“It is my greatest honor to thank you and the

with your philanthropy.”

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Loyola Alumni and Friends,

As we near the end of the year and reflect on all that we have accomplished as a community, I want to thank you for your unfailing support of Loyola Law School. The generous support of the entire law school family enables us to innovate in our programs, support our students, serve our community, and build on Loyola Law School's tradition of excellence.

This year we will open The Loyola Law School Social Justice Clinic, which brings our live-client serving clinics together and back to campus. These clinics serve thousands of the most vulnerable members of our local community and give students critical hands-on experience. You've helped us increase our scholarship support to meet the needs of students and ensure every deserving student can afford a Loyola Law degree. And with your help and support, we are investing heavily in career services and student support. With the help of the alumni community, we ranked second in the state in our students securing full-time, JD required jobs in the legal marketplace.

We have a tremendous amount to celebrate this year. It is my greatest honor to thank you and the thousands of fellow Loyola community members that support the law school with your philanthropy.

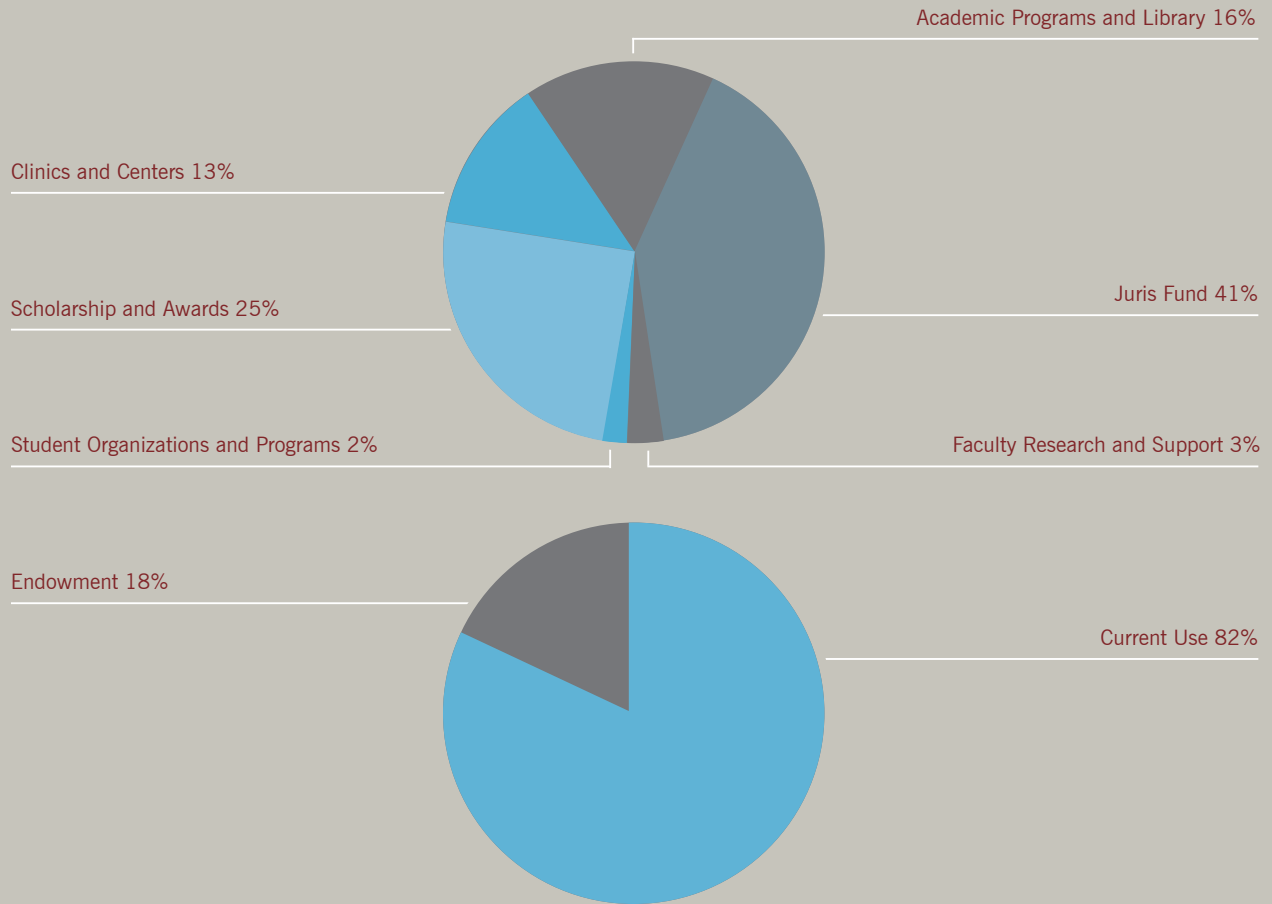

Sincerely,

Michael Waterstone

Fritz B. Burns Dean, Loyola Law School
Senior Vice President, Loyola Marymount University

ADVANCEMENT REPORT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Loyola Law School continues to thrive because of the investment of alumni and friends whose contributions this past fiscal year totaled over $4.3 million in gifts and pledges. Gifts from over 2,400 alumni, parents and family, faculty, staff and friends directly supported Loyola's students and programs.

Donors continue to help our students through scholarship support and contributed over $1 million to scholarships and awards and established six new scholarships to help attract and retain the best students. Donors also gave 14% more than the previous year to Loyola's Juris Fund, which gives the Dean the ability to invest in programs that bolster the student experience through clinical offerings and experiential learning, concentrations, and scholarships.

