Campus Color Pictures, Feature Supplement Song Contest

Sigma Nu and Delta Delta Delta emerged winners of the interfraternity and intersorority song contests last night in the finals at the Wilma theater. Technicolor pictures of university, sorority and fraternity activities were shown between the contest and the feature picture.

Sigma Nu won by out-warbling Phi Delta Theta and Phi Sigma Kappa, and Delta Delta Delta received the cup by defeating Kappa Alpha Theta and Alpha Chi Omega.

Members of the Delta Delta Delta quartet were Ruth Harrison, Deer Lodge; Mildred McIntyre, Worden; Ethel-Claire Kuenning, Missoula, and Pauline Schneider, Sheridan. Josephine Bugli, Missoula, accompanied. The quartet, dressed in black skirts and red blouses, sang a parody on "So You're the One," "Your Tri-Delta Girl" and a medley of popular songs ending with "Montana, My Montana."

SN Singers

Sigma Nu singers were Howard and Marshall Small, Missoula; Glen Marcus and Royal Bown, Valier. They sang "The White Rose of Sigma Nu" and "When You and I were Young, Maggie."

Sue Pigot, Roundup; Dorothy Lloyd, Butte; Doris Morley, Livingston; Helen Lundeen, Poplar; Aline Mosby, Missoula, accompanist, comprised the Theta group. Alpha Chi Omega singers were Dorothy Borcharding, Moore; Grace Wrigley, Deer Lodge; Ruth Plank, Chester, and Lauree Larson, Saco, with Mary Louise Davis, Great Falls, at the piano.

Phi Sig Warblers

Phi Sig singers were James McGray, Garrison, N. D.; Kenneth Obrecht, Cascade; Earl Dahlstrom, Missoula, and Eugene Phelan, Chino. Phi Delta Theta singers were Dean Galles, Billings; Herb Jillson and Robert Staffanson, Deer Lodge, and Quentin Johnson, Harlowton.

A touch of comedy was added when Walt Millar, Butte, Sentinel editor, tried unsuccessfully several times to get pictures of the singers but was stymied each time when a faulty camera failed to work. He fixed it in time to snap several, however.

John Kujich, Great Falls, Traditions board chairman, was master of ceremonies.

FORMER INSTRUCTOR VISITS SOUTH AMERICA

Andrew Corry, instructor in the English department several years ago, who now is employed by the Rockefeller Foundation, left Washington recently for South America, where he will spend six months investigating Pan-American relations and studying conditions in South American colleges and universities for the foundation.

Contest Winners

Band Pleases Convo Crowd

A triple-tonguing cornet trio captured the attention of yesterday's convocation audience and held it until Clarence Bell led his 80-piece concert band through three choruses of "March On, Montana" to close the hour of colorful music.

Opening with the introduction and three movements of Haydn's "Military Symphony," the band next set up a symphonic background of "Annie Laurie" for Cornetists Art Tuttle, Tecoa, Wash.; Jim McGray, Garrison, N. D., and Bob Langen, Missoula.

Kay Kittendorff, Missoula, sang a soprano solo and Dean Vial, Missoula, followed the band with a trombone solo to complete the program's individual numbers.

IRC Discusses Lend-Lease Bill

International Relations club discussed the lend-lease bill at its meeting in the Journalism building last night. Walter Coombs, Missoula, president, led the discussion and supplemented with a brief outline of the proposed measure.

The bill, he said, is designed to circumvent the Johnson act, which requires foreign governments, who default their war debts, to pay cash for war supplies purchased.

Frosh Discuss Virginia Wolff

Virginia Wolff, eminent English novelist, occupied the attention of the Freshman Reading group yesterday afternoon in the concluding meeting of this quarter.

Earl Christensen, Missoula, spoke informally on "Jacob's Room"; Enolla Campbell, Bonner, on "Night and Day," and others of the group discussed various aspects of Mrs. Wolff's books.

For top supporting roles, Walter Brennan took an "Oscar" for judging in "The Westerner" and Jane Darwell for playing Ma in "The Grapes of Wrath." John Ford, who produced it, was the best director.

Bulgaria was warned that Britain will declare war on her if relations are broken. It is rumored here that Russia has changed her mind about letting Germany come through Bulgaria to get at Greece. Britain and Turkey are in "agreement on all points," and indications are the war in Europe is moving to the southeast.

