A resubscription card for individual subscribers was included in the September-October 1979 issue of the Review, to have been returned by 1 February 1980. To date cards have been received from only about 25 percent of our readers. If you have not returned your card (and wish to continue to receive the Review) please let us hear from you at once.

Our thanks to the many readers who included suggestions and comments on their cards. The returns show that our format, style, subject matter, reviews, cover material, etc. are in good agreement with what you want. We welcome your general comments, or specific comments on any of our published material, at any time.
