

THE PS ABS ON-LINE SOFTWARE

Michel Arruat, Tanguy Balavoine, Franck Di Maio, Josi Schinzel
CERN, Geneva, Switzerland

Abstract

The ABS on-line software for the PS complex is based on so-called "generic" components that are re-used for a variety of corrections and that are extended following the application domain. These components are implemented as C++ modules bound to dedicated database tables and Mathematica files. The architecture software will be presented and some of these generic components will be described.