Course Description

The purpose of this course is to help you develop the tools necessary to understand and analyze the behavior of consumers and firms in the marketplace. Many people think economics is about studying stock markets and analyzing data. In fact, economics studies decision-making and provides us with a framework with which to analyze and understand decisions.

Textbook

Acemoglu, Laibson, & List, Microeconomics. The book is intended to complement the material presented in lecture. You will likely find the lectures to be more valuable if you read the relevant material in the book before it is presented in class. The website for the book provides additional materials to support your study. You can purchase a bundle that includes an access code, an e-text, and "value" version of the text at the UM Bookstore. You can also purchase access at Pearson's website.

Course Website

You must register for the course at the link below in order to complete homework. Announcements related to the course will also be posted on this website. Please ensure that the email you use to register with the website is your university email and that you check it regularly.

How to register for the course

1. Go to pearsonmylabandmastering.com and click the Student button, in the Register section.
2. Enter the course ID ⇒ muser89862, and click Continue.
3. If you have an existing Pearson account, Sign in with your existing user name and password.

Attendance

The textbook is not a substitute for lectures and you will be held responsible for all topics covered in lectures. You may not use my office hours as a substitute for class time. While attendance will not be a component of your grade, the exams will focus on topics covered in class.

Grading Policy

The graded coursework will consist of homework assignments and five exams. The first four exams are not cumulative, though the material does build on itself. The final exam will be cumulative. Only your four highest exam scores will count toward your final grade. I will use a traditional grading scale. A=92-100, A-=90-91, B+=88-89, B=82-87, B-=80-81, C+=78-79, C=72-77, C-=70-71, D+=68-69, D=60-67, F=0-59. Your final course grade will be determined as follows:

20%	Homework & Quizzes (MyEconLab)
80%	Exams

Homework

Homework and Quizzes on MyEconLab will be due by 11PM on the assigned due date. Late homework will not be accepted. The two assignments with the lowest percentage scores will be dropped from your homework grade. Problems with registration or any technical difficulties with MyEconLab WILL NOT be an accepted excuse for incomplete homework. It is YOUR responsibility to contact Pearson's technical support with any troubles that you have in a timely manner. The support website may be found at <http://247pearsoned.custhelp.com/> or the MyEconLab help page is at <http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/myeconlab/students/support/technical-support/index.html>

Exams

The first four exams are not cumulative. The final exam is cumulative. No makeup exams will be given. In the case of a missed exam due to emergency situations, the student may be allowed to put the weight of the missed exam on the final exam, provided I am notified as soon as possible and verification of the emergency is provided to me by phone, voicemail, or email, no later than 24 hours after an exam. A missed final due to an unanticipated emergency may be handled with an incomplete for the course at my discretion and in accordance with University policies. Do not take this class if you know that you cannot make one of the scheduled exams.

Exam 1: Friday, September 23rd Exam 2: Wednesday, October 19th Exam 3: Wednesday, November 9th Exam 4: Friday, December 9th Final Exam: Friday, Dec. 16th from 1:10pm-3:10pm

Students with Disabilities

If you are a student with a disability who will require reasonable program modifications in this course, please meet with Disability Services for Students in Lommasson 154 for assistance in developing a plan to address program modifications. If you are already working with Disability Services arrange to meet with me during my office hours to discuss reasonable modifications that may be necessary. For more information, visit the Disability Services website at <http://www.umt.edu/disability>.

Drops and Credit/No-Credit

The University has deadlines and policies applicable to dropping the course and changing your grading option. Request to make changes must be in accordance with University policy and deadlines. In accordance with University policy, students taking the course credit/no credit must earn a D- or better to receive credit.

Academic Integrity

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at <http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/studentconduct.php>.

Students who successfully complete this course will have:

1. A solid foundation in Demand & Supply Theory (including elasticities, market-clearing, shortage, surplus, shifts in demand and supply vs. movements along the curves).
2. The ability to properly identify and use Costs (tradeoffs and choices) in analysis.
3. A solid understanding of the Role of Incentives and Information (pricing, rationality, allocation).
4. The ability to use Marginal Analysis.
5. A working understanding of Comparative Advantage.
6. An understanding of the basic Theory of the Firm (structure, price/output decisions).
7. Exposure to and understanding of Market Efficacy Issues (externalities, market failure, etc.).

The Last Word

Many of you will find this class challenging. It is imperative that you keep up with the material as we move through it. If you find yourself struggling early in the course, come to my office hours with questions. Do not wait until the end of the term to seek help—it will likely be too late.
