JUDGE GHOLSON SELLS HIS NIGGERS
The Warranty Deeds in his Own Handwriting.

Let the "Christian Anti-Slavery Convention" Be called Together Again.

What will Professor Peck Say? Where is Giddings?

[From the Ohio Statesman.]

Below will be found two deeds of conveyance made by Wm. Y. Gholson and Elvira his wife, by which they convey one negro boy NED to Sarah K. Daggett, and one negro boy DAVY to Stephen Daggett, the vendors warranting the title and soundness of said negro boys. These deeds are duly acknowledged according to the laws of Mississippi, and placed on record in the county of Pontotoc, in said State. These sale bills, or deeds, are in the handwriting of Judge Gholson himself, and are now in the possession of the editor of the Cleveland National Democrat. This is the way that Judge Gholson manumitted his patrimonial slaves. He parted company with these two boys for the sum of $1,400 to him in cash paid, and he left them in Mississippi, slaves for life, while he made his way to Cincinnati with the money in his pockets. That is what the Hamilton county delegates to the Republican State Convention call selling his negroes free, and by which story they completely captured Old Giddings, and he gave his orders that Swan must be defeated, Spaulding laid aside, and Gholson nominated. It is now quite clear that Gholson cheated Giddings and all the "Saints" at the Republican Convention. He permitted his friends to lie for him, was nominated by base fraud, and for this alone he stands before the people of Ohio a disgraced man, wholly unfit for any post of trust and confidence, and in the highest degree unworthy to sit upon the Supreme Bench of our State. And this is what comes of Republican falsehood and knavery at the State Convention. But to the sale bills or deeds.—Here they are with cumulative testimony, that he sold another negro boy, Ras, to one Geo. W. Payne. We extract them from the National Democrat:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we William Y. Gholson and Elvira Gholson, for and in consideration of Seven Hundred Dollars to us in cash paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged, have bargained and sold, and do hereby bargain and sell unto Sarah K. Daggett, wife of Stephen Daggett, ONE NEGRO BOY NAMED NED, a SLAVE FOR LIFE, aged about 22 years, to have and to hold in absolute property: And we warrant the title and soundness of said negro boy.

Given under our hands and seals this 16th day of December, 1844.

In addition to the above, we have the affidavit of Henry Duke, taken before the Clerk of the United States District Court of Mississippi, that he is now the owner of another slave sold by Gholson to George W. Payne sold to Duke, and another affidavit, signed by five gentlemen of standing in Pontotoc, taken before the same Clerk, establishing the fact of Gholson being the owner of slaves in Mississippi, and of his sale of them. They read as follows:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Northern District of Mississippi.

Personally appeared before me, R. W. Edmonson, Clerk of the District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi, this day, Henry Duke, who being by me duly sworn the truth to speak, states that he knows that William Y. Gholson, who formerly lived in this town and State, but now resides in Ohio, did while in this State OWN SLAVES, and that he, said Gholson, SOLD A SLAVE NAMED RAS to one George W. Payne, and that he conveyed to said Payne bill of sale to said named slave. That he, said Duke, is now the owner of said negro slave RAS, and that he paid to said Gholson the amount of the purchase money for said Payne.

HENRY DUKE.

CENTRE SHOTS FROM THE NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

ANXIOUS ENQUIRIES.

Where is the Christian Anti-Slavery Convention? Where is Professor Peck and his special Providence? Where is Giddings with his negroes to hang all slave owners and slave dealers as pirates? What will they do with the man that sold "Davy" and "Ned" and "Ras," and the rest of Gholson's slaves?

We know where black "Davy" and black "Ned" are,—they are still in Pontotoc county, Mississippi, where Gholson sold them, but we want to know the other Davy and the other Ned are, politically, just now—the Davy K. Carters and the Edward Wades?

Do they go for a slave dealer for Supreme Judge?

What Would Joshua do with Gholson?

Joshua R. Giddings, as the commander-in-chief of the Abolition forces, has given out, in his pronouncements and to Ralph Plumb, that the men who follow a negro into a free State to arrest him should be given over to the negroes to be hung as pirates.

If such is to be the fate of a man who wishes to bring his slaves back to their old home, what should be the fate of the man who, while pretending to be an Abolitionist, sold his slaves to the highest bidder—separating families while thus dealing in "human flesh and blood?"

Can Joshua give us a letter on this subject?

Blondin's Last Exploit at Niagara.

It was a wild, mad feat performed by Mons. Blondin, and the man who backed him, at Niagara, Wednesday afternoon. It was estimated that there were fully 25,000 spectators present. The Buffalo Republic thus describes the performance:

At about half-past four o'clock, M. Blondin rode into the enclosure on the American side, and with but a few moments delay, started across the river. After going about one-third the length of the rope, he went through some posturing, and then, proceeding a few feet farther, laid his pole down on the rope, with the ends secured by being thrust under the guys, and stood with his head on the pole; passing along a little farther he again stood on his head; then walking on to where the guys from the Canada side are attached to the rope, he secured his pole by putting the ends under the guys and binding it to the rope with his handkerchief, and returning to the middle of the rope where there are no guys, he swung his body below the rope while clinging to the latter with his hands, and passed his body back and forth between his arms; he then hung by one leg to the rope, then with both legs; then by one arm; after which he regained his pole, and passed on, stopping once or twice to repeat the feat of standing on his head, etc. He was received on the Canada side with loud and prolonged cheering, which was replied to by those on the American shore.

