CRWR 312A Section 1

Creative Writing: Nonfiction

Spring 2019

Instructor: Robert Stubblefield

Office: Corbin 339

Email: robert.stubblefield@umontana.edu

Phone: 243-5560

Office hours: Monday, 3-5:00 p.m., Tuesday 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., Wednesday 3-5:00, and by appointment.

Classroom: LA 235

Class Meeting Time: T, Th 12:30-3:50 p.m.

Required Text and Materials:

A journal and folder for compiling all exercises and in-class and out-of-class assignments. You will be responsible for photocopying and distributing copies of your workshop essays to each of your classmates. Access to UM Online for announcements, required readings, and discussion forums. Adobe Reader: Available for download at: <http://www.umt.edu/it/support/downloads.php>

Course Objectives:

CRWR 312 is an intermediate nonfiction writing class. We will focus on the craft of nonfiction writing and the components required for a successful essay. We will read, discuss, and respond to a variety of published and anthologized essays, but the primary emphasis throughout the semester will be analysis and discussion of student work. You will be expected to complete two substantial new works of nonfiction during the semester in addition to workshop responses and exercises. You will be responsible for carefully reading the work of your peers and responding both in classroom discussion (workshop) and with typed comments posted online.

Course Requirements:

Writing Exercises:

All writing exercises will be turned in on the date due and must be typed and double-spaced with one-inch margins or submitted online as specified. Exercises will focus on specific rhetorical situations, prompts, and/or craft components or be of a specified length. Keep these in your portfolio upon return.

Journal:

I expect you to keep a journal of dialogue bits, essay ideas, brilliant insights, observations, complaints, whatever you desire. Although I will not ask you to turn in these journals, I will occasionally ask for a typed excerpt (one page or less) of your collected wisdom.

Major Assignments (essays):

You will produce two new 15-20 page essays and perform substantial revision to each over the course of this semester.

Grading/Evaluation:

Grading creative writing is difficult and subjective by nature. You will be graded on your active participation in class, your writing exercises, your improvement from draft to revision, and your attendance. DO NOT MISS MORE THAN TWO (2) CLASSES OR YOUR GRADE WILL BE AFFECTED

- 40% of your grade is based on active participation. Show up prepared, comment on readings and the work of your peers, and contribute to the community of the classroom.
- 30% of your grade is based on successful completion of all writing assignments (including peer responses). Turn these exercises in on time, put some thought into the work, and type and double-space all out-of-class work. You will receive credit for exercises, but not a letter grade.
- 30% of your grade is based on your portfolio consisting of 40-50 pages of nonfiction. Major works must be revised and edited by the end of the semester. Demonstrate improvement and the ability to effectively respond to criticism.

Grade Descriptors:

To give you a sense of what constitutes an A, B, C, D, and F in this class, please refer to the following grade descriptors for participation and portfolios.

Participation Grade Descriptors for CRWR 312

A

Superior participation shows initiative and excellence in written and verbal work. The student helps to create more effective discussions and workshops through his/her verbal, electronic, and written contributions. Reading and writing assignments are always completed on time and with attention to detail. In workshop or conferences, suggestions to group members are tactful, thorough, specific, and often provide other student writers with a new perspective or insight.

B

Strong participation demonstrates active engagement in written and verbal work. The student plays an active role in the classroom but does not always add new insight to the discussion at hand. Reading and writing assignments are always completed on time and with attention to detail. In workshop or conferences, suggestions to group members are tactful, specific, and helpful.

C

Satisfactory participation demonstrates consistent, satisfactory written and verbal work. Overall, the student is prepared for class, completes assigned readings and writings, and contributes to small group workshops and large class discussions. Reading and writing assignments are completed on time. In workshop or conferences, suggestions to group members are tactful and prompt, but could benefit from more attentive reading and/or specific detail when giving comments.

D

Weak participation demonstrates inconsistent written and verbal work. The student may be late to class, unprepared for class, and may contribute infrequently or unproductively to classroom discussions or small group workshops. Reading and writing assignments are not turned in or are insufficient. In workshops or conferences, suggestions to group members may be missing, disrespectful, or far too brief and general to be of help.

F

Unacceptable participation shows ineffectual written and verbal work. The student may be excessively late to class, regularly unprepared, and not able to contribute to classroom discussions or small group workshops. This student may be disruptive in class. Reading and writing assignments are regularly not turned in or are insufficient. In workshops or conferences, the student has a pattern of missing, being completely unprepared, or being disruptive.

All work submitted in this course must be your own and be written exclusively for this course. All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at
