Missoulians Invited To U.M. Moratorium

By BILL VAUGHN

Montana Kaimin Staff Writer

President Robert Pantzer has invited students and Missoula residents to attend lectures at the University today and tomorrow dealing with peace, poverty and pollution.

The two-day "Open University" is part of discussions and protests, sponsored by a coalition of seven Missoula groups. Anti-war protests have been called for tomorrow, Saturday and Dec. 24 by the National Vietnam Moratorium Committee.

Coalition Members

Groups in the coalition are the Ad Hoc Faculty Moratorium Committee; Concerned Citizens of Missoula; Western Montana Scientist Committee for Public Information; Low Income Group for Humane Treatment (LIGHT) and the Combined Low Income Health Committee, both anti-poverty groups; Ecology Action Committee and the Consolidated Coalition of Young People, a group of Heligate High School students.

A symposium on peace, poverty and pollution will be held tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Bitterroot Room of the Florence Hotel. Harnon Henkin, staff writer for Environment Magazine, will begin the symposium with a lecture on the relation between the Vietnam war and the environment.

Peace, Poverty and Pollution

Films dealing with the Vietnam war, poverty and pollution will be shown at 9:15 and 11 a.m., 12:30 and 2 p.m. At 10:30 a.m. a panel discussion on peace will be conducted by E. W. Pfeiffer, zoology professor, Arnold Silverman, geology professor, Meyer Chessin, plant professor and Mr. Henkin.

At 11:30 a.m. a panel discussion on poverty will be conducted by Robert Deaton, associate professor of social welfare, Eldon Baker, associate professor of speech communications, Mason Henderson, associate professor of mathematics, and Sydney Mastintyre, senior in family planning.

William Cregg, assistant vice president of the First National Bank of Missoula, will speak at noon. Clancy Gordon, botany professor, and Chris Field, associate professor of geography, will speak about air pollution in Montana at 1:30 p.m.

LIGHT Representatives to Speak

Representatives from LIGHT will speak about poverty in Missoula on KYLT Party-Line today.

Campus pastors Jon Nelson, William Kilber and David Van Dyck began a two-day fast last night protesting the Vietnam war.

UM Professors to Lecture

Lecturers and their topics tomorrow at UM are Dr. Robert Curry, Health Service director, "The Environmental Crisis," 9 a.m., F206; Richard Behan, associate professor of forestry, "Economic Development and Environmental Quality," 9 a.m., F206; Byron Black, philosophy instructor, "War and World Community," 10 a.m., LA106; Leo Lott, political science professor, "Pollution and Poverty," 10 a.m., HS 207; M. J. Nakamura, microbiology professor, "Poverty and Health Conditions in Latin America," 11 a.m., HS 207; Diane Du-four, home economics senior, "The White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health," 11 a.m., WC 204; Dexter Roberts, English professor, "Persistent Slavery in America," 11 a.m., LA 233; Walter Kostra, forestry professor, "Water Pollution and Sewage Disposal," 2 p.m., G107; Harry Fritz, history instructor, "American Revolutionary Ideas, the Civil War, and the Present," 2 p.m., M115, and William Fisher, education professor, "War and Peace," 2 p.m., LA 303.

The Melting Pot Coffee House, 401 University, will show two films about the Vietnam war tomorrow night at 10.

The Golden Horn Theatre will show three films from the Vietnam war beginning at 1:30 p.m. today and tomorrow.

News in Brief

Air Force Uncovers Officer Club Scandal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON—The Pentagon disclosed yesterday that the Air Force, like the Army, has uncovered alleged irregularities, including money kickbacks, in the operation of some officer and noncommissioned officer clubs, specifically in Thailand.

Secretary of the Air Force Robert C. Seamans Jr. reported the alleged illicit activities have been revealed in an investigation extending back about 18 months.

Mr. Seamans pledged in a memorandum to Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird that the Air Force will "pursue this matter vigorously."

Exhumation Refused

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—A judge refused yesterday to order an exhumation and autopsy on the body of Mary Jo Kopechne, the 28-year-old secretary who died last summer in Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's automobile.

Judge Bernard C. Brominski of Common Pleas Court said testimony at a hearing on the petition by a Massachusetts prosecutor supported the original finding—death by drowning.

The decision clears the way for a Massachusetts court to hold a secret inquest into the accident.

The ruling was a victory for Mary Jo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kopechne of Berkeley Heights, N.J. They opposed an autopsy on grounds it would be "grossly offensive and prejudicial to their wishes."

