest" (May 15, 2009). Manifest Programs, College Publications, College Archives & Special Collections, Columbia College Chicago.

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Publications at Digital Commons @ Columbia College Chicago. It has been accepted for inclusion in Manifest Programs by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Columbia College Chicago.

www.colum.edu/manifest

Student Showcases

Artwalk & Sale

MUSIC

Spectacle Parade

Performance Art

Art Cars

Manifest*

URBAN ARTS FESTIVAL

MAY
15th
2009 create...

change

30,000 people. 50 showcases. 14 galleries. 5 stages. 1 day.

Illustration by Rachel Dugger ©09

Manifest★

URBAN ARTS FESTIVAL

The Manifest annual urban arts festival is a celebration of all Columbia College Chicago's graduating undergraduate and graduate student bodies of work, representing each department. All events occur on Columbia's vibrant South Loop Campus. Manifest 2009 will feature an artwalk & sale, music on five stages, screenings, readings, live radio, Web casts, the TICTOC performance art festival, the Transmission art car exhibition, and Spectacle Fortuna's parade of creativity.

Unless otherwise noted, events are free and open to the public.

Manifest is supported by the student activity fee and is produced by the Division of Student Affairs and its Office of College-wide Events in cooperation with the entire Columbia College Chicago community. Special support from the Offices of the President, Campus Environment, Business Affairs, Academic Affairs, and the Provost has made this event possible. Heartfelt thanks are due to the Deans of the Schools of Fine and Performing Arts, Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Media Arts as well as their talented faculty and staff.

Illustrations by Rachel Duggan ('09). Rachel Duggan is a graduating Art & Design student who specializes in illustration. She won a student-wide vote in December 2008 to select one student who would develop the look and feel for Manifest 2009. You can see more of her work online at rachalduggan.com.

Student Producers

Arts, Entertainment, and Media Management & Marketing Communication Students

Students from these departments join forces with the Manifest team to assist in the planning and production of Manifest showcases and performances. From acting as student interns, to producing LAUNCH (fashion showcase) and helping establish Columbia's first student store, Manifest brings students out of the classroom and into their fields.

Audio Arts and Acoustics Students

Impressed by the live sound on our music stages? Columbia's Audio Arts and Acoustics seniors are managing the sound reinforcement for our stages and lending their talent and artistic expertise to all phases of the event.

Live Student Programming Board Stages

11 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.

The Student Programming Board (SPB) presents an eclectic mix of music on two stages. Watch our talented Columbia musicians rip up the stage and put on a performance to remember. Be the first to witness the superstars of tomorrow.

ASL-English Interpretation Department: Senior Practicum II Student's

The ASL-English Interpretation department Senior Practicum II students will be providing American Sign Language (ASL) interpreting for various events throughout the day. They will also coordinate interpreting services for Manifest. Watch for interpreters wearing black Manifest T-shirts and those flying hands!

Frequency TV:

All-day LIVE coverage of Manifest

Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive / Parking Lot, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m.

Frequency Television will be covering Manifest LIVE!

Check out the live coverage any number of ways:

- FTV monitors throughout campus
- Channel 32 in the dorms
- www.colum.edu/Manifest
- www.FrequencyTelevision.com

And don't forget to stop by the student stage and check out the Frequency crew as well as Columbia's new HD production truck in action!

Chronicle

Manifest would also like to thank Columbia's award-winning student newspaper, The Columbia Chronicle, for their expert coverage and annual Manifest special insert.

Class Acts

Four classes structured around Manifest are integral to the planning and art of the festival: Senior Decision Making in the Performing Arts, Exhibition Management, and Special Events and Promotions develop, plan, and execute events, exhibitions, and press campaigns; while Puppetry, Pageantry, and the Art of Spectacle, work directly with the build team to create the Spectacle Fortuna parade.

Welcome Centers

Admissions Welcome Center

600 South Michigan Avenue / Tour Center, 9 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Prospective students are invited to the Admissions Tour Center to meet with counselors and find out more about Columbia's unique programs.

Breathing Room

618 South Michigan Avenue, Library, Floor 3, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Getting tired? Manifest can be overwhelming. Come inside and take a break at our relaxing Breathing Room.

Parents and Guests Welcome Center

623 South Wabash Avenue, Hokin Annex, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Parents and guests are invited to check in, grab a free cup of coffee, and find out more about the day's events.

General Info

11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Various Locations

Visit greeters at each event site who will happily answer your questions and distribute Manifest programs. You won't be able to miss them in their bright yellow Manifest tees and 'ask me' buttons. For more information, call the Manifest hotline at 312.369.6789, or email manifest@colum.edu, or visit www.colum.edu/manifest.

General Info

ShopColumbia, Columbia's Student Art Store

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m.
ShopColumbia offers photography, paintings, sculpture, 'zines, journals, stationery, tees, belts, totes, one-of-a-kind fashion garments, jewelry, and anything else a Columbia student can make or do. ShopColumbia is also the only place to purchase official Manifest apparel for adults and kids!

Manifest Artwalk & Sale

Galleries throughout campus, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m.,
Art Walk & Reception, 4 - 7 p.m.
Over a dozen fine art, design, and media exhibitions showcase the work of graduating students, with receptions and events in every gallery. ShopColumbia staff members are teaming up with the Visual Arts Management students to sell the work on display in each gallery. With each purchase, get a free T-shirt at the ShopColumbia store!

