About Miami University Libraries

- Miami University (OH)
- FTE approx. 17,500
- 37 librarians, 43 classified staff

Design considerations

- ❑ IS a tool for dissemination & 2-way communication between tech and public services
- ❑ NOT a tool for managing e-resource lifecycle
- ❑ MUST be user-friendly (on both ends)
- ❑ MUST accommodate both static and dynamic info

Scope

- Staff info
- News/updates
- Request lists, report problems
- Acquisitions, serials & e-resources (local vs. consortial resources)
- E-resource usage statistics
- Library tools

Type of Device	Operating System	Browser	Initials	Notes
Laptop	MacOSX	Not sure	jwb	Checked e-book; could not replicate problem reported. Publisher allows 10 pages for download. Emailed patron and Jenny Presnell with this information; no response received. 8/26/14
Desktop	Windows	Chrome	jwb	ezproxy server configuration updated; seems to have solved the problem of off campus access to safari e-books; tested from home 9/2/14
Desktop	Windows	Chrome	jwb	Gartner used to be paid for by IT but IT didn't renew this year, I deleted from Databases A to Z but when the new website went live, it somehow reappeared there. Will delete again.
Desktop	MacOSX	Chrome	mp	MUL owns this in print; not Project Muse ebook version. MP emailed
Laptop	Windows	Chrome	mp/jwb	JSTOR turned off access erroneously; access now restored
Desktop	Windows	Internet Explorer	jwb	Probably part of the issues today with a to Z and link resolver; have contacted ebSCO
Laptop	MacOSX	Firefox, Safari	jwb	This is an error thrown by the proxy server when someone attempts to download large quantities of material from our resources from off campus. These suspensions expire after 2 hours automatically. JB has contacted the student for additional details.
Laptop	MacOSX	Safari	jwb	Looked this student up in MU directory and is a biology grad student; she could be part of Project Dragonfly or other distance learning project; sometimes these students are coded incorrectly by IT; it could also be that she is not currently enrolled in any classes at MU—this means she wouldn't have access to library resources. JB will email student directly.

Ebrary PDA Reports

Ebrary PDA Reports

Trigger reports are provided weekly by ebrary.

- This report includes detailed information about the type of trigger and use (current year only).
- Usage statistics for all years can be found on the E-Resource Usage Stats tab in the E-Books box under ebrary.
- Click here for the definitions of the columns/categories found in the trigger report.

Turnaway reports (ebrary e-books are single user) can be found in the box below the trigger report.

Caveats & Disclaimers

- Some publishers exclude owned/subscribed titles from their COUNTER reports if the title had no usage in the time period of the report. This varies by publisher (e.g., ebrary and EBSCO e-book reports do not include titles if they had no use in the time period of the report).
- OhioLINK statistics (OSearch databases, EJC, and EBC) are not COUNTER-compliant at this time.
- Some vendors do not offer usage statistics, which may be why you don't find a particular product in the lists on this page.
- Reports are updated monthly but note that many vendors are one to two months behind in updating usage statistics. If you need more recent statistics, contact Martin Patrick to check for availability.
- Links open in Google Docs (spreadsheets), and can be downloaded from there as an Excel file.

If you are unsure what platform/publisher to look at for a specific title:

- download a list of locally purchased continuing resources and check the platform column next to the title
- check our online Resources A to Z list
- check the library catalog
- contact Jennifer Bazeley or Martin Patrick

COUNTER Reports

Most reports on this page are COUNTER-compliant and are marked with one of the abbreviations below to indicate the type of report.

- Journal Report 1 (JR1): Number of successful full-text article requests by month and journal
- Book Report 1 (BR1): Number of successful title requests by month and title
- Book Report 2 (BR2): Number of successful section requests by month and title
- Database Report 1 (DBR1): Total searches and sessions by month and database

EBSCO Usage Consolidation Reports

EBSCO Usage Consolidation software allows us to combine COUNTER-compliant reports from many vendors into one database and produce compilation reports.

Journal Citation Reports - InCites platform (February 2015)

The error below is a known bug in Thomson Reuter's InCites software (this is the new JCR platform) which occurs when a user has clicked the internal link to JCR or InCites that appears in the top navigation pane of all the WoS products.

Using the Proxy Prefix

This is the proxy prefix for Miami University Libraries:

<http://proxy.lib.miamioh.edu/login?url=>

To create a link to a library-subscribed resource that is accessible both on and off campus, simply append the proxy prefix to the front of the resource link.

<http://www.jstor.org/stable/10.5951/mathteacher.108.5.0376>

BECOMES

<http://proxy.lib.miamioh.edu/login?url=http://www.jstor.org/stable/10.5951/mathteacher.108.5.0376>

Do NOT put the prefix on the front of MUL re-direct URLs (<http://www.lib.miamioh.edu/indexes/redirect/>). Re-direct URLs automatically push the patron through the proxy without the prefix.

Proxy Prefix in LibGuides

In LibGuides, there are three ways to use the proxy prefix for off-campus access.

Choose one option from the right.

Re-direct URL

1. Use one of the redirect URLs copied from the Databases A to Z list (<http://www.lib.miamioh.edu/indexes/redirect/>)
2. Do not add the proxy prefix (<http://proxy.lib.miamioh.edu/login?url=>) to the front of the URL.
3. Click the DISABLED button next to the "Proxy" entry in the link editing box (see below).

BrowZine

Miami has purchased a subscription to BrowZine (for iPad and Android) beginning with the 2013/2014 school year.

The BrowZine knowledge base is available here.

Support for iPad/iPad Mini

- Requires iOS version 5.1.1
- Runs best on an iPad 3 & 4 and iPad Mini or newer

Support for Android

- Requires OS version Ice Cream Sandwich or newer (Jelly Bean, etc.)
- Runs best on Google Nexus, Samsung Galaxy Tab and Note; Amazon Kindle Fire HD
- Currently the Android version lacks a few of the features available for the iPad version:
  - Show Journal in Library feature (see where a title is on the shelves)
  - When sending to other services (DropBox, Box.com, etc. file is not renamed with metadata)

How to Use BrowZine

1. Download BrowZine from the app store (iPad) or Google Play (for Android).
2. Find Miami University in the institution list.
3. You will be prompted to enter your unique ID and password.
4. BrowZine will set up your library for use with Miami's holdings.

E-Book Changes - Oxford Reference

Oxford Reference Online Changes

As of July 1, 2013, Oxford Reference Online titles are no longer available. OhioLINK did not renew the subscription to these leased titles.

There are still a small subset of ORO titles that were purchased outright which will remain available in the EBC.

Click here for a spreadsheet of all remaining titles as well as titles that are no longer accessible.

As of September 2012, our Oxford Digital Reference and Oxford Reference Online e-books are now all accessible through the single Oxford Reference platform.

Both platforms will continue to function through December 12, 2012. The old Oxford Reference Online and Oxford Digital Reference Shelf sites will be turned off permanently on December 12.

The URLs for individual titles have changed and will need to be updated in LibGuides.

Oxford University Press currently has re-directs in place for the old URLs which will work through December 2012.
