Trombone Choir Overview:

Thank you for signing up for Trombone Choir this semester. It is my hope that this time will be enjoyable and that you will learn a lot and make valuable progress in your playing, knowledge and musicianship. Rehearsals will function both as a Trombone Studio Class as well as a rehearsal for potential performances throughout the year.

General Expectations, Objectives and Goals:

It is my expectation that you will come to every rehearsal on time, prepared and excited to learn and grow as a musician and trombonist. Trombonists are expected to be a member of the trombone choir each semester they are taking applied lessons. Students will perform at various times during the semester (preparation for juries, UDRP's and/or recitals). Performing in front of your colleagues is an invaluable learning tool. You are expected to attend ANY brass masterclass by FACULTY OR GUEST ARTIST.

Scheduling and Attendance

I might be required to be out of town, or at a rehearsal during one of our regularly scheduled lesson times. If this is the case, I will let you know AT LEAST a week in advance. We will figure out a time to reschedule and/or make up our time. Please be flexible as getting out to regional schools for outreach is very important to the goals and mission of the university and I will be trying to do this as much as I can without impacting your growth.

If you must miss one of our regularly scheduled rehearsals for a compelling reason, please do your best to give me AT LEAST 24 hours of notice.

That being said, I realize that emergencies do happen, so please keep me informed about any issues that might affect your attendance or ability to prepare for our time together. I will do my best to work with you to help you as both a musician and person.

Office Hours:

If you need to get in touch with me, please feel from to call or email any time.

Academic Honesty:

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University of Montana. All Students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/Index.cfm/page/1321.

Materials:

Please bring the following to EVERY Trombone Choir rehearsal:

- Your instrument (in good condition!)
- Any music that I have asked you to prepare for that rehearsal
- Music Stand (everyone needs to read their own part on their own stand)
- A willingness to learn and grow