Bobcats Invade Grizzly Den Tonight, Saturday Minus Suspended Men

"There is no chance," is the laconic wire-reply the Kaimin received from Bobcat Coach Brick Breeden yesterday in answer to a telegram asking about the chances of reinstatement of the seven suspended members of the Bobcat basketball squad before the games with the Grizzlies tonight and tomorrow night.

Dean Gilkey To Address Assembly

Chicago University Man Will Speak at Special Convo Wednesday

Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, dean of the chapel at the University of Chicago, will speak on "Impponderables in Education" at a special convocation Wednesday. He will also speak at a dinner meeting Tuesday night at the home of Rev. Harvey F. Baty, director of the affiliated school of religion.

Dr. Gilkey has for several years been one of the most prominent speakers in the field of student religious problems, both nationally and internationally, Baty said.

Dr. Gilkey received his A.B. (magna cum laude) and A.M. degrees from Harvard and his B.D. degree from Union Theological seminary, New York, in 1908. The seminary awarded him a two-year fellowship for further study at the universities at Berlin and Marburg, Germany, and the theological colleges at Edinburgh, Glasgow and Oxford.

Returning to the United States in 1910, Dean Gilkey became pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist church in Chicago. He continued in this post for almost 18 years. He served as the Barrow's lecturer to the university centers of India in 1924-25.

Gilkey was elected to the board of trustees of the University of Chicago in 1919, and appointed a member of the faculty in 1926. He resigned from the board and his pastorate to become dean of the chapel in 1928, and was appointed associate dean of the divinity school in 1939.

Ford Appoints Three to Board

Mrs. C. F. Ullman, Big Timber; Charles S. Baldwin, Kalispell, and O. B. Horsford, Wolf Point, were appointed members of the state board of education by Governor Sam C. Ford yesterday.

Horsford was named to succeed Howard Gullickson, Billings; Mrs. Ullman to succeed Mrs. Mamie Nance, Birney, and Baldwin to succeed George Gosman, Dillon.

Members of Sluice Box business and editorial staffs will meet at 3 o'clock today in J203.

Breeden dropped the seven men from the squad last week because of training infractions after the State college five gained only two victories in four starts on a trip into Colorado. The defeats were costly, as the Bobcats were driving for their fourth Rocky Mountain conference championship in five years.

Captain Jack Brickley, John Hall and Addison Ferrell head the suspended list. Other Bobcats included in the disciplinary action are Oliver Jacques, Joe May, Fred Rooley and Corry Dogterum.

Revamped Five Wins

The revamped Bobcats split with Colorado Mines in Bozeman last week, easily winning the first contest 47-31, but failed to clinch the conference title the second night, losing 46-45. The Bozeman five retains only a mathematical chance of winning the title.

Coach George Dahlberg expects close and hard-fought contests. Dahlberg, while failing to predict either victory or defeat, said, "The Bobcats always play inspired ball when they meet the Grizzlies. Fired by the support given them after the training incident, the college will give us the toughest games of the year."

THE "M" CLUB DESERVES A VOTE OF THANKS

Every year for the last 16 years the letter-winners of major sports have presented to the school and townspeople the best the campus has to offer in the way of boxing and wrestling in their annual M club tournament. And, every year, those attending have left after an evening's entertainment agreeing that their money was well spent.

This year has been no exception. From the time Announcer John Campbell crawled through the ropes until the trophies and medals were awarded, there wasn't a single dull moment. Congratulations have been given to worthy tasks well done in the past and those who enjoy good amateur boxing and wrestling are eager to congratulate President Tom O'Donnell and his M clubbers for the wonderful job accomplished in staging another tourney.—K. RICHARD WAGNER, NAZI IDOL, MAY HAVE BEEN A JEW

Ernest Newman, music critic for the London Sunday Times and author of a three-volume work about Richard Wagner, has concluded that Wagner is not the son of Friederich Wagner, but of Ludwig Geyer, who became Madame Wagner's second husband. It is generally accepted that Geyer had Jewish blood.

Musically, the matter is unimportant, but politically it is good to know. "Musical America," in commenting on the fact, stated "The issue has a larger present significance than it ever possessed in the past because of the Nazi idolatry of Wagner and the ban that Hitler and his devout 'Aryans' have placed on Jewish music in the Third Reich."—R. :: MY SAY ::

By ENID THORNTON

The university supports, in a mild way, a literary magazine called Sluice Box. The student public pays little attention to it, and attaches little importance to it. Yet its function should be vital.