M. Blondin remained about half an hour on the Canada side before starting on his return. In the meantime there was much speculation on the American shore as to the probability of his attempting to return with a man on his back.—Hundreds were willing to wager that he wouldn't; and we learn that considerable money did change hands in consequence of the exhibition that soon took place; for M. Blondin made his appearance on the rope with a man on his back! Such an excitement as was then manifested we never before witnessed. There was a rude contention for the occupancy of places from which the best view of the rope could be had. The anxiety to see, on the part of many, was greater than their sense of decorum; and there were hundreds who could get but occasional glimpses of the wonderful feat that was taking place over that dreadful chasm.

M. Blondin proceeded very slowly down the descent of the rope, and when he had gone about one hundred feet, the man descended from his back, and stood upon the rope, at the same time holding on to M. Blondin, who preserved the balance of both. After stopping a few moments,

Why he Turned Abolitionist.

When Judge Gholson sold his slaves, negroes were at a low figure—prices were declining. He got but $1,400 for two boys, "Davy" and "Ned." Now they would be worth double that amount. Is it not possible that the Judge, believing that he was cheated out of his "chattels," turned Abolitionist to avenge his wrongs?

"Oh! Big Stowe—Little Stowe, Harriet and Beecher! What a funny world we live in! Is Gholson for a 'screecher.' And Gholson wants an office now from either you or I for acting on the principle of 'root hog or die.'"

Good Forms to Follow.

We commend the "Bills of Sale" in to-day's paper, to such of our Abolition friends as choose to follow Gholson's example in buying and selling negroes. They will be found to contain all the usual warrants of "slave for life," "soundness," &c. Cannot Mr. Giddings give us a letter on the subject, showing up their advantage to the "profession?"

Party Acquisitions.

The Ohio State Journal seems disposed to twit the Democracy with its indebtedness to the old whig party for furnishing it so respectable a member as Mr. Speaker Woods. The Journal might have added the names of hosts of other gallant men who, year after year, continue to unite themselves with the Democracy in preference to holding membership in "a contemptible Abolition party!" But then, the State Journal should remember that the Republicans have had some remarkable acquisitions from the camp of the Democracy.

Where, for instance, did it get the satirical which preserves the purity of the Republican party? To whom is it indebted for its discreet leader? Who but spaulding harmonises the discordant elements of their party, and saves it from commotion? To be unimpaired of an acquisition such as his, shows a remarkable lack of grateful appreciation on the part of the State Journal.

Choice Poetry.

Many Things that Adam Missed.

Adam never knew what 'twas to be a boy,
To wheedle penials from a doating sire,
With which to barter for some pleasing toy,
Or calm the rising of a strong desire
To suck an orange. Nor did he Ever cast the shuttle cock to battledore,
Nor wore his trousers ever out at knee,
Nor playing marbles on the kitchen floor,
He never skated o'er the frozen rill,
When winter's covering o'er the earth was spread;
Nor glided down the slippery hill,
With pretty girls on his trusty sled.

He never swung upon his father's gate,
Or slept in sunshine on the cellar door,
Nor roasted chestnuts at the kitchen grate,
Nor spun his humming top upon the floor,
He never amused himself with rows of bricks,
Sc set if one fall, all come down;
Nor gazed delighted at the funny tricks
Of harlequin or travelling clown,
By gradual growth he never reached the age,
When cruel Cupid first invoked his art,
On the glowing tablets of a youngling's heart.

He never wandered forth on moonlight nights,
With her he loved above all earthly things,
Nor tried to mount old Pindar's rocky heights
Because he fancied love had lent him wings,
He never tripped it o'er the hall-room floor,
Where love and music entwines their charms,
Nor wandered listless by the sandy shore,
Debarred the pleasures of his lady's arms,
For Adam—so at least 'tis said,
By many an ancient and modern sage,
Before a moment of his life had fled,
Was full thirty years of age.

Interesting Variety.

A California Sirocco.

Friday last, the 17th inst., will be long remembered by the inhabitants of Santa Barbara, from the burning, blasting heat experienced that day, and the effects thereof; indeed, it is said that for the space of thirty years, nothing in comparison has been felt in this county, and we doubt, in any other. The sun rose like a ball of fire on that day; but though quite warm no inconvenience was caused thereby until two o'clock in the afternoon, when suddenly a blast of heated air swept through our streets, followed quickly by others, and shortly afterwards the atmosphere became so intensely heated, that no human being could withstand its force—all sought their dwellings, and had to shut doors and windows, and remain for hours confined to their dwellings. The effects of such intense and unparalleled heat was demonstrated by the death of calves, rabbits, birds, &c., &c. The trees were all blasted, and the fruit, such as pears and apples, literally roasted on the trees as they fell to the ground, and the same as if they had been cast on live coals; but, strange to say, they were only burned on one side—that is, the direction from whence came the wind. All kinds of metal became so heated, that for hours nothing of the kind could be touched with the naked hands.—The thermometer rose nearly to fever heat—in the shade, but near an open door; and during the prevalence of this properly called sirocco, the streets were filled with impenetrable clouds of fine dust, or pulverized clay. Speculation has been since rife to ascertain the cause of such a terrible phenomenon; but though we have heard of many plausible theories thereon, we have not been fully convinced yet; however, that might be, we see its terrible effects all around us, in blighted trees, ruined gardens, blasted fruit, and almost a general destruction of the vegetable kingdom here. We hope we will never see the like again.—Santa Barbara Gazette.