Alumni and friends also gave to the Loyola Social Justice Clinic, which includes The Project for the Innocent, The Center for Juvenile Law and Policy's three clinics, The Immigrant Justice Clinic, The International Human Rights Clinic and The Loyola Center for Conflict Resolution. The impact of your philanthropy touches not only our students, but also the communities and clients we serve. And with the generosity and passion of leaders in our community, Loyola was able to launch The Tony Coelho Center for Disability, Law and Innovation and The Institute for Public Service.

The class reunion program is in its fourth year and continues to succeed in connecting more alumni to their alma mater and classmates. With the help of over 90 alumni leaders on the Reunion Class Committees, we welcomed over 500 graduates from the classes of 1967, 1972, 1977, 1982, 1987, 1992, 1997, 2002, 2007 and 2012 back to campus in June 2017 to celebrate their respective milestone reunions. Giving from those classes, in honor of their reunions, surpassed $1.4 million in gifts and pledges to the Law School.

Lastly, an increasing number of alumni and friends are joining the Casassa Society by remembering Loyola in their estate plans, creating a profound legacy that ensures Loyola's future is brighter than ever.

We are deeply grateful for every gift and to each of our donors for their loyal support of Loyola Law School.

With gratitude,

JURIS SOCIETY

Alumni and friends who contribute $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund—the dean’s discretionary fund—are recognized as members of the Juris Society. Current students, graduates of the past decade, and current and former members of the bench can become Juris Society members with a gift of $1,000 or more.

These leadership donors play an invaluable role in providing support to the Law School’s most urgent needs with their unrestricted gifts. Members of the Juris Society are invited to unique events throughout the year and to a special reception with the Dean.

EVENING STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION
SCHOLARSHIP

“I was the first in my family to attend college and will now be able to attend Loyola Law School and pursue my dream of a career in law. I am enrolled as a night student and am currently employed full time.”

This scholarship will help me achieve my lifelong dream. I am able to spend more time on my studies and less time concerned about my finances. Because of this opportunity, the financial burden placed on me to pursue my education will be reduced. I hope to be able to pursue a career in real estate law upon graduation.