The judge said that the presence of blood in Miss Kopechne's nose and mouth and on her clothing, as brought out at a hearing Oct. 20-21, did not provide sufficient doubt to warrant exhumation.

Drug Expert Will Speak

David Wilkerson, an ordained minister and author of the book, "The Cross and the Switchblade," will speak in the UC Ballroom tomorrow and Friday nights at 7:30.

In 1958, Mr. Wilkerson organized Teen Challenge, a program established in New York City for the rehabilitation of young drug addicts and delinquents.

Mr. Wilkerson, a native of Indiana, is opposed to the legalization of marijuana, which he considers the "most dangerous drug used today."

Mr. Wilkerson has said of marijuana, "It breaks down resistance to drugs."

The two speeches are sponsored by ASUM Program Council and two Missoula ministerial associations.

New Sound System Approved; Moratorium Participation Urged

Central Board last night approved an allocation for a new sound system and a resolution urging participation in Moratorium Day activities at the final CB meeting of fall quarter.

Mark Mertens, ASUM business manager, moved that $7,794 be appropriated from the ASUM reserve fund to purchase a portable sound system for events in the University Center, University Theater and Harry Adams Field House. The Budget and Finance Committee began investigating the possibility of purchasing a sound system last spring.

Mafia Infiltrates Revenue Service

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — The Mafia has gained control of a "large group" of Internal Revenue Service employees in one state, U.S. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell said yesterday. He said indictments expected in the case within 10 days will "break up the largest gambling syndicate in history."

Mr. Mitchell refused to identify the state, but the Newark News said federal investigations pointed to New Jersey as the strongest possibility.

The attorney general spoke shortly after Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio testified in Newark that he knows reputed Cosa Nostra figure Anthony (Tony Boy) Biorardo. The answer came as the mayor, under subpoena in a federal grand jury probe, took the witness stand to explain to U.S. Dist. Court Judge Robert Shaw in Newark why he had invoked the Fifth Amendment before a grand jury Tuesday.

The mayor, all nine Newark councilmen, a Municipal Court judge and several other city officials were subpoenaed to testify Tuesday. Two reputed Mafia figures also were subpoenaed but failed to appear.

During the closed grand jury session, Addonizio invoked the Fifth Amendment on eight questions, including whether he knew the two alleged Cosa Nostra bosses and whether contracting firms working for the city had paid him or other city officials.

lution to encourage UM students and faculty and Missoula townspeople to "express their views on world peace, poverty and pollution by participating in the Moratorium Day planned activities" today through Monday. Gary Thøgersen, ASUM vice president, and Keith Strong, CB junior delegate, introduced the resolution.

In other business, CB approved four resignations of Montana Kaimin staffers: Charles Johnson, managing editor; Marilyn Pelo, Montana Review editor, and Frank Greco and Jan Davis, associate editors.

CB approved appointments of Frank Greco as managing editor, Mary Lou O'Neill, Montana Review editor, and Robin Tawney, associate editor. The appointment of a second associate editor is pending until further discussion at a special Publications Board meeting today.

Further CB business included approval of the appointments of Beth Eastman, economics senior, as CB senior delegate and Dan Bender, economics junior, as a member of the Budget and Finance Committee. Miss Eastman will fill the vacancy left by Mazurek when he became president.

Sirhan Concludes Fast

SAN QUENTIN, Calif.—An attorney who accompanied Mary Sirhan to an emotional meeting with her fasting son, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, yesterday said afterwards the convicted slayer of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy would end his 13-day hunger strike today.

Lawyer Luke McKissick made the statement after going into the condemned inmates' visiting room with Mrs. Sirhan and her other son, Munir, for a talk that lasted about an hour.

Mrs. Sirhan pleaded with her son to give up his fast and he said he would, Mr. McKissick reported.

Memo Offers Explanation of Pass-Fail Plan

Editor's note: For the benefit of our readers, we publish below the memo on which yesterday's editorial was based, since space did not allow the memo to be printed with the editorial.

MEMO TO: Members of the Faculty, University of Montana.

FROM: A. J. Silverman, Chairman, Admissions, Graduation and Academic Standards Committee

SUBJECT: Recommendation to the Faculty Senate for an undergraduate Pass-Fail System at the University of Montana.

At the December meeting of the Faculty Senate the AG & AS Committee will present a new Pass-Fail proposal for a vote. The proposal is described in detail below. I encourage you to read it and relate your comments, pro or con, to faculty senate members, or come to the Senate meeting and make your views known. The AG & AS Committee is fully aware that such a radical academic experiment at our institution must have the support of the faculty, or it is doomed.

