3. WRITING REQUIREMENTS

TYPE and DOUBLE-SPACE all writing assignments. NO LATE PAPERS.

- A. Thirteen in-class lecture quizzes and one outside-class lecture response for which you may use your lecture notes. NOTE: Do NOT summarize a lecture. Instead, respond to some major point the lecturer has made, either paraphrasing or quoting his/her point and then taking it further with your own thoughts. No make-up quizzes. Missing a quiz produces an automatic F; coming late to Friday classes may also forfeit your taking a quiz. Quiz time ends at 20 minutes past the hour.
- B. Your first paper (4-5 pages) will consider a theme, key term, or other consideration(s) in the Odyssey. We will discuss paper topics in class at least a week prior to the due date of Monday, Oct. 9 (at class time).
- C. Your second paper (8-9 pages) will COMPLETELY REVISE your first essay and seamlessly extend its thesis by developing a focal point from a second text. You can choose the latter text from OT or AP Bible selections we've read, or from a Greek tragedy or lyric poetry. You must turn in your original graded essay with this second essay or you will not receive a grade. Each text (Odyssey and whatever second text you choose) should get equal attention, or 4-5 pages of development each. Fifty per cent of your grade on this second essay depends upon how well you understand the verb "rewrite." DUE Monday, Nov. 13, at class time.
- D. Comprehensive Final: Sec. 1, Thurs 12/21, 8-10 AM; Sec. 2, Fri. 12/22, 8-10 AM.

4. GRADES & ATTENDANCE

- A. Grades will be based upon the following four aspects: quizzes and lecture response, first and second essays, and your final. Your attendance and participation in class will also seriously impact your grade.
- B. More than 3 absences and/or persistent tardiness WILL lower your final grade. Grading percentages: Lectures (quizzes & responses), 25%; Essay #1, 20%; Essay #2 (revision/extension), 30%; Final 25%. Since LS151 is a writing course, you are expected to pay serious attention to your writing and to have improved considerably by the time you turn in your last work. These percentages are ALL affected by "B" above—being on time for class, reading the material and participating in class discussions, and catching up on your other homework, your zzz's, breakfast and newspapers elsewhere. Courtesy to your peers is a kindness.
- C. For any students taking a "P/NP" option, a borderline "C" will be required for a grade of "P".
- D. Drop deadline: October 16.