Thank you again for your investment in the students of Loyola Law School. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Loni Nicole Gonzalez Class of 2020

BIO | Loni Gonzalez grew up in Delray Beach, FL and completed her bachelors at the University of Florida. She moved to Los Angeles in 2013 and is currently employed full-time with a real estate investment trust. In her spare time, Loni volunteers at St. Joseph Center, providing for the needs of homeless individuals and families in the area. In addition to local outreach, Loni also dedicates her time at P.S. Arts events to offer a creative outlet to the children affected by the reduction and elimination of arts programs in California public schools.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Scholarships ensure that students who may not otherwise be able to attend Loyola benefit from Loyola's nationally recognized legal education.

Donors can choose to give to existing scholarship funds or can create a named scholarship. Establishing a named scholarship increases our financial security while helping us address a great student need.

Gifts to endowed scholarships build power as they are pooled with all other current University endowment assets—currently valued over $450 million. The principle is never spent; rather, it remains invested to build strength with market growth. Interest earned on the investment funds the scholarship and the distribution of earnings is generally 5% annually.

One of our favorite events at Loyola Law School is the scholarship reception that brings together donors and recipients. This is one way we can say thank you for your generosity and give scholarship supporters a first-hand account of the enormous impact their gift has on a student's ability to achieve their goals. We thank the following donors for their support of scholarships.

GERALD T. MCLAUGHLIN SCHOLARSHIP

“This scholarship affords me the opportunity to continue to pursue public interest work and attempt to fulfill my goals of making Los Angeles a healthier and greener community for all of its residents.”

It is an honor to be selected as a recipient for the Gerald T. McLaughlin Scholarship for the 2017-18 academic year. This scholarship affords me the opportunity to continue to pursue public interest work and attempt to fulfill my goals of making Los Angeles a healthier and greener community for all of its residents. With your support, I can focus on my legal education and take full advantage of all the opportunities Loyola has to offer. I am absolutely grateful for your support and firmly believe with support like this, we all can all work together to make the world a better place.

Humbly yours,

Joshua Smith Class of 2018

BIO | Joshua Smith was born and raised in Southern California. As an undergraduate at the University of California, Santa Cruz, he majored in environmental studies and political science. After working for environmental conservation non-profits in Hawaii and Orange County, Joshua came to Loyola Law School to pursue a career in environmental law, aiming to expand environmental protection, local sustainability efforts, and become an advocate for environmental justice. Joshua has tailored his legal education to accomplishing his goals, interning for Los Angeles Waterkeeper and the South Coast Air Quality Management District. He has also interned at Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, where he advocated for just and affordable housing for all Los Angeles residents.

BUCHALTER PUBLIC SERVICE
SCHOLARSHIP

“Your contribution is not only making my lifelong dream of becoming an attorney possible, but it also makes my goal of practicing in the field of public interest more attainable.”

Thank you for your contribution to the Buchalter Public Service Scholarship. Your contribution is not only making my lifelong dream of becoming an attorney possible, but it also makes my goal of practicing in the field of public interest more attainable. This scholarship eases my financial burden and is allowing me to participate in pro bono work through the Loyola Immigrant Justice Clinic. Through this clinic, I will be helping a client attain legal status in the United States and serve the immigrant community. I look forward to this learning experience and am eager to help the immigrant community and other underserved communities throughout my career. I will always be grateful for your contribution as it helps me help others. Thank you, again, for your generous gift.

Sincerely,

Michelle E. Polanco Class of 2019

BIO | Michelle Polanco is from Los Angeles. Her experience growing up in a working-class community shaped her desire to be an attorney and help underserved populations. In 2014 she completed her undergraduate studies at the University of California, Los Angeles, which made her the first in her family to obtain a college degree. Following graduation, she served two years as a member in the AmeriCorps JusticeCorps program, where she helped self-represented litigants secure access to the judicial system. Michelle is currently a second-year law student at Loyola Law School where she is a Public Interest Scholar. She is a clinical law student for Loyola’s Immigrant Justice Clinic and the Community Service Chair for the Immigration Law Society.

JACOB U. D'ANGELO MEMORIAL
SCHOLARSHIP

“Along with being a student in the evening program, I also work full-time during the day; needless to say, I fully appreciate the value of this gift and the significant relief it will afford me throughout the school year.”