Newark Advocate.

the man again mounted the rope-walker's back, and after being carried a short distance farther, again dismounted, but as before, soon got on again, when the two continued their perilous journey. M. Blondin several times appeared to stagger, as if the great effort was much for him; and when he was going over the part of the rope where there are no guys, his manner induced in nearly all an apprehension that he would fall.—He reached, however, after stopping several times to rest, the American side without accident, and was greeted by the thousands assembled, with long continued and thundering applause.—He was entirely exhausted, and unable to speak for some moments. There was a great rush up to the rope to see and greet him; and the two fearless men who had incurred so much hazard to furnish excitement for the multitude, were borne to their carriage upon the shoulders of a few of the more vigorous and enthusiastic.

The gentleman whom M. Blondin carried across, is his agent, Mr. Henry Colcord; and who, in allowing himself to be carried across, exhibited as much if not more daring than M. Blondin himself, for, had there any accident happened, Mr. Colcord would have been the most liable to lose his life, as he had less chance of saving himself by catching hold of the rope.

We omitted to state in the proper place, that M. Blondin was forty-two minutes in crossing with his Agent on his back, the first half of the distance having been accomplished in twenty-two minutes, and the other half in twenty. It was about half-past six when the numerous assemblage disappeared.

It is said that next week Blondin will cross the river, carrying with him a cook stove and utensils, and will, when in the centre of the rope, cook omelets for the passengers of the Maid of the Mist lying below him.

The Tigers of Singapore.

A traveling correspondent of the New Hampshire Patriot says:

"The island of Singapore lies at the eastern end of the Straits, and is twenty-five miles long by fourteen broad. The meaning of the word Singapore is the Place of Lions, which for a long time has been an inappropriate term, since lions have become obsolete, and their place being supplied by tigers. A considerable number live in the tall grass and jungle in different parts of the island, but the greater part swim over from the peninsula, from which it is separated by a strait a mile wide. When pressed by hunger, as they often are, they swim over to the island, and concealing themselves in the grass and thickets, watch the Malays and Chinese when they go to their fields to labor, and springing upon them, strike a single blow on the back of the neck, which produces instant death by breaking it. It is stated in books and newspapers, and upon inquiry I was told it was true by the most respectable inhabitants that between three and four hundred Chinese and Malays are killed every year by these ferocious monsters. While we were waiting at Singapore the arrival of Mr. Ward, our Minister to China, a large tiger was killed, and his body brought into the town for the inspection of the curious. Though a large reward is offered by the government of the island for every one taken, whether dead or alive, besides which the skin is worth $50, no progress has been made towards exterminating them, or even diminishing their number."

A Living Head at a Dead Body.

Mr. Archibald Campbell, a respectable farmer in the township of Camden East, while engaged in finishing a new dwelling on his premises, the scaffold gave way, and he was precipitated head foremost to the ground, and dislocated his neck, but very fortunately and mysteriously it did not kill him. When his head was brought into its position, the veterans of the neck returned to their place with a dull but distinct snap. The whole body is paralyzed and dead from the neck downwards. He is not capable of moving a muscle or experiencing the slightest pain. Fortunately the nerves supplying the muscles used in respiration were not paralyzed, and he can breathe and live. Had the injury of the spinal cord been a little higher, he would have died immediately. The sense of sight, hearing, smelling, &c., are normal, and his intellect is unimpaired. Mr. Campbell has been for a number of years the victim of a series of misfortunes.

DISTRICT NOMINATIONS.

The Democratic District Convention which assembled at Fredericktown, on Friday last, nominated W. L. TIRRELL, Esq., of Morrow County, for State Senator, and ABSALOM THURTELL, Esq., of Knox County, for member of the Board of Equalization. These are most excellent nominations, and will receive the hearty support of the Democracy of the District. The Convention was largely attended, and we have never seen more harmony and good feeling prevail in a deliberative body. The nominations were made by acclamation, amidst a scene of the most perfect unanimity we have ever witnessed, affording unmistakable evidence of the determination of the people to put down Abolitionism in Ohio.

Mr. TIRRELL resides at Mt. Gleed, and is a lawyer by profession. We had the pleasure of making his acquaintance at the Convention and were much pleased with his frank, cordial, open-hearted deportment. He makes a good impression at first acquaintance, and after all it is the time test by which to judge of character.

Mr. T. was raised at Fredericktown, and taught school there for several years. As evidence of his popularity we may state that every person we conversed with, both Democrats and Republicans spoke of him in the highest terms of praise, and expressed a determination not only to vote for, but to work for his election. Mr. T. is a gentleman of fine talents, a good public speaker, and a sound National Democrat. He has an utter abhorrence of the Abolitionists, led on by Joshua R. Giddings, who wish to place the negro upon a social and political equality with the white race, and are now seeking by their nullifying, treasonable, revolutionary acts, to bring about a dissolution of this glorious Union.

Mr. THURTELL, our nominee for the Board of Equalization, is so well and so favorably known to the citizens of Knox county, of all parties, that no eulogy is necessary to bring his good qualities to the notice of the public. He is an honest and upright man, and has faithfully and promptly filled every trust that has been imposed upon him by the people. His excellent good sense, correct judgment, and practical knowledge of our State affairs, are ample guaranty that he will make an active and influential member of the Board of Equalization.

