Stephen Wolgast, BA (Kansas St), MS (Columbia), FBS, is Assistant Professor of Journalism and Digital Media at Kansas State University. His previous article examined descriptions of academic dress that students at Columbia published in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. He has been editor of the Transactions since Volume 11.

Burgon Society On-line Bibliography

The aim is to build up a comprehensive resource for those researching the design, history and practice of academical dress.

The Introduction is a brief survey of the key materials on academical dress that are either in print or available in the larger public and university libraries.

The Alphabetical list that follows is intended to cover what has been published on the subject since the beginning of the nineteenth century; earlier items are listed if they include engravings that provide important evidence of robes of the period.

The bibliography grows every year. Suggestions for additions (or corrections)

Bibliography of Academical Dress

compiled by Alex Kerr

This Bibliography is in two parts. The Introduction is a brief survey of the key materials on academical dress that are either in print or available in the larger public and university libraries. The Alphabetical list that follows is intended to cover what has been published on the subject since the beginning of the nineteenth century; earlier items are listed if they include engravings that provide important evidence of robes of the period. Successful dissertations submitted for the Fellowship of the Burgon Society, whether published later or not, are listed separately on the Submissions page of the Research section of this website.

Books

Ackermann's Costumes of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge

Edited by Nicholas Jackson

Published in 2016 by the Burgon Society as the first in a series of important texts on the history of academic dress and related topics. Hardback. 84 pages. Includes 37 plates (34 colour, 3 B&W).

Here are reprinted all the plates of academic dress that appeared in Rudolph Ackermann's two-volume histories of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge published in 1814 and 1815, giving a valuable snapshot of the academic and official dress in use at these Universities at the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Transactions Published On-line for Researchers

While the Burgon Society shares articles published in the Transactions on its web site, researchers unfamiliar with the journal can now find its topics through targeted searches in scholarly databases.

Open access publishing makes the Transactions' articles available through New Prairie Press at no cost and with few restrictions. Digital object identifiers make authors' work easily discoverable in academic searches, with the result of having more than 200 articles downloaded per month, on average, in the ten months since going live in October 2016.

New Prairie Press, hosted by Kansas State University, offers a home for the Transactions and other scholarly publications edited or written by scholars committed to the Articles from the Transactions are published online at <http://newprairiepress.org/burgonsociety/> and remain at the Society's web site, under the Library tab.