I am honored to have been chosen to receive the Jacob U. D'Angelo Memorial Scholarship. With your generous contribution, my dream of attending a top law school has become a reality. Along with being a student in the evening program, I also work full-time during the day; needless to say, I fully appreciate the value of this gift and the significant relief it will afford me throughout the school year. I promise to give my full effort in every class, on every assignment, and on every exam.

It is both humbling and inspiring to know that there are people like you in the world, who are willing to offer unconditional assistance to someone in my position. I can only hope to pay it forward and do the same for someone else in the future. In all earnestness, thank you.

Sincerely,

Carlos Lara Class of 2021

BIO | Carlos Lara was born and raised in San Diego. He holds a bachelors in English from the University of California, Los Angeles and a masters in literary arts from Brown University, where he was a fully funded creative writing fellow. Carlos' poetry and translations have appeared in several literary journals, and his first published book, comprised of collaborative experimental prose, was co-written with Los Angeles poet laureate nominee Will Alexander.

Carlos has held a variety of jobs, from English teacher in Saudi Arabia to staff writer and editor for the Department of Defense. He is entering his first-year in the evening JD program, and looks forward to getting involved with Loyola's campus community.

ENDOWED CHAIRS

Appointments to endowed chairs are one of the highest academic honors that a law school can bestow upon members of its faculty.

Those whose generosity leads to the creation of an endowed chair become partners in this endeavor, not just with the current holder of the chair, but also with all future chair holders. The naming of a chair after a distinguished person forever connects that person's name with the work supported by that chair.

“What I value particularly is our strong sense of community and respect for the dignity of every person. This caring for the individual extends to our students, of course, but also fellow faculty and staff of the institution.”

LOYOLA SCHOLARSHIP

“Loyola has provided me with many opportunities to engage with attorneys who address the needs of our local community.”

Thank you for supporting the Loyola Scholarship. Without donors like you, many students would be unable to pursue their goals. The Loyola Scholarship allows me to focus on my studies and pursue my dream of becoming an advocate for those in need. Loyola has provided me with many opportunities to engage with attorneys who address the needs of our local community.

As a second-year law student, my goal is to volunteer at a veteran’s organization. As a veteran, I have seen the unique struggles that those who have served experience and I want to utilize my opportunities to connect with and help struggling veterans. Thank you, again, for your thoughtful and generous gift.

Sincerely,

Sean Drake Class of 2019

BIO | Sean Drake grew up in Encino. At the age of 21, Sean joined the United States Army as an airborne combat engineer. During his time on active duty, Sean served one combat tour with the 27th Engineer Battalion and attained the rank of sergeant. Following nearly four years of service, Sean was honorably discharged and moved back to California, where he served in the Army National Guard as a military intelligence sergeant. During his time with the National Guard, Sean deployed overseas, was promoted to the rank of staff sergeant, and completed his undergraduate degree at Columbia College. Sean is currently a second-year law student at Loyola. He is the treasurer of the Consumer Law Society and is working at a civil litigation firm.

MATCHING GIFTS

Many companies and employers match charitable contributions of an employee or spouse allowing the donor to increase his or her gift. Contact your Human Resources department to inquire about matching gift policies or obtain a matching gift form. The matching gift form should be completed by your employer and submitted with your gift.

ESTATE/PLANNED GIFTS

Planned gifts include bequests, real estate gifts, life insurance, trusts, tangible personal property, closely held stock, remainder in a home, etc. Planned gifts are an extraordinary way for alumni and friends to support Loyola Law School. Each gift qualifies for a charitable tax deduction but also has special rules for placing value on the gifts. If you would like assistance in making arrangements for planned gifts, please contact Thanh Hoang at the address below.

Online or By Telephone

Call us at 213.736.8153 or visit us online at lls.edu/give to make a gift with your credit card.

Gifts to Loyola Law School are tax deductible to the extent allowed by the law. All donors will receive a letter of appreciation that includes a receipt and recognition in the annual Honor Roll of Donors.
