How do I find a partner?

- Search
- Outside the U.S.
- View Past
- Post a Collaboration

The screenshot shows the CILC website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a search box labeled 'QUICK SEARCH', a 'SIGN OUT' button, and a 'MY CILC DASHBOARD' button. Below this is a main header with the CILC logo (Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration) and a 'Meet CILC' button. The main navigation menu includes 'INTERACTIVE CONTENT', 'COLLABORATIONS', 'PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT', 'MEMBERS', 'RESOURCES', and 'ABOUT'. The 'COLLABORATIONS' menu is expanded, showing options: 'Find Collaborations', 'Connect outside U.S. Collaborations', 'View Past Collaborations', and 'Post a Collaboration'. The main content area is titled 'Find Collaborations' and features a search bar with a 'Search' button. Below the search bar, there are radio buttons for 'All', 'Current', and 'Archived'. Two collaboration requests are listed:

- Conversations on Race via Beyonce's Formation
Looking for the person who submitted the following collaboration request in February 2018: We are an 11th grade U.S. History class in Vermont. We are studying the current state of race relations and other issues through the lens of Beyonce's new song and mu...
