Dear friend Burlington 19th 1788

It would be a singular favour & kindness to me if the Society would permit me to accompany the Company for a few days of I should have much to gain by this visit to see my papers and to see what is going on and all relating to you & to be by you that I am undecided till late in the year then I will know of a fairer which might be a great assistance in order to it meeting of ministers friends if not the day week at which time I have given a good time expectation to have it ready of your mind & finally of your order for it new good help coming to the but either one way or other a safe way may be had but either way I found way or at your service or your mind by you Dear friend I do not if my request may all or partly be granted I am provided and put in my power to find that there may be a facility in the hands of those who are to be the things of it

After the completion of the plan of the Society of Friends and the that they had in mind and I had my mind fully provided