Student Showcases

Various Locations, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
With more than 2,000 seniors and graduate students, Columbia comprises the greatest concentration of young, creative talent graduating from any college or university. This incredible reservoir of inspiration and artistry is showcased across the entire spectrum of arts and media.

Manifest Kick-Off

Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive, 12 - 1 p.m.
Join President Warrick Carter, student leaders, and the astounding circus punk marching band Mucca Pazza to officially kick off the Manifest party! Gather at noon for giveaways, spectacle, and special surprises.

Spectacle Fortuna

Kick-off at Harrison Avenue and Wabash Avenue, 6:45 - 7:45 p.m.
Spectacle Fortuna is Columbia's parade of creativity, wishing good fortune upon seniors and graduate students, and celebrating the college's spirit and creative community. This free, public event includes: hundreds of giant puppets; spectacle items created by students, faculty, and staff; and the punk marching band Mucca Pazza.

TICTOC

Various Locations, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
The TICTOC performance series presents site-specific, time-based performance art and street theater throughout the Manifest annual urban arts festival.

Transmission

9th Street & Wabash Avenue / Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m.
Manifest's Transmission transforms the cars of today into curiosities and art objects, and features art cars created by the Columbia community and beyond - witness this open air exhibition of provocative auto and auto-inspired art.

Industry Night

Thursday, May 14, 4 p.m. - 7 p.m.
Art Walk: 5 - 8 p.m., All Access Night Club: 7 - 11 p.m.
May 14 will feature our second annual Industry Night. Happening across campus, Industry Night is a series of receptions that aim to connect our students to working professionals in their field. It's Chicago's premier networking event. For more information, please go to: www.colum.edu/industrynight.

Commencement

Saturday, May 16 & Sunday, May 17
UIC PAVILION / Harrison at Racine
www.colum.edu/commencement
CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2009!

Manifest Food Vendors

640 South Wabash Avenue, 9th Street and Wabash Avenue and 11th Street & Wabash Avenue, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Snack time! Visit one of our local vendors, located throughout the event, near each of the three outdoor stages.

Acoustic Kitchen

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1 / Hokin Annex, 3 - 6 p.m.
A special performance from singers/songwriters/musicians who have appeared throughout the school year at the monthly Acoustic Kitchen Open Stage series.

Elevated Diction

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Elevators
Throughout the day writers from the Silver Tongue student reading series serenade elevator passengers.

Alumni Bazaar!

1014 South Michigan Avenue, Floor 1, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Come explore the Alumni Bazaar! A diverse array of works produced by Columbia alumni, exhibited, and for sale.

The Campus Apple Store

623 South Wabash Avenue, Lobby, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
33 East Congress Parkway, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Graduating? Be sure to take advantage of your exclusive Apple discounts at the Campus Apple Store.

Letterpress Print Your own Handmade Paper!

1104 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1, 2 - 7 p.m.
Join students from Book and Paper Arts as they demonstrate the fine art of papermaking and letterpress printing.

Poetry Parlor

9th Street and Wabash Avenue, 11 a.m. - 6:30 p.m.
Feel the power of the written word as Poetry majors and MFA students (temporarily) apply lines to your body from master poets and from the English department. Poetry students will also be poised at typewriters, ready to compose on-the-spot verses for you, your crush, or your mom.

The Edge of Intent

600 South Michigan Avenue,
Floor 1, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
The Museum of Contemporary Photography at Columbia College Chicago is proud to present The Edge of Intent, an exhibition looking at the utopian aspirations of urban planners, and how their idealistic visions sometimes become static and incapable of adapting to changing environments and systems.

Live Outdoor Music Stages

Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive,
11th Street & Wabash Avenue, and
9th and Wabash Avenue.
The Student Programming Board (SPB) and The Theater department present an eclectic mix of music and performance on the live outdoor stages of Manifest. Watch our talented Columbia musicians and performers rip up the stage and put on a performance to remember.

Graduate Student Showcases

AEMM: Community Arts in a Climate of Change

525 South State Street, Floor 2 / Media Room, 4:30 - 6:30 p.m.
Presented by graduating Master's of Arts Management students in the concentration of Arts in Youth and Community Development (AYCD), this panel will focus on growing a community arts organization through a challenged economy. The event includes a special presentation of artwork from AYCD Practicum Sites: Najwa Dance Corps, Free Street Theatre, Music Theatre Workshop, Little Black Pearl, and Redmoon Theater.

Art & Design, Interior Architecture: Live, Work, and Play

33 East Congress Parkway, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.

The MFA Thesis II/Design Component-Design Drawing exhibition represents the graphic resolution for these students' theses.

Dance Movement Therapy and Counseling:

Self / Know Self

624 South Michigan Avenue,

Rooms 1005 and 1107, 3 - 7 p.m.

Consciousness involves the unfolding of self as inner observer and the evolution of knowing. As sentient beings, we journey through life while memories create reality, and this noetic process illuminates our world. As therapists, we are invited and engaged in our clients' narratives and the work performed here focuses on this journey and the relationship between the client and therapist as well as between self and self.

