Dear Bro:

Liverpool 19th 4th mo: 82 thine we have ~~not~~ and we are glad of it, and more especially because you were well, also little dun that there is ye here that the may recover, by those ~~you~~ you may understand that we are all well, but think the time long that stay here, but that is not all, ~~we~~ know not when we got away, for there is many things in the way to tedious to inform, but I have thoughts to be at your month ting to morrow, and if any of you be there I can tell more at large, I have delivered the letter inclosed to the man I ~~intend~~ intend to write forth wth; according to thy req.

I have taken abire, I went to Henry Thorne and did arg him here forth ~~with~~ went to one of the custom men to advise him about it, and in short returned me the answer, he if thou canst prove that the man did engage to carry goods to Barbadoes, upon his neglect thou maist recover what damage ^{thou} wast, if it be more than the worth of goods, remember us very dearly to dear Mrs. Phoebe to those little ones, and let him know that I cannot yet him a full answer, because I know not how things will be, I if I can see him at the meeting I may ~~write~~ write more to him, so with dear love to thy selfe thy dear wife and whole family being always glad to hear from you, but m especially of your health and well being wth is heartily desired by us in w^{ch} we bid you farewell, and remains our loving Bro: & Sister in that w^{ch} first brought into acquaintance
