Amos 1/1883

9 Sep a month 1683

my Dear old mother and good friend Kettle remember my very Dear brother Joseph remember to you and to Phineas and to ffbp and abigail and Joseph and to James Weston and his wife and our ann lewis and my Dear brother Joseph moses and to that Thomas lewis & Josiah both be so favorable to Kettle for he will be so favorable with you / and I hope coming over to you my friends would not have me to go so far and as for my master I have not reason to complain on him yet short of what Phineas was in his place and as for Thomas Fitzroy he doth much what as he did but he bid money at the house which put my master to some inconvenience for he offered more money for it than we gave and if for neighbors I have been very loving to me since you went and your old customs come still to me for if I love if hard to you and if you remember your love to desire to be remembered to you again and many of y^r gifts you thanks for your good counsell and as concerning halfe hoops of meal and my table my master says he wil pay Phineas in 6 shillings when he pays him the Rest and yet to Richard Walker and his wife Remember them Dear love to you and he is hardly well or else he says he would have hitte himselfe and his wife says she wold be glad to see you againe all Radcliffe being and son Rich: and Rich: crop Dorly to be remembered to you and Peter Jordan Dorly to be remembered to you and I must see y^r sister Elizabeth but I hear say that she is at home is wont to be and as John flocher is dead and Rich: Doutson of Apple Jams Adams he his Dear love has sent you here a token one single penny and Mary has sent you one Joseph either a single spone in Remembrance of her Dear love to you both
