Top 10 Ways to Put STARS to Work for You

◆ Maximize Readership

Add works by, for, or about UCF to STARS, the institutional repository for materials created during your time at the University.

◆ Showcase Expertise

Build an institutionally branded, online scholarly presence with SelectedWorks to showcase your scholarship and highlight your background and accomplishments. Import works from STARS and upload your non-UCF materials.

◆ Launch Journals

Use commercial-grade peer-review tools to spearhead online journals.

◆ Host Events

Create a website presence and host associated materials for an event, conference, or workshop.

◆ Manage Grant Outputs

Meet funder mandates, increase transparency, and manage grant outputs online.

◆ Support a Variety of Materials

Support innovative work encompassing multiple formats such as digital projects, open educational resources, and class research projects.

◆ Measure Impact

Access your interactive author dashboard to view real-time download information for every work you submit, as well as global insights into the sources of readership.

◆ Empower Students

Share this information with your students. STARS and SelectedWorks features are available for them to highlight and reflect on their work and experiences at UCF.

◆ Learn More

Visit the STARS FAQ at <http://stars.library.ucf.edu/faq.html> or email STARS@ucf.edu