WHICH ARE WE TO BELIEVE?

One of the Hamilton county Delegates to the late Black Republican State Convention, in a long communication to the Cincinnati Commercial states most positively that no member of that delegation said that Judge Gholson was an Abolitionist, or in any manner sympathized with the Abolitionists of the State; but on the contrary, when asked how Judge Gholson would decide in regard to the Fugitive Slave law, they replied that they believed he would decide precisely just as Judge Swan did.

On the other hand, Joshua R. Giddings, the High Priest of Abolitionism in Ohio, is equally positive in his declarations that the Cincinnati delegation pledged to him that Judge Gholson was a full blooded Abolitionist and as evidence of this fact, (to quote the words of Mr. Giddings himself), "had liberated his paternal slaves—thus proving himself a practical Abolitionist."

Now, which of these statements are the voters of Ohio to believe? Either Giddings lies under a mistake, or the Cincinnati delegation are practicing a gross fraud upon the public. Both statements cannot be true; and unless Judge Gholson defines his position clearly and unmistakably, either the Giddings Abolitionists or the Corwin Whigs will be prodigiously cheated.

"My Two Handsome Daughters."

We notice by our exchange papers that Mr. "Felix Marib," the gentleman who recently bore our Republican fellow-citizens with a ridiculous attempt at a speech, is repeating the same silly yarn in other places, and telling the old story about his "two handsome daughters." Felix is evidently a very soft place in his cranium; and this is the reason why he makes a capital Republican orator. Go it, Felix!

The freight and passenger depot of the Syracuse and Binghamton Railroad at Chenango Forks, together with all the freight, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night.

GOLSON, THE SLAVE DEALER!

THE OVERWHELMING RECORD

The Abolitionists Boiling Over with Indignation.

The Ohio State Journal, and the Gazette and Commercial, of Cincinnati, are boiling over with indignation, because the Democratic press of Ohio has published the truth in regard to Judge Gholson having SOLD HIS SLAVES. This is a monstrous piece of impudence on the part of the Democratic press—a gross outrage upon the feelings of Mr. Gholson—a mendacious attempt to destroy the harmony of the Black Republican party!

When the Abolition State Convention decapitated Judge Swan because he would not virtually perjure himself, by nullifying the Constitution and Laws of the country, Giddings, the chief executioner, demanded a more pliant tool for Judge of the Supreme Court—a man who would decide just as Oberlin dictated. The Abolitionists from the southern portion of the State presented Judge Gholson as the very man for the emergency; but old Gid demanded pledges of his soundness on the nigger question. Any amount of pledges were given, accompanied by an assurance that Judge Gholson was a full-blooded Abolitionist, and had emancipated his slaves before leaving Mississippi. Giddings and Oberlin were satisfied, and Gholson was nominated!

But now behold the sequel! The editor of the Memphis Avalanche, who was personally cognizant of the facts stated in his paper that Judge Gholson did not liberate his slaves, but sold them! The Abolition press declared that this was all a lie; that the Memphis editor was an abominable slanderer! Next came the letter of Mr. E. W. Rootes, the Deputy U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Mississippi, certified to by R. W. Edmondson, Clerk of the District Court, addressed to Marshal Johnson, of Ohio, declaring most positively of his own knowledge, that Judge Gholson DID SELL HIS SLAVES before leaving Mississippi for Ohio! But the Abolitionists asserted that there was no such man as Rootes, that he was "a myth," &c.

But to settle the matter beyond all controversy or cavil, the deeds of condescension were produced and published, whereby Judge Gholson and Elvira his wife, "bargained and sold," their negro boys named Ned and Davey, as "SLAVES FOR LIFE," and warranted the title and soundness of the negroes!

This was a perfect clincher! It knocked the noise completely out of the Abolitionists! It is impossible for them to deny the truth any longer; for public records prove themselves. Judge Gholson, therefore, stands on record as a "NEGRO SELLER," and an "INHUMAN DEALER IN HUMAN FLESH," to quote the accustomed language of the Abolitionists themselves!

What a beautiful picture this is to contemplate! Here is a candidate of the Black Republican Abolitionists of Ohio, who was nominated under the pretense and cheat that he was an emancipationist, now appearing before the public in his true character of a SLAVE DEALER! Read the record on the first page of this week's Banner, and then show it to your neighbors, especially those conscientious (?) Abolitionists, who shriek so long and so loud about the "Pro-Slavery Democracy." Ask them if they can, as men pretending to be honest and conscientious, vote for Judge Gholson, the NEGRO SELLER!

The Ohio Farmer.

This paper, although an able and interesting agricultural journal, is a little too much tinged with Black Republicanism, to be consistent with its professions of political neutrality. The editor, Mr. Brown, is a clever gentleman, personally, but a very decided Abolitionist. We have noticed a great many puffs of Abolition candidates for office in the Farmer, but we have no recollection of having seen a favorable word in its columns respecting a single nominee of the Democratic party. A persistence in this course of conducting his paper, on the part of Mr. Brown, must be regarded as an invitation to the Democratic farmers of Ohio to withdraw their support from the Farmer.