Educational Studies: Those Who Desire to Teach, Those Who Desire to Learn

33 East Congress Parkway / C33 Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.

Student teachers highlight special projects and work with students during their certification process and Master's degree coursework in their spring 2009 semester of student teaching. The exhibition runs from May 10 - June 12, 2009.

English: Creative Writing - Poetry MFA Showcase Reading

525 South State Street, Great Room / University Center

Poetry MFA Thesis Students: 2 - 4 p.m. / Reception: 3 p.m.

Come hear graduating MFA in Poetry students read from their theses, alongside the winners from the English department's poetry contests. Afterward, palaver with the poets over hors d'oeuvres!

Fiction Writing: MFA Showcase Reading

731 South Plymouth Court / The Court
Reception: 5 - 6 p.m. / Graduate Reading: 6 - 8 p.m.

Join the Fiction Writing department for a celebration and reading of graduating MFA student work. The event includes a reception, music, photography, and story interpretation from the ASL department.

Film & Video: MFA Screening

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Film Row Cinema

MFA Screening: 3 - 5 p.m. /

Reception: 5 - 6 p.m.

Exhibiting completed film projects is the cornerstone of the Film & Video department and the industry as a whole. The MFA screening gives the community a look at some of the best this department has to offer.

Interdisciplinary Arts: 2009 Thesis Exhibition

1104 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 2 / Book and Paper Arts and 618 South Michigan Avenue, Floor 2 / New Media Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.

The event is an extension of the thesis exhibition from the three Interdisciplinary Arts degree programs (MA in Interdisciplinary Arts, MFA in Interdisciplinary Book and Paper Arts, and MFA in Interdisciplinary Media Arts). The show consists of twenty large installation works, the culmination of at least seven years of education. The exhibition runs from April 24 - May 21, 2009.

Journalism: Journalism Showcase

33 East Congress Parkway, floor 2 / Convergence Newsroom
Graduate Student Presentations: 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Reception: 12 - 1 p.m.

Top Journalism students will share stories and experiences - from on the beat and in the streets - and show off their best work from the last year. Graduate students will talk about covering campaigns and debates, getting published, on-the-job learning at internships, chasing down tough sources, creating multi-media packages, traveling to exotic and not-so-exotic places, submitting Freedom of Information Act requests, and, of course, getting stories published, produced, and on the air.

