And Am: My dear friends whose remembrance lives with me and whose love was ever precious to me with you both together or asunder my love with my wife I kindly salutes you both hoping of your welfare and prosperity in the Lord god in whom our love often reaches to you ever say and send it abounds towards you our friends though outwardly far removed and separated from our year you are near to us in spirit in which we in our measures can reach to you blessed be the Lord god for ever this praying hath all the faithful they can for all beyond words and joy one another far beyond all expression walk to you our dear and dear friends our love frothy reaches at this hour and with kisses and kisses of sincere love we kindly salute you both and also desire you in our name kindly to salute your dear mother if she be yet alive also papa and his dear wife and sweet baby salute with our dear love for indeed we dearly love you all and desire your welfare as our own our love to Christ and to Christ and to his and to the rest of your family remember our dear love also give the ordered and bar dial salutation of our love to our dear friend William