That no one can accuse us of unfairness towards the Farmer, we copy the following fulminating puff of Mr. Bonar, the Abolition candidate for Senator in this district:

SENATORS.—The Republicans of Knox and Morrow counties, in Ohio, have nominated William Bonar for the Senate. We are glad of it, and hope he will be elected by a rolling majority. He is a farmer, an intelligent, enterprising farmer. He don't chew tobacco, drink whiskey, play cards, nor swear; nor do we think he will be likely to fall into any of these habits, by spending two winters at Columbus, even if he should take his wife along to watch him. In short, he is a gentleman, and a Christian, and all the interests of the farmer will be safe in his hands. We understand that Dr. Sprague, formerly Secretary of the State Board of Ohio, has also been nominated for the Senate of that State. We are sure that the farmers of his district could cast their votes for no more reliable gentleman. We go for Messrs. Bonar and Sprague, and all such men, without reference to their politics.

We have a candidate for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket, in this county, who is a practical farmer, and an intelligent, upright, honorable man, who neither "chews tobacco, drinks whiskey, plays cards, nor swears," and although he is a patron of the Farmer, that paper, we feel confident, will not say a single kind word in his favor. We allude to Lawrence Van Buskirk, Esq., who is a "gentleman and a Christian," as well as Mr. Bonar; and he will not have to "take his wife along to watch him," when he goes to Columbus, like some men we have heard tell of in the Republican ranks.

"Davy," "Ned," and "Ras."

The Portage Democrat, one of the most able and influential Republican papers on the Reserve, is determined not to be cheated into the support of Judge Gholson, unless he clearly defines his position in regard to the Slavery question. That paper admits that the Democratic press has so far made out a clear case against Judge Gholson having SOLD HIS NEGROES "Davy," "Ned," and "Ras." These charges, the Democrat says, are either true or false. If false, then they should be refuted; and if true "the Convention was imposed upon, and the people are deceived." The editor concludes by demanding that Judge Gholson's "position be at once relieved if it can be."

Judge Gholson took an active part in getting up the Union meeting of Democrats and Whigs, to sustain the Compromise Measures, including the Fugitive Slave Law, which was held in the City of Cincinnati, Nov. 14th, 1850. Senator Pugh says he signed the call for the meeting at the special request of Judge Gholson.

DISINGENUOUSNESS OF GOV. CHASE.

In his speeches throughout the State, Gov. Chase is endeavoring to create the impression that the robbery of the State treasury was exclusively the work of John G. Breslin, and to sustain him in this position he refers to the Report of Mr. Sparrow, but takes good care to pass over almost silently the more full and searching Report of Messrs. Morgan, Remelin and Edgerton, wherein was brought to light the fact that Gov. Chase's own State officers had their arms, up to the shoulders, in the State treasury.

Gov. Chase knows very well that Auditor Wright, Secretary Russell and Attorney General Wolcott, in their report upon the Middletown Reservoir, say that Gibson loaned that company $24,000 of the State money, pretending it to be his own, although that fact is not mentioned in Mr. Sparrow's Report.

Again, Mr. Wright swears [we quote now from the Statesman] that Gibson abstracted $100,000 of bonds, and raised about $60,000 upon them from Atwood & Co. Mr. Wright also swears that when he refused to endorse the notes which Gibson was to discount to purchase the Journal, Governor Chase sent Hamlin back to him with a letter stating that he might rely implicitly upon Hamlin's statements, "and also a willingness to guarantee me against any loss resulting from any accommodation extended to Mr. Hamlin."

Now, then, (asks the Statesman,) instead of going about with unblushing hardihood, certifying to the truth of Mr. Sparrow's report, why does not Mr. Chase take up the dishonored draft, representing the last of the notes? That dishonored draft is in the Treasury. Gov. Chase told Mr. Hamlin, that "the note was settled." But it has not been settled by paying back the people's money. Moreover, why is not the money which Hamlin paid put back into the Treasury? We have called upon the State Officers time and again for answers to these questions. We can get no satisfaction. Instead of going about the State telling incredible lies, why don't the State Officers take up a contribution, and pay that portion of the people's money taken to buy the Journal? In the face of the oaths and admissions of the State Officers, the man who sustains the assertion, that Breslin took all the money is either a fool or a scoundrel, and we expect the writer in the Journal, who is perpetually gabbling about the endorsement of Mr. Sparrow's report and the discrediting of that of Edgerton, Morgan and Remelin, is a good deal of both.

Black Republicans court the Foreign Vote.

The Black Republicans are now laboring, with all the cunning and hypocrisy they can command, to secure the vote of our adopted fellow citizens for their State and county tickets, nearly every candidate on which belonged to the wicked Knox Nothing organization, so long as it had an existence.

The following oath was taken by these beaus when they worshipped at the shrine of "Sam." Read it, Irishmen and Germans:

"I, of my own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, my left hand resting on my right breast, and my right hand extended to the flag of my country, do solemnly and sincerely swear, that if I may legally will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on me power to do so, Remove all Foreigners, Aliens, or Roman Catholics from Office or Place in my Gift. I do solemnly swear that this and all other obligations which I have previously taken shall ever be kept throughout life sacred and inviolate."