Photography: MFA Exhibition

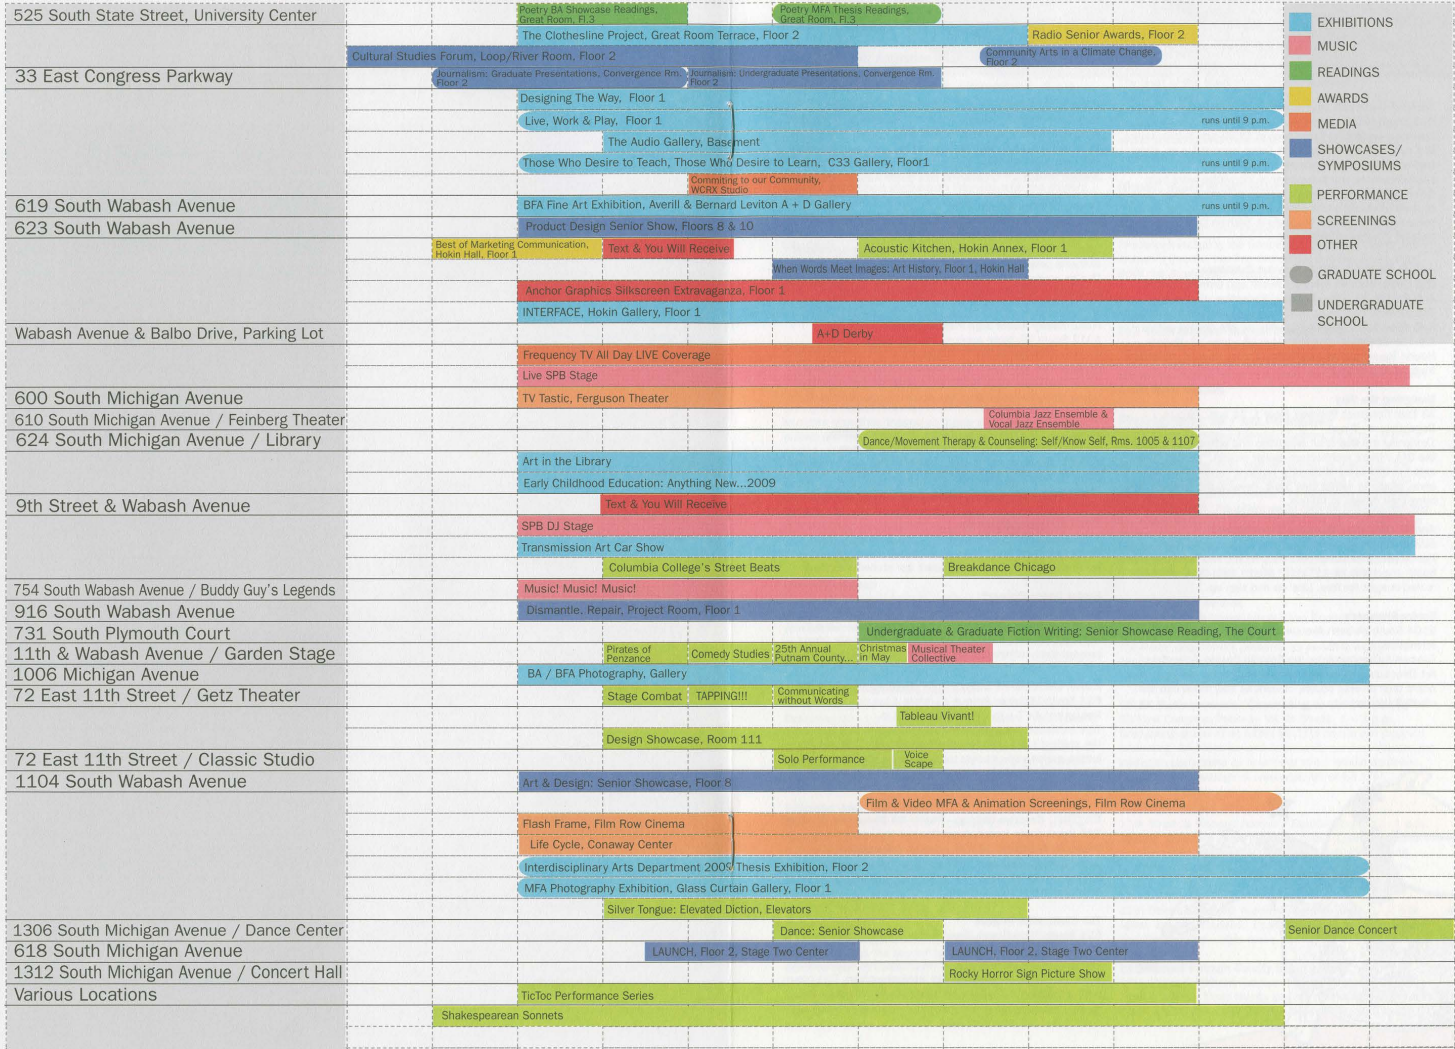

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Glass Curtain Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.

An exhibition of work by graduates in the MFA program in Photography. The exhibition runs from May 14 - June 12, 2009. The gallery will be open: Monday - Wednesday, and Friday: 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Thursday: 9 a.m. - 7 p.m., and Saturday, by appointment.

9 a.m. 10 a.m. 11 a.m. 12 p.m. 1 p.m. 2 p.m. 3 p.m. 4 p.m. 5 p.m. 6 p.m. 7 p.m. 8 p.m. 9 p.m.

- EXHIBITIONS
- MUSIC
- READINGS
- AWARDS
- MEDIA
- SHOWCASES/ SYMPOSIUMS
- PERFORMANCE
- SCREENINGS
- OTHER
- GRADUATE SCHOOL
- UNDERGRADUATE SCHOOL

Undergraduate Student Showcase

AEMM-Fashion Management: LAUNCH

618 South Michigan Avenue, Floor 2 / Stage Two Center
Matinee Presentation: Doors open at 12:30 p.m. & show begins at 1 p.m., Evening Presentation: Doors open at 5 p.m., show begins at 5:30 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
LAUNCH invites you to experience innovative work from Columbia College Chicago's fashion programs. This student-produced event showcases the talents and multiple perspectives of senior students in Fashion Design and Fashion / Retail Management.

Art & Design: BFA in Fine Art Exhibition

619 South Wabash Avenue / Averill and Bernard Leviton A+D Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
The exhibition showcases the work of students from the Art+D department, graduating with the BFA degree in Fine Art. The exhibition runs from May 15 - June 13. Gallery Hours: Tuesday - Saturday from 11 a.m. - 5 p.m., Thursday from 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Designing the Way

33 East Congress Parkway, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.

Designing the Way is an exhibition and presentation from the BFA Interior Architecture senior project, "Design Drawings." In this culmination of a yearlong capstone experience, students select their topic, develop the program, and bring their design to fruition.

Anchor Graphics Silkscreen Extravaganza!

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Put on your printmaker hat! Stop by the Anchor Graphics booth and make an 11" x 17" poster from three predetermined images for free. Line up and sign up.

Senior Showcase

1104 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 8, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
Graduating seniors from the Graphic Design, Advertising Art Direction, and Illustration concentrations celebrate and share their diverse bodies of work as they move into the creativity community.

When Words Meet Images: Art History Symposium

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1 / Hokin Hall, 2 - 5 p.m.
Witness this presentation of original research and critical analysis of art and design from students in the Advanced Seminar in Art History. Join the reception that follows in the Averill and Bernard Leviton A + D Gallery at 619 South Wabash Avenue.

Product Design Senior Show

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floors 8 and 10 / Gallery, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
Work in this showcase includes models and presentations of thesis projects by seniors graduating from the Product Design program in the Art and Design department, as well as selections of their work from the past four years.

ASL: Rocky Horror Sign Picture Show

1312 South Michigan Avenue, Concert Hall / Sherwood Conservatory, 4 - 6 p.m.
Students from ASL-English Interpretation restage their fall production of Rocky Horror Sign Picture Show where the cast signs dialogues during the movie along with dance and movement numbers.

Audio Arts and Acoustics: The Audio Gallery

33 East Congress Parkway, Basement, 12 - 6 p.m.
Visitors will see and hear audio, video, and research presentations, representing the Audio Design & Production, Audio for Visual Media, Live Reinforcement, and Acoustics programs.

