Writing Assignments:

- 1) Weekly responses to the mandatory Thursday General Lectures (supplemented by e-mail discussions);
- 2) First paper due Tuesday, February 16;
- 3) Expansion of first paper due Tuesday, March 30;
- 4) A minimum of two responses are required for the four videos shown; and
- 5) Final exam (dates and times listed above).

All assignments must be typed and double-spaced. Late assignments are not accepted without prior approval. Late papers will suffer the loss of a grade per day without prior approval. Thursday's General Lectures are mandatory (either attend at 11 a.m. in ULH or at 7 p.m. in SS352) -- see Fac. Pac. for schedule of speakers/topics.

Grades and Attendance:

Grades are an average of the (1) weekly responses, attendance, class participation, video/performance responses, (2) first paper, (3) second paper, and (4) final exam. Class participation can raise your grade if you are borderline, just as lack of class participation can lower your grade. Absences (more than two) will lower your grade.