The Cleveland Herald, one of the oldest and ablest Republican papers in the Northern Ohio, not long since published the following choice editorial extract:

Waukeganist! Seven tenths OF THE FOREIGNERS IN OUR LAND, WHO BOY IN OBEDIENCE TO THE POPE OF ROME, ARE NOT AS INTELLIGENT AS THE FULL BLOODED AFRICANS OF OUR STATES—WE WILL NOT INCLUDE THE PART BLOODS. Yet should a move be made to curtail the Naturalization Laws, even to extending the residence of the most illiterate ignorant Foreigner that lands on our shores, SUCH A DIN WOULD BE RAISED BY THE DEMOCRATS AS WOULD DEAFEN THE STATE.

Let our adopted fellow-citizens carefully preserve the above quotations, and whenever the Black Republican Know Nothings come cozening around them, begging their votes, let them poke these precious extracts at the hypocrites; then put their thumbs to their noses and say, "you can't come it, boys, no how you can fix it."

Kirk on the Stump.

The "Eureka" doctor has taken the stump in the southern part of the State, but the people down there don't seem to have much relish for the doses of political quackery he is attempting to administer to them. He gassed at McConnellville on the 16th, and his display is thus alluded to by a correspondent of the Ohio Statesman:

Mr. Kirk appeared first before the audience now and then reading long extracts from his political scrap book. Kirk's object appeared to be to show up the inconsistencies of certain Democrats in the State and Nation. The after expression of many of his hearers was, that he possessed but little point or ability. He finally ran out of words and out of reading matter and retired, to the infinite delight and relief of his Republican friends. He made no friends that day.

We have heard rumors that the Republicans were endeavoring to get Kirk off their ticket. We hope they will not do it. He should be kept on by all means. We would not ask a more effective way of using a party up than to have it nominate such weak brethren as Robert C. Kirk.

IS WILLIAM BONAR A MAN OF TRUTH?

Let Himself Answer the Question.

From the Mt. Vernon Republican, July 14th: "I take occasion to say to him and all my friends that I am not an aspirant for that or any other office in the gift of the people."

"WM. BONAR."
From the Mt. Vernon Republican, Aug. 24th: "Thus, my fellow-citizens, I am fairly and squarely before you as a candidate for the office of Senator."
Comment is unnecessary.

The State of Jefferson.

The miners at Pike's Peak have adopted their State Constitution. They make no allusion to slavery. Of course we have accounts of discoveries of new gold mines. It is well understood now that there is gold in the Pike's Peak region, but it costs more than it is worth to get it.

The Governor elect of Kentucky enters upon the duties of his office on the fifth Tuesday succeeding the election. Mr. Magoffin will, therefore, be inaugurated on Tuesday the 30th of this month.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

RICHLAND COUNTY.—The Democracy of Old Richland have made the following admirable nominations, and we have no doubt but that they will elect them by a handsome majority, viz: For State Senator, James Cantwell; State Board of Equalization, George W. Urie; Representative, William Blucker; Sheriff, George Weaver; Recorder, Jas. E. Cox; Treasurer, Thos. Willett; Prosecuting, Mannel May; Commissioner, Chas. Anderson; Infirmary Director, A. L. Martin.

HOLMES COUNTY.—At the Democratic primary elections in this good and staunch Democratic county, Wm. S. Tannhill, Esq., was nominated for Representative, receiving 1557 out of the 1600 votes cast; Geo. F. Newton, for Auditor; Thomas B. Raif, for Treasurer; John French, for Sheriff; Lyman R. Critchfield, for Prosecuting Attorney; Joseph Edgar, for Surveyor; Henry E. Pounds, for Commissioner; and Wm. Snow, for Coroner.

LICKING COUNTY.—The Senatorial Convention of the Democracy of this District assembled at Johnstown, on Thursday last, and nominated Wm. P. Reid, Esq., of Delaware, for election to the State Senate. The same body nominated Benj. S. Critchett, of Licking county, for the Board of Equalization. The nominations are excellent ones.

NO GO.

Neighbor Cochran is endeavoring to resurrect the buried bones of Lecompton, and make them walk the earth, Bancho-like, to frighten Democrats! Come, Squire, it is entirely too late in the day for that kind of tomfoolery. Even the old women and little children will laugh at such nonsense. You had better employ your mighty intellect in explaining to your readers Judge Gholson's position on the great nigger question. Try that, Squire—do!

Carrying out his Principles.

Wm. B. Cox, the Black Republican candidate for Representative, being anxious to show his paramount love for the negro over the white race, employs negroes in preference to white men, in working in his shoe-shop in Fredericktown. There are several poor but honest white shoemakers in and around Fredericktown, who would like to have work in order to support their families, but they have to look elsewhere than to Mr. Cox for employment. Let white men remember this fact when they go to the polls to vote.

Advance in the Price of Negroes.

On the 15th inst., three negroes were sold in Huntsville, Ala., for cash, who brought in the sum of $4,150—average price, $1,383. A girl 17 years of age sold for $1,430, a boy 16 years old for $1,540, and a boy 12 years old for $1,200.

So it seems there has been a great advance in the price of negroes since Gholson sold his "human chattels," Davy, Ned and Ras, before leaving Mississippi. The Judge only obtained $700 for each of his "boys," although he warranted them sound and "slaves for life."

Douglas in Pennsylvania.

By the following despatch to the Pittsburgh Post, it will be seen that the Democracy of Berks county have chosen Douglas Delegates to the State Convention:

READING, Aug. 23. To the Pittsburgh Post.—The Democrats of Berks county this day elected four delegates to the State Convention, with instructions to support, as previously agreed, the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas.

Death of Hon. John W. Davis.