Dance: Senior Showcase

1306 South Michigan Avenue / Dance Center, 2 - 4 p.m.
This concert of senior choreographers and performers celebrates the wide range of talent our students embody.

Senior Dance Concert

MAY 14 & 15
1306 South Michigan Avenue / Dance Center, 8 - 10 p.m.
BFA Dancemaking students, Amanda Timm and Ally James, present their culminating project on the Dance Center stage.

Early Childhood Education: Anything New ... 2009

624 South Michigan Avenue / Library, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m. / Critique: 4 - 6 p.m.
This exhibition features interdisciplinary work that portrays the student journey to become teachers, and features Columbia course work, student teaching, and a study tour of the schools in Reggio Emilia, Italy. Gallery Hours: Monday - Thursday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., & Friday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

English: Creative Writing - Poetry BA Showcase Reading

525 South State Street, Great Room / University Center
Poetry BA Students: 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. / Reception: 12 p.m.
Come hear graduating BA in Poetry students read from their theses, alongside the winners from the English department's poetry contests.

The Clothesline Project

525 South State Street, Great Room Terrace / University Center, 11 a.m. - 5 p.m.
The Clothesline Project is a visual display that raises awareness about the issue of violence against women. This provocative display of T-shirts, decorated by women survivors of violence, provides an opportunity for people to break the silence and tell their own story.

Fiction Writing: Senior Showcase Reading

731 South Plymouth Court / The Court
Undergraduate Reading: 3 - 5 p.m. / Reception: 5 - 6 p.m.
Join the Fiction Writing department for a celebration and reading of graduating BA and BFA student work. The event includes a reception, music, and photography.

Film & Video: Animation Screenings

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Film Row Cinema
Animation Screening: 6 - 8 p.m. / Reception: 5 - 6 p.m.
Exhibiting completed film projects is the cornerstone of the Film & Video department and the industry as a whole.

Flash Frame

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Film Row Cinema, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Flash Frame is a showcase of vignettes featuring graduating seniors. Each short involves an interview with the student telling his or her Columbia experience and is produced, directed, and edited by Film & Video students.

Life Cycle

1104 South Wabash Avenue / Conaway Center, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Life Cycle takes elements from the filmmaking process and puts them on display, drawing the audience member into the process behind the storytelling.

Humanities, History, and Social Sciences:

Cultural Studies Forum

525 South State Street, Loop/River Room / University Center 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.
During the Cultural Studies Forum, students present excerpts from their theses on topics as wide-ranging as capitalism and colonization in the DeBeers diamond empire and a study of Mexican-American tamale vendors in Chicago.

Interactive Arts + Media: INTERFACE

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1 / Hokin Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
INTERFACE is a showcase of cutting-edge, technology-based artwork presented by this year's Interactive Arts and Media Senior Practicum class. The exhibition runs from May 11 - June 12, 2009.

Dismantle.Repair

916 South Wabash Avenue, Lobby / Project Room, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Join graduating seniors of the IAM Game Project class to play their debut game Dismantle.Repair. Elements from the game's creation will also be on display in the Project Room.

Journalism: Journalism Showcase

33 East Congress Parkway, Floor 2 / Convergence Newsroom
Reception: 12 - 1 p.m. / Undergraduate Student Presentations: 1 - 4 p.m.
Top Journalism students will share stories and experiences - from on the beat and in the streets - and show off their best work from the last year.

Library: Art in the Library

624 South Michigan Avenue / Library, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
Presenting the work of students, faculty, staff, and alumni, the Art in the Library program exhibits works in all forms of visual arts, including sculpture, painting, drawings, and paper and book arts.

Haiku Contest

624 South Michigan Avenue / Library Windows, Ongoing
This year marks the second annual library haiku contest, which is open to all Columbia College Chicago students. This time, entries focus on all things Ray Bradbury, his works, and the themes within. The winning haiku will be affixed to the library's Michigan Avenue windows and may be seen at street level.

Marketing Communication: Text and You will Receive

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1 / Hokin Hall Reception: 12 - 1:30 p.m.
9th Street and Wabash Avenue kiosk, 12 - 7 p.m.
The Marketing Communication seniors present an exciting concept in social networking for Columbia. A presentation at noon at a kiosk on 9th and Wabash, will introduce this program, active throughout the day, for everyone to participate.

The Best of the Marketing Communication

623 South Wabash Avenue, Floor 1 / Hokin Hall / Awards Presentation: 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Witness our first annual ext interview video featuring our senior students and their experience in the Marketing Communications program.

Music: Music! Music! Music!

754 South Wabash Avenue, Main Room / Buddy Guy's Legends, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
The Music department presents top-notch student performances including the Gospel and Jazz/Pop Choirs; the Women's Chorus; the Pop Orchestra; and the Blues, Pop/Rock, R&B, and Jazz Fusion Ensembles.

Columbia College Jazz Ensemble and the Columbia College Vocal Jazz Ensemble

610 South Michigan Avenue, Concert Hall / Spertus Institute, 4:30 - 6 p.m.
Watch the performance by the Columbia College Jazz Ensemble and the Vocal Jazz Ensemble with special guest artist Mark Murphy.

