My dear Mr. Amsler:

On behalf of the National Museum I take much pleasure in acknowledging the insignia of the 82nd Division, American Expeditionary Forces, during the World War, which you recently forwarded as the result of our previous correspondence.

The specimen is an interesting and desirable addition to our collections where it has been duly recorded as a gift in your name. Please be assured of our appreciation of your thoughtful and generous interest in presenting this specimen.

Very truly yours,

A. Wetmore