Sluice Box should serve as a bridge between the people who can write, and the people who want to read. It should serve as an outlet for literary, critical and executive talent and as a means of developing leadership.

It was with these purposes in mind that a few interested students created Sluice Box. They acquired the moral and financial support of the student body, and the literary, artistic, and administrative ability on the campus. To this they added the talent uncovered in writing courses and scientific and social research laboratories, and the wealth of background that the state affords her students.

They produced a good magazine, but they bequeathed it in an unfinished state. They expected Sluice Box to develop into an organ that molds and formulates opinion instead of mirroring and rehashing old ideas. Unless the magazine goes forward in this direction, it is a failure.

So far, Sluice Box has failed because it has not increased maturity of thinking and writing. The standards to which writing must conform could be set by Sluice Box; publication of inferior materials will be prohibited. By refusing to accept shoddy and sophomoric pieces of writing, and by cultivating knowledge and appreciation of good writing, Sluice Box can dictate the level of production on this campus.

From the material available it seems that the campus writers fail to reach the mental and artistic standards that are normal for a university. This failure is the result of a tendency for people who have had four years' training in thinking and writing to leave the work of Sluice Box to sophomores. The function of Sluice Box is defeated because these standards are not being formed and maintained.

Intellectually matured and correctly administered, Sluice Box could easily be a power on the campus. It should be more than mildly supported. The power wielded must, however, come from the campus itself.

Its leaders cannot be chosen by political chance. Its staff cannot be mustered in a hunt for Spur points. Its material must be from the best thinkers and writers on the campus. Publication of Sluice Box must be a means to an end, not an end in itself.

Social Workers Discuss Voluntary Service Fields

Virginia Gisborne and Camilla Salisbury, Missoula, Volunteer Service workers, and Sally Fellows, Great Falls; Betty Ratcliff, Hot Springs; Jean Knapp, Wilsall, and Estella Graham, Missoula, Social Work lab members, led the discussion of voluntary service fields at the Social Work lab class conference meeting in Craig hall, Tuesday.

Group members, under the chairmanship of Miss Fellows, discussed their particular fields in relation to the type of work carried on, results accomplished and the personal benefits derived from leadership.

Tascher Speaks

Dr. Harold Tascher, associate professor of sociology, lab director, stressed the opportunity volunteer service students had to improve their chances of securing jobs after graduation. Lab members decided to keep a file of volunteer workers' project service records which could be used as a reference aid by graduate students.

Miss Ratcliff, class conference secretary, gave a survey of the volunteer service fields in order to give students a better understanding of the organization. Voluntary service workers are divided into six groups to aid local social projects, Miss Ratcliff explained, and listed the groups as follows:

Girl Reserve Leaders

Girl Reserve leaders are Betty Hoppe, Missoula; Eleanor Jaten, St. Ignatius; Lavina Hopkins, Helena, and Marilora Kennedy, Missoula. Triple F club, a social group for Missoula working girls, is the project of Phyllis Miller, Conrad, and Camilla Salisbury and Margery Walker, Missoula.

Campus Congress is in charge of Eileen Deegan, Missoula, and Bill Chebul, Miles City. Barbara Quist, Bozeman; Bob Richards, Valley City, North Dakota, and Loren Foot, Helena, make up the committee. The Ravalli County Research board consists of Bob Casebeer, Malcolm, Iowa; Cecil Smith, Helena, and Bob Milne and Eugene Salisbury, Missoula.

Those helping with play school supervision are Dean Brown, Eureka; Josephine Sullivan, Stevensville, and Donna Nord and Evelyn Towler, Missoula. Warren Reichman, Wilsall, and Eldon Whitesitt, Stevensville, are studying co-operatives.

I'm Right --- You're Wrong

BY K. KIZER

"THE SAME OLD STORY . . ."

After much supplication, my dear colleague came through with a communication on the Breeden vs. Et Al case before the mutual student bodies of Bozeman and Missoula. A definite sense of humor with an equally definite lack of wit, Sports Editor JOE Vranish outlined to us yesterday what the score was on the indexed Bobcats. Not to put in any more of the ad lib embellishments by yours truly than necessary, my pal JOE still seems to think that by using all the proper amounts of persuasion and coquetry adequately mixed and served, that the impregnable Bobcats will remain impregnable to the last. Really I'm sorry, JOE; Dahlberg and his 15-man squad will have something quite definite to say, I'm afraid.