The Pass-Fail proposal is an outgrowth of discussions between the faculty, students and administrators over a period of eleven months. We have also contacted other Universities with similar programs and read evaluations of such programs. As you may expect, there is no universal agreement about the academic merits of a Pass-Fail system. Consistently, two main themes are echoed by students and faculties. The first is that the Pass-Fail program opens up a tight group requirement curriculum and allows the imaginative, explorative study to attempt an education in a system that too commonly offers only minimum training and maximum dogma. In other institutions, the Pass-Fail program has encouraged not only good students, but those of modest academic ability, to strike out in new subjects or advanced courses outside the major.

The other theme is that students use the P-F system only to protest their G.P.A. It is undoubtedly true for many students, as is the prior statement of intent or belief. We believe our students will avail themselves of a P-F program for the reasons stated above, and for many more reasons, perhaps too complex or too simple for the faculty to comprehend.

Should this experimental program go into effect next fall quarter, the AG & AS Committee, with the aid of the registrar, will keep a wide statistical, pedagogical and humane eye on the top of our collective head, so that we may report to the Senate at the end of two years.

Pass-Fail Program for Undergraduates

1. Departments or schools will specify those courses that must be taken for grade by majoring students. Departments may at their discretion determine whether minors may take certain courses within the minor on a P-F basis. All other courses available for pass-fail can be taken on that basis.

2. Each department or school will specify the courses available on the following basis.

- Grade only
- P-F only (recommend that most 100 & 200 level courses be excluded from this category)
- P-F or grade (recommend for most 100 & 200 level courses, as well as upper division courses)

3. F grades earned under the P-F system count in the G.P.A.

4. No restriction on the number of P-F courses taken in a given quarter, provided overload is not involved.

5. All students are eligible to take courses on a P-F basis, except those on academic probation.

6. All students will register for P-F or grade during registration procedure. Instructors will submit grades for all students and the registrar will convert the grades to P-F for students so registered.

For the purpose of the University of Montana, grades of A, B, C, and D shall be considered a P in the conversion.

7. Students cannot change to P-F or to grade once they have designated their status at registration. P-F courses may be dropped under the regular procedure.

Notes:

- The P-F program will begin Fall quarter, 1970.
- The P-F program will be instituted as an experimental program for two years, the end of which time it shall be reviewed by the Faculty Senate.
- The registrar must keep a permanent record of the grades issued to P-F students so that problems and requirements that might arise in change of major transfer may be resolved.
- The University of Montana catalog will be rewritten by the registrar to indicate the nature of the P-F program.

Professor Silverman Believes Media No Trouble for Agnew Compared to His Problem With Montana Kaimin Editorial

To the Kaimin:

I really don't know what Mr. Agnew is complaining about. At least the public had a chance to hear the President before the commentators made their remarks.

I sent the Montana Kaimin editor a copy of my letter to the faculty in the belief that this would be the quickest way to reach a large part of the student body with information that I thought they should have. Instead, what we have is the editor's view (with selected excerpts) of my remarks and almost nothing about the Pass-Fail proposal itself.

I view this as a great disservice to the University community. I am prepared to carry on bravely in spite of Robertson's comments, but most of the students are still in the dark about the Pass-Fail proposal. Please publish the complete text of my letter to the faculty.

ARNOLD SILVERMAN
Professor of Geology
Editor's note: We never received the copy of the proposal Mr. Silverman's letter mentions. The copy on which the editorial was based came from a faculty member who thought the Kaimin might be interested. We waited two days before writing the editorial, hoping that information from the committee studying pass-fail would be forthcoming. It was not.

On page two the pass-fail proposal is reprinted. It did not appear on the same day as the editorial because space did not allow.

Policy on Letters to the Editor

Letters generally should be no longer than 400 words, preferably typed and triple spaced, with the writer's full name, major and class, address and phone number listed. They should be brought or mailed to the Montana Kaimin office in Room 206 of the Journalism Building by 2 p.m. the day before publication. The editor reserves the right to edit or reject any letter.

BOZEMAN (AP) — Big Sky Conference basketball teams face another round of strong non-conference opponents this week, but they should more than hold their own.

Tonight, Gonzaga is a nine-point choice over Mankato State, Idaho over Whitworth by 11, Weber State is a 15-point pick over Southern Colorado and Idaho State is a 20-point underdog to nationally-ranked Purdue.

