ECI CONFERENCE PUTS SPOTLIGHT ON IDENTITY THEFT

Electronic Crime Institute Program Director Bryan Burkhardt welcomed participants to the Institute's 2010 seminar about personal steps to take to protect against fraud and identity theft. More than 120 people packed into the Lakeview Room of Bldg. 7 for the half-day conference where they heard from fraud investigators, attorneys and personal identity protection specialists about ways to safeguard their personal information.

Des Moines Attorney Tre Critelli talks with conference attendees about Ponzi and pyramid schemes and ways to prevent and resolve identity theft issues if they become identity theft crime victims.

Steve Switzer, investigator with the Consumer Protection Division of the Iowa Attorney General's Office, explained phishing issues and methods that cyber criminals use to steal a person's identity.

CARROLL CAMPUS HOSTS FREE SEMINAR

DMACC's Carroll Campus is offering a free two-hour seminar on “Prospects for Democracy in the Middle East.” The seminar will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Fri., Feb. 19 in Room 124 on the DMACC Carroll Campus. DMACC Professor Dr. Mark Maggio is the presenter.

DMACC invites you to participate in a discussion of recent efforts to promote democracy in the Middle East, particularly in Iraq and Afghanistan, where the U.S. currently has troops on the ground.

The seminar will explore the question: Is every society ready for democracy? This seminar will help participants sort through various claims, goals and reasons for U.S. involvement in these societies, including the justification that bringing democracy to the Middle East will reduce radicalization there and terrorism abroad.

A lunch will be provided. If interested in attending, please contact Dr. Maggio at memaggio@dmacc.edu.
