

The Contributors

Michael D. H. Asis, PhD is a professor and former chair of the Ateneo Theology department. He is a three-time finalist in the CMMA Cardinal Sin book awards for the years 2010, 2012, 2017. He is also a regular TV and radio commentator on Church issues. Currently, he is completing a book on Filipino Christology and the role of faith in the sacraments. <masis@ateneo.edu>

Mark Joseph Calano is an assistant professor of philosophy, the coordinator for Research and Creative Works of the School of Humanities, and a Loyola Schools campus minister at the Ateneo de Manila University. He holds degrees in philosophy, religious studies, and applied linguistics from Saint Louis University and the Ateneo de Manila University. His research interests include philosophy of religion and popular religiosity. <mcalano@ateneo.edu>

Jovino de Guzman Miroy teaches at the Philosophy Department, School of Humanities, Ateneo de Manila University. He is author of Tracing Nicholas of Cusa's Early Development: The Relationship between De concordantiacatholica and De doctaignorantia (Peeters 2009). He finished his PhD from the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (Belgium). His current research includes interdisciplinary work in philosophy, international relations, and art and culture. <jmiroy@ateneo.edu>

Leonardo R. Silos was a faculty member of the Asian Institute of Management from 1984 to 2001 upon his retirement. He is an author of books on management and organization, with emphasis on Asian as distinguished from Western management and organization. The forthcoming book is the eighth on the subject. <lrsilos@gmail.com>

V. Fullente Suarez has a Licentiate in Philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University (Rome), and teaches Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University, San Carlos Seminary, and Mother of Good Counsel Seminary. He serves as Parish Vicar at the Sto. Niño de Pandacan Parish in Manila. His interests and writings are in the fields of Metaphysics, Philosophy of Religion, Philosophical Theology, and Filipino culture from a religious Philosophy perspective. <vfsuarez@gmail.com>