The telegraph reports the death of Hon. John W. Davis, of Indiana. Mr. Davis was Speaker of the House of Representatives which convened at Washington in 1845.

Major Heiss, of the Washington States, proposes, on the first of October next, to issue his paper under the title of The States and Union, in an enlarged and improved form. It will be the organ of the State Rights Democracy, and will support the claims of Senator Douglas to the Presidency. Price of the Daily $6; or two copies for $10; Semi-Weekly $3; Weekly $1.

Our old friend Rolleit Brinkerhoff, late editor of the Mansfield Herald, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for the Legislature in Richland county, after a warm contest. He is good looking but he can't come in.

The Pittsburgh Evening Chronicle, a live, spirited, readable newspaper, comes to us in a very handsome new dress. The Chronicle has a large circulation, and it richly deserves to have, for it is in all respects a most capital paper.

At the Black Republican Senatorial Convention in Fredericktown, last week, Mr. Bonar of Knox county, was nominated as candidate for State Senator, over Hon. Davis Miles of Morrow. Bonar is an old Abolitionist, having been identified with the Birney, and every other Abolition movement to the present day. Mr. Miles represented the conservative, and law-abiding portion of the Republican party, and has been disgraced fully "butchered" on that account. The final settlement is on the second Tuesday in October. Mr. Gleed Den.

Charles Sumner Again.

A cotemporary, evidently an admirer of the Massachusetts Senator, thus rejoices at the happy effects produced upon his shocked system by eminent surgeons in Europe:

We are pleased to hear that Hon. Charles Sumner is recovering. He is in Paris, where he has had his animal marrow taken out, turned, scraped, soaked in oil and replaced—his muscular membranes operated upon, his nerves taken out, aired and replaced, and is now in a fair way of recovery. He will resume his Senatorial duties, he says.

Foreigners, Remember!

The foreigners in casting their votes at the election should remember that the Black Republic of Massachusetts have attempted to degrade the naturalized citizen below the negro, by adopting an amendment to their constitution requiring foreigners to reside in the State two years after naturalization before they shall be entitled to the right of suffrage—while negroes "as black as the ace of spades," are allowed to vote after the residence of one year! Will the honest and intelligent foreigners vote with a party that would thus degrade them?

We rejoice to learn that our old friend Lawrence Van Buskirk has been nominated by the Democracy of Knox county as their candidate for Representative. He is one of the most upright and pure men in the State; a sound and reliable democrat; and we hope and believe he will be elected.—Cochscon Democrat.

Two of the finest yearling Grey Eagle colts—one owned by W. B. Mercer of this city, and the other owned by the editor of this paper, were killed on the P. & W. Chicago Railroad, on Monday evening of last week, a mile east of town.—Mansfield Herald.

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT CONVENTION

The Delegates appointed by the Democracy of Knox and Morrow counties, met by agreement previously made, at the Town Hall, in Fredericktown, on Friday, August 26th, 1859, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for State Senator, and a candidate for the State Board of Equalization.

The Convention was called to order by John Lavering, Esq., on whose motion WM. DUNBAR, Esq., of Knox, was chosen President and A. B. ISK, of Knox, and P. B. AYLES, of Morrow, were appointed Secretaries.

On motion, it was agreed that each county should have 22 votes in the Convention; and that each county should determine the manner in which they cast their vote.

On motion, a committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The chair appointed S. T. Critchfield, Robert Miller and Andrew Vance, of Knox, and J. A. Beebe and H. F. Randolph, of Morrow, said committee.

The Convention then took a recess until 1 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of Thomas Wade, of Knox, Wm. L. TIRRELL, Esq., of Morrow county, was unanimously nominated by acclamation for State Senator.

On motion of H. F. Randolph, of Morrow, ABSALOM THURTELL, Esq., of Knox, was unanimously nominated for the State Board of Equalization, by acclamation.

Mr. Tirrell, the nominee for Senator, was then called upon to address the Convention, and he promptly responded in an able and impressive speech, which gave great satisfaction.

Short speeches were also made by Messrs. Conolly, Banning, Harper, Adams and Critchfield.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we most heartily indorse the nominations and the platform of the Democratic State Convention, which assembled at Columbus, on the 26th May last, and we hereby pledge to them our cordial and zealous support.

Resolved, That the good feeling and unanimity that have prevailed in this Convention in the harmonious nominations for Senator and for the Board of Equalization, give unmistakable evidence of the triumph of the Democratic party in this district.

It was ordered that the proceedings of the Convention be published in the Democratic papers of the district.

After which, Wm. Dunbar, Esq., the President, addressed the Convention in a very happy and eloquent speech.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

WM. DUNBAR, Pres't.
A. B. ISK, P. B. AYLES, Secretaries.

The Next Legislature.

The St. Clairsville Gazette says that the Central Ohio Convention has issued an order, directed to the different counties of the State urging on their friends to return Chase men to the Legislature in all cases where they possibly can—so that if the Republican party should have a majority in the Senate and in the House Chase may be elected United States Senator, and Corwin and other radical and conservative men cut off.

The Chase and Giddings wing of the party managed and controlled the State Convention, and they are now getting ready to show a strong hand in the Legislature. Every act of Republicanism shows that Abolitionism is its vitalizing element, and will allow no persons holding such views to be elected to office, and will not permit them to be thoroughly imbued with affection for the African.