Photography: BA / BFA Photography

1006 South Michigan Avenue / Gallery, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. / Reception: 4 - 7 p.m.
Attend one of the most popular shows at Manifest - the Photography department presents the work of over 100 graduating BA / BFA students. The exhibition runs from May 1 - 23 2009. The gallery will be open the following days and hours: May 1-14 / M-F: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., May 14 / Industry Night: Gallery opens 10 a.m., Art Expo from 5 - 8 p.m., May 15 / Manifest: Gallery opens at 10 a.m., Manifest Reception and Art Walk & Sale from 4 - 7 p.m., May 16-17 / Graduation Weekend: Sat-Sun: 12 - 5 p.m., May 18 - 22 / M-F: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Radio: Senior Awards

525 South State Street, Loop/River Room / University Center, 5 - 7 p.m.
The Radio department presents an awards ceremony and showcase of senior radio work in production, news, sports, talent, public affairs, radio theater, and documentary.

WCRX Radio presents "Committing to our Community"

33 East Congress Parkway, WCRX Studio, 1 - 3 p.m.
Graduating students at WCRX 88.1FM host a live program promoting volunteerism and community service. Visitors are invited to participate as members of our studio audience. Listen to live coverage at www.wcrx.net or 88.1FM.

Theater: Pirates of Penzance

11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage, 12 - 1 p.m.
Pirates! Beautiful girls! Cowardly cops! Love! Swoon to excerpts from the Theater department's exciting spring production of this beloved Gilbert and Sullivan operetta.

Comedy Studies

11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage, 1 - 2 p.m.
Make 'em laugh indeed. Students write and perform their own Second City - style revue.

25th Annual Putnum County Spelling Bee

11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage, 2 - 3 p.m.
Student Director Maria Hornby and her cast bring excerpts from this charming and quirky Tony-award winning musical to life.

Theater: Christmas in May

11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage, 3 - 3:30 p.m.
Deck the Halls? In May? Why not? Director and Choreographer Amy Uhl's Freshman Performance Project will delight you with selections from their fall 2008 show.

Musical Theater Collective

11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage, 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.
Enjoy a performance from the Musical Theater Collective.

Shakespearean Sonnets

Roaming - Various Locations, All Day
Receive the gift of poetry! Caroline Latta's Shakespeare Acting students take on the roles of wandering bards and present a sonnet just for you.

Stage Combat

72 East 11th Street / Getz Theater, 12 - 1 p.m.
Always a thrilling part of Manifest, come watch Columbia Theater students thrust and parry in the high energy event of Stage Combat finals!

TAPPING!!!!

72 East 11th Street / Getz Theater, 1 - 2 p.m.
Tap Into It! Enjoy this explosion of synchronized sound and movement.

Communicating Without Words

72 East 11th Street / Getz Theater, 2 - 3 p.m.
Join Ann Boyd's Movement group on an exploration of the physical, emotional, and theatrical dimensions of space.

Tableau Vivant! Warrington Colescott's "History of Printmaking"

72 East 11th Street / Getz Theater, 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.
An original piece commissioned for Global Implications: Southern Graphic Council Conference 2009 is being hosted by Columbia this spring. A fascinating collaboration between Chicago's Silent Theatre (founded by Columbia alums) and current Columbia Theater students.

Solo Performance

72 East 11th Street / Classic Studio, 2 - 3:30 p.m.
An actor. A bare stage. Their words. Their story to tell. Intimate, personal, moving, and funny.

VoiceScope

72 East 11th Street / Classic Stage, 3:30 - 4 p.m.
The Theater department's Advanced Voice students devise an ensemble piece weaving different theatrical materials into a vocal collage.

Design Showcase

72 East 11th Street, Room 111, 12 - 5 p.m.
Sets. Props. Lights. Costumes! The Theater department proudly exhibits the stunning design portfolios from the graduating seniors. See how the talented design and technical students create the physical worlds of the productions throughout our exciting seasons at Columbia.

Television: TV TASTIC

600 South Michigan Avenue / Ferguson Theater, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. / Reception: 5 - 7 p.m.
Join us for a continuous screening of works by graduating seniors. With great docs, narratives, and magazine segments, these students are on their way to the big time!

Student bands

Live SPB Stage: Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive:

At 12:45 p.m. on the student stage, the Student Programming Board will announce the winners of Expose Yourself, Columbia's first ever online talent contest.

Amanda Kraft

Piano Singer Songwriter, 11 - 11:15 a.m.

Choycez

R&B, 11 - 11:45 a.m.

Mos Scocious

Jam Band, 12:30 - 12:45 p.m.

Nikki Nikita

Pop-Soul and R&B, 1 - 1:15 p.m.

Mr. Gray

Chicago New Rock, 1:30 - 1:45 p.m.

Joseph Duemig

Indie-Pop Rockers, 2 - 2:15 p.m.

Remedy

Soul, R&B, and Gospel, 2:30 - 2:45 p.m.

Hawkward

Ambient Post-Rock and Jazzy Math-Rock, 3 - 3:15 p.m.

Down and Dirty Blues Band

Dirty Blues, 3:30 - 3:45 p.m.

Scattered Trees

Indie-Pop Rockers, 4:15 - 4:30 p.m.

Sidewalk Chalk

Fusion of Jazz, Reggae, R&B, Hip-Hop, Soul, and Poetry, 4:45 - 5 p.m.