Friday, Montana State should whip Southern Colorado by seven, Idaho to bow to Washington State by 12 and Montana falls before Oregon by eight.

Saturday, Montana State is a 15-point choice over Boise State, Weber is a 17-point pick over West Texas; Gonzaga is a 10-point underdog at Oregon State, Idaho State will fall to Butler by eight; and Montana's Grizzlies are a 10-point underdog at Washington State.

Migration to Sacramento Begins As Bruins Gridders Lead Way

The UM Grizzlies, coaches and wives left on two planes yesterday afternoon bound for the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento.

An ASUM-chartered plane carrying 183 persons, including ASUM President Joe Mazurek and Vice President Gary Thogersen, the UM band and cheerleaders is scheduled to leave 3 p.m. Friday for Sacramento.

Other flights will also leave Friday from Missoula and Billings carrying 839 Montana fans to Sacramento.

Gary Hughes, manager of the UM athletic ticket office, said his office has sold 1,833 tickets to the 1969 Camellia Bowl. Earl Morgenroth, chairman of the Century Club Camellia Bowl Boosters Committee, said yesterday $11,300 has been donated toward the $12,000 goal set in a fund-raising campaign to finance the ASUM plane.

Michael Frellick, UM Director of special projects, said UM must receive $18,000 to $20,000 in Camellia Bowl television rights and ticket sales to break even on expenses incurred by accepting the bowl bid.

He said UM will receive one-fourth of the money deposited from four regional small-college bowl games into a National College Athletic Association fund. Besides the Camellia Bowl, these games include the Boardwalk Bowl in Atlantic City, N.J., the Pecan Bowl in Arlington, Texas, and the Grandland Rice Bowl in Baton Rouge, La.

The Camellia Bowl will be broadcast on KUFM radio and on KGVO television in color beginning at 2:20 p.m. Saturday. KGVO radio will broadcast the game beginning at 2:15 p.m. Saturday.

NOTICE: Ambassadors

Students who have been selected to participate in the 1969 Student Ambassador program are urged to attend a brief meeting Thursday, Dec. 11 at 7 p.m. in LA 11. Materials necessary for presentations and other information will be distributed at this time only.

Montana Cagers to Face Oregon, WSU

By GARY GUCCIONE
 Montana Kaimin Sports Writer

Bob Cope's Silvertip cagers, 1-2 this season, will take on the University of Oregon and Washington State University in a pair of road games this weekend.

Montana will square off with the Ducks of Oregon Friday in Eugene, and the Washington State Cougars Saturday in Pullman, Wash. Both games will be non-conference tilts and will be broadcast over KGVO radio at 8 p.m.

"I haven't lost confidence in any of our ballplayers," Cope said yesterday. "We have five weeks until we open play against Big Sky teams, and it's just a matter of adjustment and getting the players to work together better."

The University of Oregon, which had a 13-13 record last season, has lost to Florida State 100-84 and Wichita State 97-84 this year.

The Ducks, whose only victory was 60-50 over New Mexico, have won 14 of 17 games against Montana.

Marv Harshman's Cougars opened their season with a 85-69 win over Gonzaga. WSU made it three straight by downing the University of Hawaii twice, 94-83 and 96-80.

The Cougars, who had an 18-8 mark last year, have seven returning lettermen. Guard Rick Erickson and forward Gary Elliot have been Washington's hotshots with 46 points each in three games.

Assistant coach Lou Rocheleau said that the Grizzlies have shown rapid improvement in practice sessions since dropping games to Denver University and Colorado State University last week in Colorado.

DU handed the 'Tops' their first season setback 92-58 on Dec. 3, and CSU beat the Bruins 100-77 the following night.

"We've made some offensive changes for the upcoming games," Rocheleau said. "We were getting pressured too much, and the offense will relieve some of that pressure."

He said the new offense will be of the reaction-type rather than the set offense used previously. The new offense will have both guards out front instead of only one.

Rocheleau pointed out that Montana has a tough non-league schedule and that this will be an advantage for the Bruins when they begin conference action in January.

Starters for Montana in the weekend games will be Dave Gustafson and Harold Ross at guards, Howard Clark or Ray Howard at center, and Willie Flowers and John Harrell at forwards.

Leading scorers for Montana are three games is Flowers with a 14.3 average per game. Harrell with a 13.6 average and Clark with 11.6. Clark leads in rebounds with 31, and Flowers is second with 25.