My predecessor last year, Bob Price, captioned a column "Bobcat Turns to Bull" in which he lamented the fact that your predecessor, Bob Spiegel, still owed him a buck bet on the football game. So they both went double-or-nothing last year on the final pair of basketball games and said scribbler from Bozeman still lost. So you see, JOE, I would be quite willing to take your wager on hand-holding with an infirm nurse if it wasn't for bad outstanding debts with accrued interest already incurred by Kaimin scribes in the past. Other than the fact that my girl in Alabama wouldn't let me anyway, it would be fun to cover that bet.

Yes, I do read the papers. I notice where the 'Cats beat Colorado Mines and Ricks college and Weber and a few other schools that one couldn't find in an intercollegiate directory even if one edited it himself. We do admit that the coaching staffs at MSC have done wonderfully well with what they have had to work with. We admit, too, that unless the legislature does something toward further building and repairing on the college campus that pretty soon there won't be any college campus to build or repair.

We do not admit, however, that a decimated Bobcat squad who, at its best was beaten twice by Grizzly cagers have much more of a chance tonight and tomorrow night than I would have drawing to an outside straight. The Grizzlies have four aces and a joker. Jones (remember, who was one of the Jones boys as far as basketball was concerned?) is the joker. The aces are Burgess, Greene, Hall and DeGroot.

I'm really sorry that you are ill and in a prone position. I would like nothing better than to shake your hand and hold your head after the game Saturday night. Believe me, I'd much rather shake your hand than the nurse's, JOE.

I'm game to leave a dead issue at this point. Or, leave an issue dead at this point, depending upon the point of view. Thanks for letting us kids in on the story, JOE. It was a help and, journalistically speaking, we both had a chance to run a couple of good stories on it.

Cubs Will Play Missoula Monday

Missoula high school, perched at the top of the high school Big 16 conference, will tangle with the Cubs in the university gym Monday night.

Keen rivals in the past, Missoula has suffered but three defeats this season and the Cubs have been beaten once.

The Cubs finished at the top of the city league and hold victories over some of the outstanding independent fives in the state.

Coach Barney Ryan will start Leonard Beitia and Ted Harding at forwards, Paul Kampfe will open at center, and Ray Turner and Jack Burgess will start at guards.

Cats to Mix With Bruins For Title

umphs since the college five won the second game of the 1937-38 series. The victories would make the Bobcat record of nine straight of the Golden Bobcat days past history.

The Grizzlies have dominated cage wars over the Bozeman five since Dahlberg took the coaching reins in 1936. Prior to that time the university had won the state championship but four times.

Win Means Three Titles

The silvertips enter the final games needing two games for a season average of .500. A double triumph would give the university three straight titles, with the last two coming as clean sweeps of the Bobcat games.

Jinx Anderson and Don Jorgenson, first-string forwards, were the only regulars remaining on the squad after Breeden swung the axe. Both hard drivers, they form the nucleus of the college attack. Clare Robinson, former Idaho player, took over center duties. Max Stark and Bob Stachwich became the starting guards.

Wendle Scabad, member of the 1938 Cub team, inherited the star substitute job. Scabad, who until now failed to make the traveling squad, copped high-point honors against Colorado Mines last weekend. Toby Nelson and Dick Mizner complete the reserve list.

The Gold Dust twins, Bill DeGroot and Bill Jones, will enter the games neck-and-neck for season scoring honors. DeGroot broke the all-time mark for Grizzly scorers last week against Idaho Southern by running his total to 260, four more than the record. Bill Jones put on a great shooting exhibition by looping 43 points to advance his record to 251 for the year.

Dahlberg will start Chuck Burgess and Bill Jones at forwards. Biff Hall, co-captain, will get the call at center. Bill DeGroot and Rae Greene will open at guards.

Grizzlies Are Two-Up

Playing at full strength, the Bobcats failed to down the Grizzlies on the Bozeman court earlier in the year, dropping the first game 47-42 and the second 50-48.

The Silvertips have not dropped a game on the home floor since losing a close contest to Washington State early in December. Past games on the university court with the Bobcats finds the Grizzlies with 22 wins against 22 losses.