Soft Speaker

Psychedelic Rock, 5:15 - 5:30 p.m.

Worlds Fair

Alternative - Folk Rock, 5:45 - 6 p.m.

Love in October

Swedish Indie Dance Rock, 6:15 - 6:30 p.m.

Shortstop From Tokyo

Super Ska, 6:45 - 7 p.m.

Snakeosaurus Rex

Ambient - Indie Rock Band, 8 - 8:15 p.m.

The Ivorys

Indie Rock, 8:30 - 8:45 p.m.

Fluid Minds

Rock-Hip-Hop with a little bit of Reggae, 9 - 9:15 p.m.

DJ Stage:

9th Street & Wabash Avenue:

Trance Armstrong

Spins Techno and House, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Small Champion

Spins Electro and Dance, 12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

DJ Film42 and Ratzilla

Spins Electro-Techno, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

DJ Destruction Project

Spins House, Electro, Hip-Hop, Trance, Hard Trance, Hardstyle, Downtempo, Pop, and Top 40, 2:45 - 3:45 p.m.

DJ Continental

Spins Hip-Hop and R&B, 4 - 5 p.m.

Kid Color

Spins Electro and Dance, 5:15 - 6:15 p.m.

Black Holes

Spins Electro, Dance, Hip-Hop, and Mash-Ups, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

DJ Scenery

Spins Hip-Hop, Dance, Old School, and Electro, 7:45 - 8:45 p.m.

TICTOC

Bound and Determined

Tamale Sepp (MFA), 1104 South Wabash Avenue, Lobby, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. Self-help books are bound and suspended - immobilized - using the consensual Japanese rope bondage technique Shibari.

American Hall of Pride

Casey Hart (BA), various outdoor locations, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. Overlooked or ignored aspects of America's culture and history are handily displayed as interactive amusement-park cutouts.

A patch of blue sky

Heather Hartley (alumnus, MFA), Casey Murtaugh (alumnus, MFA) 623 South Wabash Avenue, Lobby, 3:30 - 7 p.m. Using thousands of puzzle pieces, feathers, twine and their own voices, two women de-construct a chaotic landscape to assemble a floating, emblematic release.

Playful Disguises

Elena Katsulis (alumnus, BA), 1104 South Wabash Avenue, Sidewalk, 3 - 5 p.m. Maximum effort and endurance are required in the ritualistic repetition of an everyday activity: the application of make-up.

Funeral Processional

Erin Cramer (MFA), roaming outdoor performance, 2 - 3 p.m. Creatures sculpted with handmade paper are characters in a funeral parade with live music from New Orleansian, Appalachian, and Gypsy cultures.

Inside the White Cube - The Ideology of the Gallery Space

Anni Holm (alumnus, BFA), 600 South Michigan Avenue, 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. An artist finds herself in a small, useable space and conscientiously converts it into a mini-gallery in time for a mini-reception.

Dogwomen of Columbia College

Lessa Bouchard (MFA), 11th Street & Wabash Avenue / Garden Stage and 618 South Michigan Avenue, Sidewalk, 2 - 5 p.m. Dogwomen mix a Jewish circle dance with modern choreography, combining movement, Diane DiPrima's poetry, Native American folklore, and music to explore ideas of buoyancy and compression.

Mything "The One"

James Kinser (alumnus, MA), 618 South Michigan Avenue, Lobby, 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. Caricatures of a bride and groom descend on issues of gay marriage, gender identity, excessive wedding ceremony, and the myth of finding "the one."

The Sounds of Paper

Laurie LeBreton (MFA), 618 South Michigan Avenue, Lobby, 3 - 7 p.m. By bouncing, shaking, and tapping on instruments made from fiber, the artist creates an interactive installation that explores the sound properties of paper.

The Surprising Remembrance of Weightlessness

Lisa Leszczewicz (BA), roaming outdoor performance, 1 - 6 p.m. An exploration of the "weight" of emotional realization brings two people entwined in an intimate moment closer together with the physical surroundings of their city.

Processional

Zaine Magee (MFA), 623 South Wabash Avenue / Hokin Annex, 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. Paintings, videos, and live electronic sound create an immersive environment questioning the completeness of a body of work in relation to its process and sketches.

Supplant Me

Stacey Stormes (MFA), 623 South Wabash Avenue, Lobby, 11 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. Through the process of image-making, an interactive installation invites viewers to become part of the "frame" and "space" of art itself.

S'mores Coffin

Adam Rust (alumnus, MFA) 11th Street & Wabash Avenue, Garden Stage, 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. An old camping pleasure is humorously reconsidered in a public installation.

Gentlemen Never Strike without Provocation

Tannar Veatch (BFA), 1104 South Wabash Avenue, Sidewalk, 12 - 3 p.m. A gentleman will impose acts of destruction and dominance upon caricatures of weaker beings to elevate his own masculinity - a tableaux questioning gender roles.

Transmission

9th Street and Wabash Avenue, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m.

Manifest's Transmission art car festival transforms the cars of today into curiosities and art objects, and features art cars created by the Columbia community and beyond - witness this open air exhibition of provocative auto and auto-inspired art.

Highlights include:

CarCam

Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Columbia knitters will be turning a 2000 Volvo Station Wagon into a knitted, live, working video camera called the CarCam. In front of the CarCam will be three full-sized, knitted likenesses of actual Columbia students, tattoos and all. Come pose with your woolen peers!