Gross Outrage by Baltimore Rowdies.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 23. The Sun of this morning publishes an account of a dreadful series of outrages perpetrated on Saturday night on board the steamboat Express, which left here on the same evening with a large company for the camp meeting at Choptank River. After getting some distance from port, a party of rowdies, rallying under the cries of "enough, enough," made an insupportable assault upon the white and colored passengers. Several were knocked down or horribly beaten. Some white men were robbed of their watches and money, the assailants blowing out the lights to prevent recognition. A colored man was stabbed and robbed, and his wife outraged and robbed. On Sunday morning the Sheriff of Dorchester county arrested four of the ring leaders and committed them to jail. One colored man is said to have died of his wounds.

Hugh Sullivan was shot in the head, and instantly killed last night, when on his way home about 12 o'clock. Several arrests have been made, and the coroner's inquest is now going on in investigating circumstances leading to the murder.

From the Albany Journal, Aug. 20.

The Troy Meteor.

Garratt Vanderpool, a well-known and highly respected farmer, lives about seven miles west of the city and one mile west of the Bethlehem Church. When at work in his barn on the morning of the mysterious commotion heretofore referred to, and about two minutes after the noise which attracted his attention had ceased, he heard what sounded like a small stone thrown against the side of his carriage-house. On looking up he saw the object fall, and at once picked it up. It is about the size of a pigeon's egg, broken through the center, and is fully persuaded that it is a part of the exploded meteor. Others also think so. It will be examined by competent judges, and the result promptly announced.

Correspondence of the Hartford Courant.

South Manchester, Aug. 18.

I notice in yesterday's issue of your paper an article respecting the meteoric appearance on the 13th inst. of a bright star, which was observed in the neighborhood of Troy on the morning of the 13th inst. About twenty minutes before 8 o'clock on the morning of that day, I was standing with a friend in a position facing the northern horizon, when our attention was attracted by a small bright object in the heavens—its light was equal to that of the sun in brightness, was seen about ten degrees west of the meridian and passing rapidly in a westerly direction when it disappeared for an instant, and then, on reappearing, seemed to explode. Its last appearance was an awful sight, and it is to be completed by the time, which would have rendered the phenomenon invisible to all except those whose attention for the moment happened to be directed to that particular portion of the heavens.

Bank of Chillicothe Thrown Out.

The Missouri Democrat states that the notes of the State Bank Branch at Chillicothe, Mo., were thrown out to-day, or what is equivalent thereto, put on its black-board at five per cent. discount. This is owing to the refusal of that bank to redeem its issues when presented. Other houses, also, talk of throwing it out. They say that the bank is all to be completed by the 15th day of November, 1859, or the 1st of October, A. D. 1860, as may be elected by the Commissioners. This to be made according to the work on all other banks is all to be completed by the 15th day of November, A. D. 1859.

Heard timber and plank to be put under such of the following bridges as the Commissioners may elect. The stone work is all to be similar to that under the Railroad bridges at Mt. Vernon, according to plans and specifications on file in the Auditor's office.

The bids to be so much per cubic yard for stone work, so much per cubic foot for hewed timber, and so much per 100 feet for plank, and to include the excavation, grading, &c., as may be agreed upon when completed, or as may be agreed upon.

Also, for furnishing the sawed lumber for each of the following bridges: at Meadell's, Ankenytown, Waterville, Beech Factory, Centerville, and at the crossing of Sycamore, between Morgan & Clay. From 5,000 to 10,000 feet will be required at each of said points. The lumber is all to be made of the best white oak timber—full, clear, straight-grained, and perfect in every respect, and of the length and size designated. Said lumber is to be delivered in good order, on or before the 15th of October, A. D. 1859.

The bids to be so much per 100 feet, to be paid for so that the proceeds can be used in paying taxes on all or any bids that may be made, either for doing work, furnishing materials as aforesaid, and of requiring security.

By order of the Commissioners,

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the people than this.

cessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, for that, no harm can be done by its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful disorder. This "CURE" expels the miasmata of poison of FEVER and AGUE from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms.

for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in billious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all — the poor as well as the one of the great discoveries of the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quininism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from

It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be exceedingly beneficial and prevent accumulation of sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

the relief of Consumptive Patients in the advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons for whom it has been so much recommended, and who have been cured of the disease of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is so apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affection of the pulmonary organs that are incident to the climate. While many inferior remedies are used up, the patient is gradually being discarded, and gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

Threshing Machines.

M. C. FURLONG & SAVAGE,
Manufacturers of Threshing Machines, with Steam
Patent Celebrated Separator and Cleaner.

THIS MACHINERY is the most simple in construction, and perfect in its operation of any machine that has ever come under our observation, and the least liable to get out of repair.

With this Separator we use the Olivo torre Pow, which is double geared and very strong. Also, the Mt. Vernon Power, a single geared power, simple in construction and runs very light and easy; easy to load and light to haul. Also, the Tumbling Sh Power, running with tumbling shafts, 20 inch cylinder, a good machine, very hard to be beat for ease running, or amount and perfection of work done.

Also, the Excelsior Power, a single geared machine, which we fitted up the last season, and upon tri-proves to be unexcelled by any power in use. It is simple, substantial and the lightest running of a in our knowledge.

With the above Powers and Separators we use 17 and 20 inch cylinders, just to suit purchasers. All work warranted. Repairing done with neatness and despatch.