ELIZABETH FEARL HEADS SWIM CLUB

Grizzly Team Will Swim In Seattle Meet

"The Grizzly mermen have the best possibilities for garnering points this week-end in the northern division Pacific Coast conference meet any Montana tank team has ever had," Harry Adams, minor sports director, said yesterday when speaking about the meet in Seattle tomorrow.

Last year Jim King, Missoula, swam for a third in the breast-stroke, and the medley relay team of King; Carl Zur Muehlen, Deer Lodge, and Joe McElwain, Deer Lodge, also took third. King and Zur Muehlen are both making better marks than they did a year ago and sophomore Forbes Bottomley, Great Falls, who replaces McElwain as the sprinter on the relay team, has been swimming close to the Montana sprint records.

Another Grizzly who stands a good chance to take points is Paul O'Hare, Great Falls, distance swimmer. O'Hare shattered his local records both times he appeared in competition here this year.

Washington, usual winner of the meet, will be offered stiff competition from Oregon and Oregon State this year. The two Oregon schools have been performing on a par with the Huskies in earlier season meets and hope to end Washington's long reign of supremacy. Montana, Idaho and Washington State don't stand much chance of winning any events from the coast schools, but the points they take will go a long way in deciding the winner.

Grads Ordered To Nova Scotia

Nick Hottin and Arthur Pearson, '40, have been ordered to the army base in Nova Scotia and will leave Fort F. E. Warren, where they have been stationed, March 1, according to a letter received by the SAE fraternity here.

Varsity Women outshot the Foresters to take a Garden City Rifle association match 712-701 on the ROTC Rifle range Tuesday night. Maribeth Kitt, Missoula, and Robert Conn, Seattle, Wash., tied for top shooting honors with 180 points.

The scores: Varsity Women—Wheeler, 179; Timm, 179; Adams, 178, and Kitt, 180. Foresters—Vailey, 172; Conn, 180; Van Dusen, 175, and Edwards, 174.

Forestry Seniors Will Go On Field Trips April 26

Graduating foresters will leave on their annual western and southern field trips April 26 and will return May 17, T. C. Spaulding, dean of forestry, announced yesterday. Students majoring in range management will go south into Utah, Nevada and Arizona, while students specializing in forest utilization will go west into Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

Spaulding and C. W. Bloom, assistant forestry professor, will accompany students on the western excursion. Melvin S. Morris, associate professor of forestry, and a faculty representative from the botany department will go on the southern trip.

To Visit Stations

Students specializing in range management will visit all range and livestock experiment stations and will make a detailed study of range land in Utah, Nevada, Arizona and southern Idaho.

Seniors on the western tour will observe fire protection work and forest growth in northern Idaho at the Federal Experiment station, Priest river. They will study the magnitude of work in engineering at Grand Coulee dam, and near Rainier National park they will cope with the problem of farm forestry, besides viewing one of the finest and most efficient systems of selective cutting in the entire west, Spaulding said.

Foresters will visit the modern sawmills, pulp and paper plants in Longview, Wash., where they will get their first chance to watch lumber being loaded on ships bound for foreign ports.

Will Study Problems

The travelers will study nursery and forestry production problems at the Wind River Experiment station, Portland, and growth and control of hardwood trees in the Russian river territory, California. In the Sacramento valley, students

AMERICA'S No. 1 SKIER DICK DURRANCE VS. THE STOPWATCH AT SUN VALLEY

He's a little man to look at—but on a pair of "hickories" he's a mighty giant. He's held virtually every major down-hill and slalom title in North America. He smokes... as much as he likes... but note: He smokes the slower-burning cigarette that gives extra mildness and less nicotine in the smoke... Camel.

IT'S SWELL TO GET THAT EXTRA MILDNESS IN A SMOKE AS TASTY AS A CAMEL. THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A CAMEL FOR FLAVOR

AT THE ROUNDHOUSE high up on Sun Valley's famous Baldy Mountain, Dick Durrance (above) takes time out for another Camel. "That Camel flavor is something special," he says. "Never wears out its welcome."

And the answer is Camel's costlier tobaccos in a matchless blend—they're slower-burning!

Try the slower-burning cigarette yourself. Know the supreme pleasure of a smoke free from the excess heat and irritating qualities of too-fast burning... extra cool, extra mild. Enjoy every flavorful puff with the comforting assurance of science that in Camels you're getting less nicotine in the smoke (above, right).

BY BURNING 25% SLOWER than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—Camels also give you a smoking plus equal, on the average, to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!