A+D Derby

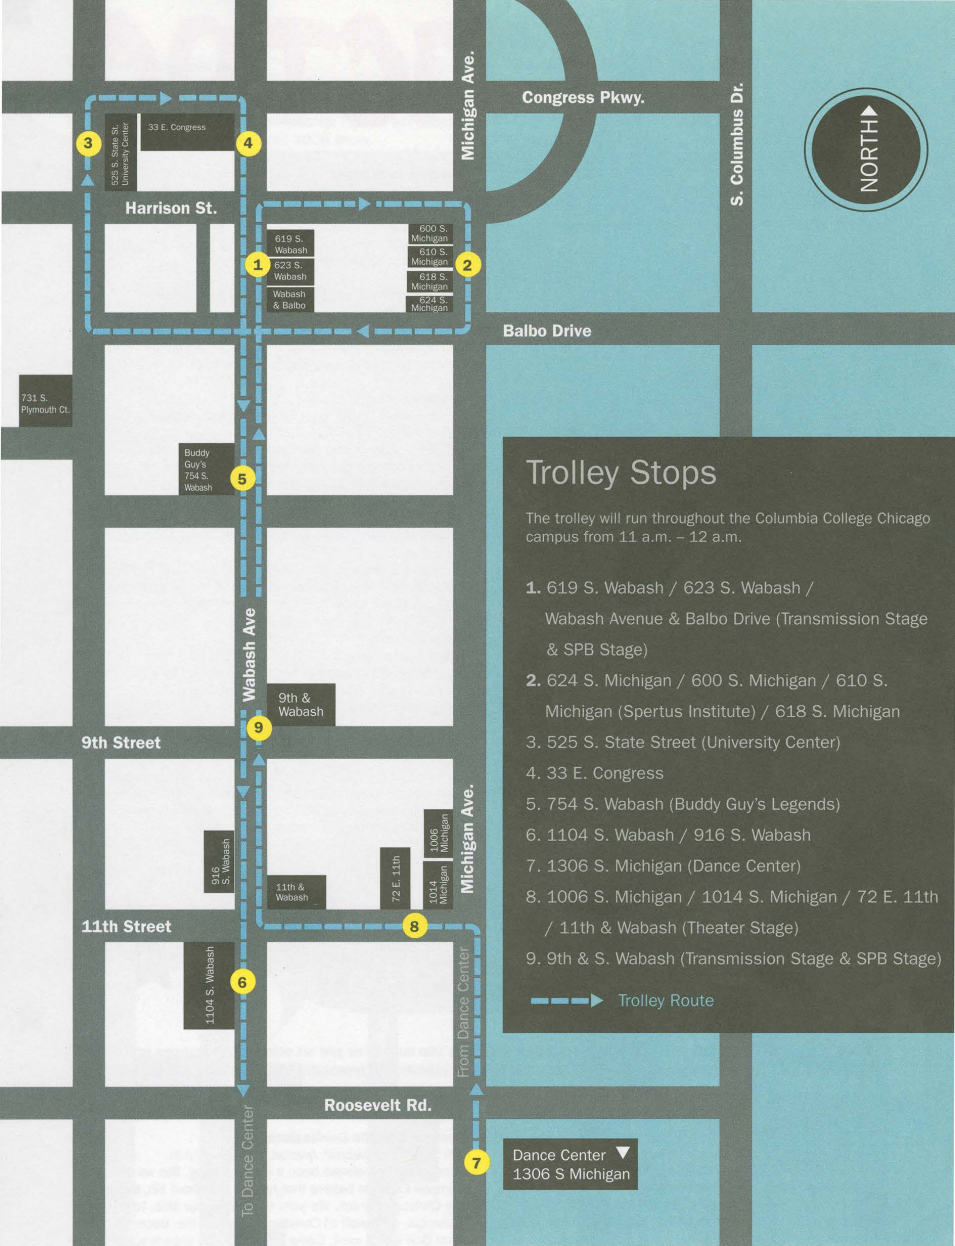

Wabash Avenue & Balbo Drive, Race Starts: 2:30 p.m. Originally devised as a way to improve A+D Shop student worker tool skills, the A+D Derby has since evolved into a 32-car, 48-foot long, demolition derby meets pine wood derby, meets parade float fiasco. Join us as student workers from the Art and Design department battle A+D staff in head to head competition for bragging rights and a chance to hold the coveted Wideroe Cup.

Campus Crusade Confessional

9th Street and Wabash Avenue, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Confession has always been a one-way thing. But we at Campus Crusade believe that no one is without sin, especially the Christian Church. We want to confess our sins, to you Columbia, on behalf of Christianity everywhere. Because that's what God would want. Come to our car and experience a type of confession you perhaps have never had. The confessional was inspired by the book Blue Like Jazz by Donald Miller.

Breakdance Chicago

9th Street and Wabash Avenue, 4 - 7 p.m. The city's very own Breakdance Chicago will be doing several performances throughout the festival. These dancers have performed with some of the hottest artists out there including T.I., Twista, and Lupe Fiasco. Come by the Transmission lot and learn some sweet moves and watch some of the best break dancers the city has to offer perform!

recycle this brochure